A NIGHT'S REST. The sun sinks low in red and gold;

The Emperor gazeth west: Thank God, the day is nearly told! Night comes, and I may rest." Already midnight in the room Appointed for his sleep; Barred iron shutters cage its gloom, And stiding stillness keep. Through all the antechambers vast, Bell linked to bed, to bell:

The lightning's chain is forged and cast, To warn him by its spell. With stea'thy footsteps, measured, slow, Silent on pain of death, His hundred guards creep to and fro,

Armed to their very teeth; And in safe hiding-place, at hand By subterrapean way, The fleetest coursers bridled stand, To wait till break of day

'Tis night. The Emperor faints for sleen. ith slow and halting tread, These thresholds which death-vigils keep

A secret spring shuts fast his door; No mortal knows the trick. G fatal sign of fated hour! Fate laughs to hear it click. The sun comes up in red and gold;

-Harper's Weekly. WHAT HE WANTED TO SEE.

O God, what brings the day?

The Emperor waits its ray:
"Thank God, the night is safely told!

A Story of the Sanetum It was nearly noon in our sanctum. All was still except theticking of the clock above the chief editor's desk- away .- Fireside Companion. which clock, by the way, had never been known to keep the right time for the last five years-and the scratch! scratch! scratch! of the pens of our talented and intellectual staff, as said pens traveled quickly over the white paper

Suddenly the door opened. A stranger appeared. It was a stranger of the male species. A mild and apparently innocent stranger, whose clothes, from their general vagueness of fit and inadaptability to form, seemed to have been made by some country carpenter. He orened the door softly and obtruded himself in as if he was not quite certain as to whether or not he had arrived at the right place.

"Good-day," remarked he, with a smile which seemed to embrace the whole office, even down to the barearmed and dirty-faced printers' "devil," who lay complacently sleeping upon a pile of old exchanges, waiting for 'copy," which in his heart of hearts he wished might never be "ready."

Our head editor got up Our head editor took a general reconnoissance of the stranger as he advanced. It was not certa n in our head editor's mind who the stranger was. he might be a new subscriber; he might be the advance agent of a circus; he might be a Deputy Sheriff; or, worse than all, he might have a small bill against one of our staff.

Therefore our head editor, who is a born diplomat, adopted a line of policy which was entirely non-committal. "How are you?" said he. The stranger smiled again.

"Well, thank you," was his reply. "Are you the editor?" Our head editor calculated up the questioner, and replied that he was. This bold avowal was prompted by the fact that our head editor gathered from his calculation that, if needful, he could prove himself the muscular superior of the stranger, or, in vernacular, "lick

The stranger seemed pleased. "Glad to know you," said he; "I have a favor to ask of you." A dreadful suspicion occurred to our head editor. Perhaps the stranger was some long-lost brother, or some fellow quill-driver, who desired to borrow money of him! But the blissful thought that he did not have any money anyway reassured him.

"Well, sir," asked he. The stranger looked around. There seemed a mystery attending his look. He did not appear to be desirous of being observed.

"Oh," whispered he, "I want to see the blood-stained club!"

"The what?" gasped our head editor. "The blood-stained club."

"What are you talking about?" The stranger pulled out a paper. It was a dirty paper, a paper creased and folded, and bearing signs of half a hundred readings. He unfolded the paper so that its heading was visible.

paper?" "Yes, sir."

see the blood-stained club. mockery.

"That's a joke," said he. "A joke?" said the stranger, as if dcubting his ears.

"Yes, sir." "There wasn't any gaunt youth?"

"No, sir." "No poem?"

" No. sir."

" No. sir. blood-stained club?"

brow with a red handkerenief to which "Why, it's a little witch!" The writer washing seemed to be a vague and in- enthusiastically adds that the advanfrequent act.

"Can-can," he hesitatingly said, "I view your grave-vard." "Our grave yard?" questioningly answered our head editor.

"Yes, sir-your private grave-yard." "What do you mean?" The stranger pulled out his copy of our paper again. "On the fifth page," he remarked, "you say: 'One hour ago there lived a man who does not live now. He came on," which has been used for twelve into our office and said. 'It is a years past to carry the money received good day for the race.' 'What race?' for duties from the New York Customasked we. 'The human race,' was House to the Sub-Treasury, has been

"Yes, sir. "Then show me down: I want, as I head editor. "There wasn't any man?"

"No, sir." "He said nothing at all about

"No, sir." "His head is not beneath a rose?" "Not to my knowledge."

"And you haven't any private grave-"No. sir: we don't even own a quar fer share in a tomb-stone.' A gloomy and dark frown gathered over the stranger's face.

"I suppose," said he, got a fighting editor?"
"No, sir." said he, "And that tale of yours, printed upon | Scientific American.

who said he was a howling he has from Hellgate, who came down form Nevada accompanied by two bear cubs and a ly before the public mind. Some two wear and more general use. Three

" Yes, sir." "There's a good deal of joking about newspaper. "Has to be, sir."

"You appreciate jokes?" "Certainly, sir." "I'm glad to hear it," was the stranger's answer, as, with a twinkle in his care-lined eye, he produced a paper from his vest-pocket. He edged toward the door. "You appreciate jokes?" asked he, for the second time. "Yes, sir," responded our head editor, in a wondering way. "Well, sir, I'll show you a great joke.

your bill up. Good-day." Twitch! twitch! twitch! stranger faded sweetly and severely proved a shining hour. As to oleomar-

How Tom Scott Took Service with the Pennsylvania Road.

suit you first-rate," replied Dr. Given.

Thompson. "Thomas A. Scott."

