The Webster county fair is largely attended and large crowds have been present every day. While the season has been against it somewhat yet every department is comparatively well filled. The people are liberal in the county and always turn out to the fair.

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Fisher's boy while trying to jump on to a covered hack caught his foot in the wheel and before the team could be stopped had his leg so badly injured that it had to be taken off above the knee. It is a serious accident and the family have the sympathy of the community.

Cleveland Shot.

On Wednesday evening while the democrats were joyously celebrating with sky rockets and Roman candles some Bourbon shot one through a plate glass in the postoffice building, taking the top of Cleveland's head off. This will be the case also in November.

Letters remaining in the postoffice at Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, for the week ending, Sept. 24th, 1888.

GENTLEMEN.

A. Austin, N. C. Boemar, Ora Quigley, S. L. White.

LADIES.

Rachel Brown, Rosanna Burr, Mrs. John Farled.

These letters will be sent to the dead letter office Oct. 24th, if not called for before. A. S. MARSH, Post Master.

Wednesday was democratic day at the fair and our good friends turned out about 500 strong and did their level best to make a showing for Grover C. and well they did for if the way the wind blows shows the lay of the straws Cleveland is certainly on his last legs, or in other words Harrison and Morton are sure to be elected, and of course their display will amount to naught. However they did well and in the evening gave a grand parade and display of fireworks that did them credit as a party. The managing editor was not present to witness the affair but has been told of it by many who say that it was all that could be expected.

Geo. E. Mitchell, of Kansas, well known to a number of our people, seems to have gone astray by obtaining money under false pretenses of Kansas and Red Cloud parties by giving chattel mortgages on stock already encumbered. He was arrested here by Sheriff Scott and held for two or three days until his relations fixed it up for him. It seems that in this manner he had secured something like $3,000 fraudulently. Through the efforts of M. R. Bentley, the friends of Mitchell were induced to help him out of his trouble, a failure to do which would have sent him over the road for several years. Mr. Bentley is certainly deserving of credit for the way the matter was settled, not that Mitchell was deserving of any leniency but for the sake of his friends.

REPUBLICAN DAY.

The Republicans of Webster County Jollify.—A Big Crowd and a Grand Time Thursday Night.

One of the grandest republican gatherings that it has been our pleasure to witness in the great state of Nebraska took place in this city Thursday night. The agricultural society had set apart Thursday for republican day, and well it might be called such as they were thicker than bread all day. Hundreds upon hundreds were in the city and the day was one of great rejoicing and the enthusiasm was something unusual in Nebraska. At night the republican club and many others bearing torches, fireworks and appropriate banners, formed upon 6th avenue, near the court house and marched to Webster street, thence south to Geo. Gates' residence, wheeled there and marched north. When near the post office the order was given to let go the fireworks, and such a fusillade of combustible material has never been witnessed in Red Cloud. It was simply the outcropping of such enthusiasm as only the republicans could unearth when sure of victory.

The sight can never be forgotten and eclipsed everything, laying the displays of our democratic brethren so far in the shade that they will be unable to return during the balance of the campaign. For fully one half hour the heavens were full of fire balls of every description and the lusty cheering from fully four thousand people gave evidence of the success of the display. After the display of fire works on the street hundreds of people went to the opera house where Hons. Jas. McNew, J. S. Gilham, and others made grand republican speeches that were calculated to make this great republican love feast a source of much pleasure as well as solid comfort to the mind. The speeches were able, scholarly and full of republican meat such as democrats can not refute successfully. It was certainly grand and the republicans feel proud of their efforts, and they have every reason to feel that way, and with one grand hurrah for Harrison, Morton and success the meeting adjourned.

JEWELL.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Leggett are making a two weeks visit in Norton county.

The Rev. Mr. Moore preached his farewell sermon last Sabbath at Pleasant Grove.

The mad dog scare resulted in the death of three dogs. McClellan's dog took the rabies and bit two of E. Lightfoot's and in order to prevent any further damage all were killed. Mack Howard has returned to Highland, which leads us to conclude that things are more to his taste here, than among the shot gun aristocracy. Art Leggett is the possessor of a wonderful pipe. Hunt Young can vouch for the truth of this.

John Merrill has purchased a new wind mill, the Industrious, of A. L. Funk.

Soldiers Reunion.

One of the most interesting features of the fair is the soldier's reunion. Through the efforts of the G. A. R.'s of this city the scheme was brought about to inaugurate a permanent organization of the old soldiers of Southern Nebraska, and to that end invitations were extended to all the old soldiers to come to Red Cloud during our fair this week. About three hundred of the brave boys responded and were comfortably located in the grounds where they enjoyed a few days in the recitation of old time camp life. The general routine of a soldier's life is hard enough at best, but the old soldiers like to go through them once and a while in order to keep fresh the memories of those days years ago when to be a soldier meant more than to dress up in the clothes and carry a musket for a while while living on the fat of the land. However the trials of camp life at the fair grounds have been few. The boys have put the time in telling war stories, making speeches, eating beans, pork and hardtack, just for the fun of the thing, and a jollier crowd has not been seen for a long time. We have not the space to give an extended account of the reunion this week but will give more attention next week. The organization was made permanent and next fall arrangements will be made for a big time. The boys will always be welcomed to Red Cloud and will be entertained in the best manner possible. May their shadows never grow less.

LOOK HERE.

When traveling north, east, south or west, make yourself comfortable by patronizing a first class passenger. The Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska Railway, "Rock Island Route?"

This route is the people's favorite, because it is reliable, safe and pleasant and its limited fleet of Chicago and connection with all the fast trains to St. Louis make it universally popular, and the route which all well posted travelers take.

Its passenger cars were built expressly for this line by the Pullman Palace Car Co., which is a guarantee that they are perfect and complete. They are the best made and most thoroughly experienced can suggest, and no compensation for the comfort and service of the traveling public has been overlooked. In addition to its regular passenger equipment, there is in service a line of superb reclining chair cars, no pains or expense having been spared to make these cars the most restful and comfort-assuring vehicles of their class in America. Holders of first class tickets can occupy seats in these cars free. A colored porter accompanies each car to administer to the wants of the patrons, which makes them especially desirable for ladies and children traveling without escort. In fact, the C. K. & N. is the Great Free Reclining Chair Car Line west of the Missouri river. When you travel, to be absolutely comfortable, take the "Chicago Kansas & Nebraska Railway, "Rock Island Route." ENKIVILLE, TENN., July 2, 1888. The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.: Gentlemen—I can cheerfully and truthfully say that S. S. S. is the greatest blood purifier on earth. In 1884 I contracted blood poison. Physicians treated me with no good results. I took a half dozen different kinds of blood medicines, but without receiving any permanent relief! I was induced to try S. S. S. I began the first bottle with the gravest doubts of success. I had been so often deceived. But improvement came, and I continued its use until perfectly well. I have since married, and have a healthy family. No trace of the disease is seen. Swift's Specific did all this for me, and I am grateful. Yours truly, J. S. STRADER, 113 Dale Ave.
