ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. Marvel of pure strength and wholesomeness, more economical than the ordinary kind and cannot be sold in competition with the multitudes of low test short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 106 Wall Street, N. Y. City.

FARM LOANS.

I have the agency for ten different loan companies, and can give you the benefit of any of their peculiar plans of making farm loans. Therefore I can make a farm loan quicker and at lower rates than any other agent in Webster county. I make option loans or straight loans for 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, or 7 years, also on first class city property. Compare my terms before placing your farm loan, and save money and regrets. G. W. BARKER. Rear Red Cloud Nat'l Bank.

SPLINTERS

Gathered Up by Chief Reporters in And About the City and County.

The best corn husker's soap is sold by Deyo.

A. L. Funk and wife were in Lincoln this week.

Could one ask for more beautiful weather than this.

J. W. Smith will probably open up his meat market Saturday.

Watermelons of the most delicious kind are still on the market.

There will be an oyster festival at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Thursday evening.

Geo. Phillips and wife of Unionville, Mo., are visiting at Anderson Hedge's this week.

Frank Huffer is the happy papa of twins which makes him feel considerable bigger than usual.

An elegant aroma pervaded the atmosphere of Webster street on Thursday. Did you sniff it afar?

Ed. Hilton the handsome P. M. of Blue Hill was in Red Cloud this week, and called at these headquarters.

Have the saloons quit setting up the free drinks to the big 8 outfit? We should judge so. How is it docky.

In another place will be found a very interesting document from the pen of Oliver Downs. Every man in Webster county should read it.

The Golden Eagle as usual has a large stock of gloves and mittens. Buying all kinds of goods in large quantities enables him to buy and sell cheap.

Come in and see our new line of tinware, lanterns, coffee mills and agate ware fresh from Chicago and at Chicago cost. Perkins old stand. D. B. HEARD.

The big 8 crowd are doing their level best to injure George Hummel the republican nominee for treasurer. If that crowd can't run things they will invariably bolt the ticket, or knife it silently.

Read C. Wiener's new advertisement. Mr. W. is one of THE CHIEF's best advertisers. He carries a very large line of clothing, etc., and sells them very low for cash. He carries the largest stock west of Omaha.

C. Schaffnit, the popular dry goods and notion man, is still selling goods at remarkably low figures. His counters are laden with all kinds of dry goods, etc., and it will pay all of our friends to call and see him. His stock is certainly mammoth. Call and look over the goods.

There is but one place to buy hardware in town, as every sensible man saves money when he has a chance, and I will guarantee to save you money on anything in the Hardware, Stores or Tinware line. Remember D. B. Heard, Perkins' old stand. A piece of tinware given away with every purchase of $1 or over.

Plumb must get a little angry when people see fit to withdraw patronage from his paper, if we may judge from a perusal of his Wednesday's edition. Be more philosophical Plumb, learn to take the world easy, and of all things, don't read your clothes because some fellow don't want to advertise with you. You should remember that there are five or six other papers in the city.

Glass and putty at Deyo's.

See those Shetland shawls at the New York Store.

Furniture of all kinds cheaper than ever at F. V. Taylor's.

All goods are sold at the New York Store at the lowest cash prices.

A fine line of jeans, cassimeres and flannels at the New York Store.

The New York Store is headquarters for the best makes of boots and shoes.

Deyo is selling albums 20 per cent cheaper now than you can buy them for during holidays.

Deyo takes subscriptions for any paper or magazine published and saves you expense of sending.

You can't miss it if you buy a pocket knife at Cottings. He has nothing but new good and his prices suit these close times.

Ribbons, ribbons, ribbons. A big lot of remnants will be sold at less than half price, at the New York Store.

I can save you big money on furniture and carpets. 100 different patterns of carpets cut without waste at F. V. Taylor's.

In another place in today's CHIEF will be found the report of the First National Bank. It will pay our readers to peruse it. The bank is in a splendid condition and through its able management has become leading institution of its kind in this section and we wish the institution combined success.

What's the matter with Plumb? He seems to be nosing around in the republican party. Thought he was a prohib. Better stay by your party Mr. P. and you'll be better off. He publicans can attend to their own business and fights, if they have any, without your help, besides you might get contaminated, you know.

The Democrat seems to have suddenly fallen in love with its big Jumbo brother, the big 8 sheet, and publishes a column or two of that paper's boob this week. We have always presumed that they were twins, and are now fully convinced that they eat political soup with the same spoon. The people are not stuck on the big 8 to any alarming extent.

By the receipt of "At Home" cards we learn that Mr. Will Houghton, the affable manager of C. Wiener's tailoring department, was recently united in marriage to Miss Clara Becker of Lincoln. Will is one of Red Cloud's model young men, and Miss Becker is the accomplished daughter of Mr. A. U. Becker formerly of this city. THE CHIEF takes pleasure in congratulating the happy couple and wishes them a long and happy wedded life.

Dock McKeely, the great Gulliverian "Mully Ugly Gue" and his gang who have been doing their level best to defeat the regular republican ticket, and still at the same professing through their infamous sheet to be supporting it, are unworthy the confidence of our people, if indeed they ever had it. Through their engineering and conniving they have succeeded in putting before the people a ticket that bears on the face of it a democratic ticket, which when sifted down to a nitty is nothing more or less than a big 8 combination and will remain so whether they deny it or not. The big 8 propose if possible to get hold of the county funds, by fair means or foul, and it generally suits their ends best to work by dark methods. THE CHIEF is a straight republican and believes that there could not have been a better, cleaner or more desirable set of candidates put up by any party, than those composing the republican ticket, and they will be elected too, in spite of the big 8.

GUIDE ROCK.

EDITOR CHIEF:—I want to congratulate you on your fight against the big 8 outfit. The people are with you and will sit down on the gang at the polls harder than they did in the republican convention. Although a life long democrat, I shall vote for Hummel this fall. My reasons are these: Hummel is a man against whom no objection can be raised. The big 8 outfit are working every scheme to defeat that part of the republican ticket. While McKeely (in his paper) is pretending to support the whole ticket. He is at the same time working secretly working to beat Hummel. They have delegated Jake Miller and Joe Garber to work the G. A. R. organization, Chas. Cather and Lou Albright to work the prohibitionists, Ed. Parkas the K. of L. while Simons, Nume Richardson and Funk's brother-in-law are to work the county generally. Then they tell us country fellows that they are after "the ring." Nice fellows to talk of a ring. You will hear from me again, after another visit from them. Until then, I still remain a DEMOCRAT.

HOW FOR BUSINESS.

Persons buying clothing are always in fear of being taken in, but when they can deal with an honest house like the Golden Eagle, they are proven in the last six years this business. C. Wiener has all made good anything that is not factory. Goods are sold by their merits.
