VERY BOLD ASSASSINS

PRESIDENT MORAE'S NAR-ROW ESCAPE.

The Brother of Brazil's Chief Magistrate Receives a Soldier's Thrust in the Head -The War Minister Shot Dead Deed Committed in Public

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 8 .- Thousands of people gathered yesterday afternoon about the murine arsenal to witness the extension of public thanks to Rear Admiral Barboza and the troops who had returned by steamer from Canudos, where they had unnihilated the Conselheiro fanatics. Many members of Congress and persons high in milltary, naval and ecclesiastical circles were present and before them all stood President Pondete Jos Moraes, with his brother, Colonel Moraes, by his side and a brilliant gathering Ohio senator. about him. The people were cheering and all was as bright as it could be.

a few minutes after he was taken into the palace.

In the meantime, fearing a possible attack on the palace, President Moraes ordered that the crowd be dispersed. This the troops finally sucseeded in doing, though a serious conflict at one time seemed likely, swing to an attempt to lynch the president's assailant.

The news of the affair spread with remarkable rapidity, and within ten minutes the city was in a fever of exrife on all sides and there seemed good reason to fear an uprising. In order to avoid a possibility of this. orders were issued from the palace calling all troops in the city to arms and declaring the city under martial

The attempt to kill the president and the killing of the minister of war, it is believed by many, were prompted by monarchial sympathizers. Another theory is that they were the results of the intense feeling aroused by the proposed arbitration treaty with France. Still another theory is that the followers of Antonio Conselheiro, the leader of the fanatical movement, who was recently killed in Canudos, have entered Rio Janeiro to strike their first blow for revenge.

The soldier who tried to kill Pres ident Moraces is under arrest. He belongs to the Tenth battalion. He has refused to give any reason for his attempt. The person who shot General Bethencourt is unknown and no one knows whence came the fatal bullet.

Hanna's Supporters to Take No Chances-More Anti-Hanna Talk

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 8 -Since It seems to be settled that the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot the rumors have been revived about a combine of certain Republican members with the seventy Democratic members for the election of some one other than Senator Hanna on the joint ballot. Mr. Hanna was indersed at the last state convention for the Senate, but the old factional fight that formerly existed between Sherman and Foraker, and later between the friends of McKinley and Foraker, has been revived this year with as much intensity as ever, and it is said that about a dozen of the Republican members who had some facespecially for their nominations, do not feel kindly towards the junior Amid the uproar that follewed a voice was heard crying: 'Why should the nation glorify its executioner? What has Weyler done beyond sending us back thousands of dying soldiers?" The police had to disperse the meeting. It is reported that pubtional opposition in their counties, lie feeling in Santander is in a very excited state.

"The correspondent in Cubs of the Imparcial cables his paper that General Weyler handed over matters to General Blanco in a state of chaos, and that beyond doubt he is preparing a party to oppose the Liberal government. It is understood that Senor Romero Robledo on Monday will make an important speech. As he is considered to have broken away from the Conservative party and to be closely allied with the presumptive policy of General Weyler, his movements and words are regarded with some anxiety.

PENSION REPORT.

976,014 Names on the Rolls -No Decrease Has Yet Begun-

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. -In his first annual report Commissioner of Pensions H. Clay Evans says there were added to the rolls during the year the names of 50,101 new pensioners and there were restored to the rolls 3,971 pensioners who had previously been iropped, a total of 54,072.

During the same period the losses to the roll were 31,960 by death, 1,074 by remarriage of widows and mothers, .845 by legal limitation (minors); 2,683 for failure to claim pension for hree years, and 4,560 for other causes, an aggregate of 41,122.

The whole number of pensioners on the rolls June 20, 1897, was 976,014 The gain over the previous year was 5,336. It will thus be seen that the pension roll has not yet begun to show any diminution, though it has been anticipated for several years.

HIS LAST HOPE GONE.

NO FEDERAL COURT AID TO DURANT.

Chief Justice Fuller Renders the Decision Which Will Result in the Young San Francisco Man Paying the Penalty for the Church Murder.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.-The United States supreme court to-day affirmed the decision of the United States circuit court of California, refusing a writ of habens corpus to William Henry Theodore Durrant, under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Blanche Lamont in the Emanuel Baptist church in San Francisco in April,

The decision was in response to the motion of Attorney General Fitzgerald of California, entered last Monday. to dismiss the case or affirm the decision of the court below and of course relieve the court from the necessity of deciding the case on its merits next Monday, as at first arranged.

Chief Justice Fuller, in rendering the opinion of the ceurt, indulged in no comment whatever beyond remarking that the order of the circuit court was affirmed upon the authority of the decisions of the court in the case of Hurtado vs. California, volume 110 of the supreme court reports: Nordstrom vs. Washington, volume 164 of these reports and of Cremer vs. Washington, recently decided.

Attorney General Fitzgerald was present in the court room when the opinion was rendered, and said that it would insure Durrant's punishment and was in all respects satisfactory to the state.

The court granted the motion of the state attorney general to advance the cases on Hill and Cross, the two men under sentence of death in California, fixing the date for their hearing upon the first Monday of December.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9 - When the aews that the United States supreme court had decided not to interfere with Durrant's sentence came crowds gathered about the newspaper bulletin boards. The decision was not unexpected and apparently only Durrant and his attorneys seemed to have any hope that the murderer would be saved from the gallows.

Durrant had not been informed of the decision at noon. His parents were notified of the court's decision and were deeply affected. Mrs. Durrant wept, but said that her son was innocent and that she did not yet give up hope that he would be vindicated and his innocence proved.

