LAWN FETE.—The Clio club held its annual reception at the home of its worthy president Mrs. C. W. Kaley, last Saturday evening. At a reasonable hour the gentleman guest of each lady made his appearance and all enjoyed crokinole until ten o'clock, when the program of the evening was begun. This consisted of animated conversations on ten subjects which had been carefully selected for the occasion. The gentlemen chose a lady for a three minutes talk on each topic, which proved so interesting that short seemed the tappings of the bell. Refreshments were served at the close of the program. All departed at a late hour expressing themselves as having enjoyed one of the most pleasant social events of the season.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the groom's parents, June 3, 1894. Mr. Albert Ducker of Sherwood, Kansas, and Miss Winnifred McMurphy of Sherwood, Kansas. Rev. George Hummel officiating. Mr. Albert Ducker is the youngest son of George Ducker. He is an enterprising young man and a successful farmer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurphy, one of the well known and highly esteemed young ladies of this place. After the wedding we sat down to a table well loaded with bounties of life, which is always found at Mr. Ducker's. There were present at the wedding many friends and relatives of this place and Red Cloud to witness the happy event. May their lives be long and happy, and a pleasant journey through life.

DOING THEIR BEST.—Under the limited resources that the city has at hand, they are doing their level best to get good water for the people. The water system is being overhauled from A to Izard and given a general renovating. On Wednesday and Thursday, Water Commissioner Pond cleaned out the south well, cleaned out the filter, fixed the suction pipes, &c., and if the people bear with him and the council, they will soon get the water in fair shape. The present council is not to blame for the condition they found the city water works in, neither are they to blame for the extravagant waste of many that has been sunk in holes in the ground at the engine house to the amount of nearly $7,000, but if let alone, will get the limited supply of good water in the best condition that they can, and then try and make some arrangement to better the system when the levy becomes available. The trouble with the water system heretofore has been that there has been no scientific search after water, but everything has been done without any perceptible knowledge of the condition of the surroundings, but rather on mere say, as to water sheds, cow sheds, or some other shed. The "cow sheds" we have, but the water sheds that are supposed to be lurking in that vicinity are a minus quantity, and we are still drinking water that is unfit to run through a cow pasture. As soon as the council can, they should make a test for water in some other locality.

THE ALUMNI BANQUET.—After the commencement exercises were over last Friday night, the graduates were received at the Masonic hall by the Red Cloud Alumni. Games were at once in order and graduates, ex-graduates, teachers and all enjoyed an exceedingly pleasant hour. The supper was announced at which the following toasts were given: "The Sheep skin," Mr. J. W. Tulleya. "Our Bark is Launched," Mr. D. I. Pope.
The tie that binds, Mr. D. M. Garber.
Auld Lang Syne, Mrs. Hurley.
School Memories, Miss Maude Greenlee.
Education, as seen by an alumnus, Miss Dora Henderson.
The teachers, Miss Lulu Potter.
Looking Backward, Miss Nellie West.
Looking Forward, Mr. William Duck-er.
A Teacher's View, Miss Celia A. Gorby.
Toasts were all given earnestly, aptly and to the point. After all had finished the elegant repast the '94s signed the constitution and became members of the Alumni. The following persons were present.—Messrs Ranny McNitt, Prof. G. M. Caster, Wm. Ducker, D. M. Garber, D. I. Pope, Fred Maurer, Bruce Payne, R. E. Pope, E. L. Cotting and E. J. Overing Jr. Mrs. Harley and Mrs. G. C. Case. Misses Celia Gorby, Ellen B. Atwater, Maude Greenlee, Lulu Potter, Nellie West, Dora Henderson, Mabel Day, Cora Garber, Rottia Abel, Bertha Brown, Susie Kenady, Alice Rensberg Caroline Johnson.

