Republican National Ticket.

For President, BENJ. HARRISON,
or Vice-President, WHITELAW REID,
For Congressman 1st District, W. H. ANDREWS.

In the coming campaign republicans should put forward only their best men, men who are noted for their good qualities. On such a basis we can win and will win, for as certain as fate, Webster county will be redeemed this fall with the right kind of men as standard bearers.

Our old and honored friends Dr. C. Schenk and wife, have concluded to move to Riverton. The aged couple have lived in Webster county for years and have numerous friends who will be sorry to have them leave the county. THE CHIEF wishes the doctor and wife many years of life and happiness in their declining days.

The "Windy-pendants" have finally passed the trying ordeal and have selected that well-known office seeker, General Weaver of Iowa to lead them, and an ex-confederate general named Field of Virginia as vice-president. Never was there a more consummate office seeker than Weaver and all under the guise of a reformer. Having been kicked out of the republican party it was natural for him at that time to join the greenback cause hoping to gain what he could not get in the republican party i. e. office. The ticket is very weak.

There is no public officer in the state of Nebraska that is doing more work for the state and government than is Senator Paddock. He is one of the hardest working senators in the senate. He is always found in his seat watching the interests of his constituency and in doing so does and should merit the approbation of our entire people. An earnest man in the halls of congress is what the people should desire, and Senator Paddock is certainly that man.

We advise all our readers to procure "Marshall's Manual of Health." This valuable book should be in every home. It is a masterpiece of science. Sent free on application to Marshall Chemical Mfg. Co., Kansas City, Mo., or Lawrence, Kas. For sale by L. H. Deyo.

As a result of the strike at the Homestead Mills at Pittsburg 35 or 40 Pinkerton men and strikers were killed and wounded. The rioters numbering 8000 opened fire on 250 Pinkerton men who came up the river on barges to protect the mill and came near wiping out the whole number. It was a bloodthirsty affair. We do not much blame the working men for pelting the Pinkertons, but at the same time men who can not gain their cause by other methods than spilling human blood are not to be pitied much. The law should be strong enough to protect all—both the weak and the strong—and if it is not, then it is time to see that new laws are made. The following are the DEAD AND WOUNDED WORKMEN.

The following workmen are among the killed:
John Morris, married, shot through the head.
Henry Streigel unmarried, shot through the neck.
Marko Wosky, Hungarian, shot through the breast.
Andrew Streigel, brother of Henry, shot through the chest.
Martin Foy, leaves a wife and five children.
William Fry.
Reuben Goresst, shot through the heart.
David Stutter.
Silas Wayne.

The following are wounded so far as learned:
Miles Loughran, dying, shot through the legs and hips.
Joe Bitta, shot through the leg.
A. Dewider, two bullet wounds.
Michael Murray, dangerously.
Andrew Bourler, seriously.
John Kane, badly.
Harry Hughes, slightly.
Two unknown men, badly.
THE PINKERTON KILLED AND WOUNDED.
Only one Pinkerton man has succumbed to his wound so far.
S. W. Kline, shot in the head.
Captain F. Hein, who had charge of the Pinkerton men, was taken to a hospital at Pittsburg with four wounded companions. The list is as follows:
Captain Hein, shot in the leg, will recover.
Russell Wells, shot in the shoulder.
J. G. Hoffman, shot in the leg.
David Lester shot in the head; condition serious.
Another wounded man, shot in the arm was left at the hospital, his name is unknown.
Another wounded man will arrive later.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.

Bring in your old worn-out mowing machines and rake teeth and get work or cash for them.
50-4s G. W. Dow.

Harvest has already begun. As far as we have heard the wheat crop is good.

Every Testimonial
In behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly true and will bear the closest investigation. No matter where it may be from, it is as reliable and worthy your confidence as if it came from your most respected neighbor. Have you ever tried this excellent medicine?

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

Persons wanting painting done will do well to call on Frank P. Hadley. Prices reasonable.

The glorious old Fourth passed off very quietly in R. C. Some of our citizens went to celebrations near by, many staid at home and made ice cream and took buggy rides and comfort generally. In the evening, fire works could be seen ascending the sky from different parts of town. Mr. Gangbin and Mr. Tennant brought up quite a lot of fire works from the city and had quite a nice display at the residence of THE NATION editor.

"Late to bed and early to rise will shorten the road to your home in the skies." But early to bed and a "Little Early Riser," the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. C. L. Cotting.
