THIEVES GET AWAY WITH $14,000 IN BONDS AND STAMPS.

BOLD RAID BY CRACKSMEN.

The Watchman Beat into Insensibility and Then the Vault Was Entered— Unable to Open the Safe Which Contained Several Thousand Dollars—The Bonds All Numbered.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 10.—Robbers made a raid on the State National Bank at Savannah, Mo., sixteen miles from here, last night. They beat the night watchman into insensibility and then effected an entrance into the vault. They secured about $300 worth of stamps belonging to the postoffice, but were unable to open the safe which contained several thousand dollars.

In the private boxes connected with the vault the robbers found $14,000 in bonds, which they carried away with them. The bonds were numbered from 120,733 to 130,744 inclusive and numbers 114,191 and 114,192. The coupons on the bonds due January 1, 1896, had not been detached.

FLED FROM TRANSVAAL.

Michigan Miners Refused to Take Arms Against the Boer Government.

Insonwood, Mich., Feb. 10.—Captain W. H. Knight and his party, who left here last spring for the gold fields of South Africa, have returned home unexpectedly. Two weeks before Jameson's raid into the Transvaal the officers of the mining companies were smuggling rifles and ammunition into the country in the bottom of coke cars. Tuesday, December 31, the mines were shut down and the men were ordered to take guns and ammunition and be prepared to march to Johannesburg by 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Michigan men refused to obey the order and they were informed that they must take up arms against the Boer government or leave the mines. Captain Knight and party left at once and were just over the line in the Orange Free state when the battle between the Boers and Dr. Jameson occurred. Many miners, says Captain Knight, were forced into taking up arms by the officials, who shut up all the boarding houses and bought all the available provisions and literally starved the men into accepting their terms.

The Michigan men say that John Hays Hammond deserves no sympathy.

Baker of Franklin and Goodno of Bourbon want the State convention to endorse Cyrus Leland for national committee man.

The report contains very elaborate data respecting the work already done by the company, the physical characteristics of the country, the dangers to be met, the weak points to be overcome, and various other detailed statistical information. The report treats the canal question under three divisions, viz: The eastern, Greytown harbor; the lake and river division, from Ochoa to the west side of Lake Nicaragua; and the western division, from Lake Nicaragua to the Pacific ocean. GOOD FOR BUSINESS.

The Success of the Bond Issue Has a Wholesome Effect on Trade.

New York, Feb. 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "The wonderful success of the popular loan alters the face of events. The influence of this event upon all manufacturing and all trade can not be lightly estimated. It strips the silver agitation of all its power to hurt. It puts the Treasury on a safe basis for the time, whether Congress does anything useful or not. It notifies foreign nations that the United States has power as well as purpose. It unlocks millions of gold which have been gathered in preparation, brings directly several millions of gold from Europe and stimulates the anxiety of foreign investors to obtain American securities."

PRIZE FIGHT SITUATION.

GOVERNOR THORNTON ACCUSED OF AIDING DAN STUART.

DELEGATE CATRON TALKS.

Declares That the New Mexico Executive Stands in With the Pugilistic Carnival Crowd and Does Not Intend to Enforce the Law—The Governor's Action Indicated as Much.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Delegate Catron of New Mexico is greatly displeased over the assertion that he has been acting under the advice of Governor Thornton of New Mexico in his efforts to prevent prize fighting in the Territory. Mr. Catron not only denies that he has received the governor's co-operation, but makes the direct charge that the Governor abetted Dan Stuart in his efforts to pull off the fight.

Mr. Catron gave the following to the press: "The statement has been published substantially that the action taken by me on the prize fighting bill was on the advice and as the request of Governor Thornton. Governor Thornton never consulted with me, never advised me nor requested me to do anything in regard to that subject. From information which I have received from New Mexico I believe that Governor Thornton, while pretending that he would like to stop the fight, was actually acting in collusion with Dan Stuart in order to have the fight come off; had advised Stuart that there was no law in New Mexico which would enable him or the authorities to stop the fight, and substantially informed Stuart that the fight might go on, although he could not openly consent. As soon as the bill had been signed last night the officials here telegraphed the United States attorney in New Mexico to see that the law was enforced."

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 10.—Governor Thornton was here last night and left this morning for Santa Fe. The Governor arrived from Las Cruces on the train that brought Peter Maher to town and, curiously enough, the pair took the same train out here. Sheriff Asasca, who accompanied the fighters to El Paso, returned to Las Cruces, and was advised by the Governor that his vigilance was unnecessary, as the Federal Government had relieved him of all responsibility in the matter. Just where the governor obtains this interpretation of the law is not known here, lawyers arguing that under the new Federal act the Government must be called upon by the local territorial governors for assistance in suppressing fights before the troops can be ordered out.

