

Beyond Description

Intense Suffering With Muscular Rheumatism.

"I hereby certify that for seven years I was troubled with my knee. I used prescriptions and liniments but all to no purpose. The trouble kept growing worse and the joints began to enlarge. My knee became almost stiff and pained me so I could not rest day and night. I had to use Crutches at times and often it would seem as if I would have to have my leg amputated as the pain became almost unendurable. I suffered beyond description. Finally, hearing of Hood's Sarsaparilla I concluded to try it. After I had taken one bottle I felt much better and after taking several bottles can truthfully say I am well."

My Knee Has Been Cured and that I can walk and go around as well as any one of my age. I am 63 years old and work my farm, and my ability to do so I attribute to the beneficial effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I advise all who are afflicted with rheumatism in any form to take Hood's Sarsaparilla."
MR. EARL BENEDICT, Stromsburg, Neb.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures Hood's Pills easy to buy, easy to take, easy in effect.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The republican party seems to be in the ascendant all over the country.

ABOUT twenty-six flourishing Nebraska towns voted Tuesday to do away with saloon license.

A BEAUTIFUL display of rhetoric and oratory was made in the senate Tuesday, in the effort to choose the floral emblem for Nebraska. The chosen emblem is "The Golden Rod."

The country continues to go republican. Every city and every village in the United States went republican Tuesday. Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Lincoln, and hosts of others.

The Hastings Nebraska passed peacefully away last week. The Nebraskan was extensively quoted, and generally considered quite substantial. There is now an opening for a daily in Hastings.

In the defeat of C. H. Potter for mayor the republicans upon whose ticket he was nominated have no less confidence or respect for him. Should he have been elected there is no doubt of his ability or intention to give us a good administration, and at some future time he will again be recognized for a position of prominence in the republican convention in this city.

Two Red Cloud editors are congratulating themselves over the fact that in Tuesday's election they each had a republican relative who got to the front in good shape. Bro. Warren of the Argus is a cousin of Mayor elect. Graham of Lincoln who won such a glorious victory, and the Chief editor will congratulate his cousin Robert McKisson, who was elected republican mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, by 7000 plurality. Robert is the youngest mayor ever elected mayor of Cleveland.

The governor has been vetoing several important bills that the republican legislature has passed and as a consequence the boys passed the bills over Gov. Holcomb's veto. It is all right for the governor to veto if he feels disposed but it does not seem proper that he should put his judgment against the entire legislature. The present legislature has passed several very important bills and much good work has been accomplished. They have retrenched expenses all along the line. During the session Webster county's delegation Messrs McKeeby, McNitt and Wilder have been progressive workers.

The New Mayor.

M. R. Bentley, the mayor-elect of Red Cloud, while not the candidate of the republican party in this city, prides himself on being a life-long and ardent supporter of republican principles and the republican party. His father before him was a stalwart republican, and the enthusiasm of the father in political matters transfused to the son, who he kept up the good work along that line. Mr. Bentley came to Red Cloud about 21 years ago, from Iowa, and has, during that period, been closely identified with the interests of Red Cloud, and is today one of our shrewdest business men, and heavily interested in Red Cloud enterprises and realty. He has made a success of his own business, and we believe he will make an able executive officer of our city. Mr. Bentley started in life a poor boy, but, by hard knocks and frugal industry, he has succeeded in gathering around him much of the world's goods, and if he administers the interests of the city as well as he has his own business, Red Cloud will be ably handled during his administration. We therefore make our bow to Mayor Bentley and wish him success.

D. of V. Entertainment.

On last Saturday night the daughters of veterans, composing Mary Sears McHenry Tent, reorganized and installed their officers, supplementing the affair with a very pleasant entertainment, luncheon and speech-making. At a proper time, Mrs. Gertrude Dickerson took charge of the meeting as installing officer and, after the ritualistic forms of the order, installed the following newly elected officers of the tent for the ensuing year, viz:
Pres., Belle Spanogle;
S. V., Edith Brown;
J. V., Dora Groat;
Chaplin, Alta Smelser;
Sec., Mabel Howard;
Treas., Bertha Talbot;
I. G., Jessie McKeighan;
G., Blanch Cummings;
Musician, Blanche Sellars;
Trustee, Gertrude Dickerson.

After the installation, some very excellent music was furnished by Messrs. Thad McNitt and Horace Spanogle, after which Hon. W. A. McKeighan addressed the audience in his usual pleasant manner, placing his subject on interesting events of late war.

Rev. J. A. Maxfield, who was also one of the boys who wore the blue, was called on and enthused the audience with topics touching on the stirring times of '61 '64.

Earl Pond delivered a most interesting parody on Barbara Fritchie that called down the house in uproarious laughter, while Harry Pond, our venerable water commissioner, gave Hoke (s) Myth "a bill in the eye."

Our reporter staid until supper was spread and then staid until it was finished, and then reluctantly turned homeward, vowing that he would always stay as long as there was anything to eat if he couldn't stay any longer.

Special Meeting of the Supervisors.

To the Members of the Board of Supervisors of Webster County, Nebraska: You are hereby called to meet at the county clerk's office Tuesday, April 9th, 1895, at 10 a. m. for the purpose of taking necessary steps to procure seed and feed with county funds, as set forth in a certain bill passed by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska, to audit claims and act on official bonds.

