Any person who takes the paper rep-larly from the post-office, whether directed to his name or whether he is a subscriber or not, is responsible for the pay. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the post office, or re-moving and leaving them uncailed for, D

HURRAH FOR OLD WINTER.

Hurrah for Old Winter! Hurrah for the Hurrah for the blizzards, and cold may they We'll bask by the fire so cozy and warm. And laugh at Jack Frost, who can do us no

We'll revel on pies made of pumpkin and minee. And signature preserves of plums, peaches and quince We'll feast upon jellies and turkeys and

And buckwheat cakes swimming in 'lasses we'll tame.

We'll skate on the lee and we'll ride in the and dance at the batis, with the maidens so gay And kiss them at parties and spark by the grate "Till bounced by their pa's for remaining so

We'll nestle up snug in a big feather bed. And pull focesy blankets up over our head: And list to the storm as it rages and roars, And answer it back with a volley of snores.

Hurrah for the winter! because we are yot.bg; When old and rheumatic this tune won't be

Then bills from the doctor and coalman and pumber W.1 make us hurrah very loud for the sum

- H. C. Dodge, in Detroit Free Press.

2,000 YEARS HENCE.

Chicago's Ruins Explored and Wonders Unearthed.

The Board of Trade "Restored"-Wall Ad. vertisements of City Politics and Theatrical Matters-The Mysteries Surrounding So-Called "Base Ball."

A pensive poet away back in the nineteenth century, named Bryant, wrote that

All that tread The Globe are but a handful to the tribes That slumber in its boson.

