The Red Cloud Tank Line will furnish you with coal oil or gasoline.

A fine line of men's and youths suits at astonishing low prices at the Golden Eagle.

The copious rainfalls of the last few days are worth hundreds of dollars to Nebraska farmers.

Boots and Shoes were never sold at such remarkable low prices as at present at the Golden Eagle.

R. V. Shirey, president of the First National Bank, left Friday night for Albany, N. Y. on business.

When the road is graded between the depot and the bridge it will make a fine drive to Riverside Park.

The Golden Eagle carries more hats than several other stores combined at prices that will gladden your heart.

Married, at Red Cloud, May 9th, by Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser, Mr. Walter H. Megary and Miss Alice E. Sharp.

The Knights Templars have been increasing their membership in the last two evenings. They have been engaged in "putting through" several gentlemen from neighboring towns.

Ald. Van Wert, of Guide Rock and S. Croxton of that place, had a legal set-to before Justice Barker on Saturday evening. Croxton charged Van Wert with assault. The case was continued.

Ald. Cather's hat is about the average size, yet it seems that he can carry several hundred yards of ribbon paper besides a big duck, at least that is what the showman found on the inside Saturday evening.

Wm. Filors has received word that his pension for something like $2,500 has been allowed. It is a good pile and we are glad to hear of it. He will get $12 per month from this date on. If anyone deserves a pension Mr. Filors does.

Miss Pearl Skeen was presented with a handsome set of silver spoons, knives, forks, teaspoons and napkin rings, by the manager of the Hindoo Oil company, as the handsomest young lady in the hall, that evening. It was a deserved compliment to Miss Pearl.

John Tomlinson and J. L. Nimer came near having a bad accident on Sunday. John's white horse ran off of the dump at the bridge. Fortunately John's presence of mind saved an accident. The county should put up substantial railings at each end of the bridge.

It is a shame and disgrace to any one who forgets himself so much that he will go into the cemetery and deface and desecrate the graves and monuments of the dead. It is to be hoped that the managers will fence the property and make it a penalty for trespassing.

Another good rain last night.

F. R. Hoge was in Hastings Friday.

Miss Eva J. King has returned home.

John M. Young was in Hastings Friday.

Mrs. Dr. Denney left Saturday for Denver.

J. S. Dew, of Tecumseh, is a prominent candidate for commissioner of public lands and buildings.

Bible studies at the Baptist church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, subject Matt 26:17-30. All invited.

The city street commissioner should commence at once and grade up the streets along the line of street railway.

Owing to the difference in elevation the electric light will be put on North Cedar Street at the corner of tenth avenue.

The Knights of Labor will give a grand ball at the opera house on the 18th. Myer Bros. of Inavale will furnish the music.

The Ladies Aid Society will give an ice cream social in the Moon block Friday evening May 11: All are cordially invited.

$101.00 is the amount of tickets purchased by the business men of Major Flaisig for transportation over the street railway line.

There is not a vacant house in the city that we know of. Red Cloud is growing rapidly, new families are moving into the city every day.

Mrs. Hoyt, sister of Mrs. Geo. Lindsey, started for Idaho Thursday where she expects to remain. Her many friends regret her departure.

Our next fraternal organization will be the Modern Woodman. This society has an excellent record and will commend itself upon investigation.

Let the board of trade make arrangements at once to celebrate the Fourth of July on a big scale in this city. Riverside Park would be just the place. Fishing, speaking, singing and a general good time could be had there.

Mrs. A. A. Welch, of Kansas, is in the city soliciting subscriptions to that popular work of the late Ben Perley Poore. It should be in every household as a work of true merit and one that is of general interest to the public generally.

Some of our enterprising men could make a mint of money and a fine pleasure resort out of Riverside Park if they would build a little steamer and clear up the place. Excursion parties from all over the state would come here. It is decidedly the finest location for a pleasure resort in the state.

Dwight Jones is on the sick list.

Mrs. D. M. Platt left Monday for Chicago.

J. N. Rickards was in Bloomington Tuesday.

Supt. Calvert, of the B. & M. was in the city Monday.

Webster street from 6th avenue to 2nd avenue should be paved. Stone suitable for paving could be procured near the city and THE CHIEF thinks that it should be done soon. Wymore has about fifteen hundred feet paved with stone and it is said to make a fine street.

Editor Plumb of the Cowles Herald is daddy of a little girl.—Daily Chief. Hi! hi there! Bro. Hosner! Phil opeal! It's a boy! It's a boy! Might know it's a boy—a young prohibition editor—don't forget it. At present it's a little devil, and does chores about the establishment.

Report of school in district 76, for the month ending, May 4th. No. enrolled 23. Average attendance 12. Those who are 90 and above in their studies are, Alice McCartney, May, Alice and Winnie Pope, Cora Street, Charlie Schultz and Lulu Houshin. Those who have not been absent during the month are Cora and Henry Street, Leigh and Alice Pope.

The council located new electric lights as follows, one on the corner of Cedar and 10th avenue and one at the corner of Seward and Avenue B, one at a point on high ground opposite south Seward and north of Division street in the alley, one at the corner of 2nd and south Seward street and one at the corner of Webster and 3rd street on Webster street at a point between avenue A and Division Street.

Riverside Park, just over the big bridge, is the place for some enterprising man to make money. Let some of our people lease it and give us a place to hold picnics, 4th of July celebrations, &c. For a pleasure resort it can't be beat and to an enterprising man there's money in it. Excursions and pleasure parties could be secured all over the state. Who will take hold of it?

Red Cloud—a city built on a hill, water works and street cars—at will, electric lights that sparkle at night, and numerous other enterprises that we might—hereafter enumerate to enlighten—the burg.—McCook, the struggling old town—forsook, though laboring hard may—some day, make a respectable bone yard—this says

'HOORAY.'

The Street Car Track Completed to the Depot.

LET US CROW.

By the time that this Great Evening Metropolitan sheet reaches its numerous readers tonight the street railroad track will be completed to the depot and by Saturday will be ballasted and ready for the cars. This is an enterprise that THE CHIEF feels proud of as it will be a big thing for the city. The cars will be shipped the 12th and will be on the track by the 20th, then we shall lay off a day to ride in the new street cars and glorifying generally.

Perley's Reminiscences, or "Sixty years in the National Metropolis," illustrating the wit, humor, genius eccentricities, jealousies, ambitions and intrigues of the brilliant statesman, ladies, officers, diplomats, lobbyists and other noted celebrities of the world that gather at the center of the nation, describing impressive inauguration ceremonies, gala day festivities, army reviews, etc., by Ben Perley Poore, the Veteran Journalist, clerk of the senate printing records, editor of the congressional directory and author of various works, in two volumes, octavo, about 550 pages each, picturesquely illustrated. Mrs. A. A. Welch, of Cedarville, Kansas, the authorized agent of the firm of Hubbard Bros., Kansas City, Mo., is soliciting orders for the work, and we recommend "Perley" as a book of true merits and one that is of great interest to the people generally.
