In another place in today's CHIEF will be found the new advertisement of C. Wiener, who has just returned from the east with all of the latest goods in his line. Mr. Wiener buys for cash and therefore has the advantage of his competitors in many instances. If you want a bargain go and see him. He keeps all kinds of clothing, gent's furnishing goods, &c.

It is a matter of fact that when the county builds bridges, it should build good ones. The one projected for Indian creek is certainly inadequate, and will be a waste of money to build it. The bridge should be built at least 100 feet long, and put in in a substantial manner or not at all. Do the work good gentlemen and it will be much better.

The Bride of Woman.
