THE RED CLOUD CHIEF. M. L. THOMAS, Publisher RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.	went through her own r carpet under her bed I pact wad twelve $100-d the total amount kown was only $1,045. Whe
FISHING. [John Albro, in Puck.] One Oday Away. You wish To fish: You thoat A bost: C books books books books book	come? Where had the to? Was the bureau-dr terest on its deposit? "Now I've got you, as I confronted her. "Mollie fainted. "A bottle of camph cold water brought he yet she sturdily procla- cence. "I didn't take Miss no, I did not,' she c claimed between her so "Miss Smith would take her to jail, where finement would soon co fess. "My work, however ly done, for the gold turned up. "I determined that t be in the house, and re thorough search from of The cellar disclosed in last I stumbled upon a leading to the garret, th was a common trap-doo tened by a padlock, to tached three links of a c "Give me the key," Smith, to that trap door tic. "Oh, no use of lool keys have been lost for and no one has ever since. There were cobw but I noticed that over door's edge they appendent

A True Romance-A Girl's Love for large footprints in the dust. By the Her Betrothed Braves Dangers, Jall, aid of a lamp I followed the course of and a Detective. the tracks over the boards which lay

"Never condemn a person on circumstantial evidence; it is unreliable, part of the garret, where over an old even when the circumstances seem to cross-beam, hung a pair of old-fashfit into each other like a couple of cogwheels," said John T. Morris, who i an experienced detective of Springfield, Ohic

"Give us the story, Uncle John." the 30th of May, the $355 that was "Not long ago there resided in missed in the summer of 1879, the $290 Franklin County a wealthy old maid, that was lost in 1880, and, better than Miss Sabina Smith. By inheritance she all, the rare old gold coins upon which was the possessor of a large farm, on Miss Smith set such store as an heirwhich was an old-fashioned, though loom. I had found the money, but I comfortable, dwelling-house. She was found $1,200 too much. The mystery reputed to have a good, square bank deepened. I resolved upon one thing, and that was that Mollie must know account.

"How old is she?"

something about the money that was "Well, on the shady side of seventy. hid under the carpet beneath her bed. but she had a weakness like all old I talked kindly to her, told her that maids, not for kittens, poodles, or ca- Miss Smith's money had been found, naries, but for children. She had and urged her to tell me how the $1,200 vaised several orphan girls, who are now came under the carpet of her bed.

John Chinaman at School, i-drawers pulled ked, and tinally chool for the Chinese has been oom. Under the established in Philadelphia, and the found in a com-Times of that city tells how John Chiollar bills. Now naman is improving the shining hour: n to be missing Mr. So is forty years of age. and al-though he has lived in America five ne had the #155 gold coins gone though he has lived in America five ing-parties a frying-pin is indispensa-rawer paying ingold coins gone ple beauties of "pidgin" English. He is the dolt of the school, but that fact Chronicle. Mollie," I said. doesn't seem to disturb him s particle, and the look of pleased astonishment his face wore yesterday when he was hor and a little told for the twentieth time that "A" is er speedily to. the first letter of the alphabet would serves especial attention from the househave driven any but a Christian teacher keeper. As its name reminds us, it to distraction. Smith's money A LESSON IN SPELLING.

onvulsively exwrote those letters on the blackboard, is nourishing while not too heavy. not allow me to and received an approving smile from I reasoned con-Mr. So. mpel her to con-"What does that spell?" continued the instructor. was but partialcoins had not side and reflected. "That is hen-a chicken," said the hose coins must teacher. esolved upon a "Me sabe hen," replied Mr. So, as ellar to garret. coolly as though the information was the family whose duties call them away othing, and at not by any means new. small stairway he door to which thrusting a piece of chalk into the dyspepsia and consequent ill-humor are or, securely fas-Mongolian's right hand. The idea of caused by the habit of taking a hurried which was atseekers after knowledge as extremely a rapid walk to catch a boat or train. I said to Miss funny, and Sam Hing, King Gee, Moi rup in the at-king there, the over five years, been no there ebs on the door. the crack of the eared to have chirography of the word hen. the door hav-"Read it," said the teacher. d. With an ax I speedily got the door open and saw chain.

across the shaky rafters to the furthest ioned saddle-bags. The dust on the bags had been recently disturbed. In one of the pockets I found the five $100-bills which disappeared on the night of his seat. "Not chicken, hen," said the structor in correction.

plied Ah Loon, eyeing the picture.

cut.

teacher.

"What fol flox got him hen?" inquired Quong, examining the wood-

"He wants to eat it," answered the

"Alle same hen, alle same chicken," fevered brow with his primer. CELESTIAL PHILOSOPHY.