District Attorney Barnes, who conducted the original trial, was much pleased with the decision. He was convinced that Durrant committed the murders and had chafed at the delay in carrying out the sentence. He said that Durrant would not have to be resentenced, that all that was necessary would be for the district attorney, when he received official notice of the decision, to go into court and ask for an order to carry out the sen-During the same period 76,234 claims tence and that a day be fixed for it.

CHINESE REPLACE MINERS

Right Hundred Celestials Take Places

of Strikers in Illinois Coal Mines. CHICAGO, Itl., Nov. 9. - Chinese coal miners are to take the place of Americans in the Northern Itlinois district. An attempt will be made to break the strike that exists and 800 skilled Celestials have been picked for the work.

They will bear arms, and live inside s gatting-gun equipped stockade and be bodyguarded by 100 former Chicago policemen.

An agent of the Chinese Six Companies was in Chicago last week and made a contract with the Wilmington Coal company to deliver the 800 Chinamen at the mines of the Wilmington-Braidwood district. The first conalgument of 200 will arrive next Tuesthe additional restrictions that are to granted to the widow of any soldier day, and the others will be on hand as soon as provision can be made to take care of them. Arrangements for an additional 1,000 Chinese miners have been made, conditional on the success of the first venture.

Elaborate preparations have been completed to take care of the first 800 Chinamen and give them ample protection. Though every precaution has been taken to keep the details of the movement of the Chinese miners secret, it is now definitely known that all are skilled miners from Wyoming, and that some of them are the survivors of the Rock Spring massacre of several years ago. Some of them have been working in the Wyoming mines as long as twenty-eight years, and though they have been peaceful and lawabiding all of this time, they are not the docile human beings that their countrymen resident in Eastern cities are usually considered. They are all supposed to be fully cognizant of the troubles they are likely to encounter and are competent to handle the arms with which they are to be equipped.

ALEUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 9.-The passenger train of the Santa Fe which was held up at Grant's Station Saturday night, reached the city at 11:36 o'clock Sunday morning. Conductor Aldrich states that just as the train came to a halt at Grant's Station a fusilade of shots rang out, and as far as he could see several men boarded the train, one on the engine. He and disasters. Engineer H. D. McCarty were on the platform, but ran and caught the train as it was moving out. The fireman, Henry Abel, was compelled, at the point of a revolver, to pull the train up to the stock yards, about two miles distant.

In the meantime, however, the robbers, who wore false beards and were unmasked, cut the mail coach, day coach, chair car, and the Pullman sleeper from the engine and express car, and the fireman was again ordered to pull the latter further up the road. They commenced dynamiting the express car, and the third explosion blew out one end of the car. Abel being forced to assist the robbers.

Once inside they picked out a safe, which they surmised contained considerable money and valuables, and placed on it a stick of dynamite, a few lumps of coal on the dynamite and then attached a fuse, which they lit and blew a hole in the safe. They helped themselves to a number of packages containing gold and silver coin, which they placed in a suck, and then left the car, going in the direction of the Malpoi rocks, where their horses were picketed

The express car was on fire, and Abel thoroughly frightened, and after seeing the robbers at a safe distance, death. Forger J. A. Thomas Escapes Again-The Third Time

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 9. - J. A. Thomas, the forger who mysteriously escaped from jail here April 15 and was recaptured by local police and Pinkerton detectives at Moberly, Mo., October 7. again escaped before daylight this morning by sawing iron bars and scaling a wall, a rope for the latter purpose as well as a saw for the former, having been furnished from the outside. The community is much excited because Thomas is so well known, although the recent escape is not nearly so sensational as its prede-

The escape was Thomas's third, his first having been from a Chicago jait, when wide attention was attracted. Another exploit which contributed considerably to his notoriety was his claudestine marriage at St. Louis to Miss Fannie Rutherford of Minneapolis, Minn., and his flight with his bride to San Francisco after the Christian Endenvorers last summer. But Thomas is most widely known by his forgeries, which have been extensive.

Later this morning three other prisoners escaped through the breach made by Thomas in the bars.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9.-The steamer Idaho of the Western Transit line (New York Central) foundered in eight fathous of water at 4:30 Saturday morning off Long Point on Lake Erie. This point, just out into the lake from the Canadian shore about 65 miles west of Buffalo and its vicinity, has been the scene of many

The Idaho, commanded by Captain William Gillies of Buffalo, and having on board a crew of twenty-one all told, left Buffalo Friday afternoon laden with package freight for Milwankee. A strong southwest gale was blowing at the time and The conductor, fully realizing that the weather office had storm something was wrong, left the train signals up for the lake. Captain Gillies thought he could weather the had ordered the train stopped, and ran gale and headed straight up the lake. Shortly after passing Long Point he run for shelter. The sea was running very high at the time, and in turning the Idaho shipped a big sea, which quenched the fires in the engines and the boat was helpless in the trough of the sea.

The captain and erew were lowering the lifeboat, when the steamer gave a lurch and went down on her side, stern first. Two of the erew, a deck hand named William Gill of Rochester, and the second mate, name unknown, managed to reach the top of a single spar that stood above the water. There they clung until eight hours later, when they were rescued by the Mariposa.

The captain of the ill-fated steamer, Alexander Gillis, was one of the most widely known of lake seamen. He was 41 years old and knew the lake waters like a book.

The second mate, Louis La Force, told a harrowing story to the crew of the Mariposa. He said that in the rush of men from the hold, one of them, a watchman, was trampled to out of the place. Six or eight, he said,