"I will send word to him." exploring the very depths of his pock-

"Young man, what do you want?" around and gazing at this picture. "I believe you telegraphed for me," of embarrassment. "What is your name?" "Thomas A. Scott."

recommended The Chief Engineer, after a long and

"That doesn't make a darned bit of abashed. "I made up my mind to come down here anyway and try you a month, A report made last year by the New and if I liked you to stay, and if I didn't York Inspector, and this year by the I would mighty soon tell you so. Goodday, sir." "Hold on, there," called out Ch'et Thomson, as the young man was walk-

tion than he ever afterward displayed. "Come back here; I guess I will try you for a month," and he tried him for many years afterward. - Philadelphia

Storing Up Electricity. The Faure battery continues to at tract attention in France and England A correspondent of the London Times ourselves known two or three instances his head, denoting that the weater had "The Oshkosh War Whoop," read tells how he carried a box of the stored- in which life has been jeopardized or visited the holy shrine at Mecca. Next he. "This, I believe, is the publica- up electricity from Paris to Glasgo v. lost because of the inertness of a to the follower of Mohammed sat a fulltion office of the Oshkosh War Whoop?" He says: A Faure battery, or pile sec-"Yes, sir," replied our head editor. ond vire, was charged with the electric "Well, here is week before last's fluid direct from the ordinary Grove inspection of drugs is of some service, did not appear to relish his proximity number. In one column you say: 'Yes- battery and in my presence. The reterday a gaunt youth arrived with a ceptacle consisted of four Faure bat- becarefully watched. Quinidia is often solemn Jewish Rabbi, in somber garpoem called 'Spring, spring, beautiful teries, each about five inches diameter sold for quinine. Bromide of potassium ments, separated these from the next spring! He was the first of the brood, and ten inches high, forming a cylin- has been substituted for the iodide. pair, who afforded a striking and and we hope he will be the last. We drical leaden vessel, and containing al. Ipecae is often found adulterated. amusing contrast. This last couple brought out the blood stained club, the ternate sheets of metallic lead and min- Rhubarb in powder cannot be relied were a Franciscan monk, representing club we use for poets, and without a jum wrapped in felt and rolled into a upon without examination. Cream of the Church of Rome, and a Lutheran groan, without a sigh, he sank down - spiral wetted with acidulated water, tartar, if needed for medical use, must m nister, whose dress and appearance dead! Was not that printed in your and the whole placed in a square wood- be carefully tested. Many of the less denoted a strict disciple of Calvin. The en bex, measuring about one cubic foot conspicuous drugs have various forms sharp-featured, close-shaved, sanctiand weighing some seventy-five pounds. "Then, as I said before, I want to This was protected by a loose wooden such grave importance that even those long white serge dressing gown and cover through which the electrodes (in who doubt the extent of food adultera- hood, with a cord girded round his Our head editor laughed. It was lead) protruded, and were flattened tions insist upon a careful inspection waist, sniffed ineffable contempt as the not a merry laugh, but a laugh whose down for convenience of transport, and testing of the chief articles used as prim, dapper little Calvinist, in his accents of glee seemed but a feeble This box of "electric energy" was medicines. We hope that the United short black cassock, took his seat behanded to me by M. Faure, at my re- States will pass some law that will side him. But the contempt was muquest, with the object of submitting it reach all of our foreign drugs, and that tual, for no bigoted follower of John for examination and measurement to we shall have more stringent regula- Knox could have expressed greater the eminent electrician, Sir William tions as to domestic medicines. We scorn for the infamies of the Babylonish Thomson, at the University of Glasgow, commend a careful attention to this women than was depicted on every In about seventy-two hours from the subject at this time, in order that lineament of the severe countenance of

"He did not die, the poor poet, with-out a groan or without a sigh?" intact and potent, holding by measurement within that small space measurement within that small space of one cubic foot a power equivalent to "And, last of all, there was not any nearly one million of foot pounds! This

The stranger reflectively wiped his of which made Sir William exclaim. tages to science and bumanity at large which this discovery (or rather perfection of M. G. Plante's discovery) is destined to afford are of such transcendent importance that we cannot for the present form any correct estimate of their magnitude. The Sub-Treasury Gold Wagon. The little, dingy-looking "gold wagthe fiendish reply. That settled it. He retired from service. Sometimes it is calmly reposing now in our private grave-yard, his head beneath a rose.' made as many as a dozen trips daily, of the skirt. Bows, chateaines, and carrying as much as $80,000 in glitter-large rosettes of ribbon, either of plain ing gold coin each time. The money satin or else richly watered, are on the was usually put up in bags of $20,000 side panels. The basque for such a wilds been traversed by human beings, each, which were placed in heavy dress usually has a surplice vest of the nor did the animals betray the slightest said before, to view your private grave- oaken boxes with massive rod-iron embroidery, and the entire sleeve may handles. These boxes were then put be of the transparent embroidery, or occasion when one of our negroes was "That was a joke, too," said our into the wagon-box, and a lid with else of the grenadine, with a turned-up paddling with his arm in the water an clamps of iron was locked down over flat cuff of this garniture. The back of it. The wagon was pushed like a hand-cart by two Custom-House porters, ac-companied by an armed watchman. whose duty it was to see that the load When embroidery is omitted, Spanish of treasure was not interfered with by lace flounces are placed across the thieves. The little used-up wagon has front and side gores of the skirt, and to have sprung from a number of the carried in its time probably not less the drapery is narrowly confined at the beasts which were imported into Texas than $500,000,000, or about 4.500 tons weight in gold, and the dead weight and strain of the precious freight had rendered it rather rickety and unsafe.

