A. C. HOSMER, Publisher.

ED CLOUD. - - NEBRASKA

BY THE GATE OF THE SEA

By David Christie Murray.

AUTHOR OF "A Model FATHER, "A LIFE'S A.ONE HENT, LTC.

CHAPTER XI -CONTINUED.

It was noticeable to Phil that the poor, for some reason as yet nuknown, was academily becoming less and less Mr. Maurice in the dark any longer. I sight of him, and it was best to go. Nor declar nor histors, nor tempts us to at his case while the reading of the beg your pardon," she continued, to Philecought his ashamed and miser- ortodowesed decis which no man should disched his own interest in the business. To try to entrap you. But you will tell away together, when Mrs. Tregarthen Now for a time Marsh deserted Phil alcorner companionless, while he crossed | and-I-am Mrs. Tregarthen the room and adds seed Miss Churchill. "Will you give me a word?" asked

"(" reainly." have only just begun to see it. A be nothing less than terrible. Phil was were appeared yours, a most and assimes | an especially sensitive lad, unusually beathed a lad as I have met anywhere, swift to like people, and splendidly cor-Wall to know you, and I have brought I tain of the accuracy of his own secret has no looses face. Why should you then. He was sure that she was as aboling in I can always pleased to good, as pure and womanly as she know your founds. You have the looked as pure as the sweet, persesort of knowing none but good peo- cuted Bertina in the poet's comedy.

durn, "or labous everything you shine that of a saint in pain. He had idention Furgior me, but I mur so old a field her with the part he had seen her constant that I can done to speak the play a thing always easy for ardent trends have and their But I are afraid | youth, and common enough in the ex-I may poin you, and yet I feared you perience of actresses who are not modmount blanc me if you know, and if I cle of all the virtees, or embodiments did not bring him. I can not tell of wit and sweet temper. That for worther I am acting well or ill, wisely once the natural fancies of a raw lad DE OUTES COMMUNICAL WAY." "This passing le has a meaning?" she wells "the young gentleman is a ing incarnation of goodness-to her Mr. Mar. - Mr. Philip Maurice, of -Tr so the st.

We was in from the a work?" "The same," Mursh answered. "H

I house alone in range

$1 1.731 bound heat wildly. When she penched | fashion than common, and his passion the livers such furnished little cham- had ripened and sobered into a most neimi ker-elf, thinking of Phil. "Doeshe know what Arthur thinks of the?" A thous med framulations questions were in her mind, a thousand tumoltoons. feelings ran riot in her heart. How great a singler she had been, sinning every day against his expressed withes, and carning a hateful fame and adulation by it? She had wrecked the noblest of lives, broken or darkened the manliest heart. For the millionth time she ! wondered why she had not stayed to rible position. brave the storm, to make her confession and to be forgiven and to serve him like a slave with a lifelong devotion. And even in her self-accusing soul some faint voice of necessary egotism sounded. Would she have been so unworthy of him after all if he had taken her mack and forgiven her? Would she not have loved him so, with such an unfailing worship and such a willing surrender of her soul, that he must have savior and benefactor and friend, but loved her back again? She suffered greatly while she sat thus, and even went a little, but calming herself by and by, and removing all traces of her tears. | guilty of anything in the world, but she returned to the green-room with becoming tranquillity.

dozen people left there, but among them were Phil and the poet. She moved loward them, and Marsh performed the office of introduction. "I am pleased to meet you, Mr. Maurice," she said, in the beautiful tones which had so moved him when he heard them from the stage. He box ed in answer, but was tongue-tred for the moment, as if he had been in the presence of some gentle divinity. "I am alone at home this afternoon, Mr. Marsh, "shoulded, "and I shall be glad if you and Mr. Maurice will take a cup of ten with me. Lina is there, of "but sisters are not always the best of

"You libel Line and yourself," said the post with a pretence of gavety. "In half an hour," she said turning toward the door. "May I expect commany to each other.

Her carriage waited at the stage entrance to the theater, and she drove away, with another faint smile and a and of the head to Phil. He and the poet followed her on foot, and, reaching the bouse, were shown into a little lowel of a room, where everything was of them, and at last I got an engagewonderfully neat and rich and dainty. By and by the actress reappeared, in indoor costume; tea was brought, and and spoke from a twilight in which her "You know Tregarthen Island, Mr.