A lady and gentleman were the only teachers in this school vesterday. The lady devoted herself to Ah How, while Too often the meal loses all character John Lung looked on and yawned at in a continual round of steak or chops warm the months of April and May had regular intervals as though he was the year through, and dainty dishes been, with an absence of the usual rains. dreadfully bored. Ah How, however, which are really less expensive are No doubt, this had much to do with stirappeared to take great interest in his ignored. Cold meats or chicken can ring the latent poison into activity, and studies. The male teacher spent the be easily made into croquettes, or thus making aerial sewage or contamgreater part of the school hour in in- minced and well seasoned and served inated air abundant. structing Quong Wha and Ah Loon, on slices of water toast. Eggs can be the latter being much the brighter stu- cooked in such a variety of ways that was the occurrence of malarial fevers Fost. dent. "The fox has a hen," said the one need never tire of them, and the at Bound Brook. While malaria was teacher, reading from the primer. "The same may be said of potatoes. In their very prevalent in many States and in his vacation to give his employer a for has a hen," returned the pupils, season, tomatoes sliced and served with many localities of New Jersey last year. Chance to look over his books. -Newark God by the direct ministration of the benefit they are required spelling out the words.

"This is the picture," said the tutor, dressing of oil and vinegar, are very Brook was such as to furnish admirable -Next to money i think a man kan pointing to an engraving.

Or, the imprompts crane may be omit-State Health Beards.

instead of life-saving. It is, however,

one of the encouraging facts that so ted, and a rude oven be built of stones This is undoubtedly a period of great and the fire made therein. The pot may be set on this over the accumusanitary activity, with vast possibilities lated bed of embers, and potatoes in of improvement, and yet with possibility, also, of crude speculation and of not less crude inventions. Even sanitheir jackets and corn in the inner husk be roasted in the hot ashes. For fishtary literature has in it much of the experimental, and there is need that all things proposed be brought to rigid test, lest they become death dealing.

Breakfast.

many of our States, as well as our cities, This meal is often slighted, but it dehave full-formed Boards of Health, comcosed of men who can be held responsile for their acts and for their advice. comes when we have been longer with-In addition to the twenty-three States out food than at any other time in the already having Boards, Pennsylvania, "H-e-n." said the teacher, as he twenty-four hours, and need that which Arkansas and Indiana are likely to be successful this year. The reports of Then, too, it is a family reunion after these are beginning to be rendered, and the separation of the night, and as such form a very important addition to our should be made as pleasant and attractinformation as to the study of disease. ive as possible. It seems to give the We this year take up, as first in order. The pupil smiled, scratched his left key note for the day, and any discord the report of the State of New Jersey. here is very likely to echo through the It is made especially prominent from hours which follow. Care should be the fact that the Board has had to contaken that breakfast is served at a suffitend with four decided epidemics, all of ciently early hour for the members of which will pass into record as important in the history of diseases for a busy day to have a comfortable and its causes. The first was the Welt, write it," said the teacher, and orderly meal before starting. Much well-known typhoid fever at Princeton. With all the talks about ma'aria, all the rumors as to causes and asking him to write struck the other and insufficient breakfast, followed by the many contradictory items which found their way to the press, it was In France the first breakfast consists quite important that an authentic nar-Kee and Chang Lung giggled like over- simply of a cup of coffee and a roll, rative be given. The Secretary of the grown schoolboys. The slow pupil while in England it is a hearty meal Board had the very best opportunities smiled, eyed the writing on the black- composed of various substantial dishes. for this work. It required much sifting board critically, grasped his crayon both hot and cold, of which the mem- of statements and close local examinafirmly, and, to the astonishment of the bers of the family partake at their con- tion into details. This seems to have Caucasians in the room, executed an venience, instead of assembling at a been diligently attended to. The result almost perfect imitation of the teachers' stated hour. Our busy American life is a clear detail of facts and a discussion seems to demand something more sub- of the probable origin of the disease. stantial than the one and more prompt It seems highly probable that the fever "Chlicken," was the nonchalant re- and regular than the other, and Ameri- originated from local causes, which had sponse of the pupil, as he moved toward | can breakfasts are made a special feat- nothing to do with malaria and the remure at some of the French restaurants. edy for which was an entire change in The housekeeper should study varie- the system of sewage disposal. One

ty in the breakfasts she offers her fam- | cannot read such a history without perily, not only from day to day, but ceiving the great importance of a wellreplied Mr. So, philosophically, as he changing them as much as possible devised plan of exactness in all the de dropped into his seat and fanned his with the seasons. The things which tails of sanitary construction, and of a are most suggestive of comfort on a superintendence which shall be as vigi-

cold winter's morning are by no means | lant as intelligent and see to it that no tempting in July, when we need not possibilities of accumulated filth can only lighter clothing but lighter food. occur. A comparison of the meteorological table shows how exceptionally Not less decided and not less typical a Mayonnaise dressing, or a simple yet the condition of things at Bound Call.

Religious Reading.

Which yawn like empty ginv.

No through the storm and night,

Such safe and sure repose

Ah! immp that burns as well

-Susan Cookidge, in N. Y. Independent,

...

International Sunday-School Lessons,

THIRD OF ARTER.

FOUNTR QUARTER.

Lev.

Ab! steadfast citadel!

A further the attery such through

2 Free Giving

9-The Tabernacie

dernes

Bisfigatts.

5-The Peace Offering

The Year of Jubiter

27-The Serpent in the Wil-

Last Days of Money

...

A Geerful Rel gion.

