A CAREFUL computation of the cost A CAMEFUL computation of the cost of living in New York and Philadelphia has been made by Ward McAllister. The figures are made, of course, some-thing on the four hundred style of liv-ing. He finds that one lives as well in Philadelphis on $20,000 a year as an-other lives in New York on $40,000 a year. But to carry the computation year. But to carry the computation further it might be shown that ten men can build up an income of $40,000 a year in New York where one man can build an income of half that amount in Philadelphia.

THE Anneke Jans heirs again have something to talk about. It is given out that Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, pastor of Trinity parish, New York, has an income from his church fully as large us the salary of the president of the United States. All this money belongs to the heirs, and when they come into their rights somebody will have to suffer for the extravagance of the church. If each one of the heirs would write the doctor a letter of protest he would doubt" as willingly give up his office and salary.

LECTURING upon Gen. Charles Lee, of the revolution, Prof. John Fiske says that the erroncous impression that that officer was of the same family as Robert E. Lee is widely prevalent. Gen. Charles Lee, however, was born in England. He had a captain's commission at the age of 11, and served in Portugal, Turkey and the French and Indian wars of the American colonies before the revolution. In view of his treachery, Lee's capture by the British, Prof. Finke regards a blessing in disguise to the American cause.

A PAINTING of anasual interest was hung in the corridor of the Fifth avenue hotel the other day. It is the work of T. Buchsnan Reed, who wrote the poom, "Sheridan's Ride." The canvas of the painting is 5x7 feet. The picture characterizes Sheridan as he rode from Winchester "to save the day." Accompanying the painting is an autograph copy of the poem, framed in gold, signed by the poet-artist, underneath which is a small lock of the mane of the black horse, tied in a coll with a bit of white slik ribbon. The painting was finished in Rome in 1875. It the property of a young southerner, whose father purchased it on a visit to Italy fifteen years

NOVEMBER RETURNS.

The Department of Agriculture Issues It. Monthly Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 .- The crop returns of November to the department of agriculture indicate the yield of the year of the principal food products, and point approximately to the perfected estimates at the close of the year. The yield of corn averages by November returns 22.4 bushels per acre, and prom ises an aggregate production of a little more than 1,600,000,000 bushels, while the other great bread grain, wheat, by the returns of last month, pointed to a product, based on acreage investigation nearly perfected, not exceeding 500,-000,000, with a possibility of shrinkage in the spring and a certainty of light weight.

The estimated yield of potatoes is 62 bushels per acre. It is 83 in Maine, 63 in New York, 60 in Pennsylvania, 63 in Michigan, 70 in Minnesota, 51 in Iowa and 47 in Kansas. The crop is almost everywhere light, the tubers small as a rule, and rotting considerably in New York and throughout the west.

Not Disturbed By the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 .- The situation in regard to the national election is materially changed by more authentic returns received from a number of states. Ohio is found to have remained in the republican column by a small plurality, and later advices from California and Wyoming show that those states have cast their votes for Harri-
