KING ALCOHOL'S SOLILOQUY.

In the broad light of day my grim visage I hide, Nor out in my uniform once dare I ride...

TEMPERANCE TALK BY A CHICAGO LAWYER.

There was a Moody audience in Farwell Hall last night—the first time it has resembled a sardine-box since the evangelist left the city.

Significant.

That able exponent of physiological research, Dr. Carpenter, has given us in the Nineteenth Century a matter of fact that has its lesson no less than if founded on total abstinence premises.

GENUINE alcoholic liquors are deadly, but the drugged and adulterated beverages now in use are far worse.

Shiel. The ornaments of the bar were members, convivial men, each followed in the footsteps of the other, and nearly all to-day filled the dissonant chalice of the drunkard.

A Father's Martyrdom.

"My son a saloon keeper" dealing out draughts of poison, death, and destruction to his fellowmen! O, that I have loved to see this day!

Encourage the Birds.

War is being waged by farmers against all birds, except a few popular songsters, and most birds are taught that birds and birds' nests are their rightful prey.

HOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

Sprinkle hellebore and water on rose bushes to kill the insects.—N. Y. Herald.

Every bunch of grass or weeds that grows in the garden is just so much nutrient taken from the vegetables.—Cincinnati Times.

Baked Milk: Put a half gallon of milk in a jar and tie it down with writing paper. Let it stand in a moderate oven eight or ten hours.

Every garden should contain a few rows of small fruits, not only for useful purposes, but for ornamental.

A delicious side dish is made of apples and is called apple omelet. Peel and stew, stir in a large lump of butter, a little sugar and four well-beaten eggs.

Orange custard: Boil the rind of an orange till it is tender, pound it in a clean mortar and add to it the juice of two oranges, eight ounces of loaf sugar, the yolks of four eggs and the whites of three, beat all together for ten minutes.

It is proper for an old teper to speak of his drunken companion as his boozemum friend?—Governor Herald.

A grand festival was recently held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in honor of the emancipation of the slaves in Ceara. The ceremonies were continued through two weeks.

The Big Brewery. Mr. J. Hirsch, College Point Brewery, L. I., N. Y., writes that he employs a large number of horses and hands, and having tried St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, for rheumatism, aches and pains of his mind, and other affections of his horses, finds it superior to all remedies, and would not be without it.

Why is a United States Treasury note like a caterpillar? Because it is hard to counterfeit (count-her-foot).—Chicago Weekly.

NOT FIVE DOLLARS FOR DOCTOR IN FORTY-FIVE YEARS. WATSONVILLE, SANTA CRUZ CO., CAL., Feb. 24, 1884.

I am eighty-four years old and my wife is seventy-seven. We have raised a family of ten children. I have used BRANDRETT'S PILLS for the last forty-five years as my only family medicine, and my doctor's bills have not amounted to five dollars in all that time.

It is proper for an old teper to speak of his drunken companion as his boozemum friend?—Governor Herald.

Insurance. Insurance is a good thing whether applied to life or property. No less a blessing is anything that insures good health.

It is said that boots can be blackened with a banana peel. So can eyes, if you happen to fall right.—Boston Transcript.

Objection is made in New York to drowning stray dogs for fear so many sunken tanks may obstruct navigation.

JOHN A. SMITH, the largest merchant in Gainesville, Ga., says: "I suffered for years from the combined effects of erysipelas and eczema. I continued to grow worse under medical treatment until I was cured by the use of Pinkham's Compound."

Excursions let a man go cheap to places where he does not care about going.—N. O. Picayune.

KIDNEY Complaints, Female Weakness, and Debility are absolutely cured by Papillon Blood Cure.

EVERY one has a right to drop a line to a fish.—Picayune.

THE STAGE-DRIVERS STORY.

How General Scott's Life Was Saved and How His Driver Twice Escaped Death.

The traveler of the present day, as he is hurried along by the lightning express, in his buffet cars and palace sleepers, seldom reverts in thought to the times when the stage coach and packet were the only means of communication between distant points.

"I found it almost impossible to sleep at night; my appetite left me entirely and I had a tired feeling which I never knew before and could not account for."

"No, I tried to keep up but it was only with the greatest effort. This state of things continued for nearly twenty years until last October when I went all the way to New York."

"What did you do then?" "I should have done long before: listen to my wife. Under her advice I began a new treatment."

"And with what result?" "Wonderful. It unstopped the closed passages and what was still more wonderful regulated the flow. The sedimentary matter accumulated in the bowels, and acting at the same time on the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, it relieved all these organs and enables them to perform their duties perfectly. It has wonderful power. See advt."

Mr. Haskell's experience is repeated every day in the lives of thousands of American men and women. An unknown evil is undermining the existence of an immense number who do not realize the danger they are in until health has entirely departed and death perhaps stares them in the face.

It is leap year and every good girl should have a sir prize.—Detroit Free Press.
