The Valley of Johosaphat-The Story of the Good Samaritan—The Worth of Prac-

mage said:

guide horses by the bridle, these horses an easy pillow." of the Orient, guided only by foot and Now the Samaritan has got the wound- at the sound of poor music played on day, causing both trains to be late. The side of the track from the smoker and voice, make equestrianism an uncer- ed man on his feet and with much tug- "ram's horn." that ancient instrument Rock Island Company uses the Union laid on its side. The cha'r car, Pulla loaded gun in full sight, but it is the wounded man in the saddle, and at slow fact that this sheik represents the Turk- pace the extemporized ambulance is ty of the caravan.

ever saw was so well constructed for lodging. brigandage-deep gullies, sharp turns, As on that December noon we sat un- have been blessed, but would it not be caves on either side. There are fifty der the shadow of the tavern where this well for us to put more emphasis on ceived a bad cut on right knee. the road we travel to-day.

bery lay in the middle of the road-a teen acres. fact of which I am certain, because the either side.

of the temple. This Levite passing tans! hearted official.

But a third person is coming along will put you out of your minery. And here is a rag of your coat that they did not steal and I will take that. Whati Do you dare to appeal to me for mercy? Mush up! Why, your ancestors worshiped at Jerusalem when they ought to have worshiped at Gerisim. Now take that! And that! And that!" will