"pon the Bock of Ages, founded true!

on the ungines of the wind, they fly: They reach the horing glow. They is unch and plonge, and 1 if

-Mr. Edwin Arnold, the author of The Light of Asia." is very ill in Scot-THE TRUE LIGHT. They apr it from alar -The circulation of fiction from the The bearen + flory star, And storm- ossed hirds, by floree winds but Boston Public Library is only forty-three freed. Rair with half-apent force.

-Dundreary often made three thou-And shape their strongling conros sand dollars a week. But as Dundreary To observ it rears its biasing, becausing both was fearfully extravagant, he left only Faintly the tired wings best, That chrithmical report. eighty thousand dollars.

-A plan is on foot in Belgium for tilaned are the keen, bright cyes, offering a testimonial to Hendrik Con And heaved with panting sight science, the novelist, on the appearance The soft and plumed bosoms every one of his hundredth volume. O'er the white, wellering waves,

-A copy of one of Dickens' earliest and rarest books, "Three Ways of Spending Sunday, by Timothy Sparks," Are dashed upon the glass, and fall and die. was sold the other day in Manchester. Eng., for about thirty dollars.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

land.

per cent. of the whole

Outwoaried with long flight. Alexander H. Stephens, notwith-Our souls come crowding o'er the sarry s.s. In North, in East, in Wrns, There is no place of rest. Except, O'kindly Light, except with Thes. standing the feeble condition of his body, is actively engaged on another work on the war, and keeps employed No cold, unyielding cars hars and forbids to pass. Thy dear light new cheth Ch nor burns in vain; The soul that finds and knows several clerks and stenographers, who decline to be interviewed as to its preise character.

-Captain Isaac Bassett, the veteran Need never more as out or roain again. doorkceper of the United States Senate, who will complete his half century of service in the Senate Chamber in December next, is basily engaged in preparing his forthcoming volume entitled We unge our hight to Thee. Shine, kindly Light, and guide us mfely Sketches and Reminiscences of the United States Senate-1831-1881."

Mr. J. C. Harris ("Uncle Remus") has written a story of Southern life, which will be ready for the printer in the fall. It will probably be pubished in the Century as a short serial, and appear in book form later in the Sept. 18-Heview of the Lessons Sept. 25-Temperance Mr. Harris has written two or COBT. three other short stories which will appear in the same volume.

-The mother of Oscar Wilde has Oct. 16-The Burnt Offering een, in her day, a distinguished Not. 10-Nadab and Abihu Lev h beauty and an important influence, the former as Jane Francesca Elgee, daughter of an Anglican elecgyman in Jublin; the latter as "Speranza," the eading poet of the "Young Ireland" day, 1848 and thereabout. A brother of hers was Judge Elgee, of Louisiana, a local Confederate leader and member ried Dr. Wilde, of Dublin, in 1851. ----HI MOROUS.

-Nature keeps the ocean tide, and hat is why it does not run away like a river. - N. O. Licayune.

-A homely young girl has the consolation of knowing that when she is sixty she'll be a pretty old girl -Boston

-The confidential clerk now takes tice, it occurred to him that he had never thought seriously of duty to God, and of the chief object of life. He had aimed to be opright and meeful to his 4 fellow-men, but had forgotion his relations to his Maker. He, therefore, set amart a day for sober thought on his duties to God. A se ond and a third day were given to the same thought. The result was that he became an intelligent and earnest Christian, and conse rated his manhord to the service. of tied. The profession of medicine, was given up for the ministry of the Gospel; and he began that new life of high religious aims, which made him) one of the most useful men of his age. That one day when he medikated in Addison's criticiam was Dr. Wayland's mental birthday. But those these days. wherein thoughts of flod, immortality and duty marched in solemn pro sation through his mind, so transformed him. that he became a source of intelectual and spiritual power to thousands. Would it not be beneficial for every roung man to set apart one doy on which to stand in the presence of his own soul and God? - Youth's Charles Suns.

> Choice Extracts.

If evil be said of thee, and it is true, correct it. If it he a lie, laugh at it.

Men who are tempted to do wrong do not generally mean to do wrong, but their danger comes in trying to see how near they can come to wrong and not do it.

-Depend upon it, in the midst of all Sept. 4-The Commandments Evolus 70 15-21 Sept. 11-Idulatry Punished Exclusion in the science about the world and its ways, and all the ignorance of Lod and 1 Cro. #:25-27 His greatness, the man or woman who can say "Thy will be done," with the Excellence in many true heart of giving up, is nearer the Excelus to 1-14 Lev. 1 1-16 secret of things than the prologist and theologian - George Mandonald Lev. 61 1.21

