D. LUTZ. Publisher.

RED CLOUD, - - NEBRASKA

THE HERO OF RAGENBACH!

A TRUE STORY.

Just as the closing autumn day Was merging into twilight gray,

The sun had set in a golden sea. The wandering wind swept o er the les.

Sighing as onward it passed to the glade, "As a leaf we all do fade-do fade;"

It chanced that some neighbors came drop ping in The friendly doors of Ragenbach Inn,

To spend an hour in social chat, Talk of the weather, of this, of that,

Nor dreamed a danger lurking near Should fill each beart with sudden fear.

The smith, a goodly man to see, Made one of this giad company.

Strong-limbed and powerful, sinewy, tall, His genial smile o'erbrimmed on all; But presently wide open swung The half-closed door. With leaden tongue

Protruding, and with aspect bad, Stood there a powerful mastiff, mad;

Savagely snapping, left and right, He barred the only entrance tight:

To pass him surely was to die. Then rose a great despairing cry; And groans, and sighs, and tears, and Mingled in wild confusion there. But in that moment, horror-fraught, like inspiration came the thought Unto the blacks. 'h, strong a d tail: "My death shall be the life of all."

"Back, each!" he thundered, in a voice So stern and deep there seemed no cho

But to obey. "I'll guarantee The brute shall harm no one but me.

"God help me now !" he cried, nor qualled Seized on the foaming beast and miled

" DRAR BERT

nite wate til i wistle returned with the following:

superiority of his Boston schooling by Tom waited that night till he knew everybody was in bed. Joe was always the last one to go to bed. Tom heard him come up to his bed-room, which was next to the unfinished room. He heard him take of his boots and toss them into the corners. Then he sang a verse of "A wet sheet and a flowing sea." (Joe was an old sailor and always sang when he was undressing.)

Then the bed creaked, there was a si-writing the capital I where it belongs.

"DEER TOM

With iron grasp unto the floor Tdi all had safely passed the door;

Then dashed his prisoner swift adde, And joined his weeping friends outside,

Bleeding and torn and out of breath, A hero-doomed to awful death.

Then, 'mid the people's loud lament, Straight to his own dear workshop went,

Whose walls, so often and so long, Had echoed to his cheery song;

His strongest, heaviest chain unwound, And firmly to his anvil bound;

Then with a skill by none excelled About his own strong limbs did weld.

In solemn silence. "'Tis done, 'tis past, The work is well-it is my last.

"Now bring to me my food each day, And O, forget you not to pray

"That if the Father's will be such I may not suffer long, or much!"

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF, his astonishment and anger. The calves | Bert had heard fearful stories of the were released, and Tom and Bert capture of children by hand-organ men; marched to the house and put to bed, as he had heard how they starved and beat a punishment, not daring to say even them, and how tired the children got one word for themselves. After which walking all day and shaking the tam the Deacon sat in the kitchen door and, boosine. What if this hand-organ man while he mopped his face and his should carry them off! Somehow a pegging them down to the ground in smooth, round head with his vellow cor. smooth, round hest with his yellow cot- roaming life did not seem so desirable ton handkerchief, told the serio-comic and charming to him as it did when he story to Mammy. and Tom were talking about going to Mammy sighed deeply while she lis-