Maurice?" "Oh, ves," said Phil, a good deal surprised at the question. "I have spent more than half my life there." I am a Cornish woman, she said.

Are the Pollarths living?" "Jan is dead," said Phil. "Did you know Jan- the patriarch of the tribe?" fearing she would break down. "But his children, and -

"All of them," Phil answered.
"Jan's is the only death that has taken place on the Island for more than covered by accident after our marriage.

Some one who had known me on the Island—he and his head was bent in an attitude of twelve years."

the repairs finished?"

never had the heart to finish them."

writhed upon his chair and turned pale. way? he asked internally. Phil no- forgave me-he never tried to find was bent as before. His left hand still ticed nothing. What was more natural | me. eyes, should shut out her greatness for | for a while cried unrestrainedly.

"It's a sad story." said Phil. ig- anape once upon a time is common to appearance precisely such a tritle se porantiv. "Did you know Mr. Tre- the experience of many honest men, might be picked from the waste hear garthen?" She answered only by a | but it does not often carry with it so of any glass factory. movement of the head. "He met with severe a consistment as was dealt out

RED CLOUD CHIEF. | 2 great misfortune-a misfortune to Ronal Marsh. Here he and beca which seems nearly to have bucken his | magnenic, early pitying this left a sor-Who-

> "Great heavens!" ground the poet, Vicenwringing his moist hands together. Pinil turned and stared at him.

youngster rising to his feet.

farther. pay went on, and this somewhat the amazed visitor, "if I have so med | able glance, and they were moving me everything about him-you, who prose know him so well? I have had nobody

CHAFTER XIL

The situation was sufficiently embarrassing. At the moment Mrs. Tre-"I have done a clumsy thing, and I garthen, Marsh and Phil each felt it to intuitions. He had met nobody who "I not sed him," she answered. "He | had so impressed him as Mrs. Tregar-The faint smile he had twice seen upon "Your own goodness," he said in re- her face had lingered in his mind as were justified was nothing to him. He could have been quite as certain of heir truth if he had pitched on a new "A separation, says the pact, uns Jezebel. And he had called this suffer face - a worthless woman!

The post, for his part, had the misery The child she whispered, hooking, of knowing that he was responsible for was a white face, at the poet, "who | the encounter and the shocking result which had spring from it. A better artist would have told his story botter, and would have wasted "You have not done wrong. Exents | less time on non-essentials, but it is not For for a moment. Let him stay till I | too late to say here what should have been set forth earlier. An intellectual with a somewhat stately | top had grown into a man and had put fallen in love, in no better or worse ber provide to herself her trembling tender friendship and a most profound kness telaked altogether, and she al. respect. He saw genius in Mrs Tres gauthen's work upon the stage, serrow uncomplainingly endured and under served in her daily life; and to his third, after many years of inlimacy her soul was an entire and perfecchrysolite. He loved her still, as a post and a gentleman can love woman who is out of the reach of desire, and the phrase the hapless Phil had used went through him like a knife. Mrs. Tregardien was true to her instincts, and was persuaded that here, as always, the guilt was hers. She had entrapped the young man into this ter-"Forgive me," she said, brokenly,

"I wanted to hear of him. I have not heard of him for so long.

"Forgive me," said the poet, almost in the same breath with her. "I would have died rather than expose you to this indignity, and yet I did it. Phil stood silent, but his face and attitude were enough for retractation and apology. He had to believe in Arthur in spite of everything, his he believed none the less in Miss Churchill's goodness. The unknown Mrs. Tregarthen might have been this unhappy lady was maligned. The mere fact that thousands of men have been just so certain as himself, and There were not more than half a have proved themselves mistaken, was, of course, nothing to him. The other fact, that he was right, made his infatuation none the wiser. But now and then, even in this poor world, the soul has happy hopes that are justified, and ; beliefs in goodness which are not thrown

"Dear friend," said the actress. you the whole truth. I was to blame. I have never deserved to be thought a written, before starting, to aunounce of to-day, and prepares the way for a like to know what effect these ingredies ing dance has no friends whose still about forty cases, concerning worthless woman." Both hearers would have gone to the stake in supcourse," she added with a faint smile: port of that postulate without a second's hesitation. "When my father died Lina and I were left in poverty, and I came to London as a governess There were private theatricals at the house where I was engaged, and I was ceed upon the real stage, and that the bay, with Phol at the rudder. The throughout all social grades down to formed into apple brandy are fised oil, ment by party. In all great matters, other suspended officials for Lina. We had looked at the Era the Sea-gate, and Phil, who had kissed this. Though the vast mass of the peo- acid and oil of bitter almonds. "The try depends upon consistent and unto see where to hire our dresses for the private theatricals, and saw advertise- arrival. ments there for actors and acresses. I looked again and answered one or two the three settled down to talk. The plainly and without ornament, and And go to bed be won't for nights tohostess, with her face turned from the light, nestled into a luxurious chair, er with Lorrimer, her professional en- very meals." features were scarcely to be discerned. | gagement with him, and her receipt of | When they reached the house Phil of her uncle's property.

"I had been known all this time as | "You must wait till he comes out, Miss Churchill," she said then "but sir," she said, whitmuringly, "He when I returned to Carbay I took back | won't be honeelf by disturbed for any-"I was born at Goreay. But I have my own name, and tried to forget the thing not seen it for a long time. Is it much changed? Tell me about the Island. -and here again she began to falter. feel his home-coming a little dreary. "that I met Mr. Tregarthen; but it was | "He will see me, I know." not until we were engaged that I found | He knocked, and the housekeeper what an antipathy he had to the stage. rustled away. Receiving no answer. "Poor Jan!" she said, with a tremor | He thought that no good woman could he knocked again, more londing and in her voice. Marsh sat ill at ease, be an actress without losing refinement | after a pause he tried the handle of the and purity of mind. I was frightened. | door. Tregarthen sat, in dressing-gown the, rest are all living? Renben and I was afraid of losing his affection. I and slippers, in an old leathern armhid the truth from him, but it was dis- chair, and at first Phil thought him was one of a pienic party, or he came | complete repose. "And the Castle," she asked-"are with the archeologists, and he insisted | "Arthur!" said Phil, softly, prepared that I was Miss Churchill. I tried to to back without noise from the room. "No," returned Phil. "They were dismiss him, but he was impertment Tregarthen looked up at him. abandoned years ago. Mr. Tregarthen and would not go. I told him at last | "Ah, Phil! You here?" and without that I had been Miss Churchill, but rising he stretched his languid right "How was that?" The cup and sau- that I wished to meet no one who had hand across his body and shook hands cer she held in her hands clattered known me by that name. My husband in so mechanical a way that Phil against each other, and the poet overheard me. I knew that he would dropped his limp fingers in distress, never forgive my deceit, and I left the Tregarthen's released right hand went Why should she torture herself in this Island and came to London. He never | back to its former place, and his head than that a lady great in the world's | Then she broke down altogether, and | Phil now saw that Tregarthen's gaze a little while and talk of the places she It was hard measure for the poet. ness on a piece of greenish crystal had known in childhood? To have been a popinjay and a jack- about the size of a pigeon's egg-to an heart. He married a worthless woman, rows for a dozen years, and now it turned out that he was the esusa of

to face the truth, and to take all the "A worthless woman," said Mrs. | punishment he deserved. "I was that we ve given up wasks and e der and beer, Tregatihen from her shadowed corner, miserable imperiment. If I could have we've found that could water is good taken in a voice so unlike her own that both | guessed what my insolence would cost her hearers started. "Yes. Go on." | you - "-Well, what was to be said in | We've found us not lacking in sparkle or "You are ill, madam," eried the extenuation? He could say nothing, we've found, taken straight, that us not could undo nothing that had been "Oh!" besought Marsh, rising also, I done. But surely the man who could So, if you picase, aquita bibusas. and turning an imploring look up- throw away such a pearl of woman- well drink to our wives and discipliers so on her, "pursue this interview no bood for such a trivial cause must have "Be seated," she said, in a voice less | can be mended by mere words," he parafully disguised by emotion, but said in a voice so tremulous that he said you please again adversary still strangely harsh. "I will not keep | was ashumed of it. She must hate the | It moves braids bendache, it never brings together, and left him standing in a country companionless, while he crossed and if a Mr. There are different and are probably being tears in the country companionless, while he crossed and if a Mr. There are different and are probably being tears in the country companion of the country companion of the crossed and if a Mr. There are different and are probably being tears in the country companion of the country compan come to-morrow, Mr. Maurico? I want . to hear- I shall be better able to lis- we lide as to good workmen good masters. ten to you then. Will you come?"

the post, and they went away.

wretched poet when they were out of But if you blowe, mysom pears any All this misery was of my making. I have known her for twelve years, and well drock to the comment by given days. there does not breathe a butlet woman. But grak has gover will see on or prace She is as pure as a flower, as charitable. We nike ak but we nide at a good Caristian drinking man forty-five years old should trial, it is often said, the country would of Bai the facts will not get our of as the day.

