CITY CLATTER.

Edited by Our Alert Reporters, and Prepared for Our Readers.

Bound books at Deyo's for 25cts

Mrs. Josselyn of Orleans, was in the city this week.

Mrs. John O. Yeiser went to Omaha Wednesday.

Business is picking up lively in Red-cloud just now.

A new stock of gold pens and holders just opened at Cottings.

A. W. Rust of Rollins county Kansas, is visiting his uncle L. H. Rust.

Book binding done at this office. If you have any old books, bring them in.

Cottings will sell you all the Carton Edition of 12 mo. books that you want for 25 cts per copy.

When L. H. Rust can't find you a place in the floral hall for every thing you bring it is sure to be full.

Our officers have been busy hunting Heller, the counterfeit, this week but they can not even get a clew.

Wm Parkes has had his shop fixed up nicely and can now be heard singing:
"John Brown's body lies moulding in the grave while his 'sole' goes marching on."

All pocket knives that I sell are WARRANTed. I do not pretend to sell at cost but I sell lower than any house in town.

C. L. COTTING.

John R. Shirey, cashier of the First National Bank, Ed. H. Shirey, and D. F. Parker of maker & Parker the grocers were out west on a shooting expedition this week they report a good time.

On Tuesday night at the Demorest contest, Miss Penri Sken took the medal.
There were eight others in the contest.
The medal was very handsome and very much appreciated by Miss Penri.

Pap Rust takes exceptions to our statement about chickens last week at the fair and says he was "thar" with a few pullets, and that B. F. Kellogg and Charley Seely exhibited some nice chickens. Good.
We are pleased to make the correction Pap.

J. W. Honeycutt and n. W. Gulliford have purchased the real estate and loan business of Mr. Stowe, and will enter the business at once. Both gentlemen are enterprising, and will make the fur fly in the loan and insurance "biz". THE CHIEF wishes them success.

The Grand Army boys had a very interesting meeting last Monday evening at which time they mustered in a number of new recruits. After the work had been finished the W. R. C. ladies came in upon them and gave them a grand banquet. A very pleasant time was the result of the evening.

A $50 watch for $25.

ner for B. & M. R. R.

Republican Caucus.

The electors of Bath township are requested to meet at the Anderson school house on Saturday afternoon at two p. m.
October 13th for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for township officers.

JAMES ANDERSON, Committeeman.

GUIDE ROCK.

Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away, the half dozen slain, quietly buried, and the score of wounded made comfortable, we are beginning to fill up the line of march to their poles in November. Some of the boys go on crutches yet, but we apprehend we shall start that on the eve of the election the crutches will all be discarded, and next day we will roll up one of the biggest majorities yet recorded in this the banner township of our county.

Our fallen half dozen fell while endeavoring to lead the forlorn hope of the Jonesites. Now, not one word of fault have we to find with Mr.
Jones, who is a perfect gentleman, but when he wants office he would do well to steer clear of the faction who compassed his overthrow this time by their supposed support.

Our fallen heroes have visited us in ghostly and mysterious whisperings for a few nights since the contest, threatening dire vengeance upon the party for having nominated Hummel, but as our fellows have but little reverence for these restless, disembodied spirits, the ghosts have ceased to walk and chatter upon our streets and now all goes smoothly on as in the olden times.

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Beegs' Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is none to good, be sure and get BEEGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. We keep it on hand at all times. C. L. Cottings, Druggist.

Here's Yer Barb Wire.

Adam Morhart the popular hardware man has just received a car load of Glidden barb wire, which he is going to sell very close for cash.
Call and see him at once if you want bargains.

What will you do with all the clothing, etc., is asked every season of C. Wiener, but when one sees that the piles of goods are way down at the end of the season we do not wonder what induces the Golden Eagle to lay in such heavy stocks. People appreciate big stocks and much more the low prices that are always given by C. Wiener.

WHY?

I, as a Soldier, Vote the Republican Ticket.

In April 1861 the war began. That war gave to men and parties a record. True those men and parties after they made this record could reform, but look at the record of the democratic party during and since that time and see if there is any evidence of a reformation.

Who in the northern states talked against and tried to discourage enlistments. The democrats.

Who said the war was "wicked, unholy, diabolical." The democrats.

Who organized riots against the draft. The democrats.

Who organized some of the most cruel and barbarous acts of the war. The democrats.

Who gave all the aid and comfort they could to the rebels in the south. The democrats.

Who openly in their national platform in the fall of 1864, the darkest days of the war, the time when all men who could not say anything to lighten the gloom that was settling like the pall of death over the loyal hearts of the north should at least have kept their mouths shut, declared that the war was a failure. The democrats.

No man thinks more of nor can give more honor to the thousands of democratic soldiers than in the field (of which I was one) who openly and by their actions declared this statement to be a lie than I do.

To give aid and comfort to an enemy in time of war is treason. To what party did those persons who gave aid and comfort to the south belong? The democrats.

Who were willing that all of the whites, the learned and the ignorant alike who were all disloyal, should have the right of franchise and the colored men who were all loyal should not have the right to vote. The democrats.

Who by intimidation and threats drive the colored men from the polls today. The democrats.

The United States have made more progress since 1861 than in twice the time before. Who have almost invariably fought every measure in congress that was introduced in the interests of the people or the nation. The democrats.

In all measures or bills that have been introduced or passed by congress in favor of the old soldier or the colored people of the south, who have to the amount of 99 per cent at least voted and worked against such measures. The democrats.

Who almost to a man have voted for all such bills. The republicans.

Who during the last two years of Cleveland's administration any day while congress was in session, in course of a few hours have taken up and passed a law that would have taken thousands of old soldiers from the poor houses of the land and thus avoided disgracing the nation by allowing anyone who had given the best years of his life that his country might live, to go down to the grave in sorrow and distress. The democrats.

When you hear anyone swearing at the old soldier element, or crying "fraud" in personal matters, scratch his back and you will find him nine times out of ten a democrat.

Whenever a few sore-headed republicans account of purely personal matters wish to defect a part of their own ticket, an honest man and life-long republican what, do they do? Answer. They send for a Doctor and take the democratic ticket and sugar coat it by placing a solitary old soldier on it in place of the man they wish to defeat.

Will the old soldiers and the people of this county walk up to the polls and swallow this sugar coated pill.

Yours for the right.

J. R. DOWNS.
