...and a Population...

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 12.—

Hon. Joseph K. Toole became Montana's

Representative to Congress on the expiration of the term of Hon. Martin Maginnis, on March 4th, 1885. Born in Missouri, Colonel Toole has resided in Montana since boyhood, and is familiar with the wants, as well as the wonderful resources of that growing territory. He has served with distinction as State's Attorney, member of the Legislature,

Assembly, and of the Constitutional Convention of the Territory, and was elected by the Democracy of Montana by a comparatively large majority to represent the Territory in the Forty-ninth Congress.

He is now drawing considerable attention in the East as a Territory of great possibilities. The Territory is enjoying the greatest prosperity, and has a most inviting future. Since the completion of the Northern Pacific and Utah Railroads our population has increased rapidly, and capital has been attracted to us. A million head of cattle, 120,000 head of horses and 1,200,000 head of sheep are grazing upon the nutritious grasses of that territory. Our mines are the most productive of any in the country, and although that interest is in its infancy the mineral output for 1885 will approximate in value $28,000,000. Our population is close on to 100,000. No census has been taken for a long time, but the vote at the last election showed that the Territory is over twenty years in advance of the rest of the country. Our people are naturally restive under a Territorial form of government. It is restrictive of the liberties, and a large majority of citizens favor an early admission as a State, and to that end have formulated and adopted an admirable Constitution, and appointed a committee of leading citizens to present the same to the President and to Congress.

NATIONAL MATTERS.

Report of the Sixth Auditor—The Silver

Question—Fourth of the Postmaster

WASHINGTON, November 12.—Sixth Auditor

McConville has submitted to the Postmaster General his annual report on the financial operations of the Post Office Department during the last fiscal year. From the report it appears that the gross postal revenues were $42,569,843; the expenditures $49,- 217,183; excess of expenditures over revenue $6,750,340. To this deficiency, says the Auditor, should be added the amounts certified to the Pacific Railroad for transportation, $1,340,295, and the estimated unjust liabilities for 1885, $35,- 000, making a total deficiency of $8,445,- 211. The deficiency last year was $4,907,- 425, or $3,537,786 less than the present deficiency. The revenues show a fall-off of $755,115, while the expenditures have increased $6,035,225. This result is attributed to the reduction in letter postage and to general business depression. The principal items of expenditure was as follows:

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

Report of the Board—Increase of Drunken on Owing to a Fool Law.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—The annual report of the President of the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers' Home covers the period from October 1, 1884, to September 30, 1885. The disbursements during the year were over $24,463, including $72,533 expended for the new annex building and for other permanent improvements.

One hundred and ninety-two discharged soldiers received their original admission to the home during the year, one less than the number admitted the previous year. Sixty-two of these had served twenty or more years as enlisted men and the remaining 130 were admitted by disability incurred in the service. The number of men who in any given period seek the benefits of the Home of necessity after leaving the service is a very small percentage of those discharged from the army in the same year.

Under circumstances which appear to give them a right to those benefits. In the year ended June 30 there were 843 soldiers discharged from the army for disability, and of only eighty-four were received at the Home. This, says the report, is somewhat significant in view of the fact that a large number of those discharged must after a few years at most, seek an asylum somewhere and the Soldiers' Home is undoubtedly here to receive and maintain the greater number of those who become unable to make a living for themselves. There has been, says the report, a very great increase in the number of inmates during the year, the cause for which is laid at the door of the existing law for the disposition of the pension money of inmates.

One-tenth of the pensioners assign their pension money to the Home, and inmates, on whose account more than $100,000 is paid quarterly to the treasurer of the home, are permitted to draw small sums from time to time, while the larger portions of the pension money are

THREE KINDS.

Wealthy Men and Their Position in Public Opinion.

"There are only three kinds of wealthy men," said a leading merchant yesterday, "and I'd like to know which of the three classes you think the most honorable," addressing a reporter.

"How do you class them?"

"There's the man made rich by hereditary bestowals, the man who becomes rich through speculation and the man who gets there in a legitimate business manner."

"How about the miser?"

"A miser is never rich and never a man."

"What's the legitimate business manner to which you refer?"

"The man who begins business on a small scale and hangs to it thirty or forty years, never making any money except on the legitimate profit made in buying and selling goods, putting down expenses and looking sharply after collections. Such a method is legitimate, but it requires years of patience, self-denial and hard work. There are very few rich men of this kind."

"And the speculation?"

"It does not mean the open, self-conscious gambler, but the speculator who risks his all on a real estate deal, improves it to the extent of getting it into a shape where it will pay interest and taxes, and then waiting for a natural increase in value. Then there's the chap who risks his all on small purchases of real estate and keeps turning his money over and over. Finally there's the man who alights squarely on the luck of some invention which brings great wealth."

"And the inheritor of wealth?"

"Sometimes they are good men, but more often they amount to but little."

UNDER THE GALLOW'S

Frightful Condemnation of a Mother by Her Son—What Does it Mean?

Not long ago a weeping mother called to her only son to her only son who was soon to be executed. "Woman," he exclaimed, in a momentary fray, "Woman, I would never have been here had you done your duty by me when I was young."

"This was a terrible parting!" It horrified the spectators, it nearly crazed the conscience-stricken mother. "One can scarcely overestimate the mother's influence in the molding of the character of her offspring. But how often, how often, do mothers seem to ignore this responsibility?"