The dead weight back. For very gay dresses for young ladies the terra-cotta shades, olive, or yellow satin Surah is used for the entire foundation beneath the trans-shot-gun, to make you change the polit. Years since Mr. Angell, of Boston, made deep plaitings covering the back ical tone of your paper, and who got some very grave assertions before the breath, with an amply draped apron plastered all over the wall by your fight-ing editor—that is a joke, I suppose, tent of these adulterations. His method a good design for these canvas grenwas somewhat inexact and his manner adines, or else the reverse of this is that of a bold enthusiast. Neverthe- used, having two or three lengthwise less, he succeeded in doing that which plaitings for the entire front, with two s the beginning of most investigation draped breadths behind. A pretty and a reform. He excited controversy. basque for such dresses has the front Eminent chemists, as Morton and Nich- and sides cut off an inch or two below ols and Chandler, controverted his the waist line all around, until the midstatements or doubted their accuracy; dle forms of the back are reached; a but Boards of Trade were incited to ac- deep plaiting (from two to three tion in the line of honest inquiry. fingers deep) then fills out the short-Strong attempt was made to secure ac- ened parts, and meets the middle back tive Governmental movement. Mr. forms, which are folded in two great Angell appeared before the Congres- box plaits, or draped in handkerchief protruded. Of course, when it was sional Committee, and made very posi- points, or else have a long scarf tied in tive statements, which have been spread a sash bow upon them. When a gayer broad cast over the country. The Nation- dress is desired, steel or jet fringes al Board has made somewhat superficial and passementerie are used for trim-My name is Joshua Whittaker. I live examination, and gives the opinion that, ming these plain grenadines, but the way back country. I owe you, I kal- while drugs are largely adulterated, our tasteful choice this season is the heavy kerlate, about two years' subscription common foods are not; also that many embroidery and Spanish lace garniture. arrears for your paper. When I read of the adulterants are harmless to about your blood stained club, and your health, although frauds financially, grenadines are used, those with satin private grave-yard, and your fighting Some of the States, like New Jersey, foundations are chosen, and many editor, I got sorter scairt, and guessed have passed laws as to adulteration. have the figures of plush or velvet. I'd come and pay up. But now that I The New York Legislature has favor- These are made up over satin, but as find out all them is jokes -- sort of illa. ably reported a bill of a similar kind; this makes them heavy, a skirt of sions, as it were-I guess I won't. I'll but it has been chiefly exercised over twilled Surah, or else of the satin just let the bill run for another two glucose and oleomargarine. Glucose, Surah, is preferred where lightness of year. That will be a bully joke, won't although not barmful, is a great weight is considered. Two or three it? You might print it. I'll just tear fraud when compared with cane deep Surah plaitings, each edged with sugar in nutritive value. Many of Spanish lace, make a beautiful trimour sirups and some of our sugars ming for the front and sides of such a The bill fell in a dozen useless frag- are largely glucose. Great quantities skirt. The figured grenaoine is then ments upon the floor, and, while our of honey are upon the market over draped on the back, and is used for the head editor was gasping for breath, the which the busy little bee never im- basque .- Harper's Bazar. garine, its manufacture has become a great industry. No doubt it can be for butter, both in cookery and in table use. If used for the latter purpose, as At this time J. Edgar Thompson had a very high temperature is not used in become the company's Chief Engineer. its manufacture, there is some danger of human nature under the lancet. Talking one day with Dr. Given, for- from the entozoa, some of which are mer Collector of Tolts at Columbia, found in fats and are transmissible to Pennsylvania Rai road, he asked if the fats should not be subjected to high temlatter could recommend to him a man peratures. It seems quite necessary to act as Station Agent at Duncansville, that some system of inspectorship on the Allegheny Mountains, then the should be adopted which will insure western terminus of the road. The right methods of manufacture, and the Station Agent was to have charge of marking of packages so as to distinthe transfer of passengers and reight guish from pure butter. In a late En-between the cars of the Pener, vania glish trial the delendant pleaded that Company and those of the State Road. | the tub was marked "Bosh Butter" on "There was a young man used to one side. The Judge decided that clerk for me at Columbia that would | "Bosh" is an Americanism, not understood by Englishmen, and, therefore, "What's his name?" asked Engineer | did not sufficiently define the oleomargarine. We hope there will be some And he did, and by telegraph, too. as to monopolize legislative influence. his office in Harrisburg when in walked to be remembered that it is an inviting a visitor, who was a picture of mauly | field for the cupidity of men; that the beauty and who bore about him such a world is growing more artistic and breezy air of independence as plainly being furnished with more skillful methindicated that corporation chieftains ods of combination; and that we are not had no terrors for him. His long yel- to expect riddance from such evils except low hair straggled over his shouders, a through rigid law and authorized watchwide-brimmed slouch hat was perched fulness. While harmless ingredients on the back of his head, his pants were are more naturally sought; yet, as in tucked in his boots and his hands were the case of alum in bread, or acids in baking-powders, or colors for effect, the mixer easily convinces himself that small quantities will do no harm. The operated with the New York Board of Trade and with the prem'um offer of prepared so as to serve as a substitute

inquired Engineer Thomson, looking National Board of Health recently cowas the response, in a very clear but the sanitary engineer in forwarding a respectful tone, but with no appearance form of law which was deemed expedient, as not being overstrict or stringent, on the one hand, or too lax, on the other. No one can note the marked "Are you the young man Dr. Given decrease of adulteration which has taken place in England, under a system of public analysis, without feeling that earnest scrut ny of the long hair, the much the same course is desirable here. big hat, the boot-encased pants and The adulterants used and the articles pocket-hidden hands, said suddenly and adulterated will from time to time brusquely, "I don't think you will suit | change; but the practice will continue, unless thus guarded. Most of our cities are so satisfied of the need as to difference," replied the fa'r young man milk that special inspectors are apwith the golden locks, not one whit the reality of the evil is not overstated.

> New Jersey Inspector, presents many facts of importance.

being directed.