[SEAL] L. H. FORT, County Clerk,

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, Comrade H. Palmer of Jas. A. Garfield Post has fought life's battle, and weary of its burdens, has laid them down, and now sleeps in peace on the placid bosom of the silent sea that casts no wave. Therefore, be it
Resolved, That Jas. A. Garfield Post No. 50 has lost, in the death of Comrade Palmer, a beloved and useful member from its ranks, and extends to the family its sincere sympathy, in this, their sad hour of affliction.

Exposition Notes.

The Forestry exhibit at the Cotton States and International exhibition will be very complete.
The forest resources will be shown, aside from maps and charts, and other graphic illustrations, as to their amount and distribution, by a series of twenty monographic displays, showing each one of the economically important tree species which form the bulk of the lumber production of the South. Here will be seen, in monster frames, made of the trees themselves, a full description of the tree, in its foliage and fruit, its timber, its range of distribution, and all information desirable regarding the nature of the wood and its application in the arts.

Among other attractive features of the exhibit of the United States Fish Commission at the Cotton States and International Exposition the scientific investigations of the commission will be illustrated by casts of fish and other animals from life, and by collections of sponges, oysters and other shell fish, crabs, lobsters and shrimps, corals, sea lilies, sea pens and numerous other materials brought up in the dredging and trawling apparatus by the vessels of the Commission. The apparatus used in the collection of these objects will also be shown, as well as the complicated instruments accessory to the work of deep sea and inland investigation.

The committee on promotion for the woman's department of the Exposition have arranged a series of musicales in New York City, and in this way it is proposed to raise funds with which to prepare a creditable exhibit of woman's work for the metropolis.

In a letter discussing public questions Col. A. K. McClure, the veteran editor of the Philadelphia Times, who is on a southern tour, commends the Cotton States and International Exposition as follows:

"I hope Florida will make an earnest and united effort to aid the Atlanta Exposition. It should be a landmark in the history of southern progress, and every state south of the Potomac should make common cause in the great work. Great has been the advancement of the southern states during the last dozen years. You have hardly reached the beginning of the southern development and the Atlantic exposition should be made the most successful illustration of industrial possibilities and achievements in its reconstructed state."

Mr. T. C. DeLeon, who was in Atlanta the past week, has been appointed by the mayor of Mobile as the representative of that city at the Birmingham convention to provide an exhibit for Alabama at the Cotton States and International Exposition.

Mr. DeLeon has been interviewed by the Atlanta Constitution on the subject of a Carnival for the Exposition, and the idea has been endorsed by the Exposition Executive Committee.

Mr. Charles J. Foster, a distinguished mechanical engineer, who installed the machinery at the world's fair, has been engaged to do the same work for the Cotton States and International Exposition. He begins work at once.

Space has been granted to the Van Winkle company of Atlanta to erect and operate a cotton seed oil mill.

Sheriff Calloway, a famous connoisseur in barbecues, has applied for a concession to run a barbecue at the Cotton States and International Exposition. The barbecue is a favorite institution in Georgia, and the concession will doubtless be granted. Sheriff Calloway, who holds that office in Elbert county, is quite a character in Georgia, and may be described physically, as an enlarged edition of Joel Chandler Harris. He maintains that the true cuisine of the barbecue is a lost art, and he only lives to keep it from oblivion. The secrets of the chef are to be willed to his son.

An address to the colored people of the south has been issued by the colored commissioners of the Cotton States and International Exposition, setting forth the nature and purpose of the colored exhibit, and intended to stir up interest and enthusiasm among the negroes. The address is signed by the full committee of colored commissioners, and will be widely circulated among the negroes of the south.

In adding Sousa's band to the list of the great musical attractions to be given during the term of the Cotton States and International Exposition, the management has secured, for the charm of the visitors, what is probably the finest musical organization of its kind on earth. Beginning with the 18th of November, Sousa's band will furnish the music for the vast auditorium of the Exposition, until the close of the great Exposition, on the 31st day of December. During this time, millions of people will listen to this famous organization, and it will materially give its part among the pleasure giving features of the Exposition.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Deyo & Grice Druggist.

City Election.

Tuesday's election was fraught with nothing of blood-curdling importance. Some enthusiasm was exhibited in the contest for the majority, but, as a rule, men walked quietly to the Australian stalls and deposited their ballots without ado. The republican ticket was overwhelmingly victorious excepting the head, Mr. Potter being defeated by 12 votes.

Mayor-elect Bentley was serenaded by the band election night, and responded with a bright brief speech, and some exhilarating refreshments. The other successful candidates were also smoked out by the band, and each in turn treated the boys white. Following is the official count, showing the majorities:

A wandering refugee from everywhere, driving a dilapidated team of horses hitched to a prairie schooner that had seen the sands of many countries, drove into Red Cloud Wednesday and anchored off Goble's island. The crew composing, man and wife, came on shore and spying a handsome crib of seed corn on Mr. Goble's premises called on that gentleman for enough golden grain to drown the present hunger of his transparent outfit. The generous Goble supplied the wanderer with a sufficiency of that cereal and then asked him where he was from. "No where," was the rejoinder. How old are you? "About fifty years." Haven't you any home asked the genial questioner? In very sad tones, verging on the excruciating the man replied; "Oh, no! my father and mother are dead," and then in tones of pity Harry wanted to know why his father didn't adopt the poor orphans, and the ex-arderman fainted. It was too much for his strong nerves even to see a man of such tender years left to the cold mercies of an uncharitable world, and if the fellow had not suddenly driven away Fred would have adopted the whole shooting match.