She spoke the truth," said Phil. who was greatly moved. "I am sure who was greatly moved. "I am sure of it. I know it. But there was nother than the most that has Temperance, and the most that has Temperance, and the most that has part with her. There was something could never have driven her away for Power-How R Might Be Made Potent III cating arsenic than he do s in drink- convictions, nothing in shart, except garthen and his wife, but the poet as if she were a veritable goldless. No through the rum bottle. It is possible could afford to spend the first ten years.

The Provident admits that he has found a simple solution to the mistery. matter what may be the prevailing for an individual to take arsenic regus in motous scrambling for spools, neglect been making changes for purely It was plain to him that Tregarthen made of dress, they observe it slavishly. In and yet live for years, Generally, of public business, and slow acquired that view would not reconcile itself. The question as to whether it is become however, it is a dead shot. In draws, ment of the rudimentary knowledge officers could not endage him.

might be hild

The two friends parted, and each followed. and had seen him safely in the railway time to time.

for the young. speaking through her tears, "let me tell. There were many moments when for braces up the rum power. It formishes cause the dyspeptic and nervous dis- without a party is not only a ing the Finance Committee has recom-Arthur's sake he felt afraid of it, but a fresh crop of drankards among the orders that follow the habitual use of choly spectacle; he is as useless as the monded two or three batches of col-I have known it, bitterly, always. But noter really taltered in it. He had non-ay, and sometimes the women - alcoholic liquors. Those who would Keeley motor. He can get nothhis arrival, and at Gorbay station he second among the children, by family ents have upon the human system anxiety for his success perpetual, which the Secretary of the Treasury found one of the Pollaribs awaiting invaling them with the infernal stuff, will find an abundance of information, by guards him against error, is used has not replied. If there are any didn't hardis knaw ve."

asked to play in them. I was praised boat, took the sculls icisurely in his ciety wherein this abominable fashion oil of birch. The ingredients of the these there is a larger and most imso highly that I thought I might sue big, brown leands, and pulled across is set. A new style of dress is followed essence by which "spirits" is trans- portant reason for preferring govern- with respect to its influence on the would have enabled me to do so much old bousekeeper stood on the sends at the very poorest. The same is true of sulphuric acid, valerianic acid, accele the prosperity and honor of this count. her when he went away, kissed her on ple may never follow the mode of hav- oil of bitter almonds, says the Dis- flinching adherence to certain principles of hav-"How is Mr. Tregarthen?" he asked.

"Ailing, she said - ailing a bit badly, I'm afraid, Mr. Pailip. He's had a dreadful cold all winter, and he She went on with her story, telling it looks wild-like, as if he was worried.

the letter from Messrs. Lane & Carter, marched straight to the laboratory which informed her of the disposition | door, and would have knocked there; but the houseke per stopped him lay in his lap, knuckles downward and was fixed with a sort of dreamy intent.

(TO BE CONTINUED.

TEMPERANCE.

AQUAM BIBAMUS."

(To the German melody "Ergo Biliamo.") "Mrs. Tregarthen," he said, trying For sone and good cheer we're now gathered But, if you please, again believes, been a fool past re-lemption. "Nothing | But, it you please only that which they with us can AL INT

Fo, It you presses agrees fallerway. We is drink to our churches, our country,

So, if I kill please reputer Militimus;

"I am on fire with shame," said the Well dresk to our boys, who are watching If a mandrinks beport antil he is fortydoors. "I am grieved to the heart, well drok to good women with prayer and with prase. So, if and please, dynam fellam is;

So, if you please, square foletwise

So, if you please, agains bilidation

'Let us drink water.