sea. tened, and as she took two brown. And Tom! A few days before he had flaky, apple turnovers from out the brick heard Sam Ellis telling at the store and a tablespoonful of vinegar. - St. oven and deposited them on the gay, about a crazy man who had escaped Louis Globe. old-fashioned china plates, she wondered from the Danvers Lunatic Asylum and -Eggs are a valuable food, not sufwhether it would lessen the effect of was wandering about the country, ter- ficiently appreciated by the farmer. the Deacon's discipline if she should rifying the women and ch ldren. Could One pound of nice, fresh eggs is worth slyly slip them into the boys' chambers. it be possible, thought Tom, that that as much for food as about two pounds Chambers I say, emphatically, for very man was in the barn with them? of best. They are easily digested .the Deacon was too wise a man to at-tempt to punish two boys by putting caped from a menagerie and secreted -The French Minister of Agricultthem to bed in one chamber in the day- itself in the barn-a lion, or a tiger, or ure has placed at M. Pasteur's disposal time. Bert was in the east room, at one a huge anaconda. It was not impossi- a further sum of $10,000 to enable him extremity of the house, and Tom was ble. They had heard of such things. to continue his investigations into the in the unfinished room at the other. It was only with the greatest effort that nature, cause and prevention of conta-The doors were carefully locked. The the two frightened little fellows kept gious diseases among animals. Deacon thought he had effectually cut from shrieking outright. -Hard Soap: Take six pour off all communication between the two; To their great relief, there were no but he had yet to learn the extent of more loud, terrifying "ahems," but the resources of two boys bent upon soon, instead, a heavy, regular breathmischief. ing was heard, breaking into an occa- pound of boray, six pounds of grease; There was a very comfortable ar- sional snort, which indicated that the rangement for the convenience of the creature was sleeping. cats at Deacon Jones'. Cat-holes had They waited, to be quite sure, and been cut from the outer wall of the then, slipping down from their perch on house through a succession of doors, so the hay, they crept out of the barn and the cats could have access at any hour started for home, running almost eve y of day or night to the garret, where step of the way. The moon had gone grain was often kept. down and it was quiet dark; but this As Tom was lying in bed, revolving they thought was favorable, for, if the in his mind all the difficulties of his tramp, or hand organ man, or lunatic, position and casting about for some or whatever it might be, awakened by way of escape, old Towser walked se- their exit from the barn, should follow dately through the cat-hole from the them, he could not readily see them. outside world. Instantly a way of They reached home, and, finding the communication with Bert flashed back door a ar, crept up to bed with a through Tom's mind. He secured both happy sense of safety and comfort. It paper, fished a pencil from among the night. They were only too glad to as-rubbish in his trowser's pocket, and wrote the following note to Bert:

looking out about ten minutes after "Data Bear "Lets go to see i saw a skooner at north warf it sales in too days Father is a Tirant i can bare no more take the rope out of the bed std and ty it to the nost and git out the winder to and walk softly up to Joe's room.

The next morning they slept so sound-" Ton" ly Mammy had to ring the he L an un-Tom did not say how he expected to precedented act, for they were generally make his escape. He was not an expert in penmanship and the composiup at dawn. They came down very tion of the above short note took so hungry, very happy and quite content to find themselves in their own places much time it was nearly sunset when it at the breakfast-table, cosseted by Mamwas finished. Having folded it, he my, instead of waking up in the hay on fastened it with a string around Towthe top of Captain Ingram's barn. ser's neck, and, opening the cat-hole in Somehow, seen by daylight, their plan the direction of Bert's room, put him through, whence he proceeded peaceof going to sea looked very silly and dreary. fully on his way, as utterly unconscious of the weighty message he bore as a good to him."

While they were eating breakfast, stir in the whites beaten very stiff, and United States mail-bag. In due time he "I have always wanted to go to see I hope

BOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

-Hard Soap: Take six pounds of and gether and let it come to a boiling point;

let it settle and pour off; add one-half

Chromicle.

Seecher has made a fortune of $2,000,--An anonymous authority prescribes 000 out of his literary work. His entire kerosene oil as a protection against fortune does not exceed $30,000, and equash bugs, and similar pests, to be half of that has been saved from his applied by soaking regs in the oil and | salary as a preacher .- N. Y. Herald. -----

Ballroader's Relief.