-We cannot help exerting an infu-13-The Feast of Tabernstein Les 21.31 44 ence over these with whom we come in Lev. 25: 8-11 contact day by day. Even if in our Num 71 1. . company but a few moments an im-Number 24, 35-24 prevalor is made that will influence Deut 13 40-53 Heview of the Leavens. The Babe and the hong laniah # 6-1 them for good or evil, whether we wish it or not. If we would have it for good, we must live right. As we think and feel, so we will act, and a bad person cannot exert a good influence. It is the peckiar privilege of the Christian to be alvers cheerful. There -We urge the duties of Christianity is a joy-producing power in the religion upon the consciences of men; but dottes of Christ not found in ate other sysare constraints till they are changed intem of religion or philosophy Christ to charms by love. The very word came to fill the earth with by by duty is a barsh one, until the heart delivering men from sin, which is the graspe it, and then the lowliest service chief cause of trouble and sadness, and the holdest endeavor are cheer-His Gospel is glad tidings of salvation fully accepted and welcomed. To war from sin. It brings present deliverance men to the performance of Christian from the bondage, the guilt and the daties it is necessary to ain sem to condemnation of sin, and gives the joy. the love of Him who reads a them, ful assurance of the favor and love of and to the love of that for whose -Dean Man-Holy Ghost, who tills the soul with lew.

. . .

Let a mon

ther, unihilates the love of the world.

of the Confederate Senate. She marwell settled in life. In 1865, she adopted " 'You will not believe me if I tell a six-year-old, black-eyed girl, bright you, but if Miss Smith will go out I will as a button, named Mollie McCann, explain. I put that money there; it whose father had fallen in battle, fight- was my lover's. He had saved it out ing for his flag and country, while her of his wages and given it to me to mother, crazed with grief, pined and keep. I destroyed his letters, for fear faded away. Mollie soon learned to my aunt would find it out.' There's love her new mother, and from a prat- the story." tling maid in short clothes and pinalores ""But how did the old lady's money she soon bloomed forth into a gushing get into the garret?" school-girl, and at eighteen was the ""She carried it there herself. She belle of every rustic gathering-the was a somnambulist and walked in her pretty Miss Mollie McCann, over whom sleep.'

the boys raved and the girls envied. "How did you prove it, Mr. Morris? To all her admirers she turned a deaf Did the old lady let you occupy the bedear, and, with a pretty toss of the head, room and catch her?" and merry twinkle of her roguish eye. bade them be off and not bother her." Oh, no. I got the old lady to take off her shoes and stockings and place

"Miss Smith was sensible; knew her No. 6 foot down on a sheet of white that Mollie would probably marry and paper. With a lead pencil I marked have a home of her own some day, so out her foot on that sheet of paper. she neither discouraged her fondness With a pair of scissors I carefully cut for society nor harped upon the miseries of wedded life in the maiden's which fitted exactly in the tracks in the ear, but when she came back from the dust on the garret boards. Besides State Fair at Columbus in 1878, and told that Mollie's foot was much smaller. her adopted mother about the young gentleman she had met, his attentions would not fit the track. I also, on and good qualities, Miss Smith was not careful examination, found traces of cobwebs in the frill of the old lady's pleased, nor did she hesitate to frown her displeasure and advise her ward to night-cap, while Mollie wore no nightturn a willing ear to the many suitors cap. So you see I proved it by both rapidity. of the neighborhood instead of seeking ends-the old lady's head and by her in far-off fields that which was nearer | feet. I explained all to the satisfaction of the old lady, she paid me my money, and I predict a wedding soon at the "But Mollie was, like many another, Smith mansion, with Mollie McCann as struck on a traveling man, and she the bride."-Cincinnati Enquirer. carried on a secret correspondence with him through a lady friend for a ----Adulterated Coffee. long time, until at last they were engaged Chiccory, carrots, caramel and date "Miss Smith and Mollie were the seeds are the substances commonly sole occupants of the house. The bed- used to adulterate ground coffee. A rooms were four in number, two of single test will show the housekeeper odorless white paper. The next best which is presentable at table, as the which were used as spare rooms, one whether she has purchased pure or occupied by Miss Smith and containing adulterated coffee. Take a little of the two beds, Mollie occupying one. Miss coffee and press it between the fingers, Smith the other. The fourth bedroom or give it a squeeze in the paper in was called Mollie's, but was only used which it is bought; if genuine it will not by her when a lady friend was visiting form a coherent mass, as coffee grains her. In one of these spare bedrooms are hard and do not readily adhere to was an old-fashioned bureau and book-case combined, the top drawer of which could be converted into a desk. The back part of this drawer of this drawer of this drawer of the may be pretty sure of adulteration the The back part of this drawer was fitted in the shape of chiccory, for the grains greased they can be thrown away when needed ready for use on the buffet, exup with small drawers. One of these are softer and more open, and adhere small drawers had from time immemo- without difficulty when squeezed. rial been used as a money-drawer. In Again, if we place a few grains in a the summer of 1879 the sum of $355 saucer and moisten them with a little was missed from the drawer; in the cold water, chiccory will very quickly summer of 1880 $200 mysteriously dis- become soft like bread crubs, while appeared, together with a quantity of old gold coins which had been in the A third test: Take a wine-glass or family for over a century. On the 20th tumblerful of water, and gently drop a the butter. Wrap the pile in a napkin crooked, but it does not seem to be so In the midst of a motley herd was them. Animal dead this steak came sad-browed religion does not mend day of last May Miss Smith loaned to a pinch of the ground coffee on the surneighbor $500, giving him her check face of the water without stirring or and he signing a note in her favor. Sickness prevented his presenting the sentation of it. It is our off, not second for such results from belief in Sickness prevented his presenting the some time, whilst chiccory or any other check at the bank at Columbus, and, soft root will sink, learning that Miss Smith was going to Chiccory or caramel will cause a yelthat city on the 30th, he requested her lowish or brownish color to diffuse rap-