the wounded man and says: 'This poor | waiting for his breakfast, having drunk fellow does not belong to my nation, his morning beverage from the rushing and our ancestors worshiped in d ffer- stream beneath, than have been his butent places, but he is a man, and that lers and purveyors. But God compelled makes us brother? God pity him, as I them, as He always compelled and aldo!" And he gets down on his knees ways will compel black and cruel and and begins to examine his wounds, and overshadowing providences, to carry In continuation of his lectures on the straighten out his limbs to see if any of help to His children if they only have Holy Land Dr. Talmage, in a late ser- his bones are broken, and says: "My faith enough to catch the blessing as it Luke x. 30: "A certain man went down more care about yourse. for I am going greatest blessings always coming not from Jerusalem to Jericho." Dr. Talfrom Jerusalem to Jericha." Dr. Tal- to take care of you. Let me feel of your with white wings but black wings. pulse! Let me listen to your breathing! But look! Look what at four o'clock It is the morning of December 5 in I have in these bottles two liquids that in the afternoon bursts upon our vision limits of Kansas City, Kan., and about | For a distance of more than 400 feet Jerusalem and we take stirrups for the will help you. The one is oil, and that |-the plain of Jericho and the valley of four blocks east of Oakland avenue | the track was entirely torn up. The road along which the wayfarer of old will soothe the pain of these wounds, Jordan and the Dead sea. We have The east-bound Kansas City & Cald- three rear coaches were turned on their fell among thieves who left him wound- and the other is wine, and your pulse is come to a place where the horses not so well express of the Rock Island ran into sides. The engine and tender broke ed and half dead. Job's p cture of the feeble and you feel faint, and that will much walk as slide upon their haunches, the rear end of the east-bound Denver loose from the baggage car, and the lathorse in the Orient as having neck stimulate you. Now I must get you to and we all dismount, for the steep de- express on the Union Pacific. The col- ter turned diagonally across the track "clothed with thunder" is not true of the nearest tavern" "O, no," says the scent is simply terrific, though a Pr.n- lision involves the loss of the life of The express car was thrown at right most horses now in Palestine. There man; "I can't walk; let me stay here cess of Wallachia, who fell here and Engineer Patrick Cullen, of the Rock langles from the track, and did not is no thunder on their neck, though and die." "Nonsense." says the Sa- was dangerously injured, after recovery Island; the injury of Fireman John touch the roadbed at any point. It was there is some lightning in their beels. maritan. "You are not going to die. I spent a large amount of money in try- Cuff and of several passengers, and the turned bottom s de up. The smoker Poorly fed and unmercifully whacked am going to put you on this beast, and I ing to make the road passable. Down they sometimes retort. To Americans will hold you on till I get you to a place and down! till we saw the white tents and English, who are accustomed to where you can have a soft mattress and p tched for us by our muleteers amid lision was the dense fog that prevailed complete right angle to the track. The tainty, and the pull on the bridle that ging and lifting puts him on the beast, which taken from the lead of the lead - Pacific tracks between this c ty and To- man and tourists' cars remained coupled you intend for slowing up of the pace for it is astonishing how strong the er of the flock of sheep, is perforated may be mistaken for a hint that you spirit of kindness will make one, as you and prepared to be fingered by the and the difference in time between the alone remained on the track, to the want to out gallop the wind or wheel in have seen a mother after three weeks musical performers, and blown upon arrival of these two trains in Kansas mail car it was a distance of 120 feet swift circles like the hawk. There were of sleepless watching of her boy, down when pressed to the lips. eighteen of our party, and twenty-two with scarlet fever, lift that half grown beasts of burden carried our camp equip- boy, heavier than herself, from couch ment. We are led by an Arab sheik to lounge. And so this sympathetic that shattered city, and I said to myself: with his black Nubian servant carrying Samaritan has, unaided, put the A'l this was done by poor music blest of ish Government which assures the safe- moving toward the tavern. "You feel at the sound of which the city surren- engineer to look out for obstructions taken out and cared for. better now, I think," says the Samaritan dered to destruction, but a rude instru- ahead, and before a porter could be sent | The list of the more severely injured We cross the Jehoshaphat valley to the Hebrew. "Yes," he says, "I do which, if it had not been memorable in feel better." "Halloo! you, landlord! history and were only now discovered, help me carry this man in and make would excite the admirat on of all who him comfortable." That night the look upon it. It is like the gorges of Samaritan sat up with the Jew, giving the Yosemite or the chasms of the Yel- him water whenever he felt thirsty and lowstone park. The sides of this Je- turning his pillow whenever it got hot, hoshaphat valley are tunneled with and in the morning before the Samarigraves and overlooked by Jerusalem tan started on his journey he said: walls-an eternity of depths overshad- "Landlord, now I am obliged to go. owed by an eternity of architecture. Take good care of this man and I will Within sight of Mount Olivet and Geth- be along here soon again and pay you semane and with the heavens and the for all you do for him. Meanwhile here earth full of sunshine, we start out on is something to meet present expenses." the very road mentioned in the text The "two pence" he gave the landlord when it says: "A certain man went sounds small, but it was as much as what mightier things could be accom- severe bruises about the body and head. down from Jerusalem to Jericho and $10 here and now, considering what it plished by the blessings of God on good fell among thieves." No road that I would there and then buy of food and music, I said to myself: Ministers have places on this road where a highway- scene of mercy had occurred, and just music? Oh. for a campaign of Old John Driscoll, Osage, Kan., left leg W. F. Jones, mail agent, Kansas City. se and overpower an having passed along the road where the Hundrel! Oh, for a brigade of Mount unarmed pilgrim. On this road to-day tragedy had happened, I could, as Pisgahs! Oh, for a cavalry charge of we met groups of men who, judging plainly as I now see the nearest man to Coronations! Oh, for an army of Antifrom their countenances, have in their this platform, see the Bible story re-en- ochs and St. Martins and Ariels! Oh, veins the blood of many generations of acted, and said aloud to our group un- for enough orchestral batons lifted, to lision occurred at 4:40 yesterday morn- bruises about the head. at one time discharged from the service Christianity is worth more than a surrounded by poor music for seven of the temple 40,000 men and that the temple full of ecclesiasticism, and that days and was conquered, so let ourearth great part of them became robbers. So good Samaritan had more religion in be surrounded seven days by Gospel late as 1820, Sir Frederick Henniker, five minutes than that minister and an English tourist, was attacked on this Levite had in a lifetime, and the most very road from Jerusalem to Jericho accursed thing on earth is national never been any scarcity of bandits along. America where Gentile and Jew, Protestant and Catholic can live together With the fresh memory of some recent | without quarrel, and where, in the great violence in their minds Christ tells the National crucible, the differences of sect and cut. We encamped for lunch that cident of the good Samaritan, "Who is region being these waters. noon close by an old stone building. my neighbor?" is bringing for the said to be the tavern where the scene answer: "My neighbor is the first man spoken of in the Bible culminated. I meet in trouble," and a wound close Tumbled in the dust and ghastly with at hand calls louder than a temple sevwounds the victim of this highway rob- enteen miles off, though it covers nine-

