

THE CHIEF.
PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.
—BY—
M. L. THOMAS.
TERMS:—$1.50 a year if paid in Advance.

GO EAST
NORTH-EAST OR SOUTH-EAST —VIA THE—
B. & M. R. R.

This Road together with the C. B. & Q. which is called —THE—Burlington Route!

Plattsmouth Steel Bridge,
Which has lately been completed.

Through Day Coaches —AND—
Pullman Sleeping Cars —ARE RUN TO—Burlington, Peoria, Chicago and St. Louis.

Where close connections are made in union depots for all points North East and South. Trains by this route start in Nebraska are therefore free from the various accidents which so frequently delay trains coming through from the mountains, and passengers are thus sure of making good connections when they take the B. & M. R. R. route.

Through Tickets
—AT—LOWEST RATES

Where in the State, as well as full and reliable information required, can be had upon application to B. & M. R. R. Agents at any of the principal stations, or to PERCEVAL LOWELL,
General Ticket Agent,
OMAHA, NEB.

That this medicine has been
USE private practice, in all diseases of the throat and lungs, is the greatest and most reliable
MOUNTAIN
COUGH
BALSAM
I have ever used. It is guaranteed to cure
any case of Cough,
Sore Throat, Whooping
Cough, etc., etc.
Go to the reliable and well-known drug stand of R. R. Sherer Red Cloud, and buy a $1 bottle. If after using two-thirds, you get no relief, return the balance and get your money back.

Samuel West, —DEALER IN—
Tobacco, Cigars,
CONFECTIONERY,
CANNED FRUITS,
FRESH FRUITS,
CRACKERS, CHEESE,
ORANGES, LEMONS,
AND A FULL LINE OF FANCY
GROCERIES.

Ice Cream Parlor,
Where you can always get a nice dish of Ice Cream during the Season.
A share of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. First door south of Mitchell & Morrill's.
RED CLOUD, — NEBRASKA.

COME LUMBER.
For Your
DRY LUMBER A SPECIALTY.
THE BEST IN THE MARKET
Sold at Lowest Prices
—BY—
JONES & PAGEE,
RED CLOUD, NEB.

NEW Chicago Lumber Yard.
Having opened a Yard at GUIDE ROCK, NEBRASKA. It will be preparing to fill all bills at LIVING PRICES. It will be your interest to call on us before buying.

GUIDE ROCK, NEBRASKA.
C. F. ALLEN & CO., Guide Rock, Neb.

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF.

"Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty," and $1.50 a year is the price of the Red Cloud Chief.

VOL. IX.

RED CLOUD, WEBSTER CO. NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1881.

NO. 19.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

J. E. Payne, Cashier Nat. Bank
J. E. Payne, Cashier Nat. Bank
J. E. Payne, Cashier Nat. Bank

SMITH BROTHERS, BANKERS.

RED CLOUD, NEB.

Transact a general banking business, buy and sell gold, silver, and foreign exchange, and all other business pertaining to a bank.

Special attention given to collections.

Residence: 1st Nat. Bank New York, Omaha Nat. Bank, Omaha.

SMITH BROS.

G. W. SHIDLER, R. V. SHIRLEY,
President, Cashier.

WEBSTER COUNTY BANK,

RED CLOUD, NEB.

MONEY TO LOAN ON Real Estate and Chattel Mortgage. Buy and Sell Exchange and do a general Banking business.

REFERENCES:
Noyes & Atkins, Bankers, York, York County Bank, York, Farmers & Merchants Bank, York, Union National Bank, Chicago, Marsh Bros., Merchant & Co., Lincoln, 9-517

W. H. STROHM.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,
RED CLOUD, — NEBRASKA.

May be consulted in English or German. Collections will receive prompt attention.

OFFICE—Opposite Boy's Home

O. C. CASE, J. McNENY,
Attorneys and Counselors at Law.

Will practice in all the Courts of this State and Northern Kansas. Collections as well as litigation handled promptly and efficiently attended to.

On Webster Street, one door north of Garfield's.

RED CLOUD, NEB.

J. S. GILHAM,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.

Office one door north of Kelly Bros. RED CLOUD, — NEBRASKA.

