

DUCKER'S CASH Dry Goods House.

Grand Fall Opening.
We now have all of our fall goods in and ready to show you and invite your inspection.
Largest and finest stock of Dry Goods and cloaks.
We have ever shown which we will take pleasure in showing you, whether you wish to buy or not. We will call your attention to our large stock of.

Dress Goods AND dress Trimmings.

In which we we have taken special pains to get only the newest shades and styles. You know that our prices are so far below what others ask for the same goods that we will not mention them here. In cloaks our stock is simply immense and everyone asks what are you going to do with them all, you have enough cloaks to supply every lady in Red Cloud. Our reply is that we are going to supply not only every lady in Red Cloud, but the whole valley.

Our Cloak Room Is Entirely separate from the rest of the store, with plenty of room, floor carpeted, etc. You can take all the time you wish to select or think it over. Chairs, etc., free and you will not be bothered with other goods being strewn around. We have over SIXTY PLUSH SACSQUES, JACKETS, NEW MARKETS and MODJESKAS, also hundreds of Cloth Cloaks of all descriptions in Children's Misses' and Ladies' all new styles and MARKED AT PRICES THAT WILL SELL THEM OUT FAST.

CANTON FLANNELS

Which we are selling at 10 cts per yard, as good as you can get anywhere else at 15 cents.
We only have 50 pieces and can not get any more at this price so come early. On the 1st of last January we started in to double the trade of last year or quit the town, so far we have succeeded and will try awful hard to keep it up and if hard work, low prices and good treatment will do it, we will stay with you for years, if not we quit the first of next January. Come in and see us. We will treat you well and save you money on dry good or cloaks of any kind.

WALNUT CREEK.

As elsewhere in Webster Co. politics is the order of the day hereabouts. The republicans held their caucus Saturday and the following nominations were made delegates to convention: W. M. Points, L. P. Hummel, H. Holdrege, For Supervisor, Mark Noble, Assessor, H. Holdrege, Town Clerk, David Dinger Treasurer, L. B. Gobie.
Hereupon they paused to catch their breath and after surveying their work a feeling of weariness overtook 'em and the meeting adjourned. "Dennis" was present but being a Prohibitionist was not allowed to vote.
Mrs. Eliza Holcomb, who has been spending the summer in Indiana has returned accompanied by her son, H. S. Holcomb, who is a type on the Chicago Tribune.
A F. Hartwell of Inavale has returned from the State Fair feeling at peace with himself and all the world, having taken sweepstake on his cheese and on his chickens. As a consequence he is doing some crowing.
Our road machine still hangs fire. Saturday Sept. 21st is now finally set for day of trial. Dennis was pained a day or two, since to hear a prominent Inavaleite suggest that the agent bring along a keg of beer the day of the trial. Only one keg is enough to pain one. If Walnut does not take the machine Inavale is going to try it and in that case Mr. Dennis suggests that the company send a female agent to exhibit the machine in order to make a sale.
Sam has his new bridge finished. It is said to be a thing of beauty and will unquestionably be a "jaw" forever or until something else turns up.
The attention of Dennis has been called to the fact that in building the bridge 4 sets of piling were used, 2 on the banks and 2 in the bed of the creek, forming an obstruction on which drifts will lodge. As brother Mack Fulton so feelingly puts it "the people have roundly damned the bridge and now the bridge will dam the creek." This is all hearsay, Dennis hasn't seen the bridge and isn't apt to right away as he has a lurking suspicion that he would see stars if he got up in that corner.
The Dry Creek bridge is also finished and is pronounced by all everything that could be desired, some say, more than is desired.
Did you read the West Virginia letter in the Democrat? After reading it that rock rooted disciple of democracy John Stoddard sentimentally remarked, in the name of God what kind of liquor do they have in West Virginia.
In describing that Walnut Creek tree last week THE CHIEF went a little too far in saying "part of the tree is left." Mr. Heaton desires me to say that he does not claim that there is any of the tree left except the roots.
Robt. Moore has sold his team, wagon and harness to F. D. Hutchison and now talks of seeking "other fields and pastures new."
George and Sam Heaton will each have been married thirty years this fall and talk of calling in the neighbors to show them how they have stood it.
When freedom from her mountain height, unfurled her banner in the air, she smiled a smile bewitching bright, and said, are you going to the fair?
DENNIS.

