The Opinion of the Supreme Court upon the Question of Jurisdiction.

After which a Post-mortem Examination will be had of the Remains.

Washington Correspondence

Washington, May 21, 1882

Mr. E. C. The citizens of the Capital have just been called to mourn the loss of two distinguished personages...

One was Rear Admiral Rogers, Superintendent of the U. S. Naval Observatory...

The other was Major W. J. Twining, Engineer Commissioner of the District...

The people of the country may well and it is their duty to be at the end of the Gaiter's business...

Final Proof on Timber Claims

Up to within a very recent date but one final proof on timber claims has been made in this country...

It being a matter of considerable interest to those owning timber claims, we give below the principal requirements...

There are some things that are more than a match for the President and his cabinet...

entry, or within five years thereafter. It must be shown that not less than 2,000 trees of the proper character were planted on each of the ten acres...