C. C. HAWLEY, N. H. THORPE,
Attorneys & Counselors at Law.

OFFICE—Over McFarland's store. RED CLOUD, NEB.

LAIRD & SMITH,

ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

HASTINGS, — NEBRASKA.

Will practice in all the Courts of the State. Prompt attention given to all business entrusted to his care.

C. W. KALBY, J. L. KALBY,
Red Cloud, Neb. Red Cloud, Neb.

KALEY BROS.,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW & REAL ESTATE AGENTS

Will practice in all the Courts in Nebraska and Northern Kansas. Collections promptly attended to and correspondence solicited.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.

Also, Agents for B. & M. R. R. Lands.

ELBERT A. HALL M. D.

Physician & Surgeon.

RED CLOUD, NEB.

Assistant Surgeon U. S. Army. Office over Johnson & Creps' drug goods store. Residence over Perkins & Mitchell's store. 17-18

J. M. MOSENA, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon.

RED CLOUD, NEB.

Will practice special attention to Obstetrics and diseases of women—Also general and special surgery. Diseases of the Eye and Ear. Charges moderate. Office over Steward's Store. 25-27

DR. C. SCHENCK.

Physician & Surgeon.

COWLES, NEBRASKA.

Professional calls promptly attended. Office: At residence near Cowles. 8-51

DR. H. A. BAIRD,

RESIDENT DENTIST.

RED CLOUD, — NEBRASKA.

GUIDE ROCK HOUSE,

J. B. SABIN, Prop.

GUIDE ROCK, NEBRASKA.

This House has just been refitted and newly furnished throughout.

GOOD SAMPLE ROOM for the accommodation of commercial men.

49-1

HENRY COOK'S

Paints, Oils, Glass, Notions, DRUG, Wall Paper, STORE, &c., &c.

DR. CROOK'S

WINE OF TAR

CURES THOUSANDS YEARLY.

A POSITIVE CURE For Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Asthma, Hay Fever, etc., etc.

It is the Best of Tonics; Cures Dyspepsia; Restores the Appetite; Cleanses the System; Restores the Weak and Debilitated.

A trial of it will give you all the information you need. It is the best of all medicines. It is the best of all medicines. It is the best of all medicines.

For sale at all drug stores. S. E. SMITH & CO., Proprietors, 1011 Broadway, New York City.

THE CHIEF.

M. L. THOMAS, EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DEC. 8, 1881.

SENATORS Van Wyck and Saunders authorize the statement that the sale of the Otoe reservation land will not take place until next spring. The appropriation has not yet been made.

Congress will probably pass an act favoring the sale of the land in small parcels to actual settlers. If speculators have been "setting their traps" to secure these valuable lands at very low figures they will perhaps be disappointed. The Otoe reservation contains some of the richest land in the world, and a large number of persons already express a desire to secure an eighty acre tract or a quarter section, on which to make themselves homes.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

In order that our readers who have not the privilege of scanning the daily papers may know something of the disgraceful proceedings of the trial of the assassin, Guiteau, we publish some of it below, as reported by the National Associated Press dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The criminal court opened promptly at ten, and Dr. John McArthur again took the stand. Guiteau shouted out "Your honor!"

Seville—Keep still, please.

Guiteau—Well, then state it at once.

If you don't I will.

Seville then addressed the court and objected to the character of the evidence which had been given by the witness, on the ground that the prisoner, as to any other crimes could not be introduced when the prisoner is on trial for this particular offense. He desired all such evidence to be struck out. Guiteau broke in excitedly, and shouted out, "It is purely in the nature of a confession. McArthur is not an expert or a lawyer, and I object to his telling the jury and the American people facts which I told him years ago in regard to my history."

The court ruled that the evidence could be admitted as tending to show the general character of the prisoner.

Guiteau—Did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No, sir, I never did. Guiteau broke into one of his noisy harangues, and despite the protestations of the court and the expostulations of counsel, proceeded to express his opinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not at all delicate. Turning to the reporter's table, he declaimed for some minutes against the scandalous reports they had given of his character, and singing out to the reporter of the Republican, shook his fist at him threateningly. Corkhill, during the trial, did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

</