M. L. THOMAS, Publisher. RED CLOUD, - - NEBRASKA

A-SPRING SONG.

O Spring-time sweet! Over the hills come thy lovely feet: The earth's white mantle is oust away, She clothes he self all in green to-day. And the little flowers that hide from the cold Are springing abow from the warm, fresh modd.

O Spring-time sweet!

The whole earth smiles thy coming to greet; bord; Our sweet, strange feelings no room can find;

They wander nice dreams through heart and made for the next pit, giving tongue as I presently asked. mind.

O Spring-time sweet!

meet-The bluchiness and beauty that could not The loves and the love of the buried past-Their fair ghosts rise with the ending of Sucw-The springs and the summers of long ago.

O Spring-time sweet1 For the beauty and blessing that come no

G Spring-time sweet! With cheat hope thy coming I greet; For all that in winter the bright ear h lost Both rise, now-bern, with the ending of frost; Even so shalt then bring me-at last! at last!

.

A RUN FOR LIFE.

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF. getting over the high railings that sur- the hounds were away, and the horse rounded this part of the park. had evidently gone back to the stables.

As I watched them, they appeared to Thither he also mastened, and found his be slowly approaching in my direction, horse; and taking one of his "helps" and to my astonishment, they seemed, with him, he set off in search of the as nearly as I could tell, to be taking hounds. Meanwhile these had followed exactly the same course, which was a up the trail by themselves, with the very erratic one, as I had done. Spell- results mentioned above. The two men bound, I watched them disappear in one role after them as well as they could. of the pits I had visited; and as they having only the sound, and that at vanished from my sight, the music of times very faint, to guide them. The their voices ceased, the sound-waves nature of the ground over which they being intercepted by the intervening were riding obliged them to proceed ground. In a very short time they slowly; and it was some time, probably, emerged from the pit, scrambling up after I had fainted that, instead of the the side just where I had come, and deer they expected to find, they had then hunting on in a compact body, led come upon me hanging by my belt in Our hearts to their inmost dep hs are stirred by one hound, which being slightly the tree. By the list spring flower and the song of the larger than the others, was on that ac- "Would the hounds have killed me count more conspicuous. Slowly they if I had not been able to find shelter?" they came on. Suddenly the thought "Yes; most certainly they would," flashed across my mind-"They have was the old man's reply, "if they had How the old and the new in thy soft hours broken loose, and are hunting me." been left to themselves." The blightness and beauty that could not What was to be done? Here was I, What a narrow escape I felt I had a stranger to the hounds, alone and un- had! But for the refuge of that solitary armed in the middle of a vast heath. tree my life would most certainly have No house or shelter of any kind was been sacrificed. When at length I near. For's moment I was paralyzed; reached my consin's house the reaction but, collecting my thoughts, I began to consequent upon the intense excitement How they once wert dear and falr and com- turn about for some way to escape. of the past few hours had begun, and I No sweetness of words nor of music could tell. That the hounds, if once they came up had to betake myself to bed, where a with me, would attack me I well knew; raging fever detained me for a few The gladness that once made my bosom swell: with me, would allack me I well knew: raging lever detained me for a lew And thou art not the same as the springs of and all thoughts of attempting to resist weeks. During all that period my them were out of the question. Hastily thoughts were occupied with the fear-throwing off the satchel which, full of ful experiences of that day on the moor: boxes and cases, was slung across my and even now, though restored to my shoulders. I buttoned up my coat and former health and vigor, it is not with-started off at a steady trot. My net, tout a shudder that I am able to think which was a strong serviceable one, I of that run for my life. - Chambers' All the hope and the joy and the love of the kept in my hand, thinking it might be Journal.

of use. -From the German, Seanning the very limited horizon carerly to catch sight of any shelter One obstacle, a very general one, in

