Presto Change.

Election has come and gone, and with peace and prosperity has settled down upon the nation. The great change brought about by the return of the republican party to power has done much towards making the business interests of the country more settled, and THE CHIEF looks forward to renewed vigor in business of all kinds from one sea board to the other.

The reputation of the republican party during its ascendancy in the past is such as to stop all fears of financial disorder and again set capital to flowing freely to western fields as well as into eastern manufactoryes.

Enterprises of all kinds are sure to spring up and become important factors in building up the west. From the present outlook the republicans will have complete control of every branch of government thus assuring the people of a rigid economy in the affairs of the nation.

The change is wonderful, and four the first time in fourteen years is the above the case.

No wonder that republicans are happy over the result.

Teachers Meeting.

Our next regular teachers meeting will be held in the high school room (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which the public generally are most cordially invited. There will be a class recitation conducted by Miss E. Remsberg, after which there will be select reading, declamations and music by pupils and teachers; also the usual professional criticisms and friendly suggestions on matters of education especially that which pertains to our school work. Hoping that public interest in these important meetings—important to our schools—will continue to receive that influence that cannot fail being productive of much good to the educational interests of our town.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

—Rev. Augustus Toton, the only colored Catholic priest in this country, is the pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Quincy, Ill.

—Rev. Walter L. Huffman, of Peru, Ind., has married over 1,200 couples and preached 1,300 funeral services. His surpasses the record of any other clergyman in the State.

—Lord Carnarvon is urging that the Anglican churches ought to be open on week-days for private worship, and the Archbishop of Canterbury and the other churchmen agree with him.

—Kentucky has six counties—Harlan, Knott, Perry, Leslie, Bell and Leslie—that have never had a church within their borders during the sixty or seventy years of their existence as counties.

—Germany is doing considerable foreign missionary work now-a-days. It has eighteen societies and supports 522 missionaries, who look after their 210,000 converts. Last year the total recipient money were over $700,000.

—A rector writes to the Guardian that a "celibate order among the clergy is one of the imperative necessities of the time," the reason being "the impossibility of supporting a wife and family upon the ordinary income of a curate."

—The brother who murmured in his heart against God while the drought lasted, but did not thank him for the blessed rain when it came, is very much like the rest of us—ready to ascribe all trouble to Providence and all blessings to chance.—Christian Advocate.

—Bishop Vladimir, the new Russian Bishop of California, Alaska and Aleutian Islands, brought to this country a full boy choir of forty voices. The new Bishop is transferred to the United States from Japan, and his special work will be to improve the now wretched condition of the Crookes and Indians in Alaska.

—John Carswell, a deacon of the Scotch National church at Bloomberg, Eng., was recently fined five dollars in a police court for assaulting the wife of Johnson, a village painter, in the church. The evidence was that he struck her with the pedestal of the confessional box and pushed her so that she became ill and had to leave the church. The assault was the part of a row between the church officials and the pastor, Rev. J. Mackie.

—Philadelphia has a new religious sect whose title is fearfully and wonderfully constructed. It is "The Ecclesia of Israel; the Cyph of Worshiping Congregation of Our Father's Kingdom on Earth." They have revised the opening sentences of the Lord's Prayer so that they read: "Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy hand of power over our soul do fear; Thine ear of love our prayers do hear; Thy voice of light illuminates our feet; unto Thy house our steps we bend, eternity with Thee to spend; Thy kingdom has come; now let Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven."

—According to a London contemporary, among the offers recently received for mission work was one from a married man with a small family of fourteen, who was quite willing to proceed to China and to leave his family behind him for a large family he found a "great hindrance to grace."

Probably he is going a little too far to find grace. If he would stay home and look after his family perhaps he would secure more of the precious article than by abandoning his family for a foreign trip. This declaration recalls the disinterested patriotism of the late Artemus Ward, who was willing to sacrifice his wife's relations in the war.—Christian Work.

SPECIFIC EDUCATION.

Mr. Vanderbilt pays his cook $10,000 a year, my boy, which is a great deal more than you or I earn—or at least it is a great deal more than we get—because he can cook. That is all. Presumably because he can cook better than any other man in America. That is all. If Monsieur Saucenegrang could cook tolerably well, and shoot a little, and speak three languages tolerably well, and keep books fairly, and sing some, and understand gardening pretty well, and could preach a fair sort of sermon, and know something about horses and could telegraph a little, and could do light porters' work, and could read proof tolerably, and could do piano and sign painting, and could help on a threshing machine, and know enough law to practice in the justice courts of Kidder Township, and had over ten for the Legislature, and knew how to weigh bags, he wouldn't get $10,000 a year for it. He gets that just because he knows how to cook and it wouldn't make a cent's difference in his salary if he thought the world was flat and that a woman should be born on wheels. There's nothing like knowing your business straight through, my boy, from without to book, whether you know any other way or not. What's the good of know-
