Arbor day was properly observed in Red Cloud. The public schools set out 100 trees on the grounds and the people generally set out a large number of trees throughout the city and county.

The fire boys are making splendid records for themselves in their trials of speed, and if they continue in the same ratio we doubt if there is a team in the state that can equal them by the time the state tournament, takes place in July.

During the fire on last Wednesday night, and while riding in a wagon to the depot Firemen Butler and Temple were injured by being thrown out of the vehicle. Butler was run over by one of the wheels and quite seriously hurt about the shoulders. Temple was only temporarily knocked out.

The creamery at Blue Hill from appearances seems to be doing a paying and profitable business. The management have made several shipments of butter for which they have received the top of the market. The CHIEF is pleased to learn that Blue Hill enterprise is rapidly getting to the joint.

Allen Sheets, of Blue Hill, an aged citizen and an old resident of that town, with sickness of short duration quietly passed to the great beyond, Sunday April 21. Mr. Sheets had almost reached his fifty-fifth year, served three years in the late rebellion, going as a brave defender from Indiana. He had with his family been a resident of Blue Hill and vicinity for about fourteen years. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his departure.

The people of Red Cloud should not fail to make every effort possible to aid the fire boys to make the tournament a success. It is a big task and the boys will have their hands full to look after these matters. The tournament will bring a large number of people here, probably one of the largest crowds that Red Cloud has ever seen, and for this reason every effort should be made to make the affair pleasant all around. The fire department will need the encouragement of the citizens to the fullest extent, and they should have it willingly and without a word of hesitation. Already the newspapers of the state are picking up the fact that the tournament is to be in Red Cloud, and that their companies intend coming, there will certainly be a tremendous crowd in the city. The time will soon be here, and necessarily the department will have to neglect their own business a great portion of the intervening time in preparing for the tournament. In fact they have already commenced to train for the occasion. However our boys are equal to the occasion and we look forth to one of the grandest times ever seen in this city.

The people of Webster county should begin now to think about and prepare for the county fair to order that it may be a grand success financially and otherwise. The trouble with our western fairs generally is the failure of the managers in presenting the merits of the association, as well as the advantages of them. To make a fair a success novelties of all kinds should be procured, good premiums should be offered, and in the other hand the farmers and city people should do their utmost to make articles for exhibition. Every farmer should try to raise vegetables and stock, and try and get up a rivalry between himself and neighbors as to who should have the best articles at the fair. The lack of interest on the part of the people makes the task difficult for the managers. The county fair should be the pride of the county and every man woman and child should aim to have some article great or small entered for exhibition. In that way the association would be a blooming success. Let's have a good fair this year, and by the joint efforts of the managers and people place Webster county's fair on a high pedestal. To the managers we would suggest an old settlers meeting, with a grand barbecue, inviting all old settlers in Nebraska to be present, have a children's day, and in fact have everything possible to make the fair a grand success. Then this little wrangling about premiums should be lost sight of in the efforts of our agriculturists to show up to the world what Webster county can raise. Don't feel that you are making the effort for the premium alone but that you have a duty to perform for the benefit of the association. Let's make the fair a success this year.

That popular firm of Dickerson & Smith have moved from their old quarters into the room known as Mason's old stand, where they have more room, and better facilities for shipping. They buy their egg cases in car load lots packed like shingles, and put them together here.

Since the first of last February the firm have shipped eleven car loads of egg cases. There were 4,725 cases in the cars, each case containing 30 dozen, or 140,250 dozen altogether in the eleven cars. If the boys paid 10 cents a dozen for these eggs it would make the neat little sum of about $14,025 that they have paid out for eggs in less than 90 days. A pretty good deal.

Dr. Schenck was in Franklin this week.

The father of Mrs. K. Skeen was in the city this week.

Jake Ester has about completed W. G. Smith's residence.

Geo. W. Ball and A. T. Ormsby were in the city this week.

Col. Hoover and H. G. Koehler was in the city this week.

John Bentley is going out west for a trip about the first.

Mrs. E. C. Barnard and son Albert of Chicago, are visiting with S. Perkins.

Chief Marsh says he's bound to get to the fire if his buggy turns over forty times.

Judge F. A. Swezey observed Arbor day in a befitting manner, having set out 7000 trees on his farm last Monday.

District court has been in session this week with Judge Gaslin on the bench. Numerous cases were disposed of.

Desire Genereux and Joseph Brassard of Staden are applying to the board of supervisors for a license to run a saloon in Bladen.

Hutchinson & Edgell have papered and fixed up their torsorial parlors in nice style. These boys are doing a fine business and THE CHIEF is pleased to note the fact.

Roadmaster Joselyn of Orleans was in the city Tuesday. His appointment as roadmaster on the St. Francis branch of the B. & M. will be good news to his many friends in this city.

One of Henderson Bros. teams driven by Mrs. Henderson and Miss Fannie Allen ran away on Tuesday and had it not been for Al Hunt the buggy would have been a wreck. Al nearly ruined one of his horses trying to catch the team. The ladies had just stepped out of the buggy when the team ran off.

The census of school children in this district has been taken by A. S. Marsh, and he reports 722 children of school age, an increase of 107 children over last year's report. A pretty good showing, and on the basis of five children to each family Red Cloud would have a population of 200 inhabitants, which is not far out of the way.

On Monday evening the friends of Fred Hummel and family, made a decent upon the household and surprised them wonderfully. The result was that Fred was so overcome with excitement that he began chewing the electric light wire thinking it was taffy. The friends stayed until a late hour and made things enjoyable, and to cap the climax made him a handsome birthday present in the shape of a fine rocker.

E. H. Maurer, a citizen of Bloomington, Neb. was in the city this week, for the purpose of making application to the district court to be admitted to the bar. On Monday he was examined by a committee of the bar of this county and after a thorough examination took the oath prescribed and received a certificate. Mr. M. is a thorough gentleman of scholarly attainments and will make a worthy disciple of Blackstone. We bespeak for him a bright and prosperous career in his chosen profession.

Somebody's Rainbow social.

The square parlour society of the Methodist church will give a rainbow social, at the residence of Mr. Lou Albright, next Monday evening April 23. A prize will be awarded to the gentleman doing the best sewing. Refreshments consisting of ice, cakes etc. will be served. Anybody desiring to do so, whether old or young is cordially invited to attend.

Get well buy a good horse at A. L. Funk's.

The Tournament.

An Alarm of Fire.
On Wednesday evening the citizens were awakened from their peaceful pursuits by the continuous tooting of the round house whistle, the signal of fire, and in a few seconds more the city fire alarm clanged forth peal after peal, and the fire laddies responding to the call soon had the fire apparatus on the road to the depot where the coal sheds of the B. & M. were being consumed by the fire elements, but to no purpose, as the fire had such a hold on them that water had but little effect upon it. The damage is not heavy as no much coal was burned, and one freight car and part of another one. The fire was caused by the explosion of or the overturning of a lantern.

Why Is It?
That people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling, the trouble of Begg's blood purifier and blood maker will remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. C. L. Cotting, druggist.

You Cannot Afford
At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, so cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Begg's diarrhoea balsam will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. C. L. Cotting, druggist.

The following pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the month ending April 15:
Charles Bauer, Max Baum, Roy Williams, Myrtle Chamberlain, Lucy Barber, Tillie Longton, Sarah Palmer, Elsie Wenzel, Mattie Wolf, Alice Gray, LILLIAN H. LEWIS, Teacher.

"Ecco Homo, Deum."
The subject of the sermon at the Methodist church, next Sunday night will be, "Ecco Homo Deum." Behold the man, God, and in the midst of the series, on the person of Christ. The public is cordially invited. Services begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Listers, Listers, Listers.
From $20 to $25 dollars each at A. L. Funk's.

Persons wishing to improve their memories or strengthen their power of attention should send to Prof. Locantio, 237 Fifth Ave., N. Y. For his presentation part book, as advertised in another column.

THE LORD HAT!
Easter Services Generally Observed in Red Cloud.
The Easter festival was duly observed in this city by nearly all of the churches on last Sabbath.
AT THE M. E. CHURCH.
The services were of an excellent character, and the morning services were given up entirely to Easter festivities, and the church beautifully decorated for the occasion. The program at the M. E. church was about as follows: After appropriate singing by the choir the infant classes taught by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Damerell made a floral offering, the flowers of which were woven into a beautiful cross, after which the little ones sang a beautiful little song. The following boys and girls took part in the exercises: Bertha Brown, Lenore Fowler, Nellie West, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Ducker's classes, Maggie Vischer, Lois Pope, Emma Brown, Belle Spanogle, Elmer Crane, Nellie Falkenberg, Del Able, Sylvester Frisbie, Alex Bentley, Harry Falkenberg, Charley Mitchell, and Ray Peterson. The exercises were interspersed with music and prayer with a few remarks from the pastor.
AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
The exercises were very appropriate for the occasion, there being speaking, recitations, music, songs, etc. The church was handsomely decorated and everything gotten up with an especial care to please all.
AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.
The special services were conducted by the Knights Templar commandery of this city and was one of the most appreciable affairs of the day's festivities. Then beautiful ritualistic services were conducted by R. B. Fulton, with responsive songs by the Knights, after which Elder Snider made a short address.
THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
The members of the Christian church Sunday school had appropriate services and the church handsomely decorated.
AT THE LUTHERAN CHURCH.
The Rev. Dannenfeldt preached an appropriate sermon on the occasion.
AT THE OTHER CHURCHES.
Appropriate services were held that were suitable for the occasion. We would have been pleased to have given a complete report of each church service, but owing to the crowded condition of our columns with other matter it was altogether impossible, suffice it to say however, that all were good, and will make a lasting impression on the minds of those who had the pleasure of witnessing the various services.