-Some one has started the story that

That most conductable Ticket Office, 187 -To make almond cakes, take one pound of flour, haif a pound of loaf ugar, quarter of a pound of butter, two ounces of bitter almonds, two ergs.

friend to use St. Janota Oil. I did so, and | retailers. refore the second bottle had been exheusted my arm was perfectly well.-Brooklyn Engin

"I an ellated," sall the set, as he passed into the visio's mouth. "How Jonah?"-

Tax success of St. Jacobs Off throughout the civilized world is without a parallel --Richmond (Va.) Southern Planter and Farmer. Wmay kind of a field is older than you are!

One that is pasturage.

A FATAL MISTAKE. soda, four gallous of water; put this to | How a Blundering Judgment May be Be sponsible for the Most Serious Results.

-Mr. Edwin Booth said recently that he enjoyced his langs were affected, havthen pour into dripping tins; let cool and cut into bars -- San Francisco ing a persistent cough, until he saw Dr. Mackenge, of London, who found that this symptom score from a disturbance of the liver, -N, T. Hermid. -Mr. E. D. Sturtevant, a florist of Bordentown, N. J., has accomplished a The above item, which has been going the feat hitherto unknown in the aunals of rounds of the press, is of no special signififloriculture in this country, that of cance other than to the personal friends of growing to perfection in the open air a Mr. Booth, except that it brings to light a plant of the famous victoria regia, the trath of the greatest importance to the giant water lily of South America. workt. Few people pass through life without -Rye tes cakes or breakfast cakes are the affliction of a cough at some point in their made of one pint of sweet milk, two career. In most cases this is considered the eggs, one tablespoonful of brown sugar. result of a cold or the beginning of consumphalf a teaspoonful of salt; stir in this tion, and thousands have become terrified at enough flour to make a batter about this revelation and have sought by a change

"Liver coughs" are exceedingly common and -A writer to the Prairie Farmer were planted, part in hills and part flat. the disease, produce coughing even when the He recommends the level cultivation as | lungs themselves are in a healthy state. the best, as hot weather did greater delicate tissues as the lungs can long remain But it is a mistake to suppose that such damage in the hills. In ten days the in a bealthy condition when they are being difference was very marked. Although the flat cultivation was superior for a dry season, the hill system is preferable for a wet one. -A nice omelette is made of four ful mind. It stands to reason, therefore, that while his kidneys were in a most terrible condition. He had all the apparent symptoms of eggs beaten separately, one cup of the only way in which "liver coughs" can be removed is by restoring the liver to health. sweet milk, one tablespoonful of flour. In this connection another fact of great imand a little salt. Add the flour dissolved portance lecomes known, which can explained by the relation of an actual event. Baasha said there must have been a "traveler" along the night before. "Traveler" was the eld country name for "tramp." The grass was trampled about the buttery windows, and she had Mr. W .---- a wealthy cattle dealer of Colo-

Bright's discase.

"Another print many is use of the set inistim panonented thus early he the met Smith's Tonic Syra The Non-arell Valuetors is found to all the strijek new sina irs, and when made up, with the plin turne 1 up ward, 18 catanot be distin-West street, New York, is presided over by guinhed from sitk witter. The difference in Mr. C. V. Ward, who thus addressed one the price makes a garment and about man of our representatives recently: "Some months third as much as if mole of Lyon's alla ago I and thenmation in my right arm, and volvet."-From Marper's Barer, Sustanber 1. was unable to raise it. I was advised by a To be purchased from all first-rians dry go als

> "Bourrning left over from the fight of CERTAIN, SPREDT ant PERCATENT sure pestentar," was the Dake of Wellington's defaition of Exch.

"."Catóden guests are often velenment when they are come." Disease is an unbidden guest which Kiltury Wort aim of invariably shows the door." Here is a case in point "Mother has recovered," wrote an Illinois girl to her Eastern re atlens. "She tank hitets for a long time but without any good. So when she heard of the witnes of Wort she get a but and it considerant cured her, so that she can do as much work work as the could before we more ! West. Since sie got well every one about here is taking it.