We can form but little idea, even from the estimates at haad, of the numbers Sunday" [this makes it clear that their and characteristics of the human race moral natures were sadly blunted ; in past ages. It is no more easy task mighty yell," etc. to conjecture the number and importance of the buried cities which exist in faint idea of the bew ldering mass of every part of the earth. If we could material Prof. Schlemann has secured but trace the history of the cities of among the ruins of Chicago, a city, our own country back to the date of which, judging by the report that "live their founding, and recall the names of thou and people were around the diathe now unknown heroes, whose ex- mond," must have been one of gigantic ploits made themselves and their cities splendor and unequaled resources. We alike famous, we would undoubtedly on the brilliant results of Prof. Schliefeel the same pride in the ruins of mann's labor and upon the valuable America which the intelligent Greek addition he has made to the history of was wont to feel in the rained great- America. True enough, it may be ness of his own, we are told, marvelous years before we shall get at the precise country. The Americans, however, meaning of the assertion that "in the have not been remarkable for their pool-rooms men went mad," which sad records, and we have but little to guide condition of affairs, they tell us, was us in our study of the annals of brought about by "betting on run or no the ages which have preceded our run in the eighth inning." In another own. But this year of our Lord 3,885 account it is stated that "the pool-room has been very fruitful in scientific was suddenly emptied, and for a few discoveries; old Mother Earth has been minutes loose teeth and bloody noses forced to yield some of her secrets, and were very plenty in the alley." All this it would seem as though it had been re- occurred in connection with what and heifers in this country, and not over served for the generation that is dying was known as "base-ball" and the out to penctrate, and not in vain, the "meeting of the giants." depths of enigmatical rains; to disen- this we should judge that their tomb from them the past, and to re- "national game" was of a barbarie store to it the real aspect that once it nature, and that the people were wore, along with a part of its lost chro- fond of violence. This idea is borne pology. Thanks to the acquisitions of out by the report that "Kelly wanted modern science, for whose progress the to black Curry's eye for him." This genius and the blood of America have game of "base-ball" must also have helped to clear the way; thanks to the been to the taste of the masses, because successful excavating by our savant the papers containing the reports of the above the ruins of our buried cities, and to their unhoped for deciphering of the told that they "sold like hot cakes." records, rich in detail, that have been Hot cakes must have been plenty and uncarthed, through which the Ameri- cheap among that very peculiar people. cans of twenty centuries ago seem to It seems to us that men must have atconverse with the men of our own time; tained great eminence in that city by thanks to this, the historian can at their connection with the "league," for length present to us testimony certain we learn that exclamations like the foland reliable regarding them, and, al- lowing were made on the "grounds" and and other matter in the wool. though the idea of again securing the in the "pool rooms": That "McCorthread, a hundred times broken, of mick is a line dandy;" "the Harlem growing into huge proportions. Thirty tracted debauch. To quiet the nerves American tradition, must be once for twirler is no slouch;" "no flies now on years ago, it is said, there was not more all abandoned, we have it in our power the pennant for Anson." "what a lalia than one million of dollars invested in catat last to reconstruct the most brilliant Gore is;" that "O'Rourke is a holy ter- tie ranches, and these were nearly all in part of it almost to perfection. The ror:" "Williamson can down them Texas. Now it is estimated that this period that it covers flourished in times all," and "Mutrie is a kicker." which nations the most jealous of their antiquity do not, in their authentic rec- ther report. from Prof. Schliemann, Texas Farm and Ranch. ords, pretend to have attained. The work of subterranean exploration which has been steadily going on discovered, for it must be conceded that for 1,000 guineas (over $5,000). He won in the buried ruins of Chicago for over the day these papers were printed must $5,775 in stakes. His services have been a century has not yet enabled us to have been a red-letter one in the calenform any accurate notion of the nature dar, and that the accounts in them of and his yearlings have brought $139,550 for and extent of the catastrophe, but it is the excessive strain of excitement en- the last three years. It would be putting clearly evident that the city was swal- dured by the people over the "base-bail the figures too low to say that he has hithlowed up in a few brief moments by a game" will prove a study of intense erto been worth at least $400,000 to his most phenomenal convuision of nat- interest. - Chicago Journal. sire. Of the discovery of the tomb of Chicago, there are various accounts. That which is the most credited relates to the sinking of a well, the bottom of Cranky Individuals Who Deface Furniture which fell out, and upon examination revealed the inside of the massive white marble structure which has been uncarthed and restored, and which bears the inscription: "Board of Trade." Prof. Henry Schli-mann, whose excavating efforts in Chicago have been so successful, is a lineal de- when a crowd of citizens clambered up many parasite diseases peculiar to the hog. seendant of the famous Schliemann of the sides from the ground below, and, the nineteenth century, who, two thou- within a minute, the chair which the sand years ago, did such a grand and Chief Magistrate had occupied was split noble work in Greece. But it is to the into a score of fragments-one man citement of the day is directed, and the news which has reached us of Prof. Schliemann's rich find in the ruins of Chicago would seem to india Chicago would seem to indicate that the grandest and most sought to obtain pieces of the mourning a few ounces of sulphur screwed in wisps "Well, we got him to bed. He hadn't it gives of the actual presence of an The relie-hunters zo to Mount Vernon American city two thousand years ago to visit the tomb of Washington and thesters, and occupied its now voiceless a memento of the place. -Edmund chatabers. The streets before you are Alton, in St. Nicholas. generally paved; some are well worn. and others, one broad avenue in particular, in as good preservation as though in use the day before. The houses, many of them, extend in unbroken lines, and in nearly every in- by Mr. W. August Carter, with a view stance the doors are firmly closed. One to discovering how far fish are prone to twenty-five bushels of wheat to the acre "Three days after we were adde to curious class of discoveries in Chicago sleep. After a close examination he maintained for years. consists of the advertisements upon the found that among fresh-water tishes dead walls, which relate to city politics the roach, dace, gudgeon, carp, tench, an I theatrical affairs. Candidates had minnow and cattish sleep periodically the blushing impudence to bespeak sup-port for themselves from their friends. The same instincts were found to acta-be injured by it should be plowed, thus and the play-Louses announced in bright | ate marine fish, of which the following colors on huge posters the coming at-tractions, proving that up to the year by somnolence, viz: the wrasse, conger 1885 the show-printers had the bulge on eel, dory, dogtish, wrasse bass, and all spring. the press for theatrical advertising. All species of flat tish. Mr. Carter states the observations which have been made that, so far as he can discover, the from time to time, however, on the discov- goldfish, pike and angler fish never cries made among the ruins of Chicago sleep, but rest periodically. Desire for wet fair week. Merchants contributed to are as naught, when we consider the sleep among fish varies according to make up the shortage. The State Agriculopportunity which is now given us for meteorological conditions. Fish do not tural Society is now over $50,000 in debt. speculation and study by the great necessarily select night-time for repose.

mann. From our news dispatches today, we learn that the plan which the professor has been following in his in the State to pay $35 to insure old solwork of exploration and excavation in diers a decent burial where the family is Chicago, that of investigating the posiunable to do so. tion of the corner-stones among the before us! Let us find out something authentic in regard to the stature of these "giants": let us ascertain what the features of this game of so-called

"base-ball" were: let us rob the expressions: "Anson's hot-lin r." "Welch's sky-scraper" and "Kelly's daisy-cutter." of the mystery which surrounds them. When we shall have been able to comprehend the meaning of "a rank decision by the umpire." the statement that "Dorgan was given a base on balls," the report that "Williamson flew out to Gerhardt," and the emphatic accusation that "Gore took chances, and stole second," we shall.

