THE Miller-Boyd wing of the democratic party in Red Cloud were determined to effectually sit down on the Morton wing and from the proceedings of the democratic convention a few days ago it would seem that the Miller-Boyd fellows come out first best having made a clean sweep of the Mortoniotes, and actually sacrificed the local interests of the party in Webster county in their efforts to stand in with the administration and dispensers of government patronage, the question simply being "who shall control the post-office."

FRANK C. BUSCHOW, in his declination of the nomination for county treasurer at the hands of the democratic party, says: "My friends were advocating my name for county clerk, and I believe that I was unjustly defeated by malicious and false reports put in circulation by certain democrats." Evidently Bro. Buschow has room for bad feeling when his own party will play dirt with him. But that is nothing, the democratic leaders in this city propose to sell out their entire party if necessary in order to promote their own selfish interests.
