Don't forget one of the most important short-horn sales of the season, that of J. Russel Lownes at Hastings which occurs Tuesday, October 8th. Mr. Lownes has bred short-horns all his life and good ones too, as he has drawn from the celebrated herd of J. H. Ports & Son of Jacksonville, Ill., and other well-known herds. Before leaving Illinois, seven years ago, he saved out the best from a sale of his herd to bring to this state. His herd has now increased to a larger number than he desires to retain, so he has decided to sell about forty head as per announcement in another column. He has no culls or inferior cattle in this offering. but good, useful and for sale catalogue.