I saw in London the vast procession Bible says the people passed by on which one day last January moved to St. Paul's cathedral at the burial of that There were 12,000 priests living at Christian here, Lord Napier. The day Jericho and they had to go to Jerusalem after at Hawarden, in conversation on to officiate at the temple. And one of various themes, I asked Mr. Gladstone these ministers of religion, I suppose, if he did not think that many who were was on his way to the temple service under the shadow of false religions and he is startled as he sees this bleed- might not nevertheless be at heart realing victim in the middle of the road. ly Christian. Mr. Gladstone replied: "O," he says, "here is a man that has "Yes; my old friend Lord Napier who been attacked of thieves." "Why don't was yesterday buried, after he returned you go home?" says the minister. The from his Abyssinian campaign, visited man in a comatose state makes no us here at Hawarden and, walking in answer, or, with a half dazed look, puts this park where we are now walking, he his wounded hand to his gashed fore- told me a very beautiful incident. He head and drawls out "What?" "Well," said: 'After the war in Africa was over, says the minister, "I must hurry on to we were on the march and we had a solmy duties at Jerusalem. I have to kill dier with a broken leg who was not a lamb and two pigeons in sacrifice to- strong enough to go along with us and day. I can not spend any more time we did not dare to leave him to be taken with this unfortunate. I guess some- care of by savages, but we found we body else will take care of him. But were compelled to leave him and we this is one of the things that can not be went into the house of a woman who helped, anyhow. Besides that, my was said to be a very kind woman, business is with souls and not with though of the race of savages, and we bodies. Good morning. When you get said: "Here is a sick man, and if you well enough to sit up I will be glad to will take care of him till he gets well see you at the temple" And the min- we will pay you very largely." and then ister curves his way out toward the over- we offered her five times that which purpose, and the news came to the hanging sides of the road and passes, would ordinarily be offered, hoping audience in the theater as some You hypocrite! One of the chief offices by the excess of pay to secure of religion is to heal wounds. You for him great kindness. The woman might have done here a kindness that replied: "I will not take care of him would have been more acceptable to for the money you offer. I do not God than all the incense that will smoke | want your money. But leave him here, up from your censer for the next three and I will take care of him for the sake weeks and you missed the chance. Go of the love of God." Mr. Gladstone on your way, execrated by the centu- turned to me and said: "Dr. Talmage, don't you think that 'though she be-Soon afterward a Levite came upon longed to a race of savages, that was the scene. The Levites looked after pure religion?" And I answered: "I the music of the temple and waited upon do; I do." May God multiply all the the priests and provided the supplies world over the number of good Samari-along this road where we are to-day, In Philadelphia a young woman was took a look at the masses of bruises and dying. She was a wreck. Sunken into laceration in the middle of the road. the depths of depravity, there was no "My! My!" says the Levite, "this man lower depth for her to reach. Word els mansions, and all the funerals bridal is awfully hurt and he ought to be came to the midnight mission that she processions, and all the blood of war half a mile when, rounding a curve, it helped. But my business is to sing in was dying in a haunt of iniquity near was turned into dahlias, and all the the choir at the temple. If I am not there no one will carry my part. Beside that, there may not be enough fused, saying: "I dare not go there."