Black Grenadine Dresses. Black grenadine remains a standard wonderful box is now deposited in the choice for summer dresses, but this laboratory of the Glasgow University, season the plain sewing-silk grenadines | the experiment that dogs may be pre-"And, as you say, it is all a joke?" and being submitted to a series of tests | with smooth surface will be chosen in | vented from worrying sheep by having preference to all others. The trimming bells, say one to each two sheep, hung for this simple fabric is the r chest em- around their necks. Numerous inbroidery of silk on net in close patterns. | quiries have always, been answered to and this is combined with the showy the effect that dogs have never been Spanish lace, or the less decorative known to attack sheep when belled. A French laces, made in excellent imita- good farmer in Leyden who keeps tions of real thread lace. Fine knife- about a dozen excellent Southdown plaitings of the smooth grenadine are ewes, always belled, was grieved and placed in many rows up the entire front of the skirt. A breadth on each side is had raided his flock, killed two, mancovered with panels of the embroidery, gled others and scattered the rest. On made by placing the two straight edges | collecting his little flock into the yard together, and putting them lengthwise after a half-day's search he found that on the skirt, then surrounding the the tongue was lost from the bell. This whole panel with plaited lace. The was replaced, and never since have his back drapery of the grenadine is usual- sheep been worried. The experiment ly made of two breadths very simply is so simple and cheap that it is worth arranged, and long enough to reach to trying, and this is the time to do it, as the foot, where it meets two narrow sheep with lambs are just going to knife-plaitings like those on the front pasture. - Erchange. satin or else richly watered, are on the

A Pat-up Job on the Passengers.

grenadines so well liked for service are Last Sunday, as the eastern-bound Union Pacific express ran into the little mining town of Hilliard, Wyoming. there was observed a man, who looked as if he had all the bad elements of humanity combined in him, bound tightly to a telegraph pole near the depot, by a rope, and two or three armed sentinels standing guard over him, while a second rope dangled gracefully and signifidistance from this group was another party in the act of burying a dead man, who, they said, had just been cut down from a neighboring pole. The body was almost covered with dirt, and only the dead man's boots and head, which was covered with a coarse gunny sack, fally understood that this kind of procedure was going on the wildest excitement prevailed throughout the train, and a disposition was manifested by some of the "nerviest" passengers to go out and rescue the poor victim from the miners, and in fact an expedition did go out and ask the cause of the When striped, blocked and brocaded high-handed business. They were informed that the two men were notorious horse-thieves, and had infested that region for a long time, but had finally been captured, and were simply undergoing the sentence prescribed for such crime by his honor Judge Lynch. To the philanthropic and humane passengers this seemed barbarism, and they offered all the inducements in their power to save the life of the remaining culprit, and allow him at least a trial by jury. It was wh speced con dentially that the miners liberated their prisoner on a good round sum of ramsom money, and their merciful mission ended, the pas-A Detroit doctor who has vaccinated over five hundred men, women and children in the last two weeks has had heaps of fun in watching the workings | the other thief who passed in his chips | charities, it is said that citizens of Washjust a few minutes before the arrival of "Getting vaccinated" is somehow connected in most minds with getting a eastbound express came through, the move from the city. and then holding a contract with the man. There is no good reason why the tooth pulled, and patients expect to whole thing was given away by the in-

"Quick! Quick! Bring on that laugh-Herald. ing-gas; and then don't be a second putting that lancet into my arm!" A negro was one day observed walking up and down in front of the office for a long time, and the doctor finally stepped to the door and asked him if he wanted to be vaccinated. "Deed, sah, dat's what I cum fur," was the reply, "but the werry minit I called out:

Getting Vaccinated.

turned dat co'ner de blamed fing quit aching!" The favorite exclamation with men when the lancet is felt is "Woosh!" Once in awhile one say "Thunder!" and about one in twenty refers to a land that is hotter than this. Most of the women express their surprise with an "Ouch!" but now and then one yells "Oh, Lordy!" As a rule, the woman all shed tears, and many of them come prepared to faint away; children have to be flattered and coaxed, and it is sometimes necessary to tell them that bears and Indians are always on the lookout for children who haven't been are the rule, but the transit from "Oh, ma. I know he'll kill me!" to, "Say, I pointed. Their experience shows that got vaccinated and never cried but

troit Free Press.

A Mixed Assemblage. The St. Petersburg correspondent of Cider vinegar is now entirely too the London Telegraph describes the scarce an article, and doubtful acids court-room audience at the Nihilist ing from the floor, probably dem- afflict the stomach. There are still trials as follows: "A peculiar feature onstrating more quickness of determination other directions, newer than these, in in the assemblage, and highly illustrawhich the attention of analysts is now tive of the heterogeneous elements composing the Russian Nation, was a group The adulterations which occur to of priests of various faiths, who had been drugs are admitted by all to be of a summoned to admin ster the necessary serious character. If recovery from oaths to witnesses of their respective siekness at all depends upon the use of creeds. Beside a priest of the Greek proper medicines, it is easy to see that Church was a sedate and swarthy a fraud here may be attended with the Imam, clad in flowing robes, with a most serious consequences. We have voluminous white turban folded round preparation, and one of where convul- bearded, long-haired, aquiline-featu ed sions were caused. The United States and dark-complexioned Armenian, who but not alone sufficient. Opium needs to to the sworn enemy of the cross. A of falsification. The subject is one of monious-looking monk, clothed in a time of charging in Paris I had the satisfaction of presenting Sir William straints may be secured—N. Y. IndeThomson M. Faure's "box of electrici Thomson M. Faure's "box holy men sat in close proximity to the drawn swords of the gendarmes guarding the prisoners."

-It is said by many who have tried

-Extract from a book of South American travels: "Never had those lonely wilds been traversed by human beings, fear at our approach; indeed, on one alligator swam fearlessly up and bit it off without displaying the least apprehension.

-Large numbers of camels are said to roam along the Gila and Salt River bottoms in Arizona. They are supposed

In its place a new wagon has been purchased, with solid wheels girt with iron tires half an inch thick, painted a deep blue color, and marked with the sovereign letters "U. S." in front.—

Scientific American.