to get it cashed. She did so, and re- idly through the water, while pure cofturned with Mollie about dark on that fee will give no sensible tint under such day, having the money all in $100-bills. circumstances for a considerable length "The house was all securely locked of time. down stairs, and Miss Smith deposited "Coffee mixtures" or "coffee im-the five hundred dollars in the secretary provers" should be avoided. They seldrawer, closed the drawer, locking it dom consist of anything but chiccory and placing the key in the bureau and caramel. drawer beneath. She then locked the "French co "French coffee," so widely used at room containing the bureau and placed present, is generally ground coffee, the nice for breakfast. "Me sabe flox, me sabe hen," tempting addition to the morning meal than fruit served as a first course. Oat-meal porridge, too, is so healthful an article of food that it should that it should that it should that it should the man who has seen several little craters all the man who has seen several little

"Belly good flox," was the sententious criticism of Quong, as he looked gravely at the teacher, who was evidently unprepared for any such philosophical utterance and consequently did kind kept for the purpose. The tea or decay had stored away much organic not attempt to reply to it. coffee service should be placed in a line matter. It was near the discharge of About this time the attention of nearat one end of the table before the host- two or three small streams, which thus by the suppressed laughter of Moi Kee ess, and it is no longer customary to brought down the accumulation of a stand them on a tray. Mats, which are large, low watershed. The alternation and King Gee, who were enjoying the prettiest if they are pure white, are of heat and of water had been unusual futtering of a paper butterfly, manufac-tured and set afloat by Sam Hing. The put at the opposite end of the table for and had furnished all the conditions for the one or more substantial dishes and fermentive or putrefactive changes. course of study went on. The teach- at the sides for vegetables. A table The results were up to the plan. So artificial insect was captured and the ers hear the lessons of each pupil sepa-rately, and so long as they are under the eyes of their preceptors the pupils the eyes of their preceptors the pupils are as meek and studious as any one in that case all the larger dishes are ever be notable in American legis'ation. crowded in the center. A fork should It proclaimed drainage for health a could wish, but their other moments be placed at the left of each plate and necessity as never before. It not only are not spent in study-that is, to any knife and spoon at the right. The compelled the removal of a mill-dam, great extent. The teachers, however, tablespoons and pepper and sait stands but the restoration of a stream-bed. are loud in their praises of the scholars are arranged together at the corners of New Jersey justice was as rigorous as and say they learn with remarkable the table. If fruit which requires hand- if it had caught a culprit, and declared ling is to form the first course, as that men, women and children must knife, may be set at each plate. Or if State law which, while it protects own-For the picnic proper, only cold promelons are to be served, the plates can ers of water-rights from unfair risks, visions and such as can be easily transbe set in a pile before the host, and the proclaims the right of pure air and a ported are made ready. Roast and extra knife and fork put at the right broiled chickens should be cut into neat and left of each place.

----Picales and Gypsying Parties.

joints, ham sliced, and the superflous After the fruit has been removed the fat trimmed away from this as from more substantial part of the breakfast fresh meats. If you have a sandwichbox large enough to hold your meats, divide each kind from the rest by clean, coffee is made should be of a kind thing to a tin meat-case is to improvise coffee is not so good if it is poured off a substitute by lining neatly with the grounds into an ura. If it is not white paper as many small, that paste- possible to have cream for it, boiled board boxes as are needed. There is milk with a spoonful of condensed milk generally a goodly supply of such in every house in this day of ruchings, cuffs, collars and bon-bons. Pack one with sirup should be served at the last empty. The third best way of carrying cept in winter, when they may be conmeats is to do up each kind in writing. signed to the plate-warmer. paper, then in a small napkin pinned | Though the table may be set by a securely about the parcel. For sand- servant it should be inspected and re-

than either. Butter biscuits at home, the family is summoned. It ought to slice bread thin, and fold over upon be as easy to place a dish straight as Over-crowding was the great error. horns, and this one reminds me of

If cold tea and coffee are providedand they are always welcome-pour might be given the place of honor in them into bottles, carefully corked. At the center of the table. - Christian declared typhus. It is not only conta-the cost of whatever inconvenience. Union. declared typhus. It is not only conta-the cost of whatever inconvenience. the cost of whatever inconvenience. Union. have ice to cool these, water and lemonade. A lump of ice, wrapped in dry flannel and this inclosed in stout paper