CHURCH MARRIAGE.—On last Sunday afternoon occurred at the Congregational church the marriage of Mr. Ed Dixon to Miss Mabel Truman, Rev. O. H. Truman, father of the bride, performing the marriage ceremony. The church was well filled with guests, and as this was the first church service of the kind that had ever occurred in Red Cloud, the citizens were quite eager to observe it. At a given moment Miss Maggie Campbell played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and shortly afterwards the young couple passed up the right aisle, arm in arm, and Rev. Truman met them at the chancel, where, in a very few but expressive words, made them man and wife. The young couple then received the congratulations of friends, after which they left for their home in the country. The groom is the son of Wm. Dixon, a well-to-do farmer living five and a half miles north of Red Cloud, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of O. H. Truman, editor of the Red Cloud Nation. THE CHIEF extends its congratulations to the young couple and wishes them much joy in their matrimonial voyage. On the following evening a large party of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon's young friends drove out to their home and gave them a jolly reception. It rained during the evening and the young folks had to stay all night. They report an excellent time.

A CLOSE CALL.—Last evening as T. W. Auld and Bernard McNeny were driving through the street with the former's horse and carriage, they met with a mishap which might have resulted seriously. As they turned the corner from Webster street into Fourth avenue, the wheels glanced the street car track, scaring the horse, which then started on the run and kicked over the dash-board at every jump. When the horse first started it turned sharply to the right, throwing McNeny out over the wheels. The runaway then ran into the weighing scales of Albright & Conover where the other occupant of the carriage, seeing that he could not gain control of the animal, concluded to jump. The horse then ran on through Fourth avenue out onto the main road, where he left the then shaftless buggy, and journeyed on eastward to Gus Roats', where he was captured and brought back to the city. Neither of the gentlemen were hurt very seriously but it was a close shave.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—On Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday the school board met and transacted business. The secretary was instructed to get the assessed valuation of the district for the purpose of making a levy. He was also instructed to see what could be done about refunding the $5000 bond coming due shortly. Bills to the amount of $46.80 were allowed. A reduction in salaries of teachers was authorized, to the extent of ten per cent. The board refused to accept of a proposition to put stone sidewalks around the buildings, as unnecessary at this time. On Thursday afternoon the board elected the following teachers: Miss Rhoda Waddell, Miss Williams, Miss Dora Henderson Miss Atwater, Mrs. E. J. Case, Miss Jennie Waddell, Ralph Pope, Miss Mary Nye, Miss Martha McCall, Miss Schaffin and Miss Ray Letson. Other business was transacted, after which the board adjourned.

EQUALIZING.—The board of equalization met this week and proceeded to fix up the assessment rolls of the city. A large number of our citizens were before the board asking for a reduction of assessment, and in a few cases they were reduced, but upon motion the assessment was allowed to stand. A large number of business men were cited to appear before the board to show cause why the assessments should not be raised. THE CHIEF can not see any particular good reason for having the business men hauled up before the board, for as a general thing they assess their property about right and especially in those hard times. The county board will meet next week for the same purpose.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met Wednesday in regular session, the Mayor and Aldermen all present. Clerk West presented a petition from Benj. Ludlow, asking a reduction in billiard license. The council refused to reduce. The annual estimate of expenses was read and ordered published. It will be found in another column. The council rejected the petition of N. Phelps, Peck and others to vacate streets and alleys in railway addition in blocks 14, 15 and 17. Bills were allowed as follows: Will West, $10.38; George Smelser, $24.75; George Miller, $15. Other business of minor importance was transacted.

THE A. O. U. W.—No last Tuesday evening the Ancient Order of United Workmen took in nine new members and initiated five, making a total of 198 members. This lodge is rapidly increasing and is one of the best mutual benefit societies extant, and much good is being bestowed upon the widows of its deceased members. Red Cloud lodge is one of the largest in the state of Nebraska, barring three or four others. The names of those initiated: Jacob Gard Jr. Thos. Kralik, Geo. Smelser, Frank Huffer and Dr. Fred McKeeby.