letter, but must by the very nature of than most people know for Mrs. Haves | Western Rural. it be delivered by word of mouth, to bunish liquors from the White House, Phil was not the sort of young man And in the fact that she did thus defy little scared by this arrangement, and on her and General Haves while the not easy in his mind even when he had latter was President, and which even accompanied his pupil to the station, yet crops out in many newspapers from he believed, (and he nerved himself in ers of the next in succession? Can any peace for many a day. It was a Quixotic enterprise, perhaps, and there are benumbs the conscience and makes its drink habit which conquers the will, benumbs the conscience and makes its fusel oil, acetate of potash, sulphurle pretending to be something that it is benumbs the conscience and makes its even people in the world who would devotees the veriest slaves who erawl ammonium, and black exide of man- The Magwamp idea is that such gove protesting that he can not give reasthink it meddlesome; but he was moved. God's footstool and at the same time, gamese. Rye oil is distilled from a ernment by men who try to be different, one, etc., because the President has disto it by gratifude and affection, and by allow wines at his table? Example is mixture of fusel oil, anauthic ether, from the party that elects them, and rected him, etc. But he takes pleasure the beactiful ideals which have value stronger than precept. The child will chloroform, sulphuse acid, and chlorate who live in mortal terror of defeat by in stating that there is nothing on file follow the first and scorn the second. of potash. Sulphuric copper is a dead- voters who care for no party, is of all in his department reflecting in any way From London to Cornwall is a longish callway journey, and he had plenty of time in which to look at his purpose.

The great evil of the fashionable toker, is poison. Oxalic acid is a poison that ance of strong drink is that it perpetuses that it perpetuses the vice of intemperature, and the vice of intemperature of the vice of intemperature, and the vice of intemperature of the vice of th "Grown a man now, Mister Philip," a precept that can not be too strongly is made out of "spirit," New England the least semipulous makes more grave, under the forms of the letter it is diffisaid the messenger, admiring him; "I impressed, a law that can not be too rum, and rum essence. This essence blunders in sheer ignorance than the cult to see how they could be withheld, closely observed. He carried the traveler's porturan. The evil of which we speak reaches oxide of manganese, pyroligneous ever dare to make, and is exactly the character could not be granted. The teau to the water-side, set it into the much further than to the circles of so. acid, acetic ether, butyric ether and sort of ruler to be shummed. Behind policy followed in the internal revenue ing rum in some form upon the table. pensatory, 'is hardly inferior to dilute ples. Only the petty and pality despend not be followed in the great may yet they fellow those who set and ob- hydrocyanic acid in its poisonous tails depend upon the will of the Presiserve that fashion by tolerating those power. Valerianic acid quickens dent without a party. The history and who drink. To drink rum is counted the heart's action. It causes debility well-being the happiness and the glocy nanced in "our best society:" hence and then paralysis. There is a long of the Nation depend upon the princithe practice is tolerated by a very large. List of cordials and wines for the man- ples which central its legislation for jection exists to his confirmation, but majority of the people of the country, ufacture of which the manual gives di- long periods. among the class which claims to be our are described, and there is no trace of to seek for a party by which govern- for Mr. Seeberger. It is said that the "aristocracy," so long will the mass of the blackberry in either of them. Oils ment may be steadily controlled upon latter information has been given pri our people socially tolerate a drinking and acids are there, however, in right principles. They are rapidly vately and unofficially, but this is not

> youth, than for "society" to put its used in making maraschino. "The stigma on the drink habit. If wine methods and recipes contained in this were banished, not only from the work," says the author, "are all given tables but from the homes of society by one who has been in that line of people, if the men who drink were business for many years, and they are cisco, in an exceedingly able letter to only by counting men of opposite conrigidly excluded from all social gather- substantially those in general use at the Berald, exposes in a most merci- victions and consenting to have no ings in his circle, if drinking were the present time."-Irish World. made unfashionable, what a mighty revolution would be worked! The po- THE village of Geneva, N. Y., having Bayard, in his lame and balting dis- has to unite in defense of the distribtent influence of fashion would be ex- a population of about four thousand, erted against rum and its devotees; has undertaken the establishment of a patch to the Chinese Minister. Mr. table the occasion. It cannot agree with thousands and tens of thousands coffee-house for putting Temperance Lindsay handles his subject in a master- the President as to the money question, of young men, not yet under the principles into practice. It is to be, as ly manner, showing clearly, to use his or as to the tariff, but it can and does domination of rum, would be saved, described in one of the local papers, own language, that "the United States agree that the use of the power of the the children of to-day would be "an attractive place, where young men as a Nation covenanted with China as Government to enrich a Cabinet officer free from the terrible danger, can congregate, drink their coffee, eat a ration, in three separate treaties, to and a railroad commis-Let a man who is a slave to their lunches, enjoy the benefit of a fine protect Chinamen in this country. The scener, and sundry other distinguished the habit be as rigidly ostracised reading-room and the pleasures of bil- covenants created a national liability Democrats who received stock as a socially as is a woman who has trans- liard and pool, without the contamin- for damages in case of their breach, bribe for their aid, shall not be congressed the law of morality-and there ating influences of the saloon and bar. The only possible escape from that it sured. It can and does agree that is no more reason why he should be room." admitted in society than she, for he has just as surely lost his honor-and Associated Press dispatches from evade its fulfilment by showing that its unite about the feed-trong h - N. Y. drinking and dealing in rum would be the eastern part of this State say that municipal law has made it the especial Tribune. recognized as the foul and dishonora- the extensive religious revivals in many | duty of some particular branch of its ble things they really are. To enter a localities have greatly increased the organization to fulfil such covenants."