was dying in a naunt of iniquity near groans became anthems, Dante's "Interest of the Christ of Mary Magdalen? This one refused, saying: "I dare not go there." frankincense for the censers and the A Christian woman, her white locks wine or oil may have given out, and typical of her purity of soul, said: "I what a fearful balk in the service that will go and I will go now." She went would make. Then one of the priests and sat down by the dying girl and to d might get his breast plate on crooked. of the Christ who came to seek and save But it seems too bad to leave this man that which was lost. First to the forin this condition. Perhaps I had better lorn one came the tears of repentance, try to staunch this bleeding and give and then the smile as though she had him a little stimulant. But, no! The begun to hope for pardon of Him who ceremony at Jerusalem is of more im- came to save to the uttermost. Then, portance than taking care of the wounds just before she breathed her last she of a man who will probably soon be said to the angel of mercy bending over dead anyhow. The highway robbery her pillow: "Would you kiss me?" "I ought to be stopped, for it hinders us will," said the Christian woman, as she Levites on our way up to the temple. put upon her cheek the last salutation There, I have lost five minutes already! before in the heavenly world. I think Go along, you beast!" he shouts as he God gave her the welcoming kiss. That strikes his heels into the side of the was religion! Yes, that was religion. animal carrying him, and the dust ris- Good Samaritans along every street, ing from the road soon hides the hard and along every road, as well as this one on the road to Jericho. But our procession of sight seers is this road. You can not expect him to do again in line, and here we pass through any thing by way of alleviation, because a deep ravine and I cry to the dragohe and the wounded man belong to dif- man: 'David, what place do you call ferent nations which have abominated this?" and he replied: "This is the each other for centuries. The wounded brook Cherith, where Elijah was fed by man is an Israelite and the stranger the ravens" And in that answer he now coming on this scene of suffering overthrew my life-long notions of the is a Samaritan. They belong to nations place where Elijah was waited on by which hated each other with an objur-gation and malediction diabolic. They had opposition temples, one on Mount ground and a stream fordable, and per-Gerizim and the other on Mount Mo- hape fifteen feet wide. But here was rish, and I guess this Samaritan when a chasm that an earthquake must have he comes up will give the fallen Israelite another clip and say: "Good for you!

I will just finish the work these bandits began, and give you one more kick that

Liput you one more kick that say the Samaritan as he pounds the for a half-dears. Elijaha. No thanks to fallon Israelite. the ravens; they are carniverous and No; the Samaritan rides up to the would rather have picked out the eyes scene of suffering, gets off the beast and of Elijah, whom they found at the steps down and looks into the face of | mouth of his cave on the side of Cherith

On the evening of December 6 we walked amid the brick and mortar of God, for it was not a harp or a flute, or ment making rude music blest of God, to the demolition of that wicked place which had for centuries defied the Almighty. And I sa'd, if all this was by the blessing of God on poor music, what mightier things could be done by the blessing of God on good music, gospel music. If all the good that has already been done by music were subtracted from the world, I believe three-fourths of its religion would be gone.

Seated by the warmth of our campfires that evening of December 6, amid shead. The injured are: the bricks and debris of Jericho, and been doing a grand work, and sermons knees Since died. music, and the round planet will all be taken for God.

While our evening meal is being preand shot and almost slain. There has prejudice, and I bless God that I live in pared in the tents we walk out for a moment to the "Fountain of Elisha," the one into which the prophet threw the salt, because the waters were poisonous and bitter, and lo! they became people of the good Samaritan who came and tribe and people are being molded sweet and healthy; and ever since, with along that way and took care of a poor into a great brotherhood, and that the gurgle and laughter, they have rushed fellow that had been set upon by vil- question which the lawyer flung at down the hill and leaped from the rocks, two trains dashed into each other, and lainous Arabs and robbed and pounded Christ, and which brought forth this in- the only cheerful object in all that

> Now on this plain of Jericho the sun is setting, making the mountains look like balustrades and battlements of amber and maroon and gold, and the moon, just above the crests, seems to be a window of Heaven through which immortals might be looking down upon the scene. Three Arabs as watchmen sit beside the camp fire at the door of my tent, their low conversation in a strange language all night long a soothing thanrather an interruption. I had a dream that night never to be forgotten that dream amid the complete ruins of Jericho. Its past grandeur returned and I saw the city as it was when Mark Antony gave it to Cleopatra and Herod bought it from her. And I heard the hoofs of its swift steeds and the rumexcited spectators in its amphitheater. slight The region round about the city walls seemed to me white with cotton such as Thenius described as once growing there, and sweet with sugar cane and luscious with orange and figs and pomegranates, and redolent with such flora as can only grow where a tropical sun kisses the earth. And the hour came back to me when in the midst of all that splendor Herod died commanding his sister Salome immediately after his death to secure the assassination of all the chief Jews whom he had brought to the city, and shut up in a circus for that | seriously. dead! Herod is dead!" Then in my cific train. The sleeper for the Kansas

