COWLES.

Mr. Wm. Clapp, one of the pioneers of Elm Creek, after an absence of two years with his relative in Vermont, has returned to Cowles, where he owns a farm and some town lots. His many friends are glad to meet him again. Mrs. Stoddard, of Walnut creek, is visiting in Cowles this week, with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Paul. Among the recent arrivals in this vicinity is a young gentleman in the family of J. C. Waller; also a young lady at George Hilton's. A. J. Horton, we understand, has sold his handsome residence adjoining Cowles, to A. A. Peak, with the intention of going west. Mr. Horton and family have many friends here who regret to part with them, and whose good wishes will follow them wherever they may go. Tommy Quinn, one of the first settlers on Elm Creek, after many years of work on the railroads of Nebraska, has retired from active life, and will live on the proceeds of his farm near here. Thomas Crouch is selling corn this week for Mr. Buzick. Tommy is a stirring young man.