In my younger days I was an enthu-that could help me. It was clear that mother's want of time. Especially is will be mixed com, which will comsinstic entomologist, and one summer my best chance of safety lay in my be- this the case in households where the mand a lower price in the market vacation I was delighted to receive au ing able to foil the hounds by making mother performs, or helps to perform. than a lot that is of the same kind invitation from a bachelor cousin, Fred them lose the trail. The tales I had the manual labors of the kitchen, along throughout. Vernon, to spend a week or two read in my boyhood of the hair-breadth with her other duties of mother and After procuring an ample supply of with him in a distant county, escapes of ranaway slaves in Cuba wife. With her the days are so filled reliable seed corn of a good variety, Fred was agent to Squire Althorpe, who plashed across my mind, and I sudden- with cares, and herself so weary, the attention should next be given to the owned pretty nearly the whole of the iv recollected that in these stories water little ones are too frequently looked preparation of the ground where the parish in which he lived; and as the almost always played a prominent part. Squire spent a good part of his time To cast my eyes round in search of a something in the way, a hindrance to a enough to plow and harrow it well. away from home, I knew I should be stream was the work of a moment; but, certain amount of work accomplished If there are low places in the field proable to roam about the place very much as may be imagined, on the high ground between each rising and setting of the vision must be made for draining them, as 1 liked, and should therefore have where I was, no stream was possible. sun. But to analyze the sentiment- and for preventing water from collecting ample opportunities of adding to my No time was to be lost, for already the how unthinking and unwise! Time for in them during the season. More corn collection of butterflies and other in- notes of my pursuers sounded clearer cooking and the eating, washing and is lost by water standing on the ground than is usually the case with relations; great a speed, for I knew I should soon the child's body and nourish it with when it is wet. The soil should be in natural or artificial drainage, and if Yor So mea may be too fresh, but eggebut we had somehow lost sight of each become exhausted. The undulating food; but the mind, the soul, the im- s condition to be pulverized as it rolls possible a southern exposure. Impure never - Derest Free Press oher since, and on my part I was very gad of an opportunity of renewing the work for me; but for all that, it was not and unthought of, uncared for and un-At the time of my visit to Blankshire an unmixed evil, as it prevented the hounds, which now gained steadily on Sometimes this incessant hurry and during the entire season. dd friendship.