one took the stage and announced to leave at nine p.m., was an hour late to the excited multitude: "Herod is owing to the wait for the Georgia Padream all the pomp of Jericho van- City train had not been attached, but ished and gloom was added to gloom, when the Georgia Pacific train arrived sioner of Pensions with the approval of and desolation to desolation, and woe to the depotmaster signalled the Kansas Assistant Secretary Bussey, issued the woe, until, perhaps the rippling waters | City train to get out of the way. The of the fountain of Elisha suggesting it conductor of the Kansas City train was -as sound will some times give direction the sleeper, but the engineer, John tion to a dream-I thought the waters Russell, of the Kansas City train, unof Christ's salvation and the fountains | derstood the depotmaster's signal "open for sin and uncleanness," were to go ahead, and pulled out for rolling through that plain, and rolling | Memphis. He arrived at Ensley City across that continent, and rolling across | before he discovered that he had left the earth, until on either side of their banks all the thorns became flowers, and all the deserts gardens, and all the hovmerged by "Paradise Regained," and tears became crystals, and cruel swords came out of the foundries glistening plowshares, and, in my dream, at $25,000. He had always borne an unthe blast of a trumpet the prostrated walls of Jericho rose again. And some one told me that as these walls in Joshua's time at the sound of the trumpets of doom went down, now at the sounding trumpet of the Gospel they come up again. And I thought a man appeared at the door of my tent, and I said: "Who are you, and from whence have you come?" and he said: "I am the alleged los ns were bogus. Samaritan you heard of at the tavern on the read from Jerusalem to Jericho, as taking care of the man who fell among thieves, and I have ust come from healing the last wound of the last unfortunate in all the earth." And I rose from my pillow in the tent to greet him, and my dream broke and I realized it was agreed to advance express rates begin-only a dream, but a dream which shall ning November 1. The basis for all

"Why do you kiss me on the forehead, Perseus?" murmured the maiden. "A kiss on the forehead denotes revereace for the intellect and you know I haven't much intellect." "I know it Andromeda," said the sophomore, loftily, "but I—or rever-ence what you have, you know."—Chi-

Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without

end. Amen "

A DAY OF WRECES.

Three Terrible Rallroad Accidents in One Day.

Prightful Collision of Union Pacific as Book Island Trains at Kansas City-Collision in a Kentucky Tunnel-Atother in Alabame.

WRECK AT KANSAS CITY. KANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 23.-A tallcific main line at 7:10 o'clock yesterday O'Connell, of Chicago, will probably morning just inside of the western city | die. City is ten minutes. The Union The passengers were thrown together Pacific train is due here at into a confused mass of humanity. at seven. Union Pacific train No. 204 that no immediate deaths resulted. back with a flag the Rock Island ex- is as follows: Pullman sleeping car Wathena.

Immediately after the wreck the scene sengers having been suddenly throws jured. from their positions and landed withsafety, rushed frantically out of both juries. trains to see what was the matter.

The fog was intense and an object severe scalp wounds. could not be distinguished ten feet Mrs. George Torey, Fresno, Cal., back J. H. Grayson, conductor Pullman thinking what poor music has done and car, Wathena, left ankle sprained and Q, bruised about the body. Edward Jackson, colored, Edwards bruised. ville, Kan., both legs broken below the

J. A. Lapshire, Lincoln, Neb., rebroken below the knee. Fred Wright, theatrical agent, in ured. IN A KENTUCKY TUNNEL.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.—A disastrous colin a tunnel, a quarter of a mile north of Sloan's Valley station. The trains involved were freight No 22, northbound, agent, legs slightly mashed. and passenger No. 5, southbound. When the first Cincinnati train passed south the crew of the freight appear to have overlooked the fact that No. 5 was head badly cut. to follow, and they pulled out and started northward. Less than a quarter shoulder badly sprained. of a mile away they entered a tunnel which is one-sixth of a mile long. In the most hopeless place that trainmen ever met death, the engines of the cut and severe bodily contusion. the cars following, jammed into each horror of conflagration.

afternoon, making six victims of the scians. tunnel collision on the Cincinnati Welsh, Somerset, Ky.; Fireman Gould, Ludlow, Ky.; Brakeman John E. Mont- to relieve the suffering. gomery, Albany, N. Y.: Postal Clerk C. senger Ed. P. Ruffner, Cincinnati.

