

Our Young Readers.

A RIDDLE.

What is it that has four feet and crawls? ... What is it that has four feet and crawls? ...

Now, perhaps you will say that all this advice is useless to you, because you have all the time you want now, but you must not be deceived, for the world is a great many people who are not so fortunate as you are.

Now, Meta Rose, said Mamma, to the flower-basket, "I will tell you what I will tell you a story."

HOW TO SAVE TIME.

When people say that they are doing this or that, "to pass away the time," they forget that "time is the stuff life is made of."

MEMOIRS.

What this country wants is less politics and more pumpkin-pie. -Elinor Free Press.

It is a pity that the young people of this country make only use of fractions, and not of the whole.

Whatever you have to do, learn first to do it in the best way, and then to do it as little as possible.

Some people keep up a large correspondence by writing letters in their own hands, and others have their letters written by a secretary.

Another help to save time, is the habit of keeping things where they belong, so that you will not waste precious moments in looking for them.

Do not imagine, after all this, that simply being busy is always doing something. It is not.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

THOMAS B. ALDRICH'S "Story of a Bad Boy" has been translated into French, and is being published in a French journal.

WILLIAM BLACK, the novelist, does not go into society much, and talks little, except with intimate friends.

THE BURIAL OF OLD BILL took place August 24, at his residence in Lyons, New York.

A CURIOUS combination of hero worship and commercial patriotism is being manifested in England.

A NEW ATTRACTION.

The day is coming when some sharp-shooter will discover that the sun is not so hot as it is often said to be.

At the end of a series of articles on the tenets of the various countries, Mr. Legoy sums up the conditions favorable to the attainment of great things.

THE CHARITIES which a man dispenses after his death link together, while properly it is apt to scatter them.

THE BRITISH Government is conducting the Government by a Ministry chosen from the strongest party in the House of Commons.

AN OXFORD Museum contains a strange stone. It is composed of carbon, of lime, and of iron.

THE LIFE OF a man is a period of his agricultural history when new varieties of any farm crop were introduced.

THE SISTER.

PERHAPS there is no possession in life like that of a sister—a sort of a soul, to whom one may say one's confidence that it will be as secure as if it were a part of one's own body.
