M. I. THOMAS, EDITOR.

THE PRESIDENT IS IMPROVING.

Feelings of Sadness Changed to Those of Joy.

Garfield is Almost Past Danger.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 9, 1 p. m.

The condition of the President continues favorable. Pulse 106, temperature 101, respiration 32. The next bulletin will be issued at 8 p. m.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—At three o'clock p. m. the President was sleeping nice. Everything to-day has been in his favor, and a good night is anticipated.

EXECUTIVE MANSION 6 p. m.—The President has been more comfortable to-day than at any time since he was wounded. His children were permitted to see him this morning and the attending physicians report at 4 p. m.

that he is improving satisfactorily.

None of the attempts at artificial refrigeration thus far tried have met the sanguine anticipations of their inventors and suggestors, but as the weather continues reasonably cool, the President has not suffered much from heat since Thursday. Experiments are still being made with refrigerating apparatus in anticipation of the return of hot weather, which is predicted by

Gen. Hazen.

DEMOCRATIC SYMPATHY.

CLEVELAND, July 9.—The democratic convention of this county, in session to-day, unanimously and heartily adopted the following, offered by Hon.

R. P. Spaulding:

Resolved, By the democratic convention of Cuvahoga county, this Saturday,

July 9, 1881, assembled at Cleveland, that looking upon Jas. A. Garfield executive constitutional president and chief executive officer of the United States of America, we regard attempt on his life as a crime of the most heinous character, that the President be assured of our deepest sympathy with himself and his family in his afflictive dispensation, and that we rejoice to know that under a kind providence the aim of the assassin is likely to be discomfited; that we recommend to congress the enactment of more stringent laws for the protection of the persons of our executive officers at the seat of government.

JEFF DAVIS SPEAKS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 9.—The Courier Journal prints the following:

BEAUVOIR, HARRISON CO., Miss., July 5th, 1881.

MR. FINDLY S. CALKINS.—Dear Sir:

I have received yours of the 4th inst., and thank you for the kind expressions it contained. The evil influences to which you refer and the bitterness felt toward southern men, it may fairly be expected, will give way to the sober sense of the people. If they shall, like yourself, detect the sordid motive for which such sentiments are administered,

I will not, like the telegram you sent in regard to the attempted assassination of the President, say I am thankful the assassin was not a southern man, but will say I regret that he is an American. The crime, black enough in itself, has a deeper dye from the mercenary motives which seem to have prompted it. I sincerely trust the President may recover, and that the startling event will arranged, classified and printed. They will doubtless make several large volumes.

THE CHINESE MINISTER

who has been absent from the city some weeks; sent to-day in his own hand-writing the following:

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Dear Sir—

Having been absent from Washington since May, I was not able to call in person when the attempted assasination took place. I would therefore now request you to convey to the President and his family my deep personal sympathy and that of Mrs.

Young Minny. We pray that the President will recover and be restored to health and strength again. The Chinese government has undoubtedly expressed to your minister in Peking its horror of the terrible event; and its sympathy for the President and his family. It will hail with delight every symptom of the President's improved condition and final recovery. Accept assurance of my personal sympathy with your government. I remain your obedient servant,

YOUNG MINNY.

To Hon. James G. Blaine,

Secretary of State.

Minister White telegraphed from

Berlin to-day to Secretary Blaine: "I am receiving congratulatory articles, letters and telegrams from all classes and parts of Germany upon the President's improved condition.

THE CRISIS IS PAST.

NEW YORK, July 9.—U. S. Senator

W. B. Allison, of Iowa, was found this morning, and in response to a reporter said, "I left Washington yesterday, and can say to you that the opinions of cabinet officers, the attending physicians and all those who have access to the President are that he will recover. Unforeseen complications may arise, but the universal belief is that the crisis is past.