The entire foundation beneath the transparent grenadine and lace. When the dress is all black, it is necessary to put against smoking on the attreet is still on the statute book of many States, and is of opinion that it should be enforced against cigarette-smoking school boys figures well. The silk square-meshed make inquiries, and in many instances remark that they will wait a day or two. One refused to be vaccinated until he was tied to a chair. Another

"Send for Mother." "Dear me! It wasn't enough for me to nurse and raise a family of my own, but now, when I am old and expected to take a little comfort here, it is all the time 'send for mother.' " And the dear old soul growls and grumbles, but to a Texas pienie he will, for he will dresses herselt as fast as she can, notwithstanding. After you have trotted her off, and got her safely in your home, and she flies around administeryou feel easier. It is right now, or soon will be-mother's come! In sickness, no matter who is there or how many doctors quarrel over your to her younger sister; "you mustn't case, everything goes wrong, some- ask for a second piece of cake. It isn't how, until you send for mother. In trouble, the first thing you think of is send for mother. But this has its lud crous as well as vaccinated. Tears and sobs and wails young couple, to whom the baby's extraordinary grimaces and alarming yawns, which threaten the dislocation passing the school-house and the scholonce?" is as glorious as it is brief .- Dc- plishes with its eyes half open, and no Journal. three or four babies bring, find never have occurred to him .- Rochester that they have been ridiculous and Democrat. given mother a good many trots for nothing. and she fail to come? Never, unless sister, "come and look at the bonfire." your call, so they still do, and will con- Eagle. tinue to do as long as they are able. will send for your mother.

---Influence of a Good Dinner.

The Secretary of the Detroit Limesheep-meat too good for cull'd folks?" several meetings, and failing to agree it | poker on land .- N. O. Picayune. had been agreed to accept the decision of the Limekiln Club.

sarcumstances," replied the Pres dent, case of a lazy, wicked, right-down dat de brain am in a great measure con- Press. trolled by de stomach. I lay one half de rascality of dis world to poor fodder. A man who sits down to a lean table may be his own fault dat he has no betunless it was bo'n in his natur'."

A Romantic Courtship.

Mr. Theodore Stanton, son of the Hon. Henry Stanton, of New York, was married, May 19, at the American Legation in Paris, to Mile. Marie Marguerite de Berry, of Paris. This union was preceded by a romantic courtship. In 1878, when in Paris seeing the Exposition, the happy bridegroom noticed one will not touch them. - Reading (Pa.) day, in the Journal des Debats, that a Eagle. certain young French lady had just taken a degree at the Sorbonne. Curious to investigate this example of first letter, without having made the whisky. acquaintance of his fair correspondent. In the autumn of 1880 he visited Paris | have made no use of it, and never do." again, saw the young lady, fell in love -not with her, but with Mile. de Berry, her friend from infancy, and het constant companion. Now, it happened that these two girls had long before agreed to be married on the same day, and it also happened that Mr. Starton's correspondent had long been engaged to the brother of his intended. So a "But," said the host, "I have not double wedding was the result, and had any." Mr. Stanton's correspondent became his sister-in-law.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

-Miss Mary Anderson has received proposition to appear this season at Drury Lare, London, but has not accepted it.

-Mr. W. D. Howells has agreed to write for Mr. Lawrence Barrett an original play founded on incidents of carly Colonial life.

-Says the London News "American literature has now become so far cantly from the cross-trees. A short | English that it has supplied us with more household words than the literature of any other country except France.

-Louis Kossuth, who is now living in Italy with his unmarried sons, is quoted as saying: "I am literally a man without a country, yet what man ever loved his country more?" In a letter to a correspondent of the Boston Transcript he speaks pathetically of "my dear native land, alas! not my home." -There are four descendants of Willism Penn now living in this country-Dr. Penn Gaskell Skilleon-who still receives from the Pennsylvania Trust Company his income from the Penn estates in Ireland - Colonel Peter Penn Gaskell Hall, and two boys related to the Fenn family through their dead mothers.

-It so happens that five Southern writers will have articles in the July Scribner, including Mr. Cable, Mr. Harris (Uncle Remus), and Mr. William Muriree, who furnishes the text for an illustrated paper on "The Mississippi Levees." It will be a popular descriptive article, with little to say about engineering questions.

-As a recognition of the generous hospitality dispensed by Sir Edward sengers put back to the train with Thornton and his family during the light hearts, and received the hearty thirteen years he has been British Mincongratulations of the whole train, who lister in Washington, and of the active lamented, nevertheless, the sad fate of | part they have always taken in local ington will give them a complimentary

the express. The next day, when the entertainment before they finally re--A German critic, discussing the suffer as much pain. Not more than habitants of Hilliard, who pride them- tendency of his countrymen to exhaust two men out of ten walk square up selves on having successfully carried any subject that they study or write to the rack. They hesitate, hang on, out one of the finest "sells" ever per- about, and at the same time to exhaust petrated. The victim who had been themselves and their hearers, gives so ruthlessly planted, was nothing but some amusing idustrations of the way overalls and a shirt stuffed with straw the theologisms of the fatherland have and a pair of boots. The fellow who labored upon the Bible. Thus a Prof. offered the doctor a dollar extra to give | came so nearly being hung was nobody | Have bach, of the University of Vienna, him chloroform. Scores of them want | but a poor, innocent tramp, whom the | lectured twenty two years upon the first some object to clutch to, and they shut | miners intended to have a little fun | chapter of Isaiah, and had not finished their eyes, grit their teeth, and call up with, and had no intention whatever of when death surprised and carried him sufficient resolution to carry them harming him. But report says that off. Chancellor Ulrich Penziger, of through the operation of having a Hilliard resounded far into the night Tibingen, gave 312 university lectures, broken leg reset. A well known citi- with unrestrained hilarity over the suc- covering a period of four years, upon wise legislat on as to these two articles zen had made two calls and backed cess of their put-up job, until the the prophet Daniel, then lectured twenbefore the trade becomes so enormous out. The third time he came he rushed ramsom money was exhausted. Here- ty-five years on Isa'ab, giving 1,500 lecinto the office, peeled off his coat and after the conductor of the invegled tures, and then taking up Jeremiah, Mr. Thompson was sitting next day in As to less notorious adulterations, it is pushed up his sleeve, and, throwing him- train will not show his head in Hill ard, huished one-half of him in seven years self into a chair, shut his eyes, and as he was one of the rescuing party, and 459 lectures. At that juncture, in fighter, and tough in defease of his rifes after patiently listening and the worse duped of all .- Omaka his eightieth year, death ended his achievements.