doubtless, have a clear insight to the peculiar customs and characteristics of General McClellen was the last living debris of the largest structures, has recommander of the Army of the Potomac. sulted in the glorious success chronicled to-day, which is nothing less than McDowell and Burnside, Hooker and Meade, and Grant had previously crossed the discovery of numbers of the daily over the river, and now McCiellan has papers under dates in September and joined them on the eternal camping October, of the year 1885. They give long accounts of a most singular and ground. curious game, which, from the reports

How did the boys ever get along before seemed to excite a goodly number of the Auxilliary Relief Corps was organized? people to the highest pitch. In one We look back to the tables we used to spread for ourselves, and in contrasting Pictures that make my heart stand stillplace at allusion is made to the coming "battle of the giants," and the declarathem with those to which we are now intion is made that in the first game, Mevited, the above question is again enforced Cormick, who must have been a very upon us. How did we get along?-Knight celebrated man, will "pitch for the and Soldier. home team." What a field for opera-General Burdett, in a late address, spoke tions in scientific research has opened most touchingly of the brave mothers and wives who remained at home and who went through four years of anxiety and pain so nobly and patriotically during the war. He thought they should all join the Woman's Relief Corps, and that every old soldier should become a member of the G. A. R.

GRAND ARMY GLEANINGS.

Nebraska has a law authorizing counties

Among the subscriptions to the Grant Monument Fund lately received in New York was one for $1,630, through Drexel, Harges & Co., of Paris. The amount represented is from citizens of Paris, Hamburg and Amsterdam. There was also a subscription from the Exchange Bank, of Hastings, Ia., representing a dozen or more Upon the picture painted there, residents. The grand total is now over $94,000.

Orin Wisel, living at Bross, Kingman the people who lived in Chicago in that ancient epoch, together with some County, Kan., is an old soldier who served understanding of their pastimes and three years in Captain Smith's Company, "H," First Wisconsin Cavalry. He enprincipal occupations. The material now in the professor's hands will relisted in 1862, and while blacksmithing in Flongs dust upon a coffin iid. quire years to exhaust by deliberate the company was injured by an ugly mule study and scholarly criticisms, for how so as to entitle him to a pension. He is long will it not take to master the siganxious to see or hear from some one of his nificance of expressions like these: old regiment who knows him. He asks "Spalding's Salvationists followed that posts make inquiry and inform him. amid tremendous enthusiasm;" "An-One of Salina's citizens is probably the son's infants have gained all the glory oldest soldier in the United States. His there is in the world;" "New York's name is William Gaines, and he lately boodle-bearers have dropped both gold removed from Wilson, Kan., to this city. and glory;" "the mascot stood on his He is now eighty-six years old, and for head;" "Dal' let Gerhardt throw him sixty-two years was a soldier in the out at first;" "Gillespie hit four bases" United States service, being at the close of now that man must have been a the service a Sergeant Major in the Ordi-'giant'']; "Connor stole one base on nance Department. His military service commenced with the winter of 1812, enlisting as a drummer boy. However, he soon "Kelly's home-run was received with a discarded the drum for the musket. He served in the Seminole, Black Hawk and The puzzling quotations give but a other Indian wars, in the Mexican war and

TEMPERANCE READING.

THE BEER MAN.

I love each country sight and sound: I dearly lowe the strip of way That passes by and winds around, In pebbled smoothness far away

Beyond my home: the trees o'er head, That cast their cooling shadows o'er The traveler. Yet, oh! I dread The beer man rattling by the door.

His curriage plitters in the snn. The shining shoes scarce touch the sand Of his black steed, as first they run; He sits and n ver moves a hand.

Yet how he paints: ah me! such skill That beer m in rattling by my door.

Where all was glad and bright and free, And innovent as Eden's day, One moment, and again I see Such pletures, that I turn away.

Faces hard drawn with lines of pain, And eyes which speak the tale off heard Of crushed ambition, with its train Of hearts grown sick and hopes deferred.

The sights I see I can not tell. Of want and rugs, and poverty Of purse and brain. The doom of hell Scens batting for the mastery.

Behold 1, here, a hand all stained And dripping, which with brother's gore! Who stamped him with the mark of Cain? The beer man rattling by the door!