the Squire was away on the continent: me, from quitting the trail to run by stress and strain of work-and conse- It is a mistake on the part of many and the proper aeration of the blood Danies, attorneys, i.a Crosse, Wis, and apnd on the morning after my arrival sight. On descending a slope, I was de-quent weariness on the mother's part-farmers to suppose that corn is not an Ired, having some leisure time at his lighted to behold a long and somewhat is productive of most disastrous results. I was attached with pain in and below exhaustive crop. Its growth does not and spoiled or insufficient food and since I was attached with pain in and below exhaustive crop. isposal, proposed that we should take winding pool of water. Here, thought She becomes nervous, irritable, unreaa ramble round the park, and thish up I, is my chance; and I immediately sonable and unfit to govern at all. She wheat does in a few seasons, after against. But above all other things of St Jacobs Off quieted the pain activitieved by visiting the Squire's kennels. The made for it. The run was beginning to the inflammation. I regard it as a valuable to the inflammation. I regard it as a valuable to the inflammation. I regard it as a valuable to the inflammation. I regard it as a valuable to the inflammation. park was a magnificent place, fully six tell upon me, and i knew well that the close warm room, sewing and cooking, quantities. Neither does it quickly apextent, and well wood- reduction in my speed, rendered necesed. Grand old oaks, graceful limes sary by my having to wade almost knee- as the day draws to a close, her limbs as is the case with flax and most of the and handsome chestnuts were dotted deep in water, would enable me to re- are weary, her back aching, her tem- small grains. The reason of this is here and there with pictures que irregu-heres and there with pictures que irregu-harity; while on each side of the Hall by, the water was not very deep + little moment and motes appear as mountains. The reason of the soil in the How to make a lawn which shall be were clumps of the finest clusteres L more than a foot--and after the first The floor is clean, the house set in orwere clumps of the finest clusters is more than a foot-and after the first had ever seen, on which for ages past, had ever seen, on which for ages past, vast numbers of rooks had built their vast numbers of rooks had built their rand hard. My progress now was natified away; but the woman is fagged, intervated unstrung. The little ones only slow, but very faujung; and nearer came the hounds. A certain portion of the whole extent, was surrounded with high iron railings, put down to keep in the even about one rooks alout the deep to mes of which there were about one my pursuers even more clearly the for the work of sparse in extent the out down at the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears, of heart works of grass roots occur here and in the course of a few years the change of the best it takes several years to get and the fear that my ruse to my ears, and the fear that my ruse to my ears and the fear that my ruse to my ears in ext. small lake, about twenty acres in ex- to my ears, and the fear that my ruse but a picture of beauty; feel aught but all the ground to be occupied by roots the best it takes several years to get any. quently purchased Durang's kheumster firmed aught but tent, teening with fish, surrounded on all sides by giant trees, and fringed with beds of waving reeds; while farther out into the water were patches of lilies, vellow and white, further out into the sol likes, yellow and white, patches of likes, yellow and white, unraffed surface. On the other side of the park, street. Ing far away inhand, was an extensive heath, geatly undulating, and covered heath geatly undulating, and covered heath are the water. Here, as i hind hoped, heath only for heath to calch, beat too. But let us have charity. It for numerous partridges and hares and rabbits. Altogether, the estate was a perfect sportsman's paradise; while for the naturalist it offered unusual attrac-the naturalist it offered unusual attractions, as being the home of many dif- of stones and try to keep the hounds at portance of example-the effect of her be seen on several following crops depth, richness and composition, and ferent kinds of plants and flowers, and bay until help should arrive. Reflect- own words and acts upon the expand- planted on the same land. In the be worked equally thorough in all parts. REDETAG'S RESEARCH wondersupplying food and shelter to insects of ing, however, that it might be an hour ing and easily-bent minds. Let her East and South, where farmers seek to making the surface well pulverized. full-haing medium in the world. Frie Ec. or two before the kennelman discovered deal fairly and honestly always with make a small amount of manure "go a Then the seed will start and grow even As for the dors I saw at the knnnel, the whereabouts of his lost pack, I gave I have never forgotten them. Each up the idea for the present, and moved significant things. She must not tell the hill. Only that which is thorough-top dressing of manure, and irequently breed had it's own special department, on with all the speed I could muster. them that the medicine is good, or that hy decomposed is employed, as new and cut during the growing season, a good and an assistant to see after it. Much Since losing my trail the hounds had it will not hurt to pick out the thorn, rank manure would be likely to destroy and permanent sod is easily obtained. as the spanicis and setters interested been silent, and I began to flatter my- or make them promises which she does the seed. A furrow is made for hold- The most satisfactory result that I me-for I was a bit of a sportsman as self that they had lost the track, when not intend to fulfill. Children reason, ing the manure, that is dropped at ever obtained was from the following well as a naturalist -I must confess suddenly the recommencement of their or at least perceive, more than we are proper intervals, or an opening is made course in the case of a small lawn or that a pack of splendid bloodhounds cries told me that they had hit off the apt to give them credit for; and it is a for the manure with a hand hoe. This "door-yard," as called in former days: struck me most of all. Their wise. solemn-looking faces, with their grace-on, on I tottered, my head reeling dull child, indeed, that does not soon dull child, indeed, that does not soon discover the difference between equivo-ous, but it is productive of excellent and made as near uniform as possible. fully pendulous ears, as fine and as soft and my eyes swimming with the unas silk, were indeed a study. This pack, wonted exertion. Thoughts of the home goes much farther than precept; and the hill gives the corn an early start even size and thickness and carefully I was told, was not only celebrated for I might never see again floated across that mother who attempts to inculcate and causes its growth in the first part hid them over the whole space, being its appearance, but also for its work. my brain and renewed my failing lessons of truth and charity and self- of the season to be very rapid. The careful to match and lay close up where They were trained to follow a trail, of strength. My pursuers were gaining restraint, while her own life is full of largest corn crops in the country are the pieces joined, so that when the bjeed as well as quadruped, with the fast now, and already no more than a temper and uncharitableness and pre- produced where this manner of apply- whole was finished one would hardly most undeviating certainty; and their couple of hundred yards intervened be-tween us. Presently, a sudden increase child in ways of virtue and honor withmore to check poaching than an army in the music behind-which just then out keeping her own life white and run a light smoothening harrow over ing the sod to have it all alike well set of gamekcepers. While we were ad-me to look round, when I saw that defective, and her hopes fall unfulfilled plants are a few inches high. By so us several tales in illustration of this the hounds had viewed their quar- to the ground. ry, and with heads in the air, And lastly-or rather first, last and killed, and no great injury is done to whole was well watered with a sprink-A few morning after our visit to the were racing on at well nigh double their all the way between-let the mother the growing corn. Some hold that no lor, the result being that we had a kenne's Fred told me, as we sat at former speed. Increasing my pace bear in mind that the object and aim of lasting injury is done the corn. Its ap- good, handsome, smooth sod, well set breakfast, that he had some estate busi- without even looking where I ran, 1 all government is, or should be, to pre- pearance is had for a few days after the with just the sort of grass desired, and pess to transact at a town some miles caught my foot in a tuft of grass and off, which would require him to be nearly fell, turning half round in my ity will last, at most, but a few brief it then improves and generally grows always provided it is properly treated. from home nearly the whole day. I efforts to save myself. could come with him, he said, if I It was a fortunate trip for me; for at