Somerset, Ky., severe; Postal Clerk J. beyond doubt. G. Cayle, Cincinnati, severe; Baggagemaster John R. Long, Newport, Ky., severe; W. D. Wheeler, New Orleans, A Girl Frozen to Death in a Storm in New in charge of a museum freak known as "Wild Roso," both slightly injured; bling of its chariots and the shouts of Arch Murphy, Madison County, Ind., old daughter were going from Folsom

STILL ANOTHER. BIRMINGHAM, Ala, Oct 23.-A terri- hind with another. ble collision occurred on the Kansas They were overtaken by a blizzard City, Memphis & Birmingham road at when about half way home. The father Ensley City, two miles out, at 10:30 reached home in safety and was horri-Tuesday night. Two men were killed fied to find that his daughter had not outright and a number were wounded. yet arrived. She had lost her way in The dead and wounded were brought to the blinding storm. this city at a late hour.

The dead are L. D. Franklin, drummer, of Nashville; John Kilian, fireman. | ing for the lost girl. She was found persons were injured, a number quite home frozen to death. She had man-

The Kansas City passenger train, due the sleeper and Conductor Poppham, and without hesitating immediately started back to Birmingham at forty miles an hour. The train had not gone

Bogus Loan Operator. HARVARD, Ill., Oct. 23. - Charles Armpires that for years he has been practicing systematic frauds. He bad carried on a general collection and loaning business, besides being a justice of the Express Bates Increased NEW YORK, Oct 22.-It was learned yesterday that at a meeting held Monbecome a glorious reality as surely as God is true and Christ's gospel is the world's Catholicon. 'Glory be to the is $3 per 100 pounds. Under the new Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy tariff it will be $2.50. Rates will be ad-Philadelphia, Baltimore and all other seaboard points west of Buffalo, Salamance and Pittsburgh.

> Attempted Tre a Wreckie KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22 -- At nine clock last night an attempt was made to wreck a Buriington train at Liberty.
>
> A cit son of Liberty named George > Smith was crossing the tracks a short > distance west of the depot when
>
> distance west of the depot when y engaged in leasening the mile. He heatily went up town and notified the police, but when they

ANOTHER BAD WRECK.

A Red Wrest to a waste Se I succe Train-Many Pasoragors Injured But None EMed-One May Pundby Die. Topena, Kan., Oct. 28.-The Denver restibule express on the Atchison, Topeks & Santa Fe road, which left Kanone City at 10:35 o'clock yesterday morning, jumped the track on the reverse curve at Wakarusa at 1:30 in the afternoon while the train was running fifty miles an bour and the most disastrous wreck which the Santa Pe has had for years was the result

the ruins of ancient Jericho, which fell in the early morning hours of yester- day coach was thrown to the opposite peks, by virtue of a twenty year lease, together. From the engine, which

6:50 o'clock and the Rock Island which makes it all the more remarkable was about twenty minutes late and had As soon as the passengers who were slowed up near Fourteenth street in re- uninjured could scramble from the a clapping cymbal, or an organ played, sponse to a torpedo signal warning the windows of the cars the wounded were > press bore down and telescoped the Hann Lindsay, Topeka, broken jaw and badly bruised. Kate C. O'Connell, 7 Forty-seventh was one of wild confusion. Sleepy pass street, Chicago, head cut and back in-

> Mrs. W. C. Peaslee, Telluride, Col., out reference to personal comfort or teeth knocked out and slight bodily in-Mrs. E. M. Peaslee, Telluride, Col.,

bruised and badly shaken up Mrs Jane MacFarland, Carroll Hill, S. Sylvester, Milton, Col., knee badly C. F. Farrington, Lisbon, Ill, d slocated collar bone.

J. J. Buckley, rear brakeman, severely bruised. jured internally but will recover. J. W. Fadely. mail agent, Kansas City, bruised.