I see a strong and sturdy frame Crushed by a mighty engine s power; I bear a fond wife sob his name And children's tears tall in a shower;

Yet unconcerned he sits, the fur Is filling fast, and while I look And read them like an open book.

They change: the figures are withdrawn, For all that cursed and cursing van Step slowly down and follow him, A ghastly, sickly caravan.

The carriage glitters on am/d: While ev'ry hoof that beats the sol Or sends a spirit home to God.

Indements alone belong to Him. Ob. Father, God! may these depart! But send one touch that is akin To human feeling in the heart?

I love each country sight and sound; I love each soul God watches o'er; Yet dread, till dead and under ground, The heer man rattling by the door. -Mattie Flagg Campbell, in Toledo Elade.

VICTIMS OF RUM.

Writhing On Their Cots in Uncontrollable Agony, and Only Subdued by the Use of Strait-Jackets and Manacles-Scenes at Bellevue Hospital.

Down on the lower basement of Bellevue Hospital a long, low room extends from north to south. On either said the orderly, as he turned again to side heavy oaken doors, in each of the reporter. "That poor soul was ting them on their legs.

"Do you ever give stimulants?"

ances which we keep on hand."

which encircled his waist.

the draught and left the room.

his breast: then he shrieked."

"I remember one case in particular.

tor my medicine."

Mr. Conselly smiled at the question.

"Undoubtedly, and the examination at times develops some curious results. I remember once a fellow came here in a most ragged condition. You wouldn't give two cents for all he had on him. Covered with filth and vermin as he was, we experienced considerable difficulty in cleaning him. During the process I went through his clothes, correspondent, a Polish gentleman There were a number of pawn-ti kets named Ragoninski, who for the last in his porkets, and I hardly expected three years has been engaged in exto find anything of value after seeing that. As I surmised, he had noththat. As I surmised, he had noth-ing. Next day he had recuperated in a metains, with the view of discover-most extraordinar manner, and asked ing ariver in the interior which eventu-stomach. Frobably there are tend inc. most extraor linar manner, and asked very solicitously where his shoes had ally empties itself into the Congo. M. as many die, or suffer from the warrant he asked me to leave the ceil. and smoothed his chin, while the merry twinkle in his eye became more noticeable.

the insole," he went on, "that old tramp from Havre. Arriving safely at the many times the present number of the took out a small piece of oile i silk I coust M. Ragozinski met the Swiss exceptional cases this air is pure, re-When its waterproof covering was removed there lay a $1,000 bill. I opened take simultaneous observations, one being wafted on the "wings of the the door, went in and took it from him. party being on the Cameroons Peak, wind" to the utmost limits of the earth. Next day we learned that he had a wife and the other in the bay. While with the the waters absorbing vast quantities in and two children, whom he had de- latter party M. Ragozinski's canoe got the passage. serted

"Very often it happens that men are sent here who carry about with them not only money but valuables. The Warden receipts for them and they are delivered to the patient when he leaves.

"Sometimes the cries and groans in this place would sicken you Men cursing and raving and twisting at and we always keep a close watch upon the men under our charge. Should a patient require any extra nourishment. such as eggs, beefsteak or chops, not down in the regular bill of fare, he can always get it.

As the orderly reached this point in his story, there was a timid rap at the outer door, the bolts were shot back. and a trembling woman stood upon the threshold.

"Back again?" queried Mr. Connelly, not unkindly. "I can not do it." the debauched visitor, as she held out her shaking, toil-stained hands. Again the orderly shook his head. "I can't do it," he answered; "but here's ten cents."

With a muttered prayer of thanks the woman left.

"There you see the effect of drink." which is a small sliding wicket, giving here this morning to ask me to give her and his companion had been six months in Gorden Rule.

in the interior, and it was in the early

THE CAMEROONS.

ordinary Adventures of African Ex- Fare Mir More E.am ers Which Throw Considerable Light e Recent Historical and Geographical

there recently arrived in Liverpool true the Cameroons district, says a ring the vicinity of the Cameroon in the Russian Navy, and in the early some scientists claimed to be two hi

"From between the two portions of own vessel, the Lucy and Marguerita, ple supply for all, and, probably, for pedition, and with them arranged to ovated by the vegetable creation, by capsized, a struggle for life ensued and diffusion, the air and foul gases are ever br. Retzer, of the Swist expedition, intrusive, ever encroaching each upon was drowned. Some very valuable the other, each tending toward a genscientific instruments were also lost by eral sameness and equilibrium. We the accident.

