THE COURT HOUSE TO-NIGHT.

A good deal of wind has been spent over the bridge question already.
The town "cooler" has long remained unused, which speaks well for the town.

bered us in a substantial manner last

TURN OUT AND WITNESS
THE COURT HOUSE THIS (THURSDAY)
EVENING.

The commissioners met last Tuesday to devise ways and means to secure a temporary or a permanent bridge at this place.

Ducks are said to be very plentiful on the river and sloughs at the present time, and our nimrods are having fine sport gathering them in.

Ed. Perkins, the hardware man, has bought a couple of telegraph instruments and will change his telephone line to a telegraph line.

The ferry recently established at the mill suffered a collapse last Friday when the dam went out. We understand it is running again, however.

The Sheriff will notify each Grand and Petit juror, by postal card, that their attendance will not be needed, as there will be no court this month.

If you want to buy a stove cheap, now is your time. We offer our entire stock of Cook stoves, at low prices, to make room for spring goods.

BESLEY & PERKINS.
The Riverton bridge in Franklin county and the Inavale bridge in this county are the only bridges left standing on the Republican river in Nebraska.

More flat boats are now in operation on the Republican river, in the vicinity of where the bridges used to stand, than was ever in use on this river before.

For sudden changes and imprints blizzards, this country takes the rag off the bush—or to express it more delicately, "removes the dilapidated linen from the shrubbery."

Farmers. It will soon be time for you to buy a Wind Mill. Besley & Perkins are agent for the Eclipse.
They guarantee it to be the best mill in the market. Call and see it.

The Burr Oak, (Kan.) Revellie complains that the saloons are running right along in open violation of the laws of that state, and calls upon the authorities to put a stop to it.

The March term of the district court that was to have convened here in this month has been postponed until the fall term which will come in October.
Jurors and others interested will take notice.

Judge Montgomery has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Bloomington Land Office caused by the death of Mr. Dorsey, and the office has opened for business. All who desire to do so can now prove up on their claims, and by calling at the CHIEF office you can have your application papers made out free of charge.

The commissioners were in session last Tuesday and Wednesday trying to devise ways and means by which the Red Cloud and Guide Rock bridges might be replaced. We believe that nothing definite was arrived at, unless it be the conclusion that the county commissioners are powerless to assist in the matter, and the precincts, Red Cloud and Guide Rock, will probably have to bear the burden of replacing the bridges if it is done at all.

We understand that the mention of the Inavale bridge in last week's CHIEF, reflecting somewhat upon the usefulness of that structure was not well received by a portion of the residents in that vicinity. Really, we had overlooked the fact that the animosity engendered between the factions at that place over the location of the bridge, yet exists, or we would not have said anything—not even quoted the words of others, as we did last week, for there is an old story there that ought to heal. Beg pardon gentlemen, beg pardon.

Those who were so highly favored, as to hear the lecture on Tuesday evening last week, by Mrs. M. B. Holyoke, felt that they enjoyed a rich treat.
She has been engaged in the Temperance work for some years; is very able, earnest and convincing in her arguments; her musical talents also added much to the interest of the occasion.

She was unable to get here to lecture on Monday evening, as had been advertised, and owing to previous engagements could not remain longer, but will come at some future time and present another phase of the work.

The Red Cloud Historic Association gave an exhibition at the court house on Thursday evening last week in which the beautiful drama entitled "Among the Breakers" was rendered to the satisfaction and delight of the audience. Owing to the very unfavorable weather the house was not crowded as it otherwise would have been, yet the seats were comfortably filled. We are pleased to be able to announce that the manager has concluded to repeat the performance on Thursday night of this week, and we predict for them a crowded house if the weather is favorable.

Although the enrollment this term exceeds that of the first three months, the average attendance has not been so large. This falling off has been caused chiefly by the severity of the weather; but to some degree it is due to the indulgence of parents in allowing children to remain at home when they should be at school. We earnestly desire the cooperation of patrons to see that their children attend regularly.

Mr. C. M. Barrett had a narrow escape from drowning last week. His horse backed off of a bridge on one of the creeks south of the river and fell with Mr. B. into the water. The horse, a valuable animal, was lost.

Whatever may be said of the retiring president's administration, the fact must be acknowledged that it was freer from corruption and more faithful in the collection and disbursements of government moneys than any of its predecessors. Hays made some mistakes, but it may be that out of them some good has and will yet result. It may be too that it will grow more in public favor as years roll on.—Ez.

A recent writer in a fashionable magazine lays down some very important rules to govern the behavior of women. Fat women, this writer says should never be sentimental, but should stick to dignity, and by all means never giggle. It is awfully vulgar, she says, for a fat woman to giggle. Smiles are becoming, but a sighful demeanor is preferable, tall and slender women may indulge in demureness, and, if their faces are delicate and refined, may safely go to the lachrymiferous point; short and thin women had best cultivate sprightly, alert, quizzical ways, avoiding all attempts at ponderous impressiveness; while the fat little dumplings may undertake babyishness, archness and friskiness.

The sweeping side of prosperity is shown by the immense increase of business in the Patent Office, General Land Office, Pension Office, and other Departments of the Government.

tested Land entries, or other business placed in the hands of Freshbery &

IMPORTANT TO SCHOOL OFFICERS.
From Literary Notes we copy the following official circular of state superintendent Jones, which is of special importance to every school officer in the state. Attention to their duties so clearly defined in this circular, will obviate any trouble or irregularity in the conduct of school matters during the next month, the important month of the school year.

SCHOOL DISTRICT BUSINESS.
The attention of school officers is called to the approaching annual meeting in each district, which must be held on the first Monday of April.

NOTICE.
The director must give written or printed notice of the annual meeting at least fifteen days before, stating day, hour and place of meeting. (See Sec.
21.)

CENSUS.
The director must take the census within ten days before the first Monday in April. If the director is absent or unable, the moderator or treasurer must do it. The census can be legally taken only at this time. (Sec. 46, School Law.)

THE ANNUAL MEETING.
When assembled, should pursue the following order of business, unless special circumstances render some other more convenient.

THE DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

ing; also the number of mills levied by the county commissioners to pay bonds, or for other purposes connected with the schools.

2. The number of mills of tax levied by the district at the last annual meet-
with the schools.

3. Any other item which will be of use to the districts in arranging business for next year.

TREASURER'S REPORT.
The treasurer's report should be read. It should contain, 1. An itemized statement of all moneys received by him during the year and for what received.
moneys paid out during the year and for what.
3. A statement showing money on hand.

4. The total amount of district indebtedness and when each part of it is due.

After this report, the treasurer should present his vouchers for money paid and settle with the board. The full details of this statement should be noted on the director's record for future reference.

ESTIMATES.
The meeting should next determine the number of months school shall be kept during the ensuing year.
(See 23.)

The director should next present his estimates of expenses to be incurred during the ensuing year, including:
