

THE CHIEF

Circulation, Per Week, 1890. A. C. HOSMER, Editor. LABOR TAINT, Asst. Local Editor.

From Our Exchanges. Richard Ayers was in Red Cloud Monday.—Campbell Press.

Guy McMaster returned from Red Cloud Monday.—Franklin Press.

Miss Blanche McMaster went to Red Cloud Saturday evening.—Franklin Press.

Mrs. McMaster and son Guy, went to Red Cloud Thursday evening.—Franklin Press.

Rev. B. O. Snow was a Red Cloud visitor the fore part of the week.—Campbell Press.

D. L. Bisop spent Sunday at home. He left for Red Cloud Monday.—Franklin Press.

Geo. Miller made a business trip to Red Cloud Thursday evening returning Friday morning.—Franklin Press.

Mr. and Mrs. John Poliokey, of Red Cloud, are the guests of the Madison family to-day.—Superior Journal.

Mrs. J. P. Outson went to Red Cloud Wednesday morning and returned in the evening.—Riverton Guard.

I. Croley of Naponee, was at Superior recently. He reports the crops very poor beyond Red Cloud.—Franklin Press.

J. C. Keller, M. Schneider and Mr. Imm made an overland trip to Red Cloud on legal business last Monday.—Lawrence Locomotive.

Judging from some of the poetry in our exchanges, it would be worth a fortune to a man who will get us a gold cure for the poetry mania.—Sun, Superior.

Miss Slabby, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. V. H. Soliday, for a few weeks, returned to her home in Red Cloud, Wednesday evening.—McCook Tribune.

A Wellington, Kansas girl waved her hand at a stranger and in three days they were married. Two days later the young wife waved a flat iron at her husband, and the next evening he came home waving a divorce. What are the wild waves saying?—Ex

T. F. Meade had a horse killed by lightning during the storm Sunday evening, July 16th, which he had insured about two weeks before in the Home of New York. J. H. Smith, agent at Red Cloud and the adjuster, was up Monday and allowed him $85.—Riverton Guard.

A leader representative was at Red Cloud Thursday, and looked in upon that grand aggregation, known as the board of supervisors. They pumped wind all day and in the evening were just where they started. The taxpayers will pay their salaries just the same.—Blue Hill Leader.

With the present week the Red Cloud Chief starts on its 21st year. It approaches its majority a bright and shining luminary in the journalistic field, bristling all over with signs of prosperity. We hope Bro. Hosmer's pathway in the future will be strewn with more roses and less thorns.—Blue Hill Leader.

Ex Sheriff C. A. Teel was in the city Monday and called on the Leader. When invited to take a seat, we discovered that he was badly broken up and on inquiry found he had been mixed up in a runaway in which himself and wife were both badly bruised up, and their buggy reduced to a great many more pieces than necessary to build a vehicle of that character.—Blue Hill Leader.

The happiest man in the land to-day is a successful farmer. He sits contentedly under his own vine and fig tree, undisturbed by the maddening noises of the great city. Banks fail, railroads go into the hands of receivers, booming towns collapse, all business stagnates—but the wise farmer can snap his fingers at all these things. He is monarch of all he surveys on his broad acres.—Ex

Last week's issue of the Red Cloud Chief closed the twentieth year of its existence. It is now old enough to vote, and it is needless to state that it will vote the Republican ticket. THE CHIEF was born amid privations and hardships, and is a child of the "plains," possessed with all the pluck and progressiveness of a typical westerner. We wish Bro. Hosmer another twenty years of prosperity far better than that enjoyed in the past.—Superior Sun.

The Union Pacific is not alone in the maelstrom of hard times. The Burlington on August 13 will abandon some 1,700 miles of passenger service letting out in consequence at round houses, machine shops, between Plattsmouth and McCook inclusive, and St. Joe and Oxford between 300 and 500 men. The trains to be discontinued next Sunday on the Burlington are: Nos. 5 and 6 between McCook and Denver; Nos. 13 and 14 between Oxford and St. Joe; a branch train between Hastings and Oberlin; a branch train between Kearney and Kenesaw; one train between Pacific Junction and Lincoln; one train between Kansas City and Atchison.—Omaha Correspondence Lincoln Journal.