In July of the same year M. Rago most barricading our sliting-mome our z toski started with a companion for the sleeping apartments, yet the bree es are river Libre. They met with much op- constantly about us, demanding an enmostion by the native "middlemen" of trance, howling as if disappoint it when their bonds, when it is necessary to Mokonych, who were afraid the ex- ruthlessly shut out. When we attempt ploters intended going to trade with to tighten our apartment, put double the interior tribes. The Mokonveh windows, to exclude the pure air of people would not allow the explorers to heaven, stop every possible crevice, ass Another tribe from Beffarenganya, surround our beds with curtains, close who brought trade from the interior to all of the windows and doors of our a town nearer the coast than the sleeping rooms, we are ignorantly light Mokonveh, were more friendly, and ing one of our very best friends. wanted the explorers to visit their. The man who deliberately deprives the Mokonych people, and the ex- air, thus name ng many forms of diploters promised to accompany the case, is as certainly a guilty near, Beilarengany as if they brought a strong though he may do it i norantly, as the escort. "Only one drink-look at me," said men, and a battle took place between prives his family of their daily food them and the Mokonych people. The indeed, if we may credit good aution latter were victorious, as their follows ity, a man may have from forty barling ing numbered fifteen hundred. Many days without solid food (Captain Laywere killed on both sides. M. Rago- lor, an insane man, started on the zinski had again to betake himself to eighty-first day, intending to doe in this the coast. The gallant explorers were way), while one would die in less time, averal times stricken with fever, and if deprived of water, but in a few minit was about this time that M. Ragozin- utes, if deprived of air. Fure air is the ski's companion, M. Toniczek, discov- essential of human life, and it can be had ered the Rio del Rev. M. Ragozinski simply by the taking Dr. Handfird, ing creatures on the earth Anderson In consequence of the great low of may attempt to isolate curselves, al-country. They, however, had to pass himself and his family of God's pure They brought six hundred one with the same intell gence who do tion of Health to. Almost the first act after birth, and the last one, is breathing, which be continued during mortal life, which ever else may be omitted. This d. not depend on our volitions, but on tinues during our sleeping hours, estantly, though at a reduced rate of speed. Fure sir is as predful for your been placed. I got them for him, and Ragoninski's explorations led him into pure air, as from a deficient amount of adventures of a most exciting kind. M. food, and yet there is no occusion for any delicient supply, since a vast occurs Mr. Connelly paused in his narrative Ra oginski was formerly a Lieutenant of pure air surrounds the earth by part of 1883 sailed from France in his dred niles deep! This affords an un-

COMETS.

WHAN

have reason to congratulate ourselves

From game were "extra editions," and we are and with great curiosity for his understanding of the contents of the papers has had a great career. He was purchased passes over.

RELIC-HUNTERS.

and Burial Vaults.

Oh, those relic-hunters! They seized on everything that they could pull apart. At General Grant's first inauguration, the President had scarcely retired from the grand stand not only be of good quality, but free from over Senator Sumner the relic-hunters General Burdett, who was so much delighted with his Topeka trip, in conversathe Union soldiery. During the reunion brothers, had organized themselves into a ward. corps of "Daughters of Veterans." They were attired in a tasty uniform of red, white and blue-red skirts, white jackets and jaunty blue caps-and presented an appearance both novel and attractive .--Washington (D. C.) National Tribune.

in the war of the rebellion .- Salina (Kan)

STOCK ITEMS.

There are 22,000 Cattle Club Jersey cows place to get good Jerseys now is not Jersey, but the United States. For warts on stock, I use meat fryings, and it has never failed. Make several applications every two or three days, and give it a little time and the wart will disappear.-Cor. Ohio Farmer. At the late public sale of Herefords at Riverview Park, Kansas City, nineteen bulls averaged $204.15 and six cows averaged $307.50. The general average on twenty-six head disposed of was $227.75. In using cold dips for the scab and other diseases of sheep, unless the dipping is done in a thorough manner the solution will not penetrate close compact wool and reach all the parasites on the skin, owing to the dirt

The cattle industry in this country is will rest upon the stomach after a pro- Y. Telegraph. we administer bromide of potassium." character of ranch industry amounts to doctor's pre-cription. They beg for it. We shall look with interest for fur- over one hundred millions of dollars .- but we can not permit them to keep up

> The English thoroughbred horse Hermit owner, exclusive of bets.-Exchange,

The pork raised for family use may be much improved by keeping the hogs under conditions promotive of health. A good run in the pasture, with plenty of exercise, clean water, with corn at the finish, will produce pork fit for any one. Should the pigs necessarily be confined they should receive grass plentifully and the pens kept scrupulously clean. The pork will thus