To cmawos window glass to tin-take point to leave the window open when it raiss and it will heat in.

Personal!

The Vot.vase Bazy Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dyc's Celebrated Electro Voltain Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are ficted with nervous detailty, but vitality and kindred truthes, guaranteeing speedy and e suplets to do sation of health and manly signed. Address as above. N. R .- No risk is incurred, as thirty day's trial is allowed.

Tur Colorado beetle has traveled to Europe. but the monopulto stays to hum. - Boston Com-mercial Buildin.

We are persuaded that the ancient liermes th all the subtle art and natural resources of the Alchemiata, we as very poor doctor compared with Mrs. Lydia E. Flakham, of Lyon, Mass. Hermes may have been after all only a clover practitioner of the Illack Art; but we know there is no hombing in the phars acculical cas nistry of Mrs. Finkham's Vegetable Compound.

They coll them war-clouds because they are brought about by the reigning powers.

Mns. BROWN SAYS .- Nerrous or Dyspeptie cadaches cared by Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile ('Ula, Dr. Bouson's Skin Cure consists of internal and external treatment. Removes humors of all kinds. Perfortly safe.

A rorno lady of this city calls an admirer who weighs close on to two hundred and fifty pounds her Jum heau .- Elmira Tologram.

TT'In the Diamond Dyes more coloring is given for 10 ets, than in any line Bi cent dives, 1 and they give faster and more brilliant colors.

TENPORART Insanity-time "out of mind." fontrati Wilnut.

25e. buys a pair of Lyon's Patent Heel Stiffeners and make a boot or shoe last twice as long.

A man is known by the company he keeps ef Agenaat Perer, or Chills and Perer, wheth er of abort or long standing. Be refers to the astire Westers and Bruthers country in bear him testimony in the truth of the sametion that is as ease whatever will it fail to sure it the directions are strictly bile wet and entried rat. In a great many rases & single dess has bers ou Saisat for a sure, and whele fumilies have been sured by a single bettle, with a perhawever, profest, and is every this mire carto's to cure, if its use is continued to exceller fanns fir a wielt ar twe after the f ara.s bas been checked, mare especially in differalt and long standing cases. Boundly this metisting will pot regaire any ald to horp the bamela ta good a-der. Should the patient, however, resaire a ratha tie medietas after saving tobis hree er faur dares af the Tinia. a sing a lass of BULL'S VEORTABLE FABILY FILLS

The gentles SHITES TORIC STATF must bare DE JOHN BULL'S private stamp on rach bettin DE JOHN BULLeniy bas the right to anothetare and sell the original JORN J. Amit R's TORIC STRUP, of Louisville, Ky. Examine well the label on cost bottle. If my private stamp is not on each bottle de aut

If the deaters is mean place it and it purchase, at you will be deeni end. after scouttery as as up where they get DR. JOHN BULL, mortletture, and and it. Kings the feature Manufacturer and Vender of coper for animals and minite him and

SHITH'S TONIC SYRUP. BULL'S SARSAPARILLA. BULL'S WORN DESTROYES

The Merechand's finepling fill has been used in Entrement for half a consistery. All o ack is a fact trial, but to mare and fulfore of The Popular Remodies of the Bap. Prineipal Offer, 161 Hais Ma. LOUISTILLE. ET.

which therefore old and Morthand's Wor Tabilitia are for only by all dropping and de on in ground best hearing threat .

NERCHANTS GAMPERNO (STE

skines and the standard finit ref it United Auton, Large sim, $1.56 sent organ smath, $5 sentia simplified of $

in general merchandles

nen. Di cunta, Merestant's Women Tobarte, punda. Por anie tor rivery dringgait and dras

For Family Los.

The Gauging Oil Linemand with whith

The Gargling Oil Almanne for 1883

to new in the handless over priviley, and wi

he reads for disreflection desing the results of Neverming and Incentive, 1998. The Al-

Ask the Neurest Drugglei.

