How Watch Cases are Made.

This process of manufacture was invented by James Boss, who started in business in 1854, and the methods and tools used in making these watch cases are covered by patents. This is the only watch case made under this process. For many years the introduction of these goods was slow, owing to popular prejudice against "plated" goods, but gradually the public learned that the James Boss' Gold Watch Case was not a cheap gold-washed or electro-plated article, but was made of genuine gold plates of standard quality and thickness. Conscientious adherence to the determination to make the best watch case ever put on the market, and the adoption of every improvement suggested, has made the James Boss' Gold Watch Case the STANDARD. In this watch case the parts most subject to wear—the bow, crown, hinges, thumb-catches, etc., are made of SOLID GOLD.

Send 5 cent stamp to Keystone Watch Case Factory, Philadelphia, Pa., for handsome illustrated Pamphlet showing how James Boss' and Keystone Watch Cases are made.

BEST IN PRAYER.

BY ARCHD. THOMSON.

To pray is to ask,
To ask is to pray;
The dutiful task
Solicits each day.

Prayer, fervid and deep,
Like Daniel's of Yore,
Is certain to reap
All asked for, and more.

The specific need
The Saviour has taught,
The father will heed
When earnestly sought.

A chain of requests
Whose links are of sand,
And scores of behests,
No blessings command.

The King was he near,
I mean face to face,
Much less would we hear
Of words common place.

In presence so bright
We'd hardly neglect
To use words aright,
And yield more respect.

A pharisee's prayer
Has little avail;
Or articulate air
The Throne to assail.

The publican smites
At corruption within;
The Saviour requites
With pardon of sin.

To the Temple once came
The One and the Other,
It needs not to name
The justified rather.

The two mites were small,
But small in amount,
Yet help'd after all
The widow's account.

Mere intuition,
Or feeling,—emotion,
Is but the fruition
Of zealous devotion.

And cannot supply
Principles or facts
To believe—edify,
Or guide moral acts.

But most of us pray,
Yet hardly enough,
And much that we say
Is only mean stuff.

The words we thus say,
Then more let us heed,
And prudently pray,
To get what we need.

Some pray very fast,
Some tardily go,
Some rush like a blast,
Some humble and low.

But some to make known
Their ardent request,
Just like a cyclone
Go their very dead best.

Some formal and proud,
Have all cut and dry,
Some deal it out loud,
While some are quite shy.

With some the words run
Like beads from a thread,
The yarn they have spun;
By note they have said.

Some mean what they say,
And others mean naught,
Some have little to say,
Or much as they ought.

Yet say as we will,
To pray is still right,
Then let us pray still,
Noon, morning and night.

But not to be nbarass
Any good brother,
And Rev. _____
No more than another,

I, my criterion,
Took pains to prepare,
Which shows P-r-e-s-b-y-t-e-r-i-a-n;
Is still B-e-s-t-i-n-p-r-a-y-e-r.

A $20 BIBLE PRIZE.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer 12 valuable rewards in their Monthly for March, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the middle verse of the Gospel of St. Matthew, as recorded in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision, by March 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner March 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the April Monthly, in which the name and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered.
