WALNUT CREEK.

Some colored brother in the south, hotly contests the theory that, "the world do move" whether it does or not, the natives hereabouts are getting quite a move on them, and it stands 'em in hand to do so too. "The captain has to be interviewed" this fall and don't you forget it.

Corn husking is rapidly approaching an end.

Word has been received from Frank Pierce who recently went to Arkansas. He doesn't seem to think that the climate is going to help his wife's health very much and it was principally on that account that he went there.

Wm. Ricker a former citizen of Inavale but now a denizen of River-ton is for the second time in a very short time, the blushing father of a bouncing pair of twins. "Bill" seems determined to send his name down to posterity on the double quick.

The Inavale bridge is in a really dangerous condition, owing to its worn flooring. Some day a horse will break a leg there and then some poor devil will have a loss to pocket and the Lord knows most of us have a pocket full of that now.

Inavale is all torn up on the cemetery question. They are trying to raise enough money to buy the necessary land. Some of the people who are noted for their "nearness," think one acre enough. Chas. Hunter voices the sentiment of a large number when he says, "I don't believe in piling dead people on top of each other."

The Walnut cemetery contains five acres, but then Walnut people wont bear being placed too close together they might fall out.

The question has often been asked Dennis, "why in thunder don't they grade the approaches to that new bridge on Dry creek" to which he replies "damfino."

There is an old saying that "coming events cast their shadows before" If this is true the chances are that the population of Walnut will receive quite a boom "ere the robins nest again."

The fall term of school in Dist. 3 closes December 20. Speaking of schools, what do you think of a system of school books that teaches children to pronounce dog to rhyme with log etc. Shades of Noah Webster! And it is for this that we pay a 35 mill school tax, or two-thirds of our entire tax levy.

The long and painful illness of Miss Fannie Rinker terminated fatally December 12. She leaves a wide circle of friends, to whom he had become endeared, to mourn her loss. Her parents and family have the sympathy of all.

S. E. Cayce has just finished making sorghum. The people began to fear that like the brook he would go on forever.

Chas Hunter and Jim Vance are building new cribs to hold their corn. Sawyer is cribbing his under the starry dome of heaven. Moral.—Bank with the F. & M.

The hopes of a further increase in the democratic majority of Walnut creek was rudely shattered by the arrival of a girl baby at Sanford's a few days ago. Since the event the democratic leaders are giving the bereaved father rather the cold shoulder Alf McCall simply refuses to recognize him when they meet. Squire Stoddard says, "we expect every democrat to do his duty" and Sanford hasn't done his. It is such things as this as makes our name

DENNIS.

P. S. Say, democrats, could not you give the poor ones another chance before shunning him forever.

No remedy for blood disorders can equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Though concentrated and powerful, this medicine is perfectly safe, and may be taken by children as well as adults. Physicians recommend it in preference to any other. Price $1 worth $5 per bottle.
