in the land.

Baum's store.

of job printing.

The celebration will be held in the court house grove.
Who ever heard of the death of a lightning rod man.

See the Reliance Twine Binders at Spanogle & Funk's.
Yankee Robinson's show is billed for Red Cloud July 31.

Try one of the "Best made" cigars, for sale at Cumming's.
We notice that the Red Cloud flour is on sale in Hastings.

The rain last Saturday night replenished our frog pond.
Blue Hill proposes to celebrate the coming 4th in grand style.

A large brick hotel is talked of, for Red Cloud. Whoop'er up.
Farmers have commenced to buy their harvesting implements.

SHIRT MEN—A new and large lot just received at Moody's jewelry store.
The corn will come out all right, the hail to the contrary notwithstanding.

A true strengthening medicine and health renewer is Brown's Iron Bitters.
Visit the leading millinery store before the 4th, one door north of Nat.
Bank.

If you are sick and troubled with dyspepsia, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure you.
Go to Mrs. Fowler's and get your new hat and other finery for the 4th of July wear.

Emulate the example of the editor of this paper, and mow the weeds about your premises.
A Sister of Mrs. R. R. Sherer, from Pawnee City, is visiting with the family for a few days.

Farmers, don't fail to examine goods and prices of Harvesting Machinery at Spanogle & Funk's.
C. L. Mather, the founder of this paper, in 1873, is sticking type on the Atholston Globe.

Congressman Laird has bought the Baldwin cattle ranch on Bob Tail creek, near Culbertson.
We believe the commissioners have done about the fair thing equalizing the assortment this year.

Don't lose sight of the fact that we are always willing to receive wood on subscription at this office.
The wind storm last Friday blew down the frame of the new German Church in Blue Hill.

Heavy rains and consequent high water has done a great deal of damage in the eastern part of the state.
Fire works for the 4th of July can be found at A. Cumming's in large or small quantities, to suit purchasers.

J. S. Ruthrock will soon commence the erection of a brick building on the site of his present business location.
The Omaha Bee has widened its columns and put on a new dress and is one of the best and newest papers in the west.

An effort is being made to revive the old Agricultural Society organization in this county, and we hope it will succeed.
Bring your girl to Red Cloud on the 4th, and don't forget to take her to Cook's Drug Store for a glass of nice Soda Water.

Mr. Roby has purchased 70 acres of land near town, on the west, and will devote a part of his time to the cultivation of small fruits.
If the town trustees had any regard for the appearance of the town it certainly seems that they would cease our frog pond to be filled up.

Red Cloud has been overrun with peddlers this spring. They are almost as bad a nuisance as the frog ponds in the streets of this burg.

Last week while Rev. Hawley's children were playing with a hatchet one of them accidentally struck the other on the head inflicting an ugly gash.
To all who contemplate coming to Red Cloud to make a home we would say that it is not necessary to bring your dog, they are plenty and cheap here.

G. S. Albright has just received a new stock of goods, consisting of rings, bracelets, pins and many other nice things for the 4th of July.

Come to Red Cloud to celebrate the 4th, and don't neglect to visit Mrs.
Fowler's millinery establishment, to view her large stock of summer goods.

You will enjoy the celebration on the fourth much better after visiting the millinery establishment of J. A.
Fowler, 1st door north of first national bank.

Work on Jones & Goble's new brick building was delayed somewhat, last week on account of the rock for the foundation walls failing to arrive promptly.

Nobly presents for your best girl, at G. S. Albright's jewelry store. Call in and examine his new goods and make your purchases while his stock is complete.

R. N. Lewis, one of the successful farmers in the vicinity of Clorerton, has recently invested about $1200 in sleep. He has about 800 head, including the lambs.

We learn that Anderson Borin, brother to Mrs. C. W. Springer, and an old time employee of this office, accidentally shot himself at Hastings last Monday, fatally.

Mr. Gardner has opened a first class ice cream parlor 1st door south of McFarland's where he is always ready to supply the public with the best of every thing in his line.

Any one having a copy of the premiser list of the Webster County fair for the year 1878 will confer a favor upon the society by leaving it at this office or the post office.

Just received, three new loads of Harvesting Machinery Twine Binders, Reapers, and Mowers, which we offer to the farmers at prices and terms to suit customers. Spanogle & Funk.

My stock of notions, such as neckties, men's socks, stockings, ribbons, &c., &c. is complete. Good assortment of every thing at Baum's store, one door south of Miller's harness shop.

