We made a mistake last week in the name of the gentleman who purchased the goods of Moon & Callender, at Cowles. It is Mr. Gilpin instead of Mr. Hadley. Mr. Hadley went east some time ago.

It is now understood that there will be no session of the legislature this winter. This is good news for the taxpayers, as it will save the useless expenditure of thousands of dollars of the public funds.

It might not be out of place to suggest that after the fire has swept Red Cloud from existence it will be too late to organize a fire company. It is only a question of time when the fire will get started, and the citizens have no way to fight it.

Mr. T. C. Laird, one of the oldest settlers of Oak Creek, and post master at Negunda, was a pleasant caller at newspaper headquarters last Tuesday. He reports everybody prosperous in his part of the county, and says that the crops the last season were reasonably good.

The entertainment given by the Red Cloud Historic Association at the court house last Thursday night was a success—especially the music furnished by the band. Everybody seemed to enjoy it, and doubtless were home satisfied that they had had their money's worth of fun.

There is not near enough dwelling houses in Red Cloud to supply the demand. Why would it not be a good investment for those who have money to invest, as well as a good thing for the town, to erect neat comfortable houses in desirable locations to rent. They would not stand empty, no fear of that.

The CHIEF office is in receipt of a large fresh stock of paper and card boards. Letterheads, Noteheads, Envelopes, Billheads, Statements, Cards, Shipping Tags and everything else in the printer's line furnished on short notice and in as good style and almost as cheap as can be had at Lincoln. Call and see samples before placing your orders.

We suppose that all towns have their quota of bad boys. Red Cloud certainly has here, but we do not for a moment suppose that the boys of Red Cloud are worse than the boys of other towns, probably not so bad. Boys will be boys, and we don't blame them much. About all the satisfaction they get out of this life any way is when they are young and devilish.