Said a city retail dealer: "I could City that its sanitary authorities may sir," be said, "they ain't nothing left bound firmly in place with twine, the whole set in a covered basket, will keep dispense with a number of my clerks well be on the alert, lest dirty streets of 'em, sir." "Possible?" said the sad for hours without melting into serious were it not for the necessity of guarding and a hot summer should cause it to passenger: "what becomes of them?" the key under some quilts that lay in a wardrobe in here bedroom door and she and Mollie retired for the night in exparate beds in the same room. The next morning, April 1st, the neighbor who had borrowed the money, having a long iourney to merform doing ioure iourney io opportunity for more exact study. The git more out ov the world with polite-There is no more wholesome or mangrove swamps of Africa give not ness than ennything else .- Josh Biltempting addition to the morning meal | more decided evidence of special mala- lings.

dry soil to all the land and the inhabitants thereof. About the same time small-pox took on epidemic proportions imited the disease. When will mankind learn that it is not necessary to alone protect from such a scourge?

lantern-jawed, but way off on cockroach, and we find damages in the sum of three | iness." Surely, if any man on early cents. Detroit Free Press. -Fond friends tried vainly to cheer her.

To stop up the tears that fast fell: And she clasped her daughter still nearer, And in agony uttered farewell!

The groom with his bride has departed, To journey far off in strange ian is. And the mother crissout, broken-hearte ! "Well; I'm glad that girl's off my hands." -Des Muines Mail.

-"I'm not very proud of your progress in school," remarked a New Haven mother to her son who was struggling along in grade five. "There's Charley Smart is way ahead of you, and he isn't as old." "I know it. Teacher said he'd learned all there was to learn in oranges or peaches, a plate upon which | not have the'r animation suspended in my room, and that left me without anyis a doily, tinger bowl, fork and fruit such manner. The result, too, is a thing to learn." Guess the boy will keep.-New Haven Register.

Porterhouse Steak.

"This is the porterhouse, is it?" vaccination to an extent which fully ed to know. "Sir?" said the waiter. in me ye shall have pead

"It seemed to be a trifle tenderer last | therefore, a mistake to sup year," the sail passenger went on, certain degree of worldly of have a scare and some deaths in order with the air of a tired man indulging exemption from trial is to secure that vaccination which can in pleasant reminiscences of the Christian cheerfulness. past, "but I remember now; it was shinning examples of Christ Later in the season, at Blackwood- cut a trifle lower down then. Last and joy have been among town, some twelve miles from Camden, year you cut your porterhouse steaks destitute and afflicted: "It a fever broke out in the almshouse, from the curl in the forehead, and the of the religion of Christ th which did not cease its deadly work sirloins from the shin. But I think isters com ort to those in d inmates, had fallen before the disease. | they cut the porterhouse between the effectual." Be cheerful, then A and a necessity with fruit. In one re-ceptacle put up such condiments as are needed. and a necessity with fruit. In one re-ceptacle put up such condiments as are needed. and a necessity with fruit. In one re-ceptacle put up such condiments as are needed. and a necessity with fruit. In one re-ceptacle put up such condiments as are needed. a religion so thoroughly bad as he rep-cases arose from the tramps who scat-to make a Roman swear. Well, it was tered from this place. The whole time he was killed. He hadn't many tianity to all men: "Let your course of the fever was that of a well- more years to live on this earth. Ah, shine te'ore men, that they faces that long after it has seemed to doubt, while you were slicing it off. cease it will again recur, under favor- What do you do with these steaks when ing circumstances. It is still so per- the guests are through with them?" sistent in certain parts of New York The waiter looked puzzled. "Why.

University, was a teacher unst in power over his pupils. He enstomed to say that two great them in their napkins, or they may of college duties were concerned. But for nothing but to go to sleep? If it you. Trust me, good waiter, 1 -" But the waiter pointed to a placard inscribed: "Positively no trust," and corner table, as he didn't seem to be satisfied with his steak and had asked for trust. - Burlington Hawkeye. ---- joy and peace in believing. the King in Les beenity, and then the forms and shapes withings here are but than that, it gives the present title to and foretaste of Heaven "The Spirit meal porridge, too, is so healthful an article of food that it should be used universally. If it is necessary, in order to economize time in the morning, to set the breakfast table the night before, it should set the origin. The debris of and the debris of and the debris of and the debris of and the explained away by any generative and the debris of a debris of the water-bed, amid rank vegetation, whose entisting, real, the love that is of the A suit for slander resulted, and the jury rience is said to have received "the returned as follows: "Not gailty on oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heav-

Christian.

F. W. Labertson. -Are you and and discouraged hehas reason to be cheerful, it is cause you hink anything goes wrong?

But how about the afflictions life? Does no one notice you, and we you grieted over the neglect? You wish to Christ ans are not exempt for fouble and suffering. Can the provided on every side," who have to the sickness, sorrow, bereavements to death? The Scriptures teach that is death? The he light-hearted and happy. That is Scriptures teach that they can, and yourself if you have done everything in give examples. St. For vas one. The your power to make them herpy, if catalogue he gives of the sufferings your helping hand his always there. catalogue he gives of a sufferings shows that no man ever ad more to tended to assist them, if your actions says: "We toward them have been what you deendure than he. Yet glory in tribulations," and "I take sired theirs' should be towarayon. Go pleasure in infirm ties, of necessities, in work to make others havy, if you in reproaches, in person rooms, in dis-tresses, for Christ's start and "as odist Recorder.