Harry Stone, mail agent, Kansas City, Rob Roys Josephus says that Herod der the tent: One drop of practical marshal all nations! As Jericho was ing on the Cincinnati Southern railway F. L. Terry, express messenger, Kansas City, injured in the spine. T. J. Johnson, Kansas City, baggage Miss McFarland, severely shocked, producing nervous prostration. Miss Elizabeth Stich, Switzerland,

> Mrs. Labette Stiebl, Switzerland. Mrs. W. J. McClure, Kansas City, arm bruised. Mrs. L. E. White, Oakland, Cal., arr

There were probably a dozen more passengers who received severe shock other in a mass. Then came the added and slight bruises, but none of them were seriously enough injured to re-Engineer John Pimlott died yesterday | quire particular attention from the phy-The people from the little town of Southern road as follows: John Pim- Wakarusa turned out en masse to assist lott engineer, Detroit, Mich.; Fireman the wounded. Coffee and lunches were prepared and every thing possible done Railroad men declare that had the

L. Doegen, Cincinnati; Express Mes- train not been vestibuled at least half of the 150 passengers would have been The injured-Engineer Pat Taylor, killed, as the cars would have telescoped

THE FIRST BLIZZARD.

RATON, N. M., Oct 25 - Monday even-Miss Ollie Getty, Dayton, Tenn., slight; ing William Nich and his sixteen-yearto the ranch. The girl was driving a team ahead, while her father came be-

The blizzard continued through the night, so little could be done in search-In addition to the killed twenty-six yesterday about ten miles from hor aged to unbitch the borses and turn The collision occurred in this manner: them loose before she became exhausted.

PENSION ORDER.

The Rating For Physical or Mental Die WASHINGTON, Oct. 95. - The Commisfollowing: Order No. 164, in regard to fixing rates of ensions under the act of June 25, 18.0: That all claimants under the act of June 199), showing a mental or physical disability or disabilities of permanent character not the result of their own victous habite, and which incapacitates them from performing of manual labor. rendering them unable to earn a support in such a degree as would be rated under former laws at or about $4 and less than $12. shall be rated the same as like disabilities of service origin and that all cases showing a pensionable disability which, if of service origin, would be rated at or about $11 per was crashed into by an outgoing freight, month shall be rated at $12 per month.

Goose and Green Goods. NEW YORK, Oct 24 -John Rothschild forty years one of Harvard's most prom- Byrnes that green goods men in New inent citizens, has proved to be a de- York have been swindling him; that he faulter, having robbed his clients of sent in response to circulars from sevblemished reputation, but not it trans- promised him $100 each in genuine bills "printed from plates stolen from the Treasury." Now he is walting for the "green goods" that never came. He asks Inspector Byrnes to help punish peace. He loaned large sums of money, making thirteen loans for Joseph Sooth-ill, ranging from $400 to $1.000 each. Investigation showed that all his recent Hunt, 150 Third avenue, and H. Frank, Flushing, L L

The "Maple Leaf's" New Extrasion OMANA: Neb. Oct 25.-John N. Egan. day at the American Express Company's of St. Paul, president and general man-office by the principal officers of the larger of the Chicago, St. Paul & Kandifferent express companies, it was see City railroad, arrived in the city and was in conference during the day with offic als and others interested in the extension of the line to this place. He said: "We are considering several routes, one running south of the Rock Island road through the southern tier vanced 50 cents from Boston, New York, of Iowa counties and another north of the Rock Island route. We have not decided which to select but will use one of them, and that very shortly."

> Silven City, K. M., Oct. 25.—The moops who were called out to pursue quested spet near the scene of the nur-der early in the meruing. A conflict council but the Judians bust off their es after two of them had been

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pieusing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect luxuities and most gentle diuretic known.

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND BODA. The patient suffering from

CONSUMPTION. BEOVERITIS, COUCH, COLD, OR WASTING BISEASEN, may take the remedy with as much satisfaction as he would take milk. Physicians are prescribing it everywhere. It is a perfect emulsion, and a wooderful flesh producer. Take no other DiBULLS UNITE HEMEDY PRICE Salvation Oil "Killeall Pate.

YOUR PEEL | newtly reduced in size by one package of Dr. Afraud's sample machine by mail on receipt of price. Agreed sealed, Sic. Pamphiet Free. Sample package one wanted. Write for Circulars. HOME EMBROIDERY MACHINE CO. Assess Chy, Kaness.

BE UP

Elifs Cream Balm C

EVERY WATERPROOF COLLAR OR CUFF THAT CAN BE RELIED ON

HEEDS NO LAUNDERING. CAN BE WIPED CLEAR IN A MOMENT, THE ONLY LINEN-LINED WATERPROOF COLLAR IN THE MARKET.

DISO'S REMEDY FOR CATAKER-Best. Encirct to use.