HUMOROUS.

-When it comes to descending a ladder, the bravest of us generally back down .- Philadelphia Chronicle.

-"Will the coming man use both hands?" asks an exchange. If he goes have to pull with both hands to get the | but it sounded pretty from Baby May's ips, ticks off. - Texus Siftings.

-"Longfellow wears his frock coat buttoned to the chin." The question boy. ing her remed es and rebukes by turns, now is who sewed that button on the poet's facial extremity? - Louisville Courier-Journal. -"Be a good little girl," said Ed th good for little girls. Beside," she added. "I want it myself." -- Boston Tean- Twenty-five dollars here and twenty there script. -- "What is the meaning of the word its touching aspect. The verdant tantalizing?" asked the teacher. "Please, marm," spoke up little Johnny of its chin, its sleeps, which it accom- ars not allowed to look out-Chicago perceptible flutter of breath on its -A correspondent should always lips, causing the young mother to make it a point to aid to a newspaper imagine it's ead this time, and to communication, "If too long, please shriek out, "Send for mother!" in cut down to suit yourself." This resstones of anguish -this young couple. sures the editor and suggests a way out in the light of the experience which of a possible difficulty which might You'll be all the better off in the end with-

-"Ma," exclaimed the boy, gazing down into the back yard, where the Did any one ever send for mother young lady next door was talking to his sickness or the infirmities of age pre- She came and looked and then exhood, those will ng feet responded to that's a spring bonnet."-Brooklyn

-It has been decided to abolish none vet disregarded, though it will be militia companies. It breaks up the a happy day for her, it will be a dark dignity of an officer's proceedings to and sad one for you, when God, too, suddenly turn a somersault and double his head up under him, so he nearly Archie Berkier. breaks his neck, while the plaguey scabbard takes the hide off his legs .-Boston Post.

-Prof. Atwater says there is no kiln Club announced a communication | more brain food in fish than in butcher's | at heart, but he wasn't going to let any boy from the President of the White Rose | meat; but he does not account for the Debating Club, asking Brother Gardner | superior intelligence of men who are to take sides on the question: "Am able to make their wives believe they catch all the fish they bring home The club had the question before it for after a protracted wrestle with draw. managed? I'd lend you half the money."

-While the circus with the "most beautiful woman in America" was school "I should say dat it was accordin' to parading through Chicago the other day, the absurd cry was raised by a as he removed his spectacles. "In de practical joker: "The $10,000 beauty He says I've not towark hard all my life, has got loose.' The crowd ran away in and I'd better not get into the way of having nigger eben ole bones am too good fur | every direction. Some women fainted, good times; it'd soften me, and I'd not do nigger eben ole bones am too good fur every direction. Some was through a window, so well by and by."

ing small silver coins and a so tickets his stomach. In de case of a good, and one was thrown through a window, "How borrid!" cried Harry, with a shud- to a lottery, were scattered freely squar cull'd man, sheep meat, sirloin | nearly killing a telegraph operator. steaks an' spring chicken am none too | The Chicago people are not accustomed | way." fine; I am a firm believer in de theory to "$10,000 beauties." -- Detroit Free

An Eagle's Appetite.

J. H. Welker, proprietor of the Joe feels mad at de hull world, though it | Hooker House, on Robinson Street, has | an eagle which is fond of feasting on ter. Bring up a chile on co' taters, cats and rats. Boys living in the north- words that almost made up for the disap- dead Princess Sun-an-ta-rhat, as she I've bin right dar'. In de y'ars agone, the proprietor paid liberally for cats, fish as they expected. Joe Bryce had burt few charred bones were tenderly gathwhen I sot down to a dinnah table held and a great many more were brought his hand with a gua-lock, and Harry Blake ered and placed in a gol en urn predown by a few 'taters, a cup of weak | than the eagle could devour. It was was half sick with a cold. Still, they had tea an' a mighty thin slice of bread, I not an unusual thing to see boys after Kane listened to this report with a dry made almost entirely of the lewels of tea an' a mighty thin slice of bread, I not an unusual thing to see boys and the listened to this report who are the dead Prin ess, and a small one refer like robbery an' murder. Gin a school with half a dozen cats in a bag. It winkle in his eyes.

"Two hundred dollars gone in giving ceived the remains of the royal babe. bread an' whateber fixin's come be-tween, an' he will keep cl'ar of crime, to allow the boys to feed any more cats he said. "Well, all the fools aren't dead to the bird, and now buys rats, paying yet. You stick to what you're about, Tow-fifty cents per hundred. "How many rats have you purchased sgain and again as time went on, and first the habit of depositing his funds in the during the past week?" asked the reporter of Mr. Weiker, and he replied, "Seven dozen." The rats are thrown into the cage alive, and the eagle grabs them on the back, pierces them through the vitals, and kills them the same as it did the cats. The rats must be perfect, without being maimed, else the eagle

His Own Coln.

The late Dr. Coleman was once trav-French education, he addressed to the eling in the early wilds of Ohio, and enyoung lady a letter asking for informa- tering a hotel, called for dinner. He tion on the subject. This gave rise to noticed, upon sitting down at table, a correspondence, which continued for there was a glass of whisky beside his two years, Mr. Stanton returning to plate. After eating, he paid his bill. America after the interchange of the The landlord charged him for the

Our Young Readers.

NED AND THE TURTLE.

He laziv peered all about.

on his back. He bore it—his box-like abode. And patiently climbed for an hour or more

And who waited with a stout caken came well by us, and if things are ever so that we tried the tartie. "Heliot please tell Not that has take another start, we'll do well by you And am waiting to see him again."