sorrowful yet always reiting." This - If Mr. Ingersoll is right his beis more than cheerfu'ness is Christian | Hef as to the character of the Hole, and at adverse the character of the God in whom triumph in the midst of circumstances. Nor does the apostle Christians believe and to whom they consider his abiding joy? dass an ex-ceptional experience. Her gards it as least, that those who read the libit small-pox took on epidemic proportions in Camden. It revealed an inadequacy of provision that startled this cits of

in Camden. It revealed an inadequacy of provision that startled this city of contentment, and gave it to know that, with all its enterprise, it moved too slowly to keep up with the move of the disease. At one time it bid fair to plant itself in every street of the city. A council held with the State Board of Health resulted in the authorization of vaccination to an extent which fully be to know. "Sir?" said the waiter. It is, that a think misrepresent the religion whith mary to Religion and the Bible ought to be most judged by their general results and remity tendencies, and by their results and serenity the most tendencies in these the most thoroughly be glory under their control. Guiteau and Free. man, of Pocasset, are Ingersoll's favorit miness, and ite illustrations of Christianity. These "cranky" fanatics weigh more than wiches, chopped or ground ham is reive the last touches from the mistress, until physician, and nurses, and keep-preferable to sliced, and tongue better to be sure that it is all in order before er, and family, as well as some forty used to live in a boar ting house where even health, to make its metafrations the ten thousand carment, devout and loving Christian characters, more than the thousands recalled from liver of vice and made pure and useful. If Innot so tightly as to crush it, and give it, for the ordinary servant. She will re- brought a man sick with fever. who from?" "Dead," echoed the aston- itself to observers. It is no tof the gersoll is correct, there must be such a Summer in Norway.

ght so In the Norway summer, one comes actually to years for a little Christian darkness to go to bed by: much as he may crave a strong sun by day, to keep him warm, he would like to have a reasonable night time for sleeping. At The late President Wayland, d BOWB first there is a stimulus, and a weird Insed is ac- sort of triumphant sense of outwitting tages nature, in finding one's self able to read can be found, a pretty potted plant ----Shoplifters.

mel.

a long journey to perform, during which he expected to make a payment on some land purchased, called as early as five o'clock, before Miss Smith and Mollie had arisen.

"Awakening Miss Smith, she took her key from the wardrobe, unlocked the bedroom, then, taking the bureaudrawer key from the under drawer of the secretary, opened this to find the money gone. She went down stairs: everything was locked and bolted as but jess now I has so much trubble at home. Dar's nuffin but sickness an'

"Who took that money?"

burglary; no lock forced; windows and dem is gwine ter die fust," and Jim's doors all right. No one else in the voice was shaky as he wiped traces of doors all right. No one else in the house but Miss Smith and Mollie. Of course, I at once examined the girl. She talked freely, said she always had a presentiment that the money would be stolen—in fact, had a presentiment that mist but feared to tell the old that night, but feared to tell the old eration of his domestic affliction the lady for fear of alarming her. I soon learned that Mollie had a key which fitted the bedroom containing the bureau, hence my suspicions were "What pack ob lies was dat you tole strengthened that Mollie had arisen in de Recorder? I jess now passed yore the night, either unlocked the door with her own key or taken the one in the wardrobe, and, securing the money. hid it either in or out of the house "Who said dar was anything de mat

How Jim Webster Got Off.

"Jim Webster, you are accused of being drunk. I am very sorry to see von here, but 1 have my duty to perform all the same," and the Recorder looked very hard and stern.

"I'se mighty sorry to see myself here, Jedge. I scarcely eber drinks, but jess now I has so much trubble at grief and sorrer, and I jess got desper-ate. Dar's my two chiluns at home, "That was the question that con-fronted me. There were no signs of a don't know now, Jedge, which one ob cloth and napkins. If you use paper and have her arrested. What is the re-doyleys, yet see that three or four tow-sult? At the examination her friends way to his own home from the little els are put up also. A few hand-towels and relatives come forward and testify village club that he nightly resorted to and a cake of soap should not be for- that she is insane, or subject to fits of lay through a church-yard, and it ocgotten, since fingers usually supersede insanity, and she is discharged-to go forks on such occasions. A little prac-tice will enable you to stow away all Once in a while one of them is held for the articles I have named in a surpris- trial, but a specious lawyer works upon ingly small space. Olives and pickles the sympathies of the jury and he or are acceptable at all cold collations. she is acquitted. Country as well as Sardines are convenient and popular, city people plunder us. Quite recently also potted meats, such as deviled game a weil-known lady residing in aristoand boned chicken.