The following article taken from the Superior Sun in regard to the reunion, will be speeches:

The first speaker introduced was Rev. Chapin, of Red Cloud, who delivered a most powerful address, taking for his subject American liberty, and the dangers that beset it. He likened it to a powerful tree planted during the revolution, nourished and fed by the blood of American soldiers till it now towers to heaven in its strength. He stated that liberty has its enemies always, and that parasites by the score are now gnawing at the root of this tree, and that the time will come when the roots will again have to be cleared and washed in the blood of brave defenders to rid it of the parasites that are sapping its life blood and seeking to destroy it.

Speeches. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spunker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica salve cured him entirely. Sold at C. L. Cotting's drug store.

One of the leading men of Toledo sends to the Blade his analysis of the situation as follows. It is worth considering:

1892 Grandfather's big hat. Wheat $1 per bushel. Wool 20 cents per pound. Homestead labor $6 to $18 per day, and striking for more.

1893 Grover's big collar. Wheat 60 cents per bushel. Wool 10 cents per pound. Labor out of a job. Which did you vote for last fall?

Legal Notice. The Republican Valley Land Association, defendant, will take notice that on the 20th day of June, 1893, Alvin D. Gardner, the plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the county court of Webster county, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which are to obtain judgment against said defendant on account of money paid, laid out and expended by plaintiff for the use of said defendant and at its special instance and request, on the redemption of lands for the said defendant from tax liens, and one Jno. C. Mitchell, having been attached in said action as garnishee, plaintiff desires that all moneys, credits and effects of said defendant in his hands, or to be subjected to the payment of amount found due plaintiff in said cause. Plaintiff claims there is due him in said cause of action, the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars and interest.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 4th day of September, 1893. Dated July 24th, 1893. C. C. FLANSBURG, Atty. for Plaintiff.

Publication Notice. Land Office at Bloomington, Neb., July 25, 1893. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the clerk of the district court, at Red Cloud, Nebraska, on Saturday, September 2d, 1893, viz: Frank Stokes, Hd. App. No. 12329, for one 1/4 sec. 24, T. 2 N. R. 12 W. 4th P. M. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Alfred McCall, John E. Osborne, George W. Hummel, Oliver McCall, all of Red Cloud, Nebraska. O. G. BAILEY, Register.

Notice to Non-Residents. In the District Court of Webster County, Nebraska. Thomas G. Barton, vs. Hattie E. Feight, Harry Feight, James Walsh, The James Walsh Mercantile Co., J. Francis Smith, Trustees.

To the above named non-resident defendants: You are hereby notified that on the 20th day of July, 1893, plaintiff herein filed his petition in the district court of Webster county, Nebraska, against you, impounded with the other defendants named in the title of said cause, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by the defendants, Hattie E. Feight and Harry Feight, to E. W. Miller, and afterwards assigned to plaintiff upon the following described premises: Lot three (3) in block one (1) in Williams addition to the original town, now city of Red Cloud, Webster county, Nebraska, to secure the payment of a promissory note, dated August 23d, 1890, for the sum of five hundred and seventy-five dollars ($575) and due and payable one day after date; that there is now due upon said note and mortgage the sum of nine hundred and seventy-five dollars ($975), with interest at ten per cent per annum from June 20th, 1892. Plaintiff prays that a decree be entered in said cause, foreclosing said mortgage against you and your co-defendants; that the above described property be sold under said decree, that the proceeds of said sale be applied toward the payment of the amount, due the plaintiff upon said note and mortgage, with interest and costs of suit, and that any right, title, lien or interest owned or claimed by you, or either of you, or any of your co-defendants in or to said premises, be adjudged to be junior and inferior to the plaintiff's mortgage lien thereon, and that you and each of you be forever barred of all equity of redemption or other interest in said mortgage premises.

You are hereby notified that you are required to answer said petition on or before the 20th day of August, 1893, and if you fail to answer the same on or before said date, the facts and allegations contained therein will be taken as true and judgment and decree rendered as therein prayed.
