WILLOW CREEK.
Some of the farmers have been ploughing their oats stubble this week the weather is suitable for farming of any kind.

Mr. Stillman our goose bone prophet says we won't have very cold weather until the 29th of January and not very cold then.

T. J. Wilder got a horse badly cut on the wire fence one night last week.

Mrs. Hannah Lewis who has been visiting her son Ed, in Chase county this state, returned last week. She reports every thing flourishing and although crops were destroyed by hail in June the corn stubble sprouted up and made four bushels of the corn to the acre and the farmers are hopeful and jolly.

M. C. Jackson has made his wife a handsome and useful present in the shape of a large cooking range, purchased of a Superior traveling man.

On Dec. 1st, Freddie Bon killed a rattlesnake measuring four feet and a half, with nine links and a button in its chain of rattles.

Mr. Coney was badly hurt by a fractious team a few days ago, he is better now.

Any one wishing to hear the very best of music should call on or address Jo Brubaker at his home forty rods west of Willow creek central, although young in years he is the very best the county affords.

Charley Jackson is a young director, he is a good one and fulfill every requirement.

Dancing is all the rage in this part of the world, and Carpenter gave one last week, all report a splendid time and good supper. MANITOBA.

PLEASANT PRAIRIE.
Ephram Carter is husking corn for Mr. Cleghorn.

R. K. Orchard went to Indianola to eat Xmas turkey with his daughter.

Miss Effie Plumb closed a four months term of school in district 41 on Friday of last week.

Miss Maud Orchard is spending the holidays at home after having taught a fall term of school near Indianola.

Pleasant Prairie Alliance held their Christmas festivities at their place of meeting, consisting of a Christmas tree in the form of an arch and cross. A bountiful supply of oysters and cake were served and they say Ben takes the cake because he eats more cake than anyone. The tree was filled with useful presents for the older ones, and toys for the little ones to the delight of all. Everyone enjoyed themselves and we wish them many happy returns of the same.

STUB.

NAVALE.
A very pleasant event occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Groat on Farmers creek, on the 18th inst, when a party of the friends of that worthy couple gathered to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their marriage. A bountiful dinner was served to which all did ample justice.

There was a nice lot of presents left them, mostly silverware. Your correspondent was too busy getting away with the provisions to make note of the guests or the presents. They are among the oldest settlers in this neighborhood and are respected by all. Although having had an unusual amount of hard luck, David is getting to be one of the most substantial farmers in the valley. May their shadows never grow less and may they have many happy returns of that pleasant day, is the wish of,

FRANKIE.