cratic style came in with some country The gypsying-party is a variation of relatives. We detected one of these the picnic, and, in my opinion, is an improvement upon the original plan. It is, however, hardly feasible when the try where she lived it was the custom excursion is pedestrian, unless the when looking at goods to put those camping-ground is selected so near to which she wished to purchase into her a farm house that a large iron-pot or a basket, and, when her shopping was tea-kettle can be borrowed. Of course, completed, to hand the basket to a either or both of these are easily car- clerk, who figured up the value of the ried in a wagon. The kettle can be hung upon a horizontal pole lashed at each end to a tree, or supported upon forked boughs. A more picturesque style is the conventional three poles thrust into the ground and inclining toward one another until they meet, and are bound together at ton. The with her own key or taken the one in the wardrobe, and, securing the money, hid it either in or out of the house, without awakening the old lady. "Wo asid far was snything de mat-ter wid 'em?" said Jim, indignantly. "You did. I heerd you tell de Jedge tey was gwine ter die." "You did. I heerd you tell de Jedge tey was gwine ter die." "Weil,' she naively remarked, 'ii you do find any money about the house it woat prove that I stole it, will it?" "I locked her up in her bedroom and began a thorough search; band. "I locked her up in her bedroom and began a thorough search; band.

pack one hamper with plates, tumblers, this they are instructed to do at all -An old Scotch gentleman had, in knives, forks, spoons and other needed times. We detect a woman in the act utensils. Into this can also go table- of pocketing goods, call in an officer the course of a long life, gained a great curred to some would-be wags to try if he was impervious to fear of the spiritual as well as the mortal world. One, therefore, dressed up in the orthodox sheet, using a litt'e sulphur judiciou-ly here and there to make it more ghastly. just as the old gentleman one dark night reached the loneliest part of the church-vard, suddenly appeared to him. But of the two the ghost was most disconcerted, for his intended victim. quietly finishing the pinch of snuff first that he was at that moment enjoying. addressed him in the following concil atory fashion: "Noo, my lad, would ye just have the kindness to tell me are ye out for a saunter by yoursel', or is it the general rising?"

-There has been a brisk demand for oyster shells at New Haven, Conn., ately for use in the oyster-beds. as the spawn adheres to them readily after being bleached on the land. They have become so indispensable that large

Good For Flies.

"Sav, do you know what's good for flies?" queried a Woodward avenue butcher as he entered a drug store the other day.

"I guess I can put you up something for about a quarter," was the

When the dose was ready the butcher was told to pour it out on plates and set them on the counter, and he hurried away to give it a trial. In about an hour he sent for the druggist to come over. The 10,000 flies in the shop before the dose was fixed had been multiplied by four. "Great lands! but I'm being carried off by flies!" exclaimed the butcher, as he waved a long knife around his head. "Well, why don't you get something to kill 'em off."

"Didn't I, but it hasn't killed a

"Of course it hasn't. You wanted something good for flies and I gave you elarified sirup! It's the best stuff to draw flies and keep 'em contented I ever heard of. Why didn't you tell me carry them away in their pockets to throw at burglars, but I cannot be-lieve they eat them. Here, let me see one of them eat this, and I will believe real meaning. His reading was for money nor ingenuity can compass for amusement alone, and consisted mostly him normal darkness to skeep in. The of poetry and works of fiction. Butone Norwegian house is one half windows; went to the cashier's desk to tell the evening he sat in his room reading a in their long winters they need all the boss to look out for that man at the paper in the Spectator. He had read sun they can get; not an ouside blind, before many of Addison's lighter arti- not an inside shutter, nor a dark shade, cles, but at this time he took hold of to be seen; streaming, flooding, radiatone of his criticisms on Milton's "Par- ing in and round about the rooms, comes adise Lost." To his surprise he en- the light, welcome or unwelcome, early joyed it. He saw the force of the crit- and late. And to the words "early" icisms, appreciated their beauty and and "late" there are in a Norway sumcomprehended the scope of the whole mer new meanings: the early light article and the unity of its parts. He of the summer moining sets in about sat for a few moments lost in wonder at half past two; the late light of the sumthe new thoughts crowding on him. He mer evening fades into a luminous felt for the first time what it is to be a twilight about eleven. Enjoyment of rational being, capable of apprehend- this species of perpetual day soon comes ing a train of thought laid by another to an end. After the traveler has ture usefulness.

Two Great Changes,

mind, or of originating one himself. written home to everybody once by From that time his intellectual charac- broad daylight at ten o'clock, the fun ter changed. He abandoned fiction, of the thing is over; normal sleepiness and reading for amusement, and began begins to hunger for its rights, and to read history and biography, and disastis action takes the place of won-other works that compelled thought. dering amusement. This dissatisfac-He loved solid reading and hard think- tion reaches its climax in a few days; ing. One foundation was laid for fu- then, if he is wise, the traveler provides himself with several pieces of

The second change came during his dark green cambric, which he pins up professional study. After completing at his windows at bed-time, thereby the college course with honor, he making it possible to get seven on began to study medicine, intending to practice as a physician. He had a green cambric will not and was unwearied in his researches in- until one or I to the anatomy of the human body, and the uncea the nature of diseases. He would have of the ch made a first-class physician, if he had been for ever heard of. Why didn't you tell me you wanted a fly-killer?"-Detroit Free Press. followed his natural tastes. But when up half t he had completed his preparatory course of studies, and was ready to begin prac- time. --