Horace Leeds, the Atlantic City man, who is to meet Jack Everhardt, arrived this morning with Captain Glori and now every fighter who is to take part in the six battles is on the ground. Sam Austin, of New York, temporary stakeholder, wires that he will turn over the money insuring the parties to Stakeholder Lawler at Houston to-morrow morning. George Siler, the referee, will arrive this morning from Chicago.

WILL FIGHT IN MEXICO.

On the 4,000 Acre Ranch of Dr. Alexander, a Retired Army Officer.

DALLAS, TEXAS, Feb. 10.—A gentleman whose name cannot be given, but who is as close to Dan Stuart as any man living, said to-day: "The Maher-Fitzsimmons fight will take place on the estate of Dr. Alexander, a retired United States army surgeon, who has one of the finest grape vineyards in Mexico, located four miles from El Paso. This estate consists of 4,000 acres of land in a body. Part of it is located on the disputed international boundary line, and is not yet under the jurisdiction of either Mexico or the United States."

"Dr. Alexander is not only willing that the fight should come off on his property, but his eldest son is a business partner of Dan A. Stuart on the Board of Trade at Dallas, where the stock, bond, cotton and produce market quotations of the world are posted. "This son of Dr. Alexander made the arrangements for the fight to come off on the Alexander estate, and he declares that no Mexican authorities will interfere against the protest of his father and himself, who will do what they please on their property until the question of national jurisdiction is settled."

Dan A. Stuart sent this telegram from El Paso to W. G. Crush, general passenger agent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad company at Dallas: "There is no change in my program. The Maher-Fitzsimmons contest will positively take place on the morning of February 14."

CRISIS IN CUBA.

Decisive Results Anticipated on the Island Before the End of March.

HAVANA, Feb. 10.—The public apprehension and the gravity of the situation on this island can hardly be overstated. There is a consensus of opinion that a crisis is at hand. Gen. Weyler has left Porto Rico for Havana. It is not alone the approach of the new commander-in-chief that causes anxiety and intensifies feeling, but the general consciousness that the military, political and financial strain is too severe to last long.

The Spanish opinion is that real war is about to be made, and that in a brief campaign it will be shown that the march of the insurgents through the island could not have happened if the regular army had been actively handled.

The Cubans claim that they grow stronger in the field and that the rebel forces are being strengthened by bands from the east that will balance the additional troops from Spain. It would be vain to assert individual views as to the value of these claims. One thing is certain, the concentration of the armies in the Province of Havana promises combats of increasing importance and decisive results before the end of March.

The excitability of the sympathizers with the insurgents about General Weyler is almost incredible. His coming is a nightmare to the Cuban autonomists, who anticipate relentless persecution and are largely, according to their ability, taking refuge in the States.

SLID DOWN SIX STORIES.

McKeesport Printers Have a Narrow Escape From Death—One Dead.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 10.—An early morning fire at McKeesport, Pa., resulted in the loss of one life and the destruction of property worth $200,000. The fire started on the fifth floor of the Altmeyer building, and is supposed to have been caused by defective electric light wiring. The flames were discovered by the printers of the McKeesport Herald as the fire began to eat its way through the sixth floor. The night's work had just been finished and the paper was about to go to press. When the flames were seen a rush was made for the usual point of egress, but the stairways were impassable. The only resources left were the windows and the rope in the elevator shaft. All except G. M. Barton, the foreman of the composing room, succeeded in sliding down the rope. His escape was cut off and he was burned to death.

The flames spread to the adjoining buildings before they were extinguished. The loss to the Altmeyer building and the Herald plant is estimated at $175,000, and on the other buildings, $25,000.

MARRIED HER CHOICE.

A Nebraska Resorts to Habeas Corpus Proceedings to Secure His New Wife.

YORK NEB., Feb. 10.—Judge Bates of this place has issued a writ of habeas corpus, commanding the superintendent of the State Industrial School for Girls, to deliver to the local authorities the body of Anna Louisa James, a McPherson county young woman, alleged by her husband to be unjustly confined at the institution under the name of Anna Louisa Clouse. The girl was sent to the school on her parent's representation that she was incorrigible. In the application for the writ it is alleged that her incorrigibility lay in her refusal to marry the man selected for her by her parents, and her action in marrying instead one of her own choice. Considerable interest is manifested in the case owing to the unusual law point involved.

SIXTEEN WERE PRESENT.

HOUSE OPENS PROCEEDINGS WITH A MEAGER ATTENDANCE.

SILVER DEBATE STILL ON.

Bartlett of Georgia, Scores the Gold Democrats for Defeating Bland, General Hatch, and Other White Metal Leaders—Situation in Kentucky Referred to—Interesting Discussion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—There were sixteen members on the floor and nineteen spectators in the galleries when the House opened at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The legislative day of yesterday still continued as the House had been in recess over night.

Mr. Corliss of Michigan and Mr. Boatner of Louisiana spoke in favor of non-concurrence, and Mr. Milner of Michigan and Mr. Bartlett of Georgia in favor of concurrence in the Senate free silver substitute.

