On Thursday evening about 7 o'clock fire was discovered under J. McArthur's meat market. The fire bell was immediately sounded, and the prompt response of the fire boys saved what would have been a serious blaze. Red Cloud can certainly feel proud of her fire boys.

There are very few as accurate clerks of the district court in the state of Nebraska as L. H. Fort of this city. He never misses doing up legal papers in a manner that gives entire satisfaction to those who have business with him. The following compliment from a prominent legal firm in Omaha shows how his ability is appreciated. "We desire to thank you for your promptness and complimentary upon the very satisfactory manner in which the transcript has been prepared. We question if there is another clerk in the state who will excel your work on the transcript." The document was one which changed a case from the district to the United States court. The compliment paid to Mr. Fort was justly merited.

THE CHIEF is now ready to settle down to business. The fight has been hard and bitter, and while we have no amendments to make for what we have said in the heat of the campaign. Yet we have said many things during the battle that might, perhaps been better unsaid, and while that may be true of us, it is certainly true of all the other papers in the city. The fight is over and from this week on we shall pursue the even tenor of our way viz: printing the best paper in the county. We have no apologies to make nor yet any favors to ask. We fought our best to down the big 8 and elect the straight republican ticket, nothing more nor nothing less. Farewell vain politics.

McKeeby still edits the He'met. The best corn husker's soap is sold by Deyo.

Don't fail while in town to drop in and see D. B. heard. He makes prices on the 4th page which are certainly cheap.

How very tender Plumb handles the big 8. One would think to read his paper that they never "smiled."

One must see the underwear before they can appreciate the low prices at which C. Wiener is selling it.

W. W. Gilbert has purchased the old Stingley barber shop and will move it in with Smith & Hutchison.

Wonder if that gentleman (?) who runs the Helmet will say anything about the other fellow's drunk. Oh no, he doesn't dare to.

Mr. Hummel don't need any of your sympathy Mr. Plumb, he is getting along very nicely, thank you. A man who will sell out his party should not give advice unasked.

Dave Boesch of Amboy, while in the city the other day had his team run away, and in the general upheaval Boesch got three ribs broken. Dr. Moranville was called in to treat him and reports getting along nicely.

Did you hear any one say that Plumb saw the big 8 headquarters in the corner saloon Wednesday night. A band of music and free whiskey, ain't so bad for men that don't drink you know.

Poor Plumb comes out in a half column Wednesday trying to defend his position in the late election, but the "hundreds" of subscribers that will drop off of that much sold out paper in the next few weeks will open the demagogues eyes considerably. Prohibition voters as a class believe in sticking to their party and they can't stand the "mossback" who runs the Helmet.

One bottle of BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. C. L. Cotting, Druggist.

Michael Strogoff is a play of absorbing human interest. The story as told by Jules Verne has been read in almost every household in the land. It is, alike, interesting to young and old and the lesson it inculcates makes a lasting impression.