IMPORTANT NEW DISCOVERY

A perfectly pure and neutral seap combinities EMOLLIEST and MEALING properties FORWARD 10 CERTS IN STAMPS, and we WILL SIZED CARE BY MAIL, POSTAGE PAID. CHESEBROUGH MANUPACTURING CO. 24 State Street, NEW YORK.

HOME EMBROIDERY MACHINI Every Lady Wants It. Every Lady Can Use It.

WANT THIS PAPER over the per west

W. BAKER & CO. Dorebester, Mass $500 REWARD

5 TON WAGON SCALE, 860 to not equal to any made, and a standard reliable scale. For particulars, address only Jones of Binghamton, Binghamton, R.Y.

"No other Weekly Paper gives such a Variety of Entertaining and Instructive Roading at so low a prior." THE YOUTH'S OMPANION

Illustrated Serial Stories.

Suleika; by Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen. The Heygood Tea Service; by Elisabeth W. Bellin

The Serial Stories engaged for the year will be of unusual interest and Finely Manier Through Thick and Thin; by Molly Elliot Seawell. Nepigon; by C. A. Stephens. Kent Hampden; by Rebecca Harding Devis.

Army Life and Adventure. A Phenomenal Scout; by Gen. O. O. Howard. Reading Indian "Sign;" by Gen. John Gibbon.

Hunting Large Game; by Gen. John R. Brooke.

In Big Horn Canon; by Gen. James S. Brisbin.

Naval Life and Adventure Adventures of a Middy; Admiral David D. Port Powder Monkeys; by Admiral B. B. A Chat about Samoa; by Admiral L. A. Overland in a Man-of-War: Adm

Latest Discoveries in Science.

This Series of Papers explains in a simple manner the recent researches of the greatest The Stars; by J. Norman Lockyer, F. R. S. The Moon; by Prof. E. S. Holden. The Earth; by Prof. N. S.

College Athletic Sports. By Harvard, Princeton and Yale Captains.

R. W. Herrick. College Boat-racing; by Foot-Ball at Princeton; by

The Ocean; by Camille Flammarion. The Sun; by Prof. C. A. To

E. A. Poe. Base-Ball: Matches Lost and Won; by A. A. Stagg.

How to Choose a College. Four Articles of great value to any young man considering a College Education; by Pres. Seth Low. Hor. Andrew D. White. Prof. Geldwin Smith. Pres. Metrill E. Gates.

Important Articles.

The Success at the Bar of Famous Lawyers; by Lord Coleridge, Chief Justice of England. Sir Morell Mackensie, M. D. Incidents in the Lives of Famous Surgeons; by Prominent Railroad Officiale. Railway Stories by Railway Men; by Jules Verne's Boyhood, telling how he became a Story Writer; by Jules Verne.

Among the Highland Peasantry; by The Marquis of Lorne. Illus. by The Princess Louise.

How can She make the most of Her Voice? A remarkable series of papers written expressly for THE COMPANION by the following famous singers: Madame Albani. Miss Marie Van Zandt.

Madame Lillian Nordica.

Miss Emma Juch.

The Girl with a Taste for Music. Thrown on Her Own Resources What can a Girl of Sixteen do? A Series of Four practical and helpful Articles, which will prove suggestive and valuable to any giel; by

"Jenny June." Amelia E. Barr. Mary A. Livermore. " Marion Harland." And other Favorite Writers.

Household Articles will be published frequently, giving useful information in the various departments of home life,—Art Work, Fancy Work, Embroidery, the Decoration of Rooms, the Care of Plants, Cocking, and Hints on Househooping. FREE TO JAN., 1891.

Weekly Editorials on Current Events at home and abroad. A Charming Children's Page Every Week.

Post-Office address and $1.75, we will send The Youth's Companion PEES to January 1, 1501, and for a Pail Your from that Date. This offer includes the PIVE DOUBLE HOLIDAY NUMBERS and all the ILLEWPRATED WEEKLY BUPPLENENTS, Send Check, Ped-ofer Order, or Englished Letter.

Miss Emma Nevada.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass. Comes Recry Week. - Finely Blustrated. - Read in 410,000 Families.

ock, dipot and pointleb. Ty of Wholesome food. Th A Hoted Divine says:

Tutt's Liver Pills

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING.