APPETITES OF BIRDS.

A Theory That Much Fooding May So Cause of Long Living.

A German ornithologist has been looking into the subject of birds agen recently. The swam, he concludes, is the lengest lived of all birds. The oldest swam of which there is a record lived 500 years. Many falcons are known to have lived 169 years. The vulture and the eagle are also very long lived.

In 1819 an osprey died which had been caught in 1715, at which time it was full grown and probably five or six years old. A white-headed vulture caught in 1708 died in the bird-house of the imperial pleasure palace at Hobombrunn, near Vi-

Parrots often live a century after they have been captured and tamed. Hea and swamp birds usually live several generations. Geose, if left to themselves, and cuckoos also reach a very old age. Ravens rarely die under 100 years of age. Magpile seldom pass more than twenty or twenty-five years in confinement. When free they live forty or fifty

The bern-yard rooster in good luck is The barn-yard rouster in good luck is generally healthy and strong till he has passed his fifteenth year. Pigeons are good for ten years; singing birds for eight to eighteen years. Nightingales in eaptivity live about ten years; black-birds about fifteen years; canaries, in captivity, twelve to fifteen years; although on the islands where they originated they often live liventy-fire or they often live twenty-five or Pallures in Life.

People fail in many ways. In business n morality, in religion, in happiness, and in health. A wenk heart is often an unsuspected cause of failure of life. If the blood does not circulate properly in the lungs, there is shortness of breath, asthma ete,; in the brain, disziness, heacsche, etc,; in the stomach, wind, pain, indigestion, fwint spells, etc,; in the liver, torpidity, conjection and etc. Pain in the left side, shoulder and stomach, is caused by heart strain. For all these maladies Mr. wiles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold, guaranteed and re-commended by C. L. Cotting, treatise free?

A Successful Comtination

Rings, pools, trusts, combines, monopoies--call them what you will--they are fast increasing throlghout the length and breadth of this country. Legislators denonnee them, and newspapers attack them but still they seem to flourish. It is grate ifying, however, to note that there is at least one combination in this country that meets with the approval of the public, especially of farmers: It is composed, not of individuals, but of the following quartet of harvesting machines: Deering Binder, Deering Light Reaper, Deering Giant mower, and New Deering mower.

Mr. W. Morrow of Bladen, read the Great Family Weekly for 1890. Thanks.
