

The man who is continually standing around on the street corners, finding fault with everything that anybody else does; and never trying to remedy any of those things that he thinks is wrong, is a nuisance to whatever town that is so unfortunate to have him for a citizen, and the sooner it can get rid of him the better it will be for it.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.
It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could not live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For full particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at Henry Cook's drug store.

A New Barber Shop.
S. T. VanHorn who is well known in this city, and who for the last year has tried his luck elsewhere, has returned to this city and has purchased the barber parlors of Robert Barkley. He has fitted them up in a nice style and invites his old and new friends to call and see him. He will give you a shave or hair cut in the latest style of the art. 47-tf

Cancers can be cured, having devoted a good deal of time for the last 35 years to the study and cure of cancers, and having never in one single instance failed where I had the patient before the cancer commenced to eat and agitate, and many where they had commenced. Come right along dear friends to my house and I will send you home in five days rejoicing. If I cannot cure you I will tell you so like an honest man. References: John Stoddard, Walnut creek, Neb.; Mr. Bearley, Logan, Kan. My house is 12 miles south of Red Cloud, in Smith county Kansas. 48-tf J. L. ELLIOTT.

A farmer when he gets old and decrepid wants to move to town and spend the evening of life. The merchant, after the strife and dissatisfaction of a mercantile life, hopes to be able to buy a good farm and move away from the noise and tumult of the city to live honestly and die happily.

Eupepsy.
This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon, and yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that electric bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and out the demon dyspepsia and install instead eupepsy. We recommend electric bitters for dyspepsia and all diseases of liver, stomach and kidneys. Sold at 50c and $1.00 per bottle by Henry Cook, druggist. 4

The only men who are of worth to a town or community, are those who can forget their selfish ends long enough to encourage every public and private enterprise; who are ready with brains and purse to forward any project calculated to build up the town and enhance its importance. The enterprise and push of a town or community is the foundation to its permanent success.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.
—Mrs. Amelia Barr, the writer, is described as a nice old lady with white hair.

—Margaret Sangster, the poet, has the reputation of being one of the clearest-eyed and most sensible of her sex.

—With the exception of the composing room Jennie June has worked in every department of a newspaper office.

—The two sons of Joel Chandler Harris, Julian and Lucien, are called "Brer Fox" and "Brer Rabbit" by their friends.

—Helen Mathers, the English authoress, wrote the novel which made her reputation in the hope of bringing back her lover, who had left her in a fit of anger.

—George W. Childs, the Philadelphia editor, keeps three houses always in readiness for occupancy. He can sleep, therefore, in Philadelphia, at Long Branch, or at Bryn Mawr, and still be at home. He stops at any of his homes just as the fancy seizes him.

—A. W. Longfellow, brother of the late poet, is a prominent figure in Portland, Me. He closely resembles his famous brother, both in manner and person. He is nearly seventy years of age. He is described as a great literary student, spending a large part of his time in his study.

—The statement that no book has been burnt publicly for over a hundred years is contradicted by a contributor to the London Star, who says: "Not, perhaps, by legal authority, but plenty of books have been burnt in popular fervor of one kind or another. If I am not mistaken, Mr. Froude's 'Nemesis of Faith' was so burnt by High-Church students at Oxford in 1848."

—Mrs. Julia D. Grant is reported to have received from the General's book about $450,000, and has a pension of $5,000 from the Nation. She also has the income from the $250,000 raised by George Jones from Jay Gould, James Gordon Bennett and others. She also has the income from $100,000 raised by George W. Childs. In other words, she has the income on not far from $1,000,000.

—M. Zola, in an interview on the subject of journalism, ridiculed the opinion that the work of a newspaper man is a pastime. The public, he said, were inclined to believe that journalists passed their time in cafes, drinking places and boudoirs. In his own experience, newspaper life consisted of earnest work. The amount turned out in the course of a single year by a single journalist was truly amazing.

—At the San Francisco public library they give every one who enters a red ticket, without which he can not get out again. When he gets a book at the desk he gives up his ticket to the librarian, and it is returned to him when he hands in the book. By this plan, as ingenious as it is simple, anybody may safely be permitted to draw as many books for reading as he chooses, with the certainty that he can not carry any of them off with him.

PROBATE NOTICE.
State of Nebraska, ss
Webster County.

In the county court of our said county of Webster, in the matter of the estate of Joseph T. Norris, deceased, now on the 2nd day of June 1889 came Nellie W. Norris, executrix in this matter, praying a final settlement and allowance of account, and that she be discharged from this trust, and that a distribution of said estate be made to the persons by law entitled thereto. It is therefore ordered that July 1st 1889, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at my office in Red Cloud be held as the time and place for examining and allowing such account. The heirs of said deceased and all persons interested in this estate are required to appear and show cause if such exists, why said account should not be allowed. It is further ordered that the executrix herein, give notice to all persons interested in said estate by having a copy of this order to be published in the Red Cloud Chief a newspaper printed and in general circulation in said county for three successive weeks prior to the day set for the hearing.

Witness my official signature, and the seal of the county court of said county of Webster, this 2d day of June 1889. P. A. SWARTZ, County Judge.
