DEFENSE FOR WALLER.

The Ex-Consul's American Counsel Makes Out a Strong Case.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Mr. Crammond Kennedy, who has become the principal counsel in the case of ex-Consul Waller, now serving a sentence in a French jail for violation of neutrality laws between this country and France, called at the state department yesterday for the purpose of presenting certain phases of the case.

Mr. Kennedy is disposed to lay much stress on the fact that at the time of Waller's arrest, there was no actual state of war between France and Madagascar. He contends that Waller, for this reason, could not have been guilty of the charge on which he was tried and convicted. In conversation with a representative of the press he said this phase of the case had not yet been presented by this government, and as soon as Mr. Olney should return he would present the matter to him in this light.

For more than a hundred years the Shakers have been studying remedial properties of plants. They have made many discoveries, but their greatest achievement was made last year. It was a cordial that contains already digested food and is a digester of food. It is effective in removing distress after eating, and creates an appetite for more food, so that eating becomes a pleasure. Pale, thin people become plump and healthy under its use. It arrests the wasting of consumption. There never has been such a step forward in the cure of indigestion as this Shaker Cordial. Your druggist will be glad to give you a little book descriptive of the product.
