The latest colors in Fayal hats, at Mrs. Fowler's.

Trains now run regularly to Indianola, see time table.

Dr. Callender of Cowles, was among our callers last Monday.

The Assessor has been terrorizing the people in these parts of late.

Shall we celebrate the glorious 4th this year? It will soon be here.

The cheapest Fayal hats in the city, can be found at Mrs. Fowler's.

Mr. Frank R. Gump sends the CHIEF to his brother in Sandusky, Ohio.

There has been sufficient rain to start the prairie grass, thank the Lord for that.

Business men find that a free use of printers ink is a good substitute for rain.

Jas. S. Gilham has recently added to his law library $144 worth of new books.

A child of J. L. Miner, two years old, died last Friday and was interred on Saturday.

The expenses of Webster county are estimated at $20,000. Taxes will probably rerch 12 per cent another year.

The first of next week we go to Chicago to witness the great political struggle in the National Republican Convention.

Bro. Jenkens of the Smith Co., (Kan.) Pioneer has purchased a steam engine and will run his printing establishment by steam in the future.

J. B. Piper, traveling agent and correspondent of the Omaha Bee called at the CHIEF sanctum last Saturday while the editor was out.

Illinois has elected a solid Grant delegation and the great General's nomination on the first ballot at the Chicago Convention is assured.

The Arapahoe Pioneer asserts that a boy living seven miles south of Arapahoe fell down a well 160 feet deep, and escaped without serious injuries.

Andrew Jackson spent Monday begging for a proxy to the State Convention but failed to get one, as no one felt inclined to trust a democrat with a vote in the republican convention.

Our old friend John Sabin of Guide Rock, has, we understand, sold his farm to a party just over from Old England, two thousand dollars being the consideration.

Two little boys about ten years old, engaged in a fight on the street last Thursday night, and during the scuffle one cut the other on the head quite severely, with a jack knife.

A thirteen year old son of Mr. Jos. Fogle, living in this county, prepared the ground and planted this spring, one hundred acres of corn, without other assistance than a boy to drop the corn.

Hold your orders for job printing until we return from Chicago the last of next week with a large stock of goods for you to select from. We think we will then be able to make prices a little lower than they now are.

If some one would successfully start the report that ice cream spoiled the complexion and made women bow-legged, it would be thousands of dollars in the pockets of our poor, but love-stricken young men.

A Soldier's memorial service will be held at the school house, in Red Cloud, on Sabbath the 30th inst., at 10½ o'clock A. M. Rev. J. M. Pryse will deliver a discourse appropriate to the occasion. The public, soldiers and citizens are all invited to attend.

The State convention was close, the delegates being pretty evenly divided between Grant and Blaine, but the Blaine men got away with the baggage and succeeded after a sharp fight in electing a full Blaine delegation to the National convention.

The Nebraska Farmer for May is on our table, it is brimfull of valuable information for the farmers, and should be read by every one who tills the soil.

Eugene Dauthett and Al. Sutton whose trial has been in progress in Omaha for a few days past, were both found guilty of burglary and will doubtless get about five years each, in the penitentiary.

Mr. Perkins, of the firm of Besley & Perkins is entirely too buisy to write local advertisements, but wishes us to say that they have on hand a large stock of stoves and hardware that they will dispose of at very reasonable figures.

Mr. Ewing met with an accident last Friday evening that left him a black eye. The horses attached to the buggy attempted to run away, and in making an attempt to stop them he received a blow in the eye from one of the irons in the buggy top.

County Agricultural meeting last Saturday,—not much interest manifested—the prevailing belief among farmers seems to be that it is always best to grow something to exhibit before making arrangements to exhibit it. The present prospect is that corn will be about all there will be to lend attractions to a county fair this coming fall, but we hope for the best.

A pleasant social event of the season was the marriage of Mr. W. H. Whitson and Miss Mabel M. Ritchard, by Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser, on last Thursday evening. A number of the friends of the bride and groom were present and we regret that sickness in our family prevented our being present to take part in the festivities. The happy couple have the well wishes of a host of friends for a long and a useful life, and a calm and unruffled voyage on the matrimonial sea.

A very modest young lady, who wanted a pair of garters, addressed the shopman thus: "It is my desire to obtain a pair of circular elastic appendages, capable of being contracted or expanded by means of oscillated burnished steel appliances, that sparkle like particles of gold leaf set with Alaska diamonds, and which are utilized for retaining in proper poposition the habiliments of the lower extremities, which innate delicacy forbids me to mention."

It might be well enough to recollect that while we are paying what seems to be inordinately high taxes, that the assessments as made the last few years were uncommon low, and consequently the 8 per cent. that we are now paying is not really as much taxes according to the value of property as we paid six or seven years ago when taxes were but 4 per cent. and the assessment three times as high as that of the last few years. This year property is being assessed a great deal higher than formerly and a smaller per cent of taxes on this year's assessment may be looked for.

One of our exchanges speaks of a millinery store kept by a very estimable lady, and says the editor was gratified to see her stocking up for spring trade. The editor says he was never so astonished in his born days as he was when the paper came out, to meet the millinery lady and have her strike him across the brow with an umbrella, and claw his hair with her hand, and tell him he was a liar, and that she would tell his wife. He says he don't know what she was mad at, and he has read the item over a hundred times to see if there was anything in it that was the least bit disrespectful.

An itinerant scamp from Kansas stopped at Cowles last week with his outfit which consisted of an old wagon that could hardly stand alone, three ponies in a similar condition, and a yoke of cattle. The Kansas man being of a christian disposition kindly offered to "swap" his old wagon for a good one, but Mr. Reed, the owner, refused to entertain the proposition and the subject of trade was dropped. The man with the dilapidated wagon, as subsequent events proved, had fully made up his mind that the trade should be consummated, and accordingly, when the other party was asleep he went and hitched onto the wagon that he wanted and left his old rattletrap in its stead, thus proving that the old saying that it takes two to make a bargain, is wholly at fault.

By permission of divine providence, the M. E. church of Red Cloud, will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God; on the 13th of June, at 11 A. M., by Rev. T. B. Lemon. Other ministers will be present and participate in the services. All are cordially invited to attend. JOHN A. DIXON, Pastor.

Frank R. Gump, who was admitted to the bar by the supreme court of the State last week, and who sustained himself so well in a two days' examination, left on Sunday night for his new home at Red Cloud, Nebraska. A number of his young friends gathered at the residence of his parents on 8th street, on Sunday evening, and spent the hours until train time with him. Frank goes west bearing with him the "God bless you" of a host of friends in this city, and they are confident that he will not disappoint them in their expectations. He is a young man of the strictest integrity, of good character and of studious habits. He has the foundation laid for future usefulness, and he will have no one to blame but himself if he does not make his mark in the political and professional history of Nebraska.—Democrat (Ohio) Union.

We are glad to note that the above named young attorney has associated himself with Kaley Bros. in the practice of law, and proposes to become a permanent resident of this city, with which he is well pleased.

"What everybody says must be true," therefore it is proof positive that Kendall's Spavin Cure will cure spavins, splints, curbs and all unnatural enlargements and will remove the bunch without blistering. A certain President of a Theological Institution, convened the students at his room one evening, and said to them that he had observed that they were all growing thin and dyspeptic from the neglect of the matron's not providing herself with J. Monroe Taylor's Gold Medal Soda or Saleratus; the announcement of which caused great confusion. The lady of the house has now provided herself with the Gold Medal Soda or Saleratus, and the students are each growing portly, and are more healthy than ever. Ladies, go and get a paper, and you will never use any other. Depot. 112 Liberty street, New York. All the merchants have it.

W. W. COLE'S GREAT SHOW.

It will be a great relief to amusement-seekers in general to learn that this prince of show managers has entirely revolutionized the hybrid features of canvas exhibitions, and the vast enterpriae which Mr. Cole now owns and controls is beyond a doubt the largest and best organization traveling. Ten years ago this famous show first appeared under its present title, and in its onward march to fame it has absorbed two ordinary concerns, while the proprietor has constantly been adding every available attraction until it has assumed proportions almost beyond belief, a fact that has received ready recognition from the public, inasmuch as the receipts thus far have been more than twice those of any previous season. To give a list of the many novelties offered would be onerous indeed, as nearly every part of the world is represented in this cyclopean collection of wonders. Especially engaged and exhibited without extra charge, are the two giants, Capt. and Mrs. Bates, who seem to have been born to tower in this the greatest of all great shows. A troupe of trick stallions, a performing Spanish bull, the great electric light, the largest ox ever bred, and a host of other curiosities are special features. The exercises in the ring will be participated in by the most proficient artists know to the show world, and who acknowledge no superiors; and in this connection we might state that several of the stellar performers, now with Mr. Cole, have deposited large sums of money with responsible parties, inviting a contest for the championship of the world, and as no one dares to cover the stakes, of course they remain the undisputed monarchs of their calling. The zoological marvels are especially noted for their rarity, and the collection embraces every species of the animal family, representing, in reality, every nook and corner of this and foreign countries; amphibious monsters from the salted seas, carnivorous kings of unexplored jungles, and, in fact, a thousand animated things which inhabit the earth, the sea and the air. The street pageant alone represents an outlay far exceeding the entire cost of many pretentious concerns, and is said to surpass anything ever seen in modern times, being of itself a sight well worth miles of travel to witness, and of more consequence than any two ordinary shows in existence. It is a well-known fact that Mr. Cole has banished every objectionable feature from his exhibitions, and nothing is permitted under his canvas that would offend the sense or cause a blush on the cheek of the most fastidious. The American papers speak of the show in the most flattering terms, and frequently aver that it presents more astonishing novelties than its agents advertise, a departure in amusements that is worthy of emulation, and especially is the proprietor commended for the careful attention to the wants of his patrons, and the general cheerfulness which pervades every department of his mammoth show, which is to be in Red Cloud, Monday, June 7th.