Increasing the Corn Crop.

This winter has been a very unfavorrain, and they have blown in the cracks | kindness as well as its master. readily done by placing them between need removal. layers of cotton batting, or in loose cotton, moistening them, and placing the vessel that contains them in a moderately warm place. If experiments show that a considerable proportion of the corn relied on for seed will not germinate, means must be taken in season to procure a supply that is reliable. This matter should not be deterred to late as to put off the time of planting till beyond the usual period. In this latitude it is necessary to utilize the entire growing season if we wish to obtain a large crop of corn. It is vastly better to give five dollars a bush-

I for reliable seed corn than to plant that of which there is any doubt. Many persons who are careful in their selections of seed corn make up for their want of prudence and foresight by replanting the "missing hills." Common observations show, however, that replanted corn, like chickens that are helped out of the shell, never amounts to much. If it is of the same variety as that which was planted in the first place it is not likely to mature if the season is short. It is a source of gum. The Training of Children. trouble during the season of cultivation and harvesting. If an early variety is selected for the reason that it will mathat might be visible. I saw nothing the way of proper home training, is the ture quickly, the product of the field sects. Fred and I had been at school and clearer, showing that they were the ironing, scrubbing and the sweep- than by any other cause. Land intendtogether, and were much more intimate gaining on me. I dare not run at too ing-time crowded in somehow to clothe ed for corn should never be plowed stables on a gravelly soil with good, truises, burus etc.

HOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

-A domestic animal must be well fed sble one for preserving corn in common and well bedded. But that is not all. cribs. There gas been much snow and It has domestic feelings and appreciates a pipe-stem.

of the cribs and rendered the cora -A New York farmer says that potsmoist. When the grains and cob have to toos make the best mulch for strawbeen wet they have frozen, and the berries. They are free from weed freezing, most likely, has destroyed the seeds, heavy enough not to be blown off germ of the seed. This fact can only and will not pack and smother the plants be satisfactorily ascertained, by testing as straw or hay will sometimes do. In some of the kernels. This may be spring they are so well rotted as not to

-A physician writing to the New cart. York Tribuic says: "All moles and discolorations can be removed with a sunthe pat ent in a clear, strong sunlight; bring the concentraled rays of the sun mole will scale off and new skin come repest till it is."

the trees planted A writer in The Gartogether, and the maples and the sweet besci poole tarough it o. There is no oc-

-Ham with Egg Cake. -Beat up two butter into the pan, poor in the batter ; "Kramanas who you are taking to sir " boiled to rags .- Food and Health.

Ratiway accidents are becoming so nu-

-A young woman, near Greene, Butler WOMAN'S TRIUMPH : County, Minn., while making cake, broke an egg which contained a snake seven inches long and about the size of Sources and "Au, dent," sighed. Mit Fitesit, as she tawned wearly, "there isn't sorthing to occupy one's mind now. I've made tollet cushings and tidles, and embruidered slippers. atal painted majorica jugs, tintil I'm weary of life. I believe I is go down into the kitchen and watch Jane make bread. I suppose ought to know how many pints of yeast it takes to a loaf." And she penetrated the business part of the house only to find out that bread was "raised" Inits the bakes's

"Answer a wall flower?" he asked and glass cosing from $2.50 to $5. Sext also replicit: "No, 1 am a wall any" Then they waltered.

