COWLES.

Fine weather, and farmers are all busy planting corn, mostly by listing...

The friends of Miss Alice Crawley made her happy on Monday evening...

A number of the friends of Judge McKeighan from this place made that gentleman a pleasant call on Tuesday evening...

We wish to remind our many friends that we are rather favorable to such parties...

J. D. Schenck has sold his interest in the livery business to Allen Carpenter...

Married, by C. Schenck, Esq., on May 15, at the residence of the bride's parents...

The Good Templars of Cowles expect to have a good time Friday evening, May 28.

Dr. Johnson, James Paden, and J. B. Ward spent Tuesday in Blue Hill.

A. A. Peak spent the latter part of last week in Plattsmouth.

John Peak has returned from Benkelman to look after his claim in Cowles.

L. C. Gilbert was in Hastings Tuesday.

How are your gardens after the frost of Friday night?

R. N. Harvey, the gentlemanly traveling salesman for R. L. McDonald & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. E. Buzick started Tuesday morning for Benkelman to live out the allotted time required by "Uncle Sam" on her homestead.

Amberg is now a telegraph station, an office having been put there this week.

D. B. Buzick was in Guide Rock on Monday.

INAUALE.

I see the Inavale correspondents are all dead, moved away, or asleep...

The spring is still cool. Frost was seen on Saturday morning and some plants show the effects of the frost.

Small grain looks fairly well while grass has grown slowly, but now affords sufficient pasturage to show a decided improvement in the looks of stock.

Schools in Inavale district 41 are in progress, both with the same teachers as last winter...

Mr. Hard, of Cowles, Neb., has located here. Has a pair of fine horses...

Mr. Karnusky has moved into his new house.

Mr. Frank Calson is building a residence in town.

The Myers Bros. have their drug store completed, also their residence about ready for occupation.

The lactated fluid is coming into the cheese factory quite freely...

Mrs. Leavitt, of the Valley House in Red Cloud, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Amanda Brooks came down from her homestead in Frontier county to see her father who has been quite unwell, but is getting better.

PLEASANT HILL.

A light wind and shower Sunday morning. Lots of corn going in this week...

School began and the teacher is doing well. Scholars on roll, 25.

Mr. Post is on a trip to California and Colorado to locate a farm...

There will be quarterly meeting at Pleasant Hill school house next Saturday, afternoon and evening, and on Sunday.

Whence came the rain that vanished so quickly? No. Forty.

WALNUT CREEK.

Grandma Gilham fell last Thursday and put her shoulder out of place.

Mr. Harlow Holdrege and wife were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Holdrege, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Himan Holdrege have a new daughter.

Mr. Holcomb, from Wymore, has rented the Carver and Coghorn farm.

Mr. E. Follet has a visitor, supposed to be from the east.

Mrs. S. B. Kizer has returned home from Omaha. Her health is very much improved.

Mrs. Storey is again visiting in our neighborhood. BETA.

STILLWATER.

Corn planting is the order of the day. T. C. Bannell has fenced a pasture.

H. McIntyre has his home ornamented with lightning rods.

John Coon has fifteen acres of potatoe planted.

There was a meeting held at the Reformed Presbyterian church on Monday evening the 9 instant...

After devotional exercises W. H. Middleton was chosen chairman and D. D. Meares secretary.

The order of exercises were: reading, a recitation song and address.

The services were of a high order and were well received.

The recitation by Miss Ada Hays was well performed.

Mr. D. M. Hunter and class sang a song entitled "Wine in the Cup" which was well received.

Rev. W. S. Fulson delivered an address showing the benefits to be gained by the nation, the family and the individual by taking the Bible as the rule of life.

There were remarks made by several others. An expression of the meeting was taken with reference to forming a W. C. T. U. and a committee of three ladies was appointed to gather information regarding the W. C. T. U. and report at the next meeting.

Arrangements were made to hold another meeting the first Monday in June.

Strike Still On!

Mohart & Fulton will sell the new No. 3 burner, wrought iron, smooth top, automatic, self lighting gasoline stove...
