THE CHIEF takes pleasure in announcing that it will send THE CHIEF one year to every couple that gets married in Webster county from the first of September 1893, to the first of September 1894, free of charge, provided that they will send in their names to this office. It makes no difference whether they are rich or poor, white or black, or what, all that is required is to send the names in to this office with post office address and be married in Webster county.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—The new bank, which will be opened for business October 2d, will be run under the name of the "People's Bank" and is officered by the following well known gentlemen:

President.—J. L. Miner.

Cashier.—Walter Sherwood.

Assistant Cashier.—Hugh Miner.

The new bank will be run in the office of Miner Bros' store, and is incorporated under the laws of Nebraska and in conformity with the state banking laws, with a capital of $15,000, fully paid up. The board of directors will be as follows: J. J. Squier, Kansas City, Kansas; Walter Sherwood, Hugh Miner, and J. L. Miner, of Red Cloud. The institution will start out under the most favorable circumstances, having provided itself with all of the most approved banking fixtures and material, and its officers fully versed in banking. This will be an assurance of a good and sound banking business for the people of this city and vicinity. Mr. Miner, the president, is well and favorably known as a careful business man, having resided in Red Cloud about twenty years, while Walter Sherwood and Hugh Miner have excellent ability in that line. THE CHIEF takes pleasure in wishing the new enterprise success and prosperity, fully appreciating the fact that a city the size of Red Cloud ought to have more than one bank, and that the time is now mature for a new institution to start. THE CHIEF has no doubt of the result and bespeaks for "The Peoples' Bank" a good business in advance of its opening.

THE DEATH OF MRS. WIENER.—The very sad news reached here this week, of the death of Mrs. Wiener, wife of Mr. Chas. Wiener of this city while in Chicago, where she was taken a few weeks ago for the purpose of improving her health. She had been a great sufferer having been confined to her bed in Red Cloud for several months, and underwent two severe surgical operations, that finally and surely ebbed away her life. She was a very estimable lady and had many friends in this city who were greatly shocked over the announcement of her death. It was thought for a time that she would recover, but it seems that it was not to be, although the best of medical aid was at her side from the beginning of her illness, and the best possible care shown her in every respect. Mrs. Wiener came to Red Cloud with her husband in December, 1883, and remained here until a few weeks ago when she was taken to Chicago with the hope that she might find relief and ultimate recovery in a change of climate. Her death will be a great blow to her devoted husband, who in his sad bereavement, has the sympathy of the people of Red Cloud. The funeral services took place in Chicago on Wednesday of this week.

A SOCIAL EVENT.—Last Wednesday night, Charlie Dickerson gave a party at his home, which was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The evening was spent in games, music, and social enjoyment and at an opportune time refreshments were served in abundance. The guests were shown true hospitality and at a reasonable hour departed for their respective homes highly pleased with the enjoyable exercises and the courtesies shown them. Those present were the Misses Laura Smith, Flossie Ranney, Blanche Cummings, Lillie Waldron, Gertie Waldron, Dora Ward, Blanch Sellars, and Messrs. Dr. Fred McKeeby, Dr. Fred Chamberlain, Willie Mentgen, John and Charley Dickerson, and Bert Griffith.

THE CHIEF wishes to call the attention of its readers to that enterprising firm of dry goods merchants, in Red Cloud, who bear the firm name of G. A. Ducker & Co. This house has been in existence in Red Cloud some ten years and have done an honest and square business, and have day by day built up a lucrative trade such as many would feel proud of. Mr. Alfred Hadell, the resident manager and the "Co" part of the firm, is a thorough dry goods man and attends strictly to business. He understands the needs of his customers and always buys the best goods in the market and sells them at the very lowest notch. THE CHIEF can recommend this firm to its subscribers as one of the most reliable in the state. There is not a better dry goods house west of Lincoln. If you are in need go and see the firm and be assured of getting good goods at very low prices.

Once more a noble young man has broken the monotony of perennial celibacy by leading to the hymeneal altar one of Nebraska's fairest daughters. This time it is T. E. Penman, the affable and enterprising jeweler of Red Cloud, familiarly known to a majority of our people as genial "Tom" Penman whose sterling qualities and high social aspirations have endeared him to the many friends in his extensive acquaintance. The bride, Miss Jennie Blaine of Cowles, is of excellent parentage being the daughter of Capt. Blaine, a prominent citizen of Cowles, and cashier of the Cowles bank and is equally as well and favorably known as the gentleman who so prudently chose her as a partner for life. The marriage ceremonies occurred at the home of the bride's parents on last Wednesday and was attended by a number of relatives and friends, Elder H. D. Platt performed the nuptial rites in a pleasing and impressive manner after which the worthy couple were the recipients of many valuable presents and after receiving the hearty congratulations of those present, they came to Red Cloud, where they will make their future home. THE CHIEF wishes them a happy voyage in the new matrimonial craft.

On last Tuesday night, the members of the M. E. Church, assembled with their choir for the purpose of a church social, and to show their esteem for their pastor Rev. J. A. Chapin, whose pastorate with that church had concluded, and he about to assume another charge at another place. There was a large congregation present, and the choir rendered some acceptable anthems, when A. J. Willis, entered the church closely followed by the pastor wife and daughter; they then faced the audience and in a few words Mr. Willis indicated his regret of Rev. Chapin's departure, and expressed a desire that all present should extend a cordial hand shake and good-bye; to which Rev. Chapin replied in a few sentences remarks asserting his good feeling toward all, and his reluctance to leave the people with whom he had been so long and pleasantly connected. While the choir sang, the hand shaking went on in earnest and to those who know the pastor best, it was most pathetic and impressive. Rev. Chapin is a devout christian man, a fearless exponent of the gospel, and with his most estimable family has endeared himself to the church and community.

Remember that L. P. Albright sells more flour than any other store in Webster county. If you want flour see him, for he keeps the best.

WANTED: The people of Red Cloud and vicinity to remember that the new Painless Dental Parlor, 35 Hart-stay, at the opera house are here. Sherrill A. WEBER, D.D.S.

The people of Red Cloud, and not only they but others, should patronize home industries. For instance we have a good milling company in this city, and one that is making flour that is surpassed by none. When you want a sack of first-class flour call for Red Cloud's "Monogram" and you will never regret it, besides it keeps the money at home. Spend your money in Red Cloud and for Red Cloud products.