We would like a few nickels to spend on the fourth. In this respect we are not unlike the balance of the human family. This item is intended only to be read by those who are indebted to us.

The M. E. festival last Friday evening was not a success, financially, as they were disappointed in the non-arrival of strawberries. Fifteen dollars, however, was realized from the sale of ice cream and lemonade.

One thing is noticeable about the class of immigrants that are coming to Nebraska this year; they are men of considerable means, as a rule, and are just the class that the state needs to develop her vast resources.

One of the attractions on the fourth will consist of an effort on the part of the editor of the Argus to lift himself from the ground to the roof of the court house by flopping his ears. We have a V that says he can do it.

The ladies aid society of the M. E.
Church will meet this week at the residence of Mrs. Anna Mitchell, on Friday afternoon. The ladies are all respectfully invited to attend. Secy.

A deputy United States Marshall called on Moses Wilson last Saturday and notified him that he was wanted in Omaha. It appears that he failed to settle up the affairs of the Clorerton postoffice, of which he used to be postmaster, satisfactory to the government.

"If that hath not, it shall be taken away, even the little that he hath," or words to that effect. This passage of ancient history is called to mind when we hear that the celebration is to be held in the court house grove instead of at the south end of town, as first talked of.

A man by the name of J. Christ lives at Sidney, Nebraska. We are not informed as to how far back he traces his ancestry, but presume that he claims a distant relationship with his namesake who was executed in the vicinity of Jerusalem several centuries ago.

Wm. Moran & Son, proprietors of the Blooming nurseries are prepared to furnish every thing in the nursery line, suited to this climate.
They will visit Red Cloud and will take orders for fall delivery, and all who are in need of fruit, forest or ornamental trees should reserve their order for them.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. McQuilkin's team became frightened at the firing of fire crackers on the street and broke loose and ran away. If there is an ordinance against the intolerable fire cracker nuisance it should be enforced to the letter. If there is not the town trustees should give the matter attention at once.

COUNTY FAIR.

ster Co. Agricultural Society at the court house Saturday July 7th at P. p.

to be transacted.

Good corn weather.
Crops all look well.
F. Houchin is getting well from the rheumatism.

Warren Kent has gone to Michigan, he is on the sick list.
Heavy rain last Saturday night with wind and some hail, but done no damage.

S. D. Andrew is improving in health.
Dr. Tulley is doctoring him with sugar pills.
J. H. Willburn has moved to Texas.
W. J. Harris bought his farm, Mr.
Roby is cultivating it this year.

I would like to hear from correspondents in the different parts of the county. Brother farmers please write to the Chief and send us the news.

One of our neighbors found a striped cat on the prairie last Saturday and engaged it in battle. The cat, by a judicious use of the peculiar means of defense with which nature has provided it, soon blinded its antagonist, who was glad to cease the unequal contest.
He was compelled to apply a liberal dose of cold water and cream before he could see to get home. FARMER.

FROM INVALE.
Ed. CHIEF.—The hail storm of the 16th came upon us and our "luxuriant vegetation" is a thing of the past.
It was the worst storm ever known by the oldest inhabitant. It broke all the glass it could find out of doors, caused horses to run away, and smash cultivators, it tore up fences, killed fowl, and pigs, unroofed houses, tore the leaves and bark off the trees, pounded all the people it found out of doors, and cut their faces, and it did all manner of mischief. One houseman said he scooped out of his house and porch a wagon load of hail stones.
Mr. Chamberlain at the cheese factory collected a barrel of it and made ice cream in the evening, and invited some of the sufferers to help eat it.
We made merry over it, while recounting our experiences of the storm.
Not a vestige of corn was to be seen next morning, but it has sprung up again now and will be better than no corn. It is said that small grain is entirely destroyed. Gardens are also a perfect wreck. The people take it cheerfully, very few long faces are seen. All seem to find something amusing about it. It is not quite so pleasant as it might be, to be obliged to keep the windows boarded up a week because there was not enough glass in Red Cloud to supply the demand.

Our Assessor, Eugene Hunter does not care for the storm, he steps high about this time. It is a girl, he always did like girls.

Mrs. Alex. Bently invited the teachers and pupils of the Inavale school to take tea with her last Thursday, and entertained them with ice cream and other good things, and then had them all conveyed to their homes in the evening, feeling happy, and grateful.