Tenns was a by crowd on the streets Satto bear on the excrescence five or ten unity so big that it was a most impress has minutes. In three or four weeks the toget along. No Gallagher was in a birry to cately a train, but could make on leaving no trace of the navus and progress. He observed however, a man with termins. If the mole should not be en-tirely removed at the first application, a sub-bary single field the first application.

fine combination and contrast effected the eye and waying their tails, it is a sign of

of the other presenting a striking ap- was good for a sate for er it never enad pearance when turned up by the wind or in the sunshine. The alianthus and plater. It so't recommended for layer om-errs well: not into them small squares press. It has been known also, to materia or white bread; add some chopped as at the enter in looking over the paper parsley, pepper and salt, and a fittle torish and whele hatet - Washington for

LIVER FULLS. They care constitution. Mineraneous and terpadity of the liver. Il coute per box. and frizzle brown on one side, then turn fail as indignant parts to a faction how and tinish. Have ready a slice of ham for that? said the youar imperimenses, Sold by RICHARDSON & CO., St Louis, Me AT BALLET MORE

(New Albany Ledger-Standard)

SPRAKING of Governors suggests the mention of an item we received from Mr. Henry A. Knight, Foreman at Chas, Waters & Co.'s Governor and Valve Works, Boston, Mass ; -Horse diseases are more likely to I have used St. Jacobs 0.1 among our emoccur in damp, cold, marshy localities ployees and find that it never fails to cure. than in those that are dry a d warm, The men are delighted with the wonderful hence horses should at least have dry effects of the Oil, as it has cured them of

[Eigin (II.) Daily Leader.]

of the longs that will impair breathing J. A. Daniels, Esp., of Mesars, Singdill & and inclusion, is always permanently curved by the use, It will at all times and under all divergentiateds set in harming with the laws that govern the female system. For the survey Kainey Complaints of either on this

FOR SALE BY DECOUISTS.

BTOMACH

HAIRand Figurent C. O. D. anywatere, Windowska HAIRand Escall. Fries int fire: Goods genarate food. H.C.STRERL 137 Waterah at Chicago.

wa No capital required. Address, while refer

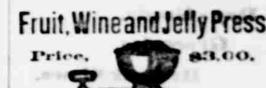

THE ST. LOUIS MIDLAND FARMER an early stage of device passed. The tendency to easi occurs human where is checked very specifity by its tas. It requires faintness, fainlinery, destroys all cristing for simpletic, and relevan waginess of the stonach, it cares Heating, Heataches, Servois Prostration, General Dealiny, Hestjanston, Depression and Intren and chargest Agricultural Monthly. No pro-No gints. We alsopie and photostic for each plice. Rivery Parsate water 11, Excludinghout use MINLAND FARMER, St. Louis, Mo. That foring of bearing fown, eaning pain, weight

PERSONAL T SMITH & CO., Main St. Russes City

LYDIA E. PINKHAN'S VEGETABLE COM-POL ND is prepared at $2 and $5. Wassen Avenue, Lynn, Man, Prov $1. Six betting for $6. Sent by mail in the form of pills, also in the form of incompany on TONE BANEY & CU., 119 Vanish N. X E. prompt of prior, hiper low for either. Him Finkham freelynanewershill others of bujutry. Sumi for paraph-let. Aftrem as shows. Restaus this Paper. No family should be without LVDIA 5. PUNCHARTS

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED ETTERS

> Cares Consumption, Colds, Pneumonia, Inflornza, Branchial Difficulties, Bronchille, Hearseness, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all Diseases of the Breathing Organs. Itstethes and heals Ibd Det brane of the Lungs, inflamed and poistened by Che disease, and prevents the night month and tiple sess across the chest shich accompany it. CON SUMPTION is not an incurable malade. NALL'S BAL SAM will cure you, even though professional aid fails