An Enterprising House.

One day this week THE CHIEF while making the rounds of the business houses, dropped into J. J. Ducker's exclusive dry goods store, and there found one of the largest stocks of goods ever seen in a western store. His cloak room was jacked filled with handsome plush cloaks, jackets, newmarkets, &c. of all kinds and descriptions, and the largest stock ever brought here for our people to select from. In the dry goods department we found new and nobby dress goods, elegant dry goods, cottons, flannels, notions, etc., in fact the store is literally crowded with all of the new and seasonable goods. He invites his friends to call and view the goods if they want bargains.
Jas. McNary, Judge Gilham and Attorney Chaney, three Strong and able men, are the trio Red Cloud puts to the front as congressional favorites.—Hastings Republican.
The same paper further adds: Webster county is in a position to reach for a big sized plum. Around the pit and within the rim of that plum is gathered the fruitage of a large sized orchard. In politics Webster county is vegetarian. A dish of crow is no temptation, but tempting fruit may be an inspiration.
Then the Nebraskan speaks of Mr. Chaney in this way: "As one of the possible candidates for the republican nomination to congress in this district, Hen. G. R. Chaney, of Red Cloud, has received flattering mention. The Nebraskan recognizes him as an attorney who stands very high in the profession and a man of very conscientious motives."

Railroad Excursion Rates.

To the Sovereign grand lodge of Patriarchs Militant and I. O. O. F. at Columbus, O., the great Northwestern road will give a rate of $25.20 for round trip from Sept. 12 to 15, good to return till the 30th.
To the Knight Templar convale at Washington, D. C., Oct. 13, tickets will be sold Oct. 3d to 5th for $33, good to return Nov. 3d. The Northwestern is the most popular route from the coast.
What a Fortune.
Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of BEEGGY'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. C. L. Cotting, Druggist.

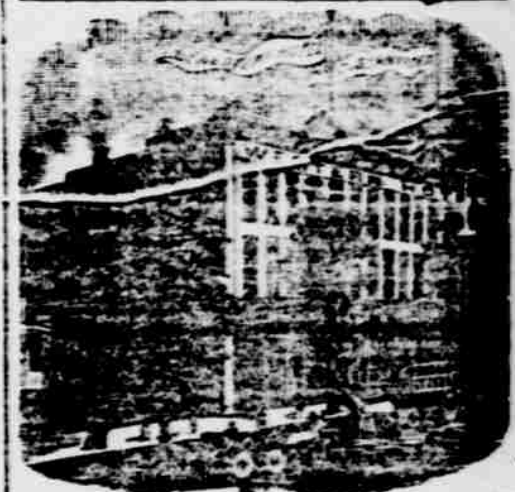

JUDSON.

School in Dis. No. ninety has commenced for nine months term with Mrs. L. P. Northrup, Teacher.
There will be a Sunday School picnic in J. M. Brown's grove next Saturday.
Dancing seems to be the order of the night, two or three every week.
Farmers are inclined to have some sweet things this winter, judging from the amount of sugar cane there is raised and not enough cane mills to make it up.
SID.
Married, at Blue Hill, Neb. Sept. 11th 1889, by Rev. C. Schubkegel, Mr. Philip Bock and Mrs. Christina Luim, all of Blue Hill, Neb.
The Verdict Unanimous.
W.D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind. testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years standing." Abraham Hare, Druggist Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half dollar a bottle at Henry Cook's drug-store. 2

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Beegs' Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is none to good, be sure and get BEEGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. We keep it on hand at all times. C. L. Cotting, Druggist.