any one. A revolution, social and mor-ers in the social world would be ful- "INNOCUOUS DESUETUDE." | reser you couldn't protect our people lowed through all grades of society. It would be a moral awakening to thou. Innounce descended shales of Lindey sands and tous of thousands who as not . Did over anymys shok a nexter form). have never set themselves to complet Paper, stranger, paper, in him a measure instruction's attende in illegical and inthe great overshadowing evil of our and view the phrase that to a the town by defensible. Indeed, it is provocative land. - Tologo Blade.

A TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

A Few Sensible Remarks Concerning the Dangerous Habit of Tampering with Methicus suspicate norself did never In all his the assume a support men.

give more editorial space to this questhat will convey the slightest informathat can be easile. Fraugh, you are rauning a fearful rick every time you list a duing violence to the membranes of score's the cheeks of wife and children. Nincts in no cost of a hundred who Improved described to be or together drinking, is protty nearly impossible. tive years old it is not likely that he what Have the Democracy Done to Have will ever permanently reform. There are exceptions, but the statement we have made is also in accordance abundance. Cherry brandy, flavored learning that the Democratic is not enough. Wash Cor Cassayo Tribune. No more telling blow could be dealt with the oil of bitter almonds, is such a party. N. F. Tribune. at the rum power, no deeper wound spoken of as "a much better article could be given to the Minotaur who than is usually sold." The cost is sixdevours the Nation's strong men and ty cents a gallon. Muriatic acid is of by any man who cared for his good tion. Perhaps a religious revival which treaty on such conditions, and Mr. Lind- | discussed in that city. It is much name; no saloon-keeper, no man who did not bear some such fruit might say makes them absurd, when he puts "cussed" elsewhere - Pailadelphia in any wise handled the infernal stuff; well be suspected of not being genuine. in the month of the Chinese Minister North American. would be considered socially eligible by -Indiana Baptist.

NICE DOSES.

Improvous dessetude! shades of Tournas Jef-Son how grandly suspic is this verbal

We are frequently asked by friends to Innomens desactate to ruse Cacle Samme. Realing the paraset has beard does sadig. they have been becomed and the local taken tion. Certainly it is an important Andergus while easy makes him cold and the resource more than a sours of mass most question. But what can be wild on it. "This costs leads my obscushed usution to any intelligent forman beings innercose descented from Maine to far Sicinta: & Here is a Temperance lecture, and all _Texler and only swime it a only just To write the pursue upon the r party's but-In piler of "Office is a Paties Trust."

glass of liquid to your lips; you see Johnston descended but in other wender GREE STREET your stomach, an injustice to society, "Ten us, they murmer, "what in name of

... THE PARTY ON TRIAL

Earned & Lease of Power".

with our, extended observation. If a could only remember that they are on as glaring as it is impleasant to think rend this, let him try it, and if he can get much better government. Nearly are encouraged by the policy of the show us that we are wrong, write us your mouths of the session have passed. Administration. Sooner or later the and we will give him credit. Now, and these men have done nothing to Christian missionaries and nichtwark been said is well known to every drink. nothing to convince people that the | -N. F. Mod and Express. be to poison his mind about her. He Box It Serves as a Bulwark to the Rum ing man. A man runs no greater risk parts in power has any principles or ing turn. The arsenic kills a little to disgrace themselves. They act as The Cute Way to Which Secretary Name > Congress? Broadly speaking, if the has any principle or any expanity of

