For Congressman 5th District
W. E. ANDREWS.

The Superior Times has changed its politics and henceforth will be a democratic organ. It has simply taken off clean clothes and put on dirty ones.

"Bazzards' Bay" is a good place for democrats, and especially for Cleveland as that party's leader. It is, as it were, a fitting place for the democratic corpse, which is to be buried in November.

Water Commissioner Ward is putting in a new filter at the engine house. This will be a great benefit to water consumers. By the way people of Red Cloud should know that if they would use city water instead of well water there would not be half the danger of typhoid as there is in using well water.

THE CHIEF is favorably impressed with the candidacy of Randolph McNitt for county attorney. Mr. McNitt is a young man of more than ordinary ability as a lawyer, and the people of Webster county could do no better than nominate him for county attorney. We should be pleased to see him nominated.

After all of the bluster Ben Kehler of Blue Hill, a relative of Banker Kehler, has received his appointment to West Point, in the face of facts that several country boys passed better examinations. We don't understand why a banker's relative should be picked out to the exclusion of farmers' sons, unless a political debt had to be paid.

The Hon. Thos. Carter, at one time a resident of Red Cloud, and late of Montana, has been elected chairman of the National Republican committee. Mr. Carter's numerous friends in Red Cloud and Nebraska generally, extend hearty congratulations. Mr. Carter is a man of great ability and will safely guide the Republican ship to a safe harbor in November, and that harbor will be Washington D. C., and the captain will be Ben Harrison.

As far as General Weaver is concerned he is not in the race. He will not carry a state. Weaver is a noted office seeker and has been a candidate for one office or another ever since we can remember. Just how the Windypunks can vote for an office seeker in the face of their oft repeated assertions that, "no office-seeker need apply," is beyond the comprehension of modern politicians. Yet, apparently they are like a hen with its head off, they can keep up a clucking. The independents, with a good man, might have made a showing this fall, but with Weaver there is no hope for them.

Institute Notes.

The members of our institute were made happy Friday, July 8, by a visit from Hon. A. K. Goudy and Mrs. Alice Goudy, our state Superintendent and Dept. State Superintendent. The presence of these visitors with encouragement to the teachers added greatly to the interest in the work of the institute. Supt. Goudy's talk to the institute was according to his own style. A talk of his, needs only to be heard to be appreciated.

Rev. J. D. Puli's lecture to the teachers on Tuesday evening, July 12 on the subject "The Character and Spirit of Teaching," was one of the best that the teachers have had the pleasure of having.

On Wednesday, July 13th, Prof. W. E. Andrews, of Hastings College, Manager of the State Teachers' Reading Circle, delivered a lecture in the Methodist church on the subject, "Our Public School—their Debt to their people."

The audience we believe was the largest that ever assembled in Red Cloud to hear an educational lecture. Although the weather was extremely warm, the speaker held the attention of the audience for one hour and a quarter. We shall not quote from the lecture as we could not do justice to the speaker.

No one who had the privilege to hear him could help feeling impressed with the great importance of the public school system.

Once during the day, Prof. Andrews talked to the teachers concerning the Reading Circle and other educational work. His talk and lecture were highly appreciated by all who heard them.

The music at the various lectures was rendered by a choir composed of members of the institute, Miss Nellie West being organist. Although the time for practice was limited the music was good.

Among our visitors were Principal A. C. Hart of Franklin Academy, Prof. W. E. Andrews of Hastings College, Pres. J. F. Saylor of Lincoln Normal University, Mr. J. H. Miller, Editor of the N. W. Journal of Education, and Prin. H. H. Townsend of North Branch Academy. All of whom aided in increasing the progressive educational feeling of the members of the institute by practical talks on various subjects pertaining to school work.

Mr. W. Ducker very kindly allowed the use of his microscope and assisted in using it for the benefit of the physiology class. Seeing the circulation of the blood through a frog's foot was one of the many things that pleased the class greatly.

Seventy-two persons took part in the examination held last Friday and Saturday.

The regular work of the teachers in the institute closed on Thursday of last week. All interested in the work were satisfied with the institute, and many gave expression to the thought that it was the best that they had ever attended. The farewell talks of the instructors were short and well received by the teachers. The Superintendent was agreeably surprised by receiving an expression of the good will of the teachers towards him in the shape of a Teacher's Bible, a copy of "Complete Works of Shakespeare," and "America Illustrated" all nicely bound. His thanks could find no words for expression at the time, much to the amusement of the audience.

The following resolution were unanimously adopted by the institute:

WHEREAS; The Webster County Teachers' Institute has drawn to a close and as a token of our high esteem for those connected with this institute be it

Resolved, That we express our sincere thanks to our County Superintendent D. M. Hunter, for his kindness and his efforts to make this institute a success.

Resolved; That we express our thanks to our instructors Mrs. Manville, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Cass and Mr. Proboscio for their very efficient instruction, their kindness, patience and expressed sympathy for us in our work.

Resolved; That we extend our thanks to Miss West for kindness in furnishing us with instrumental music.

Resolved; That we extend our gratitude to Prof. Beatie, Rev. Pells and Prof. Andrews for their instructive and entertaining lectures.

Resolved; That we extend our thanks to Mr. Scammon for his kindness to the teachers in adding to our comfort and the faithful manner in which he performed his duties as janitor.

Resolved; That the thanks of the institute be extended to the Board of Education of Red Cloud for the use of the High School building and apparatus.

Resolved; That we extend our hearty thanks to the trustees of the Methodist and Baptist churches for the use of their building for lecture purposes.

Resolved; That we acknowledge our gratitude to the citizens of Red Cloud for their kind welcome and generous hospitality.

Committee, Miss NYE,
Miss BROWN,
Miss MARKER,
Mr. SPRINGER,
Mr. DRENBACH, Chairman of Com.

Many Thanks.

EDITOR CHIEF—The writer desires, through your columns, to thank the young preacher, who, from his pulpit, last Sunday evening, paid the young people of the Methodist church such a glowing compliment, though all unconsciously.

He said—"All the best workers among the young people of the Methodist church are in the Endeavor Society." What a compliment! Just the comparatively few weak ones who are working in the Epworth League, have been enabled to organize eight thousand local societies; they have been enabled to enroll in these six hundred thousand (600,000) members; have established and are publishing, weekly, the best young people's paper extant, having a bonded subscription list of sixty thousand (60,000) and all this within three years.

Yes, thanks for the compliment. The above are statistics of a week or two ago. So fast are we increasing in members it is hard to tell our numerical strength and moral influence by the time this appears in print.
