The Red Cloud Chief.

A. C. ROSEBERG, Proprietor.

Our next legislature should pass a law making it necessary in selling chattel mortgage property that it bring three fourths of its value. There is a great wrong done the people in this regard. Often a man's property is bought in under execution and sold for less than one-fourth of its value. It is all wrong and should be remedied. The people ought to have some rights that even rich men are bound to respect.

The bill providing for post offices in cities where the postal business amounts to more than $3,000, which was conceived in the mind of our junior senator, has been reported from the congressional committee in the house and we have no doubt will be ultimately passed. It is certainly the proper thing to do. If it does Red Cloud will have a public building. Good, we hope it will go through and our able representative ought to use his influence in that direction.

A Great Wrong.

"The wages of sin is death," says an old veteran, but the wages of an old soldier was only $13 per month payable in greenbacks at 40 cents on the dollar with a promise of a service pension due twelve years after death. It does seem a pity that the old soldier who gave the best days of his life for the benefit of the country at a very little figure should now be kept from receiving their just dues by tardy legislation. They have had a great many promises but very few of them have been fulfilled. The privates hold the sack while most of the officers draw immense pensions, and just why an officer should receive more than a private we are at a loss to know unless it was that he had a chance to hide from the bullets while the privates pressed forward and gave themselves up as a sacrifice to save the nation. Sure it is that the private soldier bore the brunt of the hardships then, and is still bearing them, while most of the officers are having their pockets lined with government gold. It is altogether wrong. Of course the officers were necessary and nearly always did their duty but just why they are entitled to more money than the private soldier is a problem that is very puzzling to the average mind.

His girl didn't go back on him because he used De Witt's little early ointment.

School Report.

April 11th, 1890 the school in Dist. No. 70 closed for the year with a picnic dinner, which all present seemed to enjoy. No. months taught, 7. No. Pupils enrolled, 28. No. days taught in the year, 138. Average attendance for the year 15. The following visitors were present the last day lending to cheer and encouragement to our efforts: Mrs. Hummell, Mr. and Mrs. Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. McVey, Mrs. Sibert, Misses Sadie Hallmen, Laura Warnock, Cora McVey and Nellie McCall. Friends, if you only knew how much good your presence does, you would try and come oftener. Your children are placed in our care and you think that is all that is necessary. Now, we are glad that you can trust us, but you know it is pleasant to receive encouragement from an employer, for such is our relation—we the servants and you the employer. Now does it not seem reasonable that you should come to see us? We want you to come and your duty to your children ought to tell you to come. I wish to make a comparison. If a farmer places cattle in the care of another for the purpose of being herded for about four months we will say, do you think that during that time he will not go to see them until time to bring them home? If so you are mistaken, yet here we have been with you, for seven months, and not one of you have come to visit the school except the director, only on the last day of the fall term, and again today. Parents, we appeal to you, is it right? We are glad, very glad, to have you the last day, but it is not enough. Become visitors of the schools and you will become interested in the work and we think good will come of it. But I must close as I have already occupied more space than I ought.

MARY MCINTYRE, Teacher.

If you or any of your family should happen to be frightfully burned or scalded, what have you in the house to alleviate the pain until you can get a physician? A box of Ross's German Salve at hand in times like this would save a world of suffering and oftentimes a doctor bill as it has no equal in cases of this kind, as well as inflammation of all kinds.