A manual for the guidance of rum-Of course these are pertinent suggessellers and bar-keepers has recently tions. The critics who make them are and Chairman Morrill, the Democratbeen issued. It gives itstructions for not blind to Democratic dangers. But carriage, booked through to Gorbay. What can be more potent for etil the preparations of various drinks, what would be gained if the party The youngster knew well enough than the example set in this way for from which instructions we glean the could be brought to a realizing sense down a peg, but this will be judged The youngster knew well enough that the was going to wound the best boys and girls—the men of the next following interesting information: In that it is on trial? Would that make from the next alproceeding rather than friend he had ever had in his life, but generation, their wives and the moth-he believed, (and he nerved himself in ers of the next in succession? Can any that belief with a courage beyond his parent ta'k soberly to his child of the "rye" and "bourbon" whiskies bouryears) that be might bring peace back danger of tampering with rum in any bon oil and rve oil are used. Bourbon for the good of the country that any Manning in the case of every individagain to a mind which had not known shape or form -warn him of the terrible oil is distilled from a compound of party should hoodwink the voters by

BAD LAW AND LOGIC.

on the Chinese Ouestion.

Mr. Hamilton Lindsey, of San Fran- make a fraudulent pretense of strength less manner the manifold mistakes of bond of union except its desires for fact and of law, made by Secretary spoils. Hence it comes to pass that it lability is by the piea that a nation slander of faithful Republican officials which has made such a covenant may must not be repulsed. It can always saloon openly would not be dreamed sentiment for temperance and prohibi- Of course, no nation would make a says that the President's policy is much this reply: What have we to do with Wyoming? We al, would at once ensue.

"I NEVER," said the inebriate, made our burgain with you. You promised to protect our people. At the time you gave the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-who are tacitly admitted to be the lead- get tight myself."—Boston Courier.

"I NEVER," said the inebriate, made our burgain with your four people. At the time you gave the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-that promise, bu knew your laws and your the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-that promise, bu knew your laws and your the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-that promise, but he was and your the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-that promise, but he was and your the Rinck Eagle in the sweet by-and-that promise in the sweet by-and-that promise is a your laws and you

There is no possibility of gutting under, over or around this. Tun Adminof further outrages on the Chinese. Mr. Lindear states notorious facts, When he easier

Since the Somerany sense has belled been Time & month ago, in half & dones places 4% this course a homeomic have been expelled from their home with same or look wallener, been more clean over at the dead or night he beside of more of more. In more trans a discess towns THE RESERVE AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF THE they and one State Linearities have deexpenses from the many. The continue hand, of forth little American common on hare twen service on a long. They are a constant UPSIX CORULTURE IN 15th propriate. exercise of their tracing y leading it to other religious. They go to Chica be believe the tieve that firms family is on imposition, their gods & front and their warm more yet by all them that I I American medically has a The cross-reads Dourisma at the pursue reserve to theme of the counterest and a second May 7, 1963 West opposited and $60 to follow quietly setablished the ery leaves our outline. There are diffy two Profession our outlines in are American. consecutive make either constructions "Yes," said Poil, simply: "I will Well draw to the wise men, well draw to the real from the local to tion and threaten women, but his relevant and release precises for visiting that and thereas much ag or threatening for grown much be brought for the Lauren for or can purceasent; whenever was not be known. There is, unfortunately, do need of commenting on the shameful contrast between the Chinese electronics of

If the Democrats at Washington treaty obligations and our own. It is

COME DOWN A PEG.