-Those who plant trees for landscape the first as before, but Galagher had nounce -Those who plant trees for landscape effect should give attention to the they give him a chapte to get about history - hoster grouping of variously colored foliage in Test des speaks, among other effects, of the WESTURN Potenties -When you are two by planting together the copper beech a squall. and the white poplar; the dark, rich leaf of the one and the light, silver-gray Yorso man, don's swearing series or in the sunshine. The allanthus and plaint. It is it sure against lighthing, www-sumach are recommended for grouping imponentiate sgents nor any of the fifs which natiney; stir in with a pinch of baking paine powder and some milk. Put a piece of frizzed, or some cold ham that has been steamed. Never boil your ham; a small piece of a couple or three pounds cut nick and put above the boiling water, will go twice as far as when it has been a condition to work well at any time clean, sweet and airy, and ail affections. The subjoined opinion, we preceive, is by cash a for scenting clathing of a newspace officer, where it is use all in providereading and bular when as hereevery in resting some h could come with him, he said, if I chose; but once at the town, he must a short distance off, on my right, I saw leave me to my own devices; and he leave me to my own devices; and he leave to be to original that I should find it rather dull. but high enough from the ground to With thanks for his offer, I assured afford me a safe resting-place, if only 1 him that I would much prefer an ento- could climb up into the branches before mological expedition by myself on the the dogs reached me. If I had not heath to hanging about the town; but tripped I should have passed this tree must show him good and evil, set be- loosened about the plants for a few it in its place ready to be cut to lengths at the same time I suggested that, if without seeing it until it was too late fore him the benefits to be derived inches on all sides. If there is a defi- and carried where needed. Perhaps I my services would render him any help, to be of service to me, for it was hidden from one course of action, the evils or ciency of light soil some is drawn about should have said that my experiment I would gladly sacrifice my own com- by some higher ground from my view fort to his. With a laugh, he said that until I reached the spot where I nearly and let him occasionally choose for him- worms that are likely to injure corn in - Cor. Country Gentleman.

I would only be in the way if I came fell, and then I was past it. with him; and we settled the matter With the little strength I had left I there and then.

brought round to the door; and, with yond my reach. No time was to be young, or one entirely unaccustomed No matter what improved implement is common in horses, is caused most freparting injunctions to me to go where I lost, for already the hounds were close to this form of control. If he choose used in doing the chief part of the work quently by driving or working the ani-washing dishes, scrubbing floors: and diall child, indeed, that does not soon method of applying manure is labori- The ground was evenly and well worked doing the first weeds that appear are as well. After laying the sods the pare for self-government. Her author- harrow is used, or till a rain occurs, but likely to last, probably, for a lifetime, years, in which she has much to do to rapidly. Very careful farmers go If one has only a limited area this will disadvantages resulting from another. the hill. Care is also taken to kill cut- was made on a rather light sandy loam.

self. Of course judgment must be ex- the earlier stages of its growth. The ercised in reference to what the choice frequent use of the hand hoe in the dashed for the tree; but, to my dismay, is between, and nothing of great mo- corn-field is strongly commended to all

The shortly after his departure, armed I had my butterfly-net, which, provi-to do, the mother must not hold her-used in connection with it or after it less exhausted, and then allowing hits Shortly after his departure, simed in wolderny-net, and with a good-ly store of collecting-boxes for the re-ception of my spoils, I, too, started for a long and solitary ramble across the by dirt of almost sumerhuman exertion

morous that even temperate passengers are offen treated to a smash - Philadennia Chron-1 sele

No Hospital Sceded.

the chilly sensation a genial warmit, regulates the stemach, and imparts tens to the liver. The browin, the stomach and the billary gland being reatored in a braithy condition, the discuss is compared at the sortest. For mis by all Druggins and Draiers gen-CTR.Y. LADY Conversers wanted for a new article.

AGEVIN Wanted in every dir or ington, D. C.

ohnson's COMMERCIAL College.