"You!" the turtle exclaimed. "Why. No. Whore laugh can be heard for a mile; has a With heir brown as earth, and with eye in it

beignt as mine Excuse me, I really smet smile," be." "It can't be." "Yes, it can Den't you see. Many years since you saw him have spect? That spears? I know nothing bout year good?"

But I know That per are not respectented Ned. He's a boy, and he wears a small cap with

And in summer picks berries called who ed. "Have you thought of anything to Ob! the stup dest thing is a stup dold man. "You mistake, "is a stup of old turtle. I'm Ned Mott." "You are not." "If I'

"Taen be shot," and he dropped with Head-foreranst back into the mud.

Margaret Egwegt, on Harper's Young People ...

not. I'll be shot.

shorten his cars. This the mast if thought position, for another he had not the requestpers, he was of en obligue to fight for him sthat his mother would not listen to deself and his rights; then his short cars gave would break her heart, she said. Tom, his great advantage, for they furnished no hold self-got a temporary place in a lacronic in

But why mustn't I?" said Towser. Towar was not a dog, as you might sup obtained a clerkship in a drug store. pose, but the nickname of a boy. Exact! disliked it, and his mother hated it, in shy his school-fellows should have choses nothing better offered, and it is to his an this nickname for Yom Kane I don't know; that he did the work well and diagnosis face was a little like a dog's perhaps beenuse he was bold and resolute, a god to analyzing character, and are apt to judge; together, but I've come to the comthings an i people by a happy-go-luckylnschool name, and stuck to him through He. it's a good thing to be toughened for it. up and had a wife-and the last time I aw him, his little girl was stroking bis hair ind and I never heard that Tom objected to he title, either as man or boy.

Why mustn't I?" he said again. "All the fellows are going except me, and I'd like to, ever so much "It isn't a question of like." his father, rather gramly. "It's a question of can and can't. All the other boys thre rich fathers; or, if not rich, they are not poor like me. It's well enough that their sons should go off on camping parties. isn't much to any of 'em, but it's a rient deal for you. And what's more, Tem, there's this; that if they'd take you for nothing, it isn't a good thing for you, any way you fix it. I pay for your schooling, Holcomb, "it means a circus procession and I paid for those boxing lessons, and may be, another year, I'll manage the sale scription to the boat, for I want you to grow up strong and ready with your fists, and your mind, and all parts of you, You'll have to fight your way, my boy, and I want you to turn out true grawhen the tuesle comes. But when its case of camping out a week, or extra holidays, or spending money for circuses and minstrels and such trash. I shut down. out this fun and idling and getting your head full of the idea of always having a 'good time.' Work's what you're mean! for, and if you don't thank me now for bringing you up tough, you will when you're Cremation in Slam - A Funeral With a man, with, may be, a boy of your own." Mr. Kane was a silent, gruff, long-headed man, who never wasted words, and this, the longest speech he had ever been known to did say to himself, in a grambling tone, Pretty hard, I think, to be cut off so at every turn," but he said it softly and only once, and before long his face cleared, and, And when the summons comes which swords for the officers of Pennsylvania taking his hat, he went to tell the boys that he couldn't join the camping party. "Well, I say it's a confounded shame!" declared Tom White. "I call your pa real mean," joined in

> "You'd better not call him anything of more. Tom was vexed and sore enough speak disrespectfully of his father. "I say, though," whispered Harry Blake, getting his arm round Tom's neck and leadng him away from the others, "I'm real disappointed, old fellow. Couldn't it he Harry's mother was a widow, well off, and money at command than any one else in the Towser shook his head. "No use," he said. "Father don't want in by fifty men awinging colored lanme to go, for more reasons than the money. terns.

der. "I'm glad mother doesn't talk that Harry Blake was fair and tender, with delicate throat as white as a girl's. pitying tenderness. "I'm glad, 'oo,'' he said. "You'd die if were distributed in gifts to these gen-

And Towser did stick, not only then, but enough, but Mr. Kane was kind as well as trace, it occurred to him he might find strict; he treated his son as if he were already a man, and argued with him from a It suggested to him, however, that he man's point of view; so, in spite of an ocea- might have left funds in some of the o sional outburst or grumble. Towser did not rebel, and his life and ideas gradually work, Chicago and St. Louis. As the

So matters went on till Tower was twent ty-one, and beginning to hope for another les in position, when suddenly a great, black elect excepted down on the Petrin Iron Works. I don't mean a real cloud, but cloud of trouble. All the country foil March" said Spring, Quickly melting, he're dark influstoon, Banks stopped pay-And the frost burried out of the ground, ment, merchante failed, stocks had and the leaves brief and day, dropped withhelr value, no one knew what or whom Autumit's "good-by,"

With the wind went a skurrying round, propymbers were at a stand-still. Among And from the deep mind in a low, swampy the rest the Perrin Company was forced to suspend work and elseharge its hands And, weaking and blinking his funny round from was a trusted fellow, and so much in for some time beforehand of the change that Then be drarged from the mire—like a small sind up books and put matters in order, and be and Mr. Perrin were the last persons to walk out of the big door. "Good-be, Tom," said Mr. Perrin, as he There an old man he met, who was consked turned the key in the heavy look, and supposed and gray.

* None of the control of th in our turn." They shook hands, and Tom walked away, Who's Ned?" asked the man. "Just ex-with a month's wages in his pocket and no anathe my top (I suppose you have learned how to spell', hown-hearted? Not at all. There was some And a name and some figures be carred with thing somewhere that he could do; that, he When we parted, you'll find on my shell, "was sure of; and, although he looked grave,

The old man he stroped with a grunt, for habe whistled cheerily enough as he marely Subdenly turning a corner, he ran up-Decidedly lame to each knee.