Pid had to believe both in Tre- People follow the dictates of fashion quicker, but though it takes a little of the country had given them a lease mag to Not though the Re-Not though the Re-Not with the old stories of Tregarthen-a ing to the individual has no weight; ing the shorts just as deadly but it for needful for the work of governing. If versy with the Sonate began the Magcomes foul-monthed that his brother | viris the fashion," and that settles the quires more time. The dangers, there- they could only remember that the wamp organs supporting Mr. Claveforce are about the same. The wast people will pass judgment on them, hard distanced the whole object of the matter. Crinoline or clinging draperies: majority of people are fully aware of one way or the other, this very your! Senate light was to f see an admission "Do you know the history of Mr. high-needed dresses or low corsages: what they may expect if they take arees. In a few months the people will be that there had be more a neglect mountain. Tregulation's expulsion from the smooth bands of hair, or a frow sy mane not, and do not take it. The majority, voting for members of Congress, and or suspension for political reasons. it, but seeking any new light that of bangs shading the brow; "peg-top" too, know very well what they may ex- for Legislatures which will have Sona. They were positive he would never do pantaloons, or skin-tight ones, high peet if they drusk liquor, but they tors to elect. Half the people are ope this, even indirectly, but after a deal Phil did know the story, and told it hats or low-whichever may be the see anybody obe doing half so too ish party, to begin with. If they find much ning and Common Morril, of the as he had it from Tregarthen's hips fashion, that men and women wear, a thing, how quickly they would pro- to approve in Fresident Cleveland's Finance Committee, a step has been Possibly, thought the poet, the man it is oftentimes unbecoming, some some times reliculous, but all the same it is. We have great sympathy for the man things he has acted as not Republican terms. It is oftentimes unbecoming, some taken which will relieve suspended for the man things he has acted as not Republican. went his own way. On the following This service obedience to the whim- yet there is much example yet there is much example yet there is much example yet the property wasted in Democratic voters a large matrice were rested. The Property the went his own way. On the following this structure of those leaders of society whose exifternoon Pici called on Mrs. Tres of those leaders of society whose exgardien, was admitted and answered simple sets the fushion is seen in many constitution. It is regarded as an exin Mr. Cleveland's course a most scathSecretary of the Ironauta grows a conconstitution and answered simple sets the fushion is seen in many all her questions for an hour or two, other things than in mere matters of generally viewed by the intemperate it Representatives. They see that the suspended officials. There was no comfort for the wife, who dress or personal adornment. It pres is. But the view is wrong. The avers Democrats in Congress have been removed because of any had all these years been widowed in seribes the style of furniture in our anything he had to tell her; but when he had taken his leave he turned a new wall-paper, even the architecture of our largest have been widowed in seribes the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters. If the is not an adequate the had taken his leave he turned a new wall-paper, even the architecture of our largest have been sate of the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters if the is not an adequate the base of the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters if the is not an adequate the base of the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters if the is not an adequate the base of the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters if the is not an adequate the base of the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the call characters is the style of furniture in our age drankard thinks that he has all the agely fighting him. They see that the charges affecting their needs to tell her; but age of the style of furniture in our idea over in his mind, and, after looks house. It decides the manner of serv-ing at it in many aspects, made ar-ing our meals, our hours of receiving almost anywhere to float the Great members who have advised him. The committee don't know rangements to put it into execution. campany, our mode of entertaining Eastern. But all the tighting a man see that most of the Democratic mem-what such an admission would really He astonished Mr. Calhem that even- friends. And in the fact that fashion, in need do, and all he can do, if he wishes here are pursuing in financial matters be. In most cases the suspended off ing by the announcement of his intention to go down to Tregarthen without delay. In answer to the tutor's inquiries be could only say that he had strongest bulwarks. A host may be child could throw that in the gutter, must be fatal to the public faith and lows Collectors had gone to Chicago lately possessed himself of information convinced that to do so is morally and it would look much better there the public prosperity. Is it to be supe to practice law and assuredly had not then a man does. That is all we have posed that this state of things will be practice law and assuredly had not be the public prosperity. of the utmost value to his protector, wrong, and yet lack the courage to set and that it could not be conveyed by the fashion at defiance. It cost more to say about Temperance to-day. - strengthen 15 morratic candidates for he thought his old neighbors had a party as a whole can not show that it right to know whether he was displaced because not a proper person to hold a Interesting Information as to How "Rye" governing, and can not put itself on public office or simply because his po-who invents mendacious yarns on purpose to get opportunity for clandestine pose for interviews between Secretary Manning ic Administration finds itself of this mind also. Of course, there is a lametice to address a letter to. Secretary "Tou it not, taste not, handle not" is in any Dispensatory. Jamaica rum by the least worthy because they are charges against the enopended officials is a mixture of sulphuric acid, think worst of capable party leaders would since a certificate of moral and official

> There is the man of Collector Sec. berger, which is a type of probably three or four hundred others. Namb-Philetos Sawyer wants to know whether

Around the Feed-Trough.

The Republican party not only can The Coenviable Position in Which Secre- unite, but always is united, upon the tary Bayard Has Placed the Country fundamental principles which make it strong. The Democratic party can

A Washington correspondent

Bill is not easy to see how Bur-