While Mr. Bartlett was speaking Mr. Boatner, by a reference to the defeat of "Silver Dollar" Bland, General Hatch and other silver leaders, drew an indignant protest against the treacherous manner in which the gold Democrats had stabbed in the back Democratic candidates who differed with them. "Witness," said he contemptuously, "the Democratic scene daily being enacted in Kentucky. When did it become Democratic doctrine to defeat Democratic candidates?"

"The situation in Kentucky," replied Mr. Boatner, "illustrates the destroying effect of Democrats refusing to stand by the party platform. If the silver Democrats would abide by the declaration of the party made in convention we would not to-day be threatened with the loss of a senator from that State."

"We are threatened with the loss of a senator in Kentucky," retorted Mr. Bartlett, "because men who are not in the majority seek to control. I want to say that whether in the majority or minority, wherever the Democratic flag floats there will be my stand."

"If the Democratic national convention adopts a gold platform and nominates a gold candidate," interposed Mr. Skinner, North Carolina, Republican, "will you support the ticket?"

"I will vote for any man," replied Mr. Bartlett, "whom the majority of the Democrats nominate in convention."

"Then you are willing to sacrifice the interests of the people on the altar of party?"

"I am willing to forego temporarily the consummation of what must eventually come and can only come through the Democratic party."

THE PANAMA CANAL.

Consul General Vifquain Makes a Report to the State Department.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—A report has been made to the State department by United States Consul General Vifquain at Panama, upon the business of the Panama railroad and the prospects of the canal. He shows that there is a small but steady increase in the number of American steamers anchoring at Panama. They carry twice as much cargo as all the other steamers. In five years the number of arrivals of American vessels has increased from fifty-five to eighty-one, while the arrivals of English steamers in the same time increased from seventy-two to only eighty-four.

The consul general says the trade across the isthmus would be much larger if the railroad rates were lower. Mr. Vifquain says: "Under a foreign ownership and a foreign management, the American corporation known as the Panama Railroad company will continue to thrive whether there be a canal or not, greatly to the detriment of American interests, commercial and international, inasmuch as European tendencies seem bent, either for self-preservation or international jealousy, to undermine and destroy the United States prestige in this part of the world. My firm belief is that there will be a canal built within the next decade."

The Ohio Republican Convention Will Meet March 10—Forsaker Chairman.

PATOCOGUA, L. I., Feb. 10.—After a consultation with Captain Williamson, sailing master of the tug Luckenbach, Captain Duff of the Lamington decided to scuttle his vessel, which has been on the rocks since last Tuesday. Captain Williamson with great difficulty made his way to the engine room and opened the sea valves. The steamer now lies about 100 yards from shore, with her nose pointing northwest. She is full of water and the cargo is ruined.

JACKSON'S CONFESSION.

The Alleged Murderer of Pearl Bryan Makes Another Confession.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 10.—Scott Jackson yesterday sent for a friend to whom he said: "Waiting once I told me that he at one time betrayed. May Smith. He said he had performed a criminal operation on her and it had been successful and that the Smith girl had subsequently went to Louisville and the thing was hushed up. When Wood told me Pearl Bryan's lamentable plight I suggested waiting. I was in Greencastle then. On my return I talked to Walling and he said he would perform the operation on Miss Bryan. Now, I can't tell you the rest. Send for Brother Tibbitts, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. I will tell all to him."

Tibbitts came and prayed with the prisoner. Later Tibbitts wrote the confession as it was dictated by Jackson, but the latter signed it, as follows: "Here, with the Bible in my hand, on my knees before God, I swear I was not guilty of murdering that poor girl. I did get her to come to Cincinnati to undergo an operation. Walling was to get $50 for performing it, but not for murdering that poor girl. I don't know where he killed her, or how he killed her, or what he did with her after he killed her. I did not kill the poor girl. He is the guilty man. Will Woods was to send $50 to him through me for performing the operation. This is the truth, so help me God."

WANT NO HAIR CUT.

Proclamation Abolishing Queues Causes a Revolt in Corea.

YOKOHAMA, Feb. 10.—Of the many changes introduced in quick succession in Corea, the recent adoption of the Western method of hair dressing has attracted most attention. The king recently issued a proclamation urging the sacrifice of the queues, and set the example by having his own hair cut, the prince royal following suit.

The proclamation created consternation in both official and private circles. The minister of education resigned and retired to his country home when his protests at the innovation were disregarded. Many lesser government officials also resigned rather than sacrifice their locks. The proclamation excited alarm among the people at large, but at each of the four gates of the capital constables are posted to await the coming of country people and to compel them to submit to the barbers, who are in waiting to cut their hair. Western hats and coats are generally adopted by those who lose their queues.

In the rural district the Coreans have broken out into actual rebellion at the proclamation. Many local governors have resigned their posts, owing to their unwillingness to cut off their queues. Several hundred people have fled to the mountains and as many more are under arms, preparing to attack the Corean troops.