And he read. "August 1, 13.3-Net Mott." Harry Blake, walking in a Batters, discontinuous that away, which at once cought his attendion. Harry Blake, walking in a listines, depoint "Hallo-what's up?" imprired from.
"Haven's you heard?" replied Harry, in a melancholy voice. "The Tiverton Gard has gone to smash, with most of our money Your money !... "Mr mother's. It's the same thing, ex-Was it much? Is the bank gone for Sure smash, they say, and seven-rightha of all we have." Tom gave a whitele of dismay. Well, Harry, what next !" he demand.

"No. What can I do?" Harry's color sounded hopeless enough. What could Horry do? Toto, who had never wasted a night's sleep ment his --future, by awake more than once delecting That sleepy, that ancient, that obstinate to this question. Hard times were hard times to him, as well as to exercisely else; but had a little money laid by, his habits were simple, and to pinch for a while would out him small suffering; besides, he could turn he THE MASTIFF AND HIS MASTER hand to almost anything-but poor three One plan after another suggested line; and A certain young mastiff being near dug" was proposed, but each in turn proceed a estate, his master judged best to trim and fallure. Harry lacked bodily strongth has an hard, and complained accordingly. But as training, still another was unsulted to be be grow older and met dogs of various tem ; taste, and a fourth sounded so "maganized to the enem es' tooth, while the long-care dogs, whom he had formerly cavical, cam from the fray torn and suffering. "Aha!" said the massiff, "my master knew bette than I wast was good for me."—(2d Fast) and were in extremity. But there said aids were not enough. Permanent stortions were what was needed. At last flare perhaps because his brown, short noct and only relieved his mind by private grown blings to Tower in the ovenings. "Pil tell you what," said Tom one wigh and opinions. I hardly think it was this as | hamentations, " you been used to this a reas h, however. Boys are not much given father strict with me when we were at the that he was a wise man. Where should stinct, which sometimes leads them real be now if I'd grown up soft and early hard and sometimes wrong. But whatever he like you? Giving knocks and taking knocks reason may have been. Towser was Tob's | that's what a business man's ille b. as Even his wife called him so when he gow used to feel hard to my father about it, in sometimes, but I thank bim heartily now and he held out his brown, strong hand and saying, "Papa Towser," in imitation of backed at it enriously and affect onside her mother. Towser 1-n't a pre ty name, Well he might. Those hands were known pick Fortune's locks with only I'm alraid

Towser's mind was hardly up to such a no "You're right," said Harry, after think-But to return to the time when he we a You're true grit, Tower-up to say were that comes along, and sure to succeed, while I'm as easily knocked down as a girl. I only wish I'd had a wise father, and been raided rough, like you." Harry had repeated this wish a good many imes in the years that have passed storthen. Life has gone hardly with him, and business has always been distasteful, out he has kept on steadily, and his position has improved, thanks to Tom's advice and helpfom himself is a rich man now. He was ong since taken in as a partner by the Perrin ompany, which re-spened its works the year after the panie, and is doing an immense business. He makes a sharp and energetic manager, but his open-handedness and open-heartedness grow with his growth and prosperity only furnishes wider oppor tunity for a wise kindness to those who are less fortunate. His own good fortune he always ascribes to his father's energetic training, and Mr. Kane, who is an olderic man now, likes to nod his head and exply "I told you so, my boy; I told you so. habit of honest work is the best luck and the best fortune a man can have. " - Susan Cad utge, in St Nicholas.

Ten Days of Festivity.

The Princess Suntariat, one of the vented her. As when, in your child- claimed: "My son, that isn't a bonfire; make, impressed Towser not a little. He favorites of the King of Siam, and her infant daughter were drowned last year about forty miles from Bangkok by the upsetting of a barge. The remains were embalmed and kept about nonmonths, when they were cremated with mposing ceremonies at an expense of $300,000 in decorations and in the presentation of gifts. A correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal save that the kind while I'm around," said the rite took place in a cross-shaped Towser, with an angry look in eyes, building two hundred feet in length, r. covered within and without by glided c'oth. All the principal people and the foreign representatives were present. and fine quarters and a free restaurant were provided. The fire was lighted by the first King, the second King also being present. After the funeral pyra had been consumed there were firevery indulgent, and he had more pocket- works and athletic sports for ten successive nights. Among other representations was the lotus dance, participated

During the entertainment each day limes, a species of the lemon, containng small silver coins and a so tickets among the spectators. Many beautiful prizes were drawn by both natives and auburn hair, which waved naturally, and a foreigners. The Buddhist prinashood were the principal gainers by this ere-Tom looked at him with a sort of rough, mation. One hundred thousand dollars you had to rough it much, Harry. I'm themen of the yellow cloth. This was tougher, you see. It won't burt me." A sturdy satisfiction came with these that some might reach the spirit of the old crusts an' thin meats, an' de chances am ninety-five in a hundred dat he will make a wicked man. When de stomach am pinehed, de brain turns to deviltry.

Cats and rats. Boys living in the norm in the city, upon learning that the bird was fond of cats, carried some there every day to see the eagle destroy them. The report was circulated that am pinehed, de brain turns to deviltry.

Cats and rats. Boys living in the norm in the norm in the camping out.

Still, it was pretty hard to see the boys start without him. Ten days later they resturned. The mosquitoes were very thick, she can find rest. When the crematory them. The report was circulated that they said, and they hadn't eaught so many services were over, the ashes and a pared to receive them. This urn was the dead Prin ess, and a small one re-

Absent Mindedness.

The late Dr. Coleman was once traveling in the early wilds of Ohio, and entering a hotel, called for dinner. He noticed, upon sitting down at table, there was a glass of whisky beside his plate. After eating, he paid his bill. The landlord charged him for the whisky.

"But," said the worthy doctor. "I have made no use of it, and never do."

"It was there and you could have had it; you must pay."

"Very well." said the doctor. Some time after the doctor was there again, and before eating, he placed his incidicine-case beside his plate. After eating, when paying his bill, he brought incharges for medicine.

"But," said the host, "I have not had any."

"Ah, but you could have had it; it was on the table.

"Ah, but you could have had it; it was on the table.

"Ah, but you could have had it; it was on the table.