Special Notice.

ful and inseruntion these even, and will must from to any address. Write for our unit.

Waapress, provide for houses fork it uses in small built in solid and these solid the thirty of the second states with the taken. From Discussion

Manufactured at Lochscott, N. Y., by M.

ΪĒ and women, has, i

HARD PROPERTY. 1 110

The proprietor of this coldensist modifies of party claims for it a superiarity over all rea-otics over affored to the public for the SAFE.

we shall be recard like rob na m Crew so and When nine bright morns had set and risen, live on a desert island and cat gots broth "Bear" The carly watcher sought his prison, You will notice that Bert shows the

But heard within no moan of pain, No dismal clanking of a chain.

Firetched cold and lifeless on the ground, His chain still clasped the anvil round, But his tried soul had snapped its bond,

And, soaring to the bright beyond

Had left another martyr-name ablazoned on the scroll of fame,

Reside which to the end of time, Will stand no other more sublime, -Eunice Alcord Clarke, in Youth's Compution.

----A PAIR OF 'EM.

lence of a few moments, a gentle snore Tom and Bert were sitting on the top was heard, which soon increased mightrail of the pasture fen e. Their hands ily in volume and finally settled into a faces were stained with blackberry regular cadence, which indicated that Having had the'r fill of berries, Joe was off for the night. of fun a now considering what piece Ton's hour had come. He crept uniachief to engage in next. "Beat" Natur," said Deacon Jones, noiselessly up the flight of steps leading

"th' amount, " mischief them boys ken crowd inter for teen hours," that being the supposable number of hours they were not quietly Sceping in their beds. The san fell full and warm on the site in the supposed in their beds. The san fell full and warm on the with with with specific onto the sale of the supposed in the supposed of the branching hickories oaks and low- roaring storm, was not to be awakened connection with the idea that certain feeding placidly on the we cattle were by so trivial a noise as that mide by a spring waters contain valuable medicinsweet grasses; all but three, wer and falling scuttle. The snoring began al properties. It also is strange that ing satisfied their hunger, stood in the again, and Tom steppped out upon the the opposers of mineral medicines are very deepest part of the brook, chewing inch le could climb like a cat and every among the advocates of this impure their cuds and switching off the fies familiar to by roof on the farm was water, made so by the presence of the with a regular pendulum-like sway of their tails. Apart from the main herd a pair of protty red and white concliner a pair of pretty red and white yearlings were feeding. "Beauties, ain't they?" asked Tom, pointing them out to Bert. Bert was a Boston boy, summering at Canterbury. Boston boy, summering at Canterbury, "Father give 'em to me; an', I say, Bert, let's yoke 'em. I heard father tell Joe the other day it's about time they's broke."

Now, these boys were spoiling for some fun. They had been trying to be good all the morning, in consideration of a promise made to Mammy Jones the day before, when Joe fished them out of the clay-pit, into which they had tumbled, while trying to capture a huge anybody, but considered rather deficient So Tom's proposition was very welby boys accustomed to unlimited supcome, and, without a moment's besitaplies of Mamma Jones' delectable pudtion, they leaped from the fence and dings, pies and doughnuts. went together to the barn for the little voke used in the breaking of steers, Tom at once opened his plan to Bert. taking care to keep out of range of the He proposed that they should s'ay the next day in Captain Ingram's barn, hidwin lows and door of the kitchen, where Mammy was baking. If she should den in the hay, and the following night chance to see them, she would be sure smuggle themselves on board the to ask what they were going to do, and, schooner. In the meantime they must with all their roguery, Tom and Bert have something to eat, and, without any were truthful and would never have thought of getting into or out of a scrape by telling a lie. by telling a lie.