To destroy the virus of glanders or any resumed the orderly. "He was a sulphuric acid with one pail-full of water; drinking for more than three weeks. be careful to avoid splashing of the acid. However, he was never really drunk - it a prison-like air. To the right a a drink from the medicine store. couldn't do it without an order from a small office looks upon the corridor, physician, and told her so. Her hustion on that subject spoke again of the and here was found Mr. Connelly, the band was a patient not more than a great and growing interest the people of orderly in charge. He is a slight, clean- month ago, and I suppose she'll be in Kansas are taking in all that pertains to shaven gentleman, with twinkling grav the woman's ward in a few days." eves that give no token of the heart- When the reporter was leaving, a he had the pleasure of seeing a company rending scenes he has witnessed during man whose glaring eyes showed but of young ladies, who in imitation of their the nine years he has presided over the too plainiy that he was within a few moments of an attack of the dreadful disease was led in. His hair was disar-"You want to know our treatment of patients?" he queried, when asked | ranged, and there was a nervous, shiftwhat use he followed. "Well, I had ing air about his actions that left no better begin by telling you the story in doubt of his purpose in being there. With his experienced eve the orderly my own way. It has never been written up and I am sure will prove inter. noted his appearance, and saw that the case was worse than it appeared upon esting.

"We are obliged to receive only peo- the surface. Rapilly the man was unple sent from the station-houses or the dressed and taken to a room. Hardly police courts. Our patients are gener. had his shrunken form touched the white ally in a pretty bad condition when they | counterpane than whatever little light 10,000 cows on the island of Jersey. The arrive, and our first care is to see that of reason still lingered in his dulled they are immediately bathed. In all eyes faded away, and his face became cases this can not be done, but where distorted with the horror that was fillit is possible we do it." ing his diseased brain.

"Take them away!" he should, as "What are the worst cases?" he tore at the collar of the white night "Beer-drinkers. It seems to me that dress that had been put on him, "Take whisky does not make such a total wreck of a man as the milder stimulant. them away?

"The jacket, Jim," said the orderly, Take the drivers of brewery wagons, quietly, and a long, sack-like garment who continuously dabble in beer-huwas brought in by the assistant. man sponges, in fact. We always ex-

After a struggle the wriggling patient perience considerable difficulty in getwas inclosed in it, and then the door was looked. "Of course, the patient's stomach is disordered, and unable to retain any "He'll probably last until to-mor-solid nourishment. The constant use row," said Mr. Connelly, as he turned "He'll probably last until to-morof liquor creates an abnormal action of the key.

"How men can drink when they the nerves and a craving for something have such awful examples before them to quiet the unusual excitement. Limewater and milk is the only thing that is more than I can understand."-N.

----A FINAL DRAM.

After Drinking a Fint of Whisky an Old " Example " Drops Dead.

"But very seldom, and only on a John Chatham, of Pine Station, he been known as a heavy drinker, a has been held up to youths as an exai a ship to a harbor until the storm ple of what degradation will follow use of intoxicating liquors. It

"Some of the cases that come here made known this morning that the sign a treaty, but when M. Ragozinquiet: others again require the died vesterday after drinking a t of ski applied, it was instantly signed on whisky. Chatham had been on protracted spree. All his money we He was thirsting for a drink and he walked to the hotel bar and meed for on the door. When it was opened a a glass of liquor. The bartester said: tall, straight man with a high, white "If you drink a pint of sky you can have it for nothing.

Recovering himself he sold in an ex-"Mr. Connelly," he said, as his fingers worked convulsively, "it's time drink it."

The orderly rose and took from his cabinet a small v al containing a darkgra-ped the glasser sized it to his lips and never lowered a until the last drop gungled down his throat. Snacking his lips he laid the glass on the bar, brown fluid. With tremulous lips, his hands still bound, the patient swallowed rubbing his hands in a stasy. He exclaimed as by tottered toward other contagious disease mix one pound of elergymen in this city, and had been the door: "That has a sde a new man of me.

part of 1884 when they returned to the coast

The Part They Flay in Astrologie Sup M. Ragozinski was now master of the native language, and traveled every-

