The Red Cloud Chief.

FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 1884.

WHEATLAND.

This is the national holiday, all business is suspended and schools closed.

News is scarce in this remote corner of the county, although blessed with as thrifty and enterprising class of people as can be found in any part of the state.

A sad and melancholy event occured last Sabbath morning, six miles north of Well post-office, that has cast a shadow over the entire community. Protestant Episcopalians is to be held, A Mr. Eck while out bunting was shot and instantly killed by the accidental discharge of his gun. The unfortunate man was a member of the G. A. R. and leaves a wife and four children. The funeral was conducted by the comrades of the Post at Wells, and was largely attended by sympathizing friends. More anon,

CATHERTON.

Died, at Catherton, December 28th, 1883, Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra M. Letner, aged nearly six years. And she answered, "It is well."

At her home, near Catherton, Sun-day morning, December 30, 1883, Mrs. which patriots complain," demands that Alverna, wife of Francis E. Payne, and Mrs. Cather, passed peacefully away to her eternal rest, aged 33 years, and nine months. For several years she had been an invalid, but bore all her sufferings wi h a calm, patient, Christian fortitude; without murning, praying God to make her reconciled to her lot and ready for the great change. She leaves a husband and two children a son and daughter, besides a large number of other family relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was buried beside her sister in a pleasant grove on her brother's farm. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Psa. 116-15.

ON THE ROAD.

EDITOR CHIEF-I see by traveling through the county from Red Cloud to Riverton, that everything looks pros perous, Farmers have a smile on their faces and generally feel good. The proprietor of the Inavale cheese factorp, I see has a fine and well stocked store, and is doing a good business. C. Hunter has deserted his old house and moved into his new one. Mr. H. is feeding a fine lot of cattle this winter. E. H. Jones has built a new barn. Mr. Ayers has cribbed about 3000 bushels of corn, and says he is not through husking yet. I observed in passing Inavale that they have the side track graded at that place and probably you will see a depot building there ere long. J. L. Miner has a fine lot of cattle in his feed lot which he is feeding. He has put in a pair of scales on his farm so that he can weigh and receive corn there. Next on Indian creek is our old friend D. Heffelbower and wife who are now living in their new house built last summer. They appear to be prosperous and happy. Dave came hear in the early days and located where he now lives, and by hard knocks and industry has got his farm in fine shape. This being a cold day, time I got to Red Cloud on fast. #### SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

-A new secret society is to be formed At Yale, a rival to the Skull and Crossbones and the Scroll and Keys. It is said that a building for its use is to be at once erected.—Hartjord Post.

-Two well-known clergymen who are brothers, Rev. Hugh O. Pentecost and Rev. George F. Pentecost, happened to preach on a recent Sunday in different churches in Hartford, Conn.

-The American Sunday-School Union has receatly received from the executors of the estate of the late Frederick Marquand $19,892. Also a legacy of $1,000 from the late George Nugent. William E. Dodge bequeathed $10,000 to this society.—N. Y. Examiner.

-Christ Church, Philadelphia, in which the Centennial Convention of was the place of the first convention of that denomination in America. It was built with brick from England and money raised in a lottery under the management of Benjamin Franklin.— Chicago Times.

—According to a Western school-teacher the habit of chewing gum is productive of myopia among the pupils. Being forbidden to chew gum during school hours, they seek to avoid detec-tion in the illicit enjoyment of the en-during morsel by holding their books close to their faces, thus bringing on short-sightedness.

—The Reformed Dutch Church at Spotswood, N. J., was knocked to pieces by a sudden thundergust. First the steeple toppled over on the roof, which it cut in two at the ridge pole. Then the walls fell apart, tumbling to the ground in such a condition of wreck that the remains are nothing better than kindling wood. The church cost $8,-000, and was considered as good as any wooden sanctuary of similar style. The members are possessed of considerable means, and are able to rebuild. In a few months they will have a better building than the one which was wrecked.—N. Y. Sun

SWEPT INTO THE STREAM.

One Thousand Acres of Land and "Right Smart of Bears."

On the deck of a big Mississippi steamboat stood an aged Southern planter. Indicating by a sweep of his arm the waters the boat was passing over, he said to a passenger from the north: "When I was twelve years old I killed my first bear on a new plantation my father was then cutting out of a forest that grew directly over the waters of this bend. That was a mighty good plantation, and there was right smart of bears there, too. But that one thousand acres of land went into the Missisippi years ago."

It is putting no strain upon the figure to say that great forests of youthful hope, womanly beauty and manly strength are swept in the same way every year into the great turbid torrent of disease and death. Yet it should not be so. That it is so is a disgrace as well as a loss. People are largely too careless or too stupid to defend their own interests-the most precious of which is health. That gone, all is gone. Disease is simple, their shores, arise in a few mountain springs, so all our ailments can be traced to impure blood and a small group of disordered organs.

The most effective and inclusive remedy for disease is Parker's Tonic. It goes to the sources of pain and weakness. In response to its action, the liver, kidneys, stomach and heart begin their work afresh, and disease is rection.

Christmas was celebrated here by a sermon on Christmas eve, and a tree on Christmas night, at which all seemed night nig is your help.