It was a work of time to catch the These were packed into one of Mamfrisky little yearlings. Just as Bert or my's tin pails, and, thus provided for, Tom almost had his hand on one, off he our two heroes started out on their travwould go, curveting and kicking up his els, with as delightful anticipations of needful. heels. With a series of flying leaps the wonderful and surprising things in they dashed in among the blackberry store for them as ever Columbus had. vines, followed by the boys, the sharp briers seizing their clothes and making numberless little ragged tears; then down to the furthest end of the pasture, over a bit of bog that quaked ominously under the footsteps of both boys and one, and, as the having season was calves; now in among the feeding cat- past, it was well filled with hay from ness is designed as a means of protee- learned, it is best at first to attempt no the who looked up with an air of sur-prise, but went on tranquilly feeding boys selected the latter place in which that instinct does in the brutes A bit-the neighborhood. Undoubtedly imagain (cattle understand boys, you to hide, and excavated a large hole in ter, for example, or a very unpleasant provements are possible, but it is better and sour, and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but the her but it is better and the like are sufficient with the her but it is better and the her b brook, splashing the mud over the boys sunk low in the west, and the moonclothes and completing the destruction beams fell through the crevices of the use. And then the special unpleasant cord with the ideas of "young Ameri-the blackberry vines had begun; until, barn, lighting up their little den and ness of the odor indicates a partial or can" progress, but it will be sure, and at last, tired and heated, the calves lending to it a sense of comfort and general decomposition, or at least, a may save a mortifying failure. Having Having voked the yearlings, the next It was sometime before they were question was what to do with them. sufficiently composed to think of sleep. Obstinate and terrified, they would not They talked in low tones, their talk stand, but pulled apart, straining their dwelling mostly on catching codfish and latter. necks in a way that threatened disloca- whales, on the difference between I rer tion. Tom had had some vague idea of schooners and barques, and such nautition. Tom had had some vague idea of hitching them to the ox-cart; but what could he do with two steers that per-sisted in traveling round in a circle as far apart as they could get? "Say, Tom, tie their tails together," schooners and barques, and such nauti-cal subjects. Once Bert ventured to wonder what Mammy would say, when she found they were gone; but this sub-ject was quickly thrust aside as disa-greeable and inappropriate.

