Wedding Bells.

Joy and gladness pervaded two Red Cloud homes this week, and intermixed was a little sorrow that loved ones should leave the parental roof and begin a new life in homes of their own.

FULTON—GOBLE.

At the residence of Mr. F. E. Goble, in this city, on Thursday evening, November 28th, 1899, in the presence of relatives and a few friends, the Rev. H. D. Randall united in marriage Mr. Victor B. Fulton and Miss Maude Goble. Mr. Fulton is one of Red Cloud's enterprising and esteemed young men who has the respect of all of our citizens. His bride is the only and accomplished daughter of F. E. Goble, who is one of Red Cloud's staunch business men. It is needless for THE CHIEF to dwell at length on the characteristics of the fair young bride and groom, for both are well known in the city. Much could be said of a complimentary nature but we forbear. The handsome presents, the gifts of loving relatives and friends, were among the finest we have ever seen. The best wishes of Red Cloud will be with them through life's journey.

WILSON—GRAVES.

In this city on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Joseph Graves, Mr. Frank Wilson of this city and Miss Mary Graves, were united in marriage by Rev. C. E. Taggart. The groom is the son of Mr. Milton Wilson, a prominent farmer, living near Red Cloud, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. Joseph Graves, and is well known and highly esteemed young lady. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends in this city, who wish them a long life of happiness and pleasure over the matrimonial sea. THE CHIEF wishes them much happiness. They were the recipients of many costly presents from their parents and friends.

Married, Sunday Nov. 24th 1899 by the writer. Mr. J. L. Moore of Belleville Kansas, and Miss Cora E. Elliott of Courtland Kansas. Mr. Moore is a son of Col. Moore of Inavale Neb. and Miss Elliot a daughter of one of the business men of Courtland, Kansas.

Thanksgiving day was ushered in, in a very "chilly" manner, the thermometer getting way down about zero.

Thanksgiving day was duly observed in Red Cloud. Thanksgiving services were held in the Congregational church, and the Rev. Mr. Snyder, of the Baptist church preached the sermon.

C. L. Kirk and wife, formerly residents of this city, but more recently of Del Norte, Col., are in the city today. Mr. Kirk used to be B. & M. train agent but is now engaged in the ministry.

Van Benson, who has been languishing in jail for the past six months for an alleged assault on Winnie Palmer, was fined this week $100 and costs, upon payment of which he stepped forth a free man.

The Democrat editors seem to have a severe attack of stomach ache, by the way they groan in their last issue, ever a little item in which THE CHIEF chided them for making a personal attack upon some of our business houses. Being novices in the business, boys, we would suggest that you go very easy, for the road to Jerusalem is a hard road to travel.

What will you do with all the clothing, etc., is asked every season of C. Wiener, but when one sees that the piles of goods are way down at the end of the season we do not wonder what induces the Golden Eagle to lay in such heavy stocks. People appreciate big stocks and much more the low prices that are always given by C. Wiener.

Persons buying clothing are always in fear of being taken in, but when they can deal with an honorable house like the Golden Eagle has proven in the last six years this fear vanishes. C. Wiener has always made good anything that is not satisfactory. Goods are sold by him on their merits.

For correct fitting clothing go to Berg & Galusha.