Ir afflicted with Sore Eves, use Dr Isaac Ir afflicted with Sore Eves, use Dr Isaac TEACHERS WANTED $65 to $150 Thompson's Eye Water. Druggists sell it 25c TEACHERS WANTED per Menth J. C. McCURDY & LO. St. Louis, Ha. THE YOUNG MEN WANTED IN MERITARIA GREAT GERMAN DRUNKENNESS OPIUM HABIT REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM BER CANE MANUAL NEURALGIA. WELL BORING AND POCK SCIATICA. DOMIS A NYMAN, TIPFIN, OHIO. LUMBAGO. Field Marshal March, avr. J. E. Clains, Me. BACKACHE. And LUUN man for E Brand Inderstream Tra for L E W Norras, 6 W Inter Mt., Roston GOUT. SORENESS 07 728 CHEST. SORE THROAT QUINSY. -SWELLINGS 473 SPRAINS. FROSTED FEET AND ... 200 EARS. Rest in the World. Get the genuine. Ev-try package has our Trade-mark and is marked Frazer's BOLD EVERY WREEE. BURNS SCALDS, TOOTH, EAR 433 HEADACHE. OTHER PAIRS 450 ACHES.

Baltimore, Md., U.L.A.

D'BULL'S

Dull pain in the limbs, adules, billoutness, are symp terms of approaching fever and again. Det without de tas Hostetter's Stummen Bistors, which substitutes for

NICHOLS SHEPARD & CO Battle Creek, Michigan,

MANUPACTURESS OF THE ONLY O

THRESHERS, Traction and Plain Engin

and Horse-Pawors. 29 YEARS:

STRAM . POWER

7.500.000 Pert of constantly on hand, from which

NICHOLS, SHEPARD & CO

1

After breakfast, Fred's horse was I saw that the lower branches were beat hand. Suddenly I remembered that I had my butterfly-net, which, provi-dentially and strong and services block to this form of control. If he choose used in doing the chief part of the work used in connection with it or after it here the part of the should be used in connection with it or after it here the part of the store o soning control; and this again into a about the hill. If stones or lumps of obtain them; they can be cut by horsegovernment where the responsibility of hard earth are over the young plants power with an implement adapted for its acts is thrown to a greater or less they are carefully removed. All weeds the purpose, cutting the turf in strips of extent upon the child. The mother and grasses are killed and the soil is even thickness and width, and leaving Founder in Horses.