browned on the bottom place it in the his langs. But his cough increased while his found a deficiency of doughnuts and cookies, and there was not so much cold beaf for breakfast as she thought there beef for breakfast as she thought there -Cribbing in Horses: I see an" inwas. Tom and Bert did not dare to look up while she was telling this. If quiry asking for a cure. I will give a they had, they would have observed an cure generally successful in a young unusual twinkle in Joe's eyes, as he horse, and sometimes for old ones. Get some cayenne pepper (red pepper pods will do), and make a strong pepper tea. Wash the stall, manger and feed-box looked at them, and a suspicious twitching at the corners of his mouth. "Poor cretur" said Mammy, who al ways had a tender spot in her heart for thoroughly with the tea boiled down very strong. Also wash the neck-voke. hungry folks. "I hope the vittles tasted and wagon or sleigh-tongue, if driving the horse daily. Do this once a week In conclusion, I will add one very for several weeks, and if it is a young horse it will most likely cure him. A mysterious incident. It will be remempered that the boys packed their progood many old ones have also been visions in a large tin pail, and they cer-tainly never thought of taking it with cured. - Cor. Country Gentleman. them on their rapid retreat from the barn; but you should have seen Tom's eves when he pointed out that very pail A few years since I met a gentleman. to Bert, as it stood on the kitchen educated for the ministry, who after a dresser that morning.-Frances A few years came into possession, through marriage, of a good farm on the Con-brother, who owned and improved it in dreds of instances which have occurred withcommon. On the death of one, the in the past three months where individuals farm and stock were divided; and the have believed themselves the victims of conhomestead, a good-sized farm, with good and convenient buildings, went to this heir, who thought he could run it as well as any other person. He was young, strong and healthy, with a very high estimate of h's ability. He tred the experiment. The first season he d d not succeed to his expectations, although he had experienced farm helproof, and then to the ground, till lower than vegetables, or even as much so, ers; the second season satisfied him, and he was heard to say, "Farming is a mean business," and was only too glad but he felt that this was an occasion which demanded shoes, like Sunday or town meeting), and went round to the like a needle, for example. the system. The observation of this man's experi-ence has led me to reflect upon what east porch and whistled. Bert, who was Now, what is a mineral water? east porch and whistled. Bert, who was on the watch and had already fastened the bed-cord to the post, opened the win-dow, swung down to the roof of the porch, and reached the ground from thenee by a ladder which Tom brought. Their first resort was to the buttery, a large, square room, with two windows. Incir first resort was to the outlety, a large, square room, with two windows. Tom's father rigidly carried out his in- composed of water and such minerals as any other vocation. No doubt had tentions of punishment, and the boys iron, sulphur, soda, silica, etc., none this same man put as much thought into mud-tartle. The clay-pit was a deep, had been kept on bread and milk of which are always needed by all per-ons a like. If, for example, iron is needed by a fession, he would have met with success. certain patient, it does not follow that with time and practice; but courage and all who seek the supposed virtues of these waters specially need just this mineral. The same is true of all of the mineral. The same is true of all of the other elements. It would be unusual to calling. No lazy, listless man, who and a score of persons all demanding dreads the drudgery of thinking and precisely the same medication, and yet working, can ever become a successful they all must take the same mineral farmer. Neither will a mere acquaintdrugs. They not only take articles not ance with the ideas and practices of our needed, but take such a variety as may best progressive farmers warrant sucproperly be objected to by the reason-ably cautions. Indeed, while it is gen-erally true that we, as a nation, take too much medicine, it is certain that he who takes this "all-healing water" of ne-cessity takes a great deal more than is cially with men who disdain to learn the ways of common every-day farmers,

" A Mean Business !"

Again, the most popular waters, with in the assurance that they can do as well some persons, certainly, are the most or a great deal better. This is a great offensive to the taste and to the smell. mistake. If anything needs improving. Now, to my mind, this offensiveness is a first requisite is to understand ample evidence of its unfitness for the thoroughly its methods and managehuman stomach. All poisons so far as ment. A man who wishes to become a Captain Ingram's barn was a large I know, are unpleasant to some of the superior farmer must first learn how to d the like, are sufficient zvi- to let them be suggested by practical dences that such articles are not fit for experience. This may possibly not acgeneral decomposition, or at least, a tendency to putrescence, and it often occurs that this offensiveness is attrib-utable to decaying vegetable or ani-mal matter, more frequently of the latter. Having become a common farmer, there is more hope that one may become a superior farmer. Thought, economy and work will usually make success pretty cer-tain. Work is only the fulfilling of the

11. - A. M. I KINGWAN strength decre sed. Finally he determined to

"Rocan on Rars." Clears out rais, mice consult another physician and applied to Dr. roaches, bed-bugs, vermin, chipmunks. 15c. - After a careful examination he was informed that his lungs were perfectly sound, Tun thermometer, like a man, rises br de-For all these Palafal Complainin and Wrabons to common to our bret female population grees - Tenu Siftings. Redicias for Woman. Invested by a Waman.

consumption but he was suffering from the Is afflicted with Sore Eyes, use Dr. Isaac Thompson's EyeWater. Druggists sell it. 200. terrible Bright's disease. The symptoms of consumption are often the sure indications of

The above truths regarding coughs have Sonn everywhere-is Frazer's Axle Grease. been known by the leading physicians for everal years but the public have never been informed of them. They are serious facts, however, and should be understood by all, so Superior to all others. Try it and be happy

Pains, Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted Feet and Ears, and all other

Pains and Aches. stronghold and by the remedy which has been No Preparation on earth equals fr. Jacone Ort. as a soft, surre, simple and cheerp External E-mody. A trial entails but the comparatively trifing outlay of 40 Creates, and every one unifering with pain can have cheep and pasitive proof of its

Directions in Reven Languages. SOLD BY ALL DEUG

Frepared by a Woman.

he fregted Rollini Burrery Blars the Bars of Batery.