Eclipses, comets and conjunctions of where with the utmost freedom. Indeed, so much respect did the natives the superior planets, play a great part show him that they put him on a level in state astrology. Some well authenwith their great chief or king. His tiented cases of success in this departpower extended for miles iniand, and ment are on record. One astrologer, on the coast from Ambas Bay to the by name Landino, according to Villari Rio del Rey. Unfortunately the fever carried off M. Toniczek, and M. Rago, drew the horoscope of religion, and zinski was joined by M. Yanekonsk. predicted, from a conjunction of Jaci-The natives proclaimed M. Ragozinski ter and Saturn, that on the 25th of Noas Chief of Bota, and while about to vember, 1484, a great reformation of arrange for the exploration of the in- the Christian religion would take place. terior. M. Ragozinski heard of the Ger- and it is very singular that Luther was man designs on the Cameroons. The born in the very month of November of annexation of the Cameroons River was 1183 or 1484 - some doubt existing as to soon after an accomplished fact. Sub- the year. Tycho Brahe predicted, from F sequently II M. S. Forward and Colonel the comet of 1577, that in the north of a Hewitt arrived at Ambas Bay, and re- Finland there would be born a Frince quested M. Ragozinski to put his terri- who should lay waste Germany and tory of Bota, which he held by treaty vanish in 1632. Now, Gustavus Adolphwith the natives and chiefs, under the us, it is well known, was been in him-British protecton This he did, and, land, overran Germany and died in further, went in the Forward and made 1632. It is also very singular that dur treaties for England from Ambas Bay ing the very worst period of the late to the Rio del Rey. This was a work of several days, and just a she treaty was being signed in the flist own two which astrologers say rules ireland, and German war vessels come into the bay. Their object was to annex the territory which had the been handed over to England, and the officers of the war vessels gald not hide their chegrin tion of President Carfield two computer saw they had been jore--first seen in the United States ap-After this the Germans on peaced in right ascension, extraspondwind to get behind the territory of ing to Gemini, a sign, again, and in reglish with the view of cutting of astrologers to rule the United States. Sumication from the interior. The Now, it is an old astrological doctrine es became alarmed at this, and that a comet visible to the naked eve. sul White, her Majesty's represente appearing in the ruling sign of mount live at Old Calabar, visited Ambas, try, portends the visiont death of the ay and asked Ragozinski to go into chief ruler. There is no doub that it the interior and make treaties with the place of chance coincidence of the same coincidence of the same coincidence of the sort that astrology maintained its place for such a long period of time, and that even at the present day

> .... NOBLE COURAGE.

The Hirole Deal Performed by allah Count laut terran

The over evening a gallant reason oix children from a perilous position was affected by a mast-guardaman named Thensa White, stationed at Hytiom of M. Yanekonski's cause. Think lond. What had just left the ing they were practicing, and were house on. his best when his careless as to where the shots went M. attention was called to a group of pro-Yanekonski still rowed on. As has ple near the road leading from the toll they fired from a Hotchkiss, and, after bar in Ryhope Colliery to the beach. several shots, one went through the He proceeded to the spot, when he canoe. The nat ve paddieman terri-fied, then jumped into the water. The and that it was cought that they were three boats coming up from the Ger- on the beach in a pole of the shift. No man war vessel. M. Yanekonski was asked his name. They, however, would not believe him, stating he was Rago-zinski, whom they had orders to arrest. tened the rope round his waist, and was M. Yanekonski was taken prisoner on lowered over the elift, which is about toard the German war vessel. The seventy feet high to be beach below. Germans were jubilant at the arrest. When he got a safe forting, he heard behalf of England. The Gormans left, and subsequently the arrest of M Ragozinski was ordered if found in German territory. Soon afterward, as M. Yanekonski was crossing from Batoki to Victoria in a canoe he passed a German war wessel in English waters. Three boats were lowered from the war vessel, and shots were fired in the dime- hope, nor Sunderland, terior chiefs and eventually came upon the Germans. They had been three are red to think "there is something in days at one place waiting for the chief it." All The Year Hound.

but a note from the shore from Rago- the eres of the latie one. but was una cale that the grandest and most valuable discovery of all had just been made. Chicago is undoubtedly the most wonderful of American an-tiquities, and no traveler can be disappointed who has any acquaintance with an object the mahogany of the desk it-pointed who has any acquaintance with an object the stable.—N. F. Tomes. Farm Notes. while M. Ragolinski was up the country making treaties, the Germans landed at one place-a mile in extent-and this they annexed, being the only all were sent safely up, except the youngest, a boy about ion years gland. A few months ago, while M. thought itadvisatio to carry him gong their spree. They come here as would straight-jacket and se eral little appli-Hardly had the words passed the speaker's lips when a kick sounded upon the door. When it was opened a forchead stood upon the threshold. His han is were manacled to a heavy belt

This liberality astonished Chatham.

