WHAT'S IN A NAME.
The Fashion of Stage Ladies Denying Their Married Names.
 The use by actresses of their maiden names or assumed titles is common in the theatrical profession. Say what you will, it is an evidence of a desire to create an unnatural interest in the made portion of an audience. True, many of the most estimable women on the stage, model wives and mothers, permit this suppression of their wifely name from no wrong motives, and simply at the pleading suggestion of managers, who never hesitate at anything to excite the prurience of the public. In the days of the old stock companies it was customary to see many and wife billed in the same cast as "Mr. and Mrs." So-and-so. But now you rarely see the marital title on a play bill, and yet, strange to say, there are very few women prominent on the stage who are not married. Think of that, ye fellow youths who send tender missives and expensive bouquets to favorites of the footlights. And not only are most of them married, but many of them have a brood of little ones to look after. Let me run over for you, in proof of what I've said, a few names that I can call to mind.

FANNY DAVENPORT.
 all Philadelphians know, is Mrs. E. F. Price. Louise Pomeroy, who is now playing in Forepaugh's Theater, is Mrs. Arthur Elliott, her husband being the leading man of the company. Louise Thorneycroft, who is playing in "The Jilt," is Mrs. Don Boucicault, and Agnes Robertson claims the same title. Theresa Vaughn, who was at the Arch Street Theater last week with "We, Us & Company," is Mrs. William Mastaway in private life, but legally she is Mrs. William Hoop, that being her husband's real name. Maggie Mitchell is Mrs. Henry Padlock. The royal looking Rose Eytzinger is at present Mrs. Cyril Searle. Rose Goghan only recently became Mrs. E. F. Edgerly. Margaret Mather's proper name is Margaret Miles. Kate Clayton, who created such a furor in the Two Orphans and who in some way figures in nearly all the big hotel fires, is Mrs. Charles Stevenson. Little Ethel Elliott, Mrs. Frank West, on for her husband, Lillian Russell, was up to yesterday, Mrs. Edward Salmon, but the marital bond is dreadfully strained just now.

JOLLY KATE CASTLETON. who was the ideal of the dudes, was devoted to two husbands who were sent to prison. Joseph Elliott, a forger, and Harry Lee, a defaulter. She is now married to her present manager, Harry Phillips.

Eliza Weatherly is Mrs. Nat. C. Goodwin, and Alice Atherton bears the name of another clever comedian, Willie Edwin. Even Minnie Madden is not unfettered, her gorgeous name being Mrs. LeGrand White. Cate Minnie Palmer is said to be Mrs. John Rogers, but as that gentleman is her manager, and a very swell one at that, he denies the statement. Marie Wainwright is Mrs. Louis James, and Marie Joseph is Mrs. Perzel. Irene Perry is married to the piano man, Albert Weber, and Laura Joyce, who is the best Katha in this country, is married to Digby Bell, the Ko-Ko, who objects to having her as his wife in the opera of "The Grand Duke." Maud Gray is Mrs. O. David Dalzell, and Blanche is Mrs. McKee Rankin, and the graceful Louise Davenport bears the name of W. E. Sheridan. Mrs. Albert Follop is the proper title of Maud Gray. The tragic Jananuschek is Mrs. E. G. Pilot. Annie Pixley is a devoted mother, whose children know her best as Mrs. Robert Faldorf. Clara Morris has a handsome, gray-haired husband in F. H. Harriot, last night. My Ulmer uses her husband's name, she being properly Mrs. George Ulmer. Alberta De Star is the wife of Sam'l of Posen, or, more properly, M. B. Curtis.

A Change of Tune.
 At a ball at Dallas, Texas, a young gentleman said to a leading belle: "You remind me very much of a lady acquaintance of mine. There is a startling resemblance between you."
 "That don't interest me in the least. I prefer to talk about something else. I don't care to hear about your lady friend," replied the belle in an indifferent manner.
 "She is very beautiful."
 "Who is she? Where does she live? What is her name? Is she really a beautiful blonde like myself? How old is she? Does she belong to one of the first families like me? I guess she must be very pretty, isn't she?" exclaimed the lady, breathlessly.—Texas Sightings.

Cure For Piles.
 Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins, and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moiety like preparation, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorb the tumors, relieving the intense itching and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Dr. B. Saniko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Henry Cook and J. H. Kellogg & Co.

What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Henry Cook's drug store.

Bay Frank.
 An old resident in an English settlement near the New York State line carries in his pocket constantly an immense tooth from a human jaw. The tooth, he says, was taken from the mouth of a man after he was dead, who was hanged in Hertfordshire more than 100 years ago, and was carried by the present owner's father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. It is carried as a preventive of toothache, the tooth from the dead person's mouth being a certain charm against that malady. The owner of the tooth says he never had the toothache in his life. A double hazelnut carried in the pocket or about the person is also a preventive of this painful ailment.

THE WESTERN HORSE AND CATTLE INSURANCE CO.
 THE ONLY AUTHORIZED LIVE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE STATE.

Insures horses at the age of from 3 to 11 years, mules from 3 to 17 years. Stations and Jacks from 3 to 8 years, and cattle from 2 to 11 against loss caused by Disease, Injury, Accident, Fire, Lightning or Theft, for not less than one or more than two years—excepting steers which are being fattened for the market, which can be insured for six months. Special attention is called to our Fire and Lightning Insurance, which is good anywhere in the state of Nebraska, whereas the liability of loss by Fire and Lightning of Fire Insurance companies is limited to the premises of the assured, and perhaps a small radius beyond. The advantages and benefits which this company offers to farmers and owners of stock generally are so plain and apparent that it is hardly necessary to call attention to them.

Reasons Why to Insure.
 Because it is the only Live Stock Insurance company authorized by the laws of this state to do business in this state.
 Because it is a Home Company, organized with home capital, the money paid to the company is kept in the state, and is paid out for losses to the citizens of the state; it all remains in the state.
 Because it is a reliable institution, whose stockholders, directors and officers, are among the wealthiest and most prominent business men in the state.
 Because its manner of adjusting and paying losses are always in harmony with the principals of strict justice and liberality.
 Because you cannot afford to be without insurance on your live stock any more than on your house and barn. If you are well off you can lose nothing by insuring—if you are poor and cannot afford to lose any of your stock, it would be criminal negligence not to insure.
 Because should you wish to borrow money and offer as security your stock the security will be more ample, and you can obtain money more readily, and at a lower interest, if that stock is covered by a policy of insurance in this company.
 Because we insure stock against death by accident, disease or theft.
 Because we insure stock against loss by fire or lightning.
 Because no other insurance company can give you the same kind of insurance.
 Because a paid up capital of $100,000 and a constantly increasing surplus fund renders it safe and solid against any emergency that may arise.
 Because its popularity among farmers and stock owners is attested by the fact that there are now written and in force over 15,000 policies.