IT'll rowines the drooping spirits, invigurates and armeniau the organic functions, gives starticity and traines to the step, restores the satural hotes to the

"Physicians Use It and Prescribe It Fresh "86

R removes falatase, falatoury, destroys all craving for etimestast, and refleres weakges of the stomach.

That fording of bearing down, custing pain, wright and harkeshe is always parameters over its see. For the care of Kidney Completents of sither me this Compound to unsurposed.

will seadloads every vertige of Remote from the Bload, and give tone and alreadth to the system, of man warman or child. Include on having B.

Both the Compound and Itland Partiller are prepared at $13 and $15 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price of ter either. Mrs. Piskham fruity answers all letters of

To family cheald be without LTHA E PINKHAWS LIVES PILLS. They cars mustipation, bilingston, and beppidity of the liver. B could per lost.

山口のないのない

WELL'S. FICHAMDION & CO

IMPROVED

BUTTER COLOR

A NEW DISCOVERY.

EF For several years on here furnished the Dairyment of America with an enveloped arts that ender for hottery or meriturises that it not the grant subcess everywhere releting the tighted and only prime at both international much we have improved in several points, our offer this new online as the best in the sec

It Will Not Color the Buttermilt.

Will Not Turn Ranold, It le the Strongest, Brightest and

Chaspest Color Mado,

officer, SL. His bottles for SI. Sent by mail in the for of pills, or of loannyns, on reseigt of price. It per tes inquiry. Racines let stamp. Bead for pumphiet.

LTDIA F. FITKHAN'S BLOOD PURIFIER

ers, and plants on the pale sheet of woman the fresh room of life's spring and sarly summer time.

Lelia & Suillans

Arma for the still

aches, Vollow Complexiton, Pains in Smith of C. KILLED

AGEN

Make Money Fast Handling

Irs. Owens' Gook

Frastleat and

Outes $1.5% P. 84

A JOURNAL OF TRANSPORTETION Engineering and Railroad No.

Published at 11 Broadway, Non Tart

04.00 per annum-portage from

TONA

RETTATION BEADINGS AND

IT And, while prepared in oil, is an ensure CFBEWARE of all instructions routh to know where and how to get it without esten

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

I repeat, there can be no better water than the very purest. This is the drink manifestly designed by the benevolent and failure: when we all work and and failure: when we all work and Creator for His creatures. In the mateconomize to the best of our ability, we ter of healthfulness I do not suppose that water is improved, in health, by the addition of any article, not even by shall be a happier and more prosperous community. - W. H. While, in Country

Tellow Dock and Sursaparilla. It will strengthen the parts affected, stop the un-natural drain and check all decay.

proven to be the most effective and then look for the return of health and happiness which such treatment is sure to bring.

to Prnamon that a Grmeo-Roman wrestling much should draw a house full of people. It only a try-fing affair at best.-Beeten

A warvan signing himself "A well men," writes: "I was ill for years with weakness. Milky urine, pulpitation of the heart, bad dreams, etc., were some of the symptoms. I took two bot-tles of Dr. Guysott's Tellow Dock and Sarap-arilla and now can sign myself a well man."

Guerriaman on the certakes an excellent cigar from his pocket and just as he is about to light it recollects that his fallow-traveler may object to tobach and and and the shi he turns to his view his fallow politicity: "I beg pardon, sir, but perhaps______"...O, thank you; with pleasure?" And the other traveler takes the cigar and anothes it. (P.S. --Of course it was the polite man's last word.) 12.50

WER THEY

Thread by of a

and out of his sect-

When a board of eminent physic

TO WATTER ST

and the second second

1 7 7