Founder, a disease that is far too heath. I had been gone, I suppose, by dint of almost superhuman exertion the mother, instead of an arbitrary and stirring the ground between the hills, and perhaps forgetten by the driver, rather more than a couple of I managed, I hardly know how, to despotic ruler, must be ever the consci- but for treating that in the hill itself who may be telling stories, or smoking about here and there in an ap- into the polled head of the tree. I was parently aimless fashion in pursuit only just in time, for, as I reached this Such a mother is sure to lay the foun- horse implement some hills are likely that the animal has not eaten well, and pits, and the various hollows in the the foot of the tree, baying furiously. hood and womanhood for her boys and essary to repair the damage. The in- lameness may be chiefly in one limb, or heath as I came to them, when, on Feeling a deadly faintness creeping mounting some rising ground, the deep over me, I had enough presence of mind notes of a bloodhound were borne left to undo the stout leathern belt I faintly to me by the gentle breeze that wore round my waist, and fasten myself was blowing from the direction of the by it to one of the branches. Then the kennels. As I listened, the sound ap- baying of the hounds, the rustling of peared to grow a trille more distinct, the leaves, and, as I fancied, the blow- In the Legislature of Ohio, some handled. Its use, since the introducthen entirely died away. Think- ing of a horn, were mingled together years ago, there was a warm dispute tion of labor-saving implements, has ing that the pack was out after an es- in a confused murmur, and I swooned. whether a certain proposed railroad caped deer, I did not pay much atten- When I recovered consciousness, I should commence at a given point down tion to what I heard, but proceeded on was stretched on the ground, my head or at a certain other up the river. my way to the next bit of high ground, supported on the knees of the old ken- "Who ever heard." said a down-thewhich, from its elevation, would give nelman; while one of his assistants was river advocate, "of beginning anything me an opportunity of observing in the attempting to pour a little brandy at the top? Who ever heard of building white beans, quarter of a pound fat salt bor. The warm water thins the blood, distance the movements of the dogs. through my clenched teeth. My old a chimney from the top downward? pork, cut into strips, two pounds extends and softens the blood vessels, A brisk walk sufficed to bring me to pursuers were lying on the ground close Who ever saw a house begun at the cracked bones of any kind-ham bones and favors increased circulation. In the top of this spot, and here the deep by, watching the proceedings with sol- top?" mellow voices of the hounds were emn indifference; and a couple of horses Up jumped a Dutch member from an few refuse stalks of celery, three quarts may be necessary, though ordinarily in heard more distinctly, and, as it were cropping the grass a few paces up-the-river county. "Meester Brezi- of cold water, papper. Soak the beans all may be dispensed with. seemed to me, sounded much nearer away. I was soon sufficiently restored dent, de jentlemans zay dat dees beez- night in luke-warm water. In the morn .. Knowing the cause of founder, it will than on the previous occasion. They to mount one of the horses; and, as we nes ecs all von hoomboog, pecause vee ing drain and put them into the pot with be seen that it is much easier to pre-are coming this way. I thought to my- walked slowly home, the old man told vants to pegeen our railroat mit de top pork bones and vegetables. Cook vent than to cure this disease after it self: and straining my eyes in the di- me how it happened that the hounds ov de Shtate, und he make some seely slowly four or five hours, stirring well becomes established. In the first place rection from which the sounds came. I had broken loose. He had taken them combarisons apout de houze und de and often, as beans are apt to "catch" avoid very severe driving and over ertried to distinguish the pack. This out for a run on the heath as usual, he was no easy matter, for the hounds said, when suddenly they appeared to were of a color not readily visible in hit off a trail of some kind. Thinking, de Shtate, ven dey pegins to built von the bones. Everything else who has risked his life in the service of were of a color hot readily visible in the d stance and on the burnt grass of the heath. However, I at last suc-ceeded in making them out, and per-perved that they were alone. This sur-ceived that they were alone. This sur-ceived that they were alone. This sur-ceived that they were alone at a subject of the deer had escaped from the park, he encouraged them to follow up the kennelman always accompanied the kennelman always accompanied the mather that they were out for everything else the scent; and, as he was riding over the kennelman always accompanied the mather the burnt grass of the scent; and, as he was riding over the kennelman always accompanied the mather the burnt grass of the scent; and, as he was riding over the kennelman always accompanied the mather the burnt grass of the scent; and, as he was riding over the kennelman always accompanied the present the scent a rabbit's burrow and fell, the warm blankets. In them when they were out for exercise, throwing him heavily. The old man in the opinion of the legislators, had the Del., is said to have married his aunt, sort, treat the horse just as you would entions doer, the wise and patient there is no implement like the hand a cigar by a warm fire. The next counselor, the sympathizing friend, hoe. In cultivating corn with any morning, if not sooner, it is noticed dation of a useful and honorable man- to be injured, and the hand noe is necgirls, as well as to win for herself a stances are rare that premiums are in more than one. Dr. Cressy, in his tender and lasting place in their hearts. awarded to crops of corn that were not recent lecture before the Connecticut - Winifred, in Country Gentleman. tended in part by the use of the hand or when they were being used to drive was somewhat stunned by the fall; and better of the argument. -Harper's The couple are about the same age, treat the house fast as you would better of the argument. -Harper's The couple are about the same age, treat vourself under like circumstances. back any deer that had succeeded in when he came to himself he found that brawer. I wither being much beyond twenty-one, I New England Farmer.

A Teutonic Argument.

reduced. - Chicago Times.

Board of Agriculture, said that any case hoe. If a hoe is made of good material of founder can be cured if taken within and is kept sharp and bright it is easily | thirty hours of the attack.

The first thing to do is to place the horse's feet in tubs of warm water. been too much neglected, and, as a then blanket heavily, and get the amconsequence, our corn crops have been mal thoroughly warm all over. The lameness is caused by a stagnation of the blood in the feet, caused by being

-Bean Soup.-One pint of dried cooled too rapidly after exhausting la are very good-quarter onion, and a very bad cases, bleeding in the foot

Places Care for Conservingtion Done email.- battle inre-Therefore the changest as well the last. Ball 25c. And $1.00 per bettie AGENTS WANTED FOR OUR

C

The Bost Cough Syrup P