The bartender whisky in a law rate at a pint of Chatham is so vivid and intense that it requires break the mortar and rocks from the County, Neb., threshed 23) bushels of oats but a small effort of the imagination to walls of the old vault, cut twigs from from three and three-fourths acres of piace yourself among the multitudes the shrubbery and trees, and carry ground. He claims to have beaten the which once thronged the streets and away any little thing that will serve as record.

Sleeping-Time of Fish.

An experiment has recently been tried at the Inventions Exhibition Aquarium stable dry; then burn in it, in an iron pot, than they think for are

Farm Notes.

W. Osgood, of Long Branch, Johnson my patient's cell and found him writh- saloon, should perish from the

Mr. W. S. Adams, of Stafford County, would raise the hair upon your head. I cation of the young. - Cambridge I Kan., raised this season, a large quantity sent at once for a brother clergymaa of unc.

one dollar per bushel.

te has succeded in keeping his average of the hyphotic.

It is well, every autumn, to carefully consider and decide what fields will be improved and what injured by fall plowselping along the spring work at a season when work is not as driving as in the

The expenses of the Pennsylvania State fair at Philadelphia were about $5,000 more than the receipts, owing chiefy to a but the buildings, fixtures, etc., on the fair grounds represent an outlay of $100,000.

TEMPERANCE ITEMS

"It is high time that gove shout of the saloon, by the saloon, and or the the saloon, by the saloon, and curling shrick | ever heard. I ran to ing on his cot and pristing himself into A PRACTICAL Temperance men every conceivable shape. Two of us that introducing scientific instruction were insufficient to hold him, and at is- concerning alchohol into the set tervals he broke out in screams that There is hope, always, in the right of peanuts. The average yield was sev- his, but the attempt to soothe him was Tur W. C. T. U. of San Francis enty-five bushess per acre, the averge price futile. He raved and foamed and beat Cal, has issued an address to the pr the air with his hands. An injection of tors and members of churches through By sowing a bushel of sait to the acre, a morphine was used, and after awhile out the State, calling their attention to Favette County (Mo.) farmer believes that he sank asleep under the influence of the great increase of intemperance, especially among the young.

> A PHYSICIAN has discovered that discharge him cured. Before he went nitro-givcerine is a superior heart-I asked hits in what his dreadful ilstimulant to brandy, and may be safely lusions consisted. He told me that he imagined a huge dog, with gleaming substituted for the latter in many cases. It has the merit of creating no un- con teeth, croached at the foot of his bed. Every once in a while the brute would | natural craving. Thus do the doctors continue to batter down the bulwarks not spring upon him and bury his fangs in of the liquor trade. - Current.

THE most novel bestowment of "Do you ever have the men return?" "Why, certainly: though a man who wealth for the public good, lately, is comes here the third time suffering from that of John K. Tolman. of Lynn, the delirium tremens is doomed. There Mass., who has given $30,000 for the is no help for him, because his system is enforcement of the liquor laws; and mint. totally enervated and the heart and trustees of the fund are now pushing newly pa stomach unable to perform their usual liquor prosecutions. Mr. Tolman is smell, epterity if imprograted with a functions. Our deaths average about seventy-nine years old: never used to-two per cent. of the people admitted." bacco, liquor, tea, coder or meak; and "They are searched, I suppose?" is halt and hearty.

zinski himself soon put maturs right. ble traget near them und he and this they annexed, being the only all were sent safely up, end place between Ambas Bay and Rio del youngest, a boy about two yes Rey which was not taken over by En- who was so exhausted that Augozinski was administering the place, he reseived a Bhashook from England which showed him that Count Herbert Bismarck, som of the German Tancellon, had visited Amidon, and Bryan of McVille. Mr.

at the country which M Rasariaski control at his other issued ha was liable to arrest. Mr. Ragocinski did not reive any intimation from the British authorities of their intention. on the behalt -London Globe

THEM WILL ?

-Says & Georgia pewspaper: note with regret the death of Beynn of McVille. Mr. Hevan was harmies gentleman of many pecela d got under British protection had ities. He has for many years worn h ities. He has for many rears worn he hair as long as any laiv's and done it hair as long as any laiv's and done it hair as long as any laiv's and done it up is an old-fashioned net. He was any. When this startling news hair as commanifedist - would waik miles all around a dense swamp while asleep.

> tor-"You see, wifey dear, I have pulled my patient through, after all; a very critical case, I can tell you." His wife-"Yes, dear hubby; but then

Int Geol 112,466 a year true the