UNITED STATES PIPE LINE GOES TO COURT.

Conspiracy to Ruin It's Business is Charged, and Damages to the Amount of $658,440 is Asked-Defendants Make Answer and Intimate Blackmail.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27. - Papers were filed to-day in the United States circuit court in a suit brought by the United States Pipe Line company against the Standard Oil company, the New York Transit company, the Pennsylvania Railroad company, the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and Erie Railroad companies, the Tidewater Pipe company, the National Transit company, William T. Wardwell, John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, Henry II. Rogers, Henry M. Fingler, John D. Archbold, O. B. Jennings and Wesley H. Tilford. Conspiracy is charged and damages amounting to $655,446 with interest and $10,000 as attorneys' fees are asked for.

The pipe line alleges that the conspiracy has been in existence since January, 1882, and prevents any persons or corporations other than the defendants from storing and transporting oil and conducting operations incident to that business. This has been done, it is alleged, by suits and injunctions and the publication of defamatory statements regarding the United States Pipe Line company, reflecting upon its management and financial responsibility and by destroying of its pipes and by inducing employes of the company to setray their trust.

The defendents in their answers make general denials of the charges and intimate that the pipe line was not organized for the storing and transporting of oil as a common car-

NOSTARVATION IN DAWSON

Late Arrivals Bring Brighter Reports-Had a Hard Trip Out.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 27.-Among the passengers from Dawson who same down on the City of Seattle are Colonel Lamphere and Mr. Gregory of Chicago, D. P. Quinlan of Seattle, T. Gardner of Oconomowoc, Wis., and T. B. Denny of Roselin, Wash. Quinlan, Bardner and Denny came out rom Dawson, having left that place November 4. They walked all the way and carried their food on their backs and on sleds. They occupied a little more than forty days on the trip. Gardner says nobody is going to starve in Dawon this winter. There will be a shortage of some supplies, such as four and coffee, but there is a great abundance and plenty of other food to last everybody in camp all winter. Gardner and his companions made the trip out without any trouble, although at times it was 65 below zero.

This was on the exposed mountain tops and did not last long or cause them any inconvenience. These men

NEW YORK, Dec. 27. - A special to the Herald from Washington says: The Russian government will begin next spring upon a stupendous piece of engineering work, which, like the trans-Siberian railroad, will be of great strategic and commercial value to her when completed.

The project contemplates the construction of a canal connecting the Baltic and Black seas, which can be traversed by battle ships of the heavlest tonnage at six knots per hour. By means of this canal Russia will be able to mobilize a huge fleet in the Baltic in 167 hours by bringing to that sea the Black sea squadron or can collect in the Black sea in the same time the Baltic and Black sea fleets. In case of a general European war over the division of China at the time of the completion of the canal it would not be difficult for Russia to send her fleet through the Bosphorus, the Sea of Marmora and the Dardanelles into the Mediterranean, down the Suez canal, across the Indian ocean to China, while she could utilize the trans-Siberian railroad to transport troops. The canal will remove the necessity of sending a fleet across the North sea and down the Atlantic in order to reach the Mediterranean and through that sea reach the Suez canal and China, and it was pointed out that in case of war Great Britain or Germany would take measures to see that the Russian fleet did not pass through their waters without a hard struggle."

William Singerly Makes a Fiedge to Bank Creditors.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27. - The Record publishes the following editorial this morning:

"To the Public: The Record is compelled to make a painful personal announcement this morning. Owing to the financial embarrassment of Mr. William M. Singerly, president of the Record Publishing company, the Chestnut Street National bank and the Chestnut Street Trust and Savings Fund company were obliged to suspend business yesterday.

"A complete statement of the conlition of the Chestnut Street National bank will soon by available. It is probable that such arrangements will be perfected as will enable the bank to liquidate its obligations wiffout the necessity or delay of a receivership. In the Record property Mr. Singerly has a valuable asset. The carnings of this journal during the year 1895, in excess of all expenditure, were $310,000. With such a money maker to fall back upon, and with a grim determination to pay every dollar he owes, he hopes to redeem his credit and satisfy his creditors."

MAKES A STATEMENT TO THE GOVERNOR.

Claims He Does Not Owe the State $5,000 and Insists the Alleged Shortage Was Mostly Mistakes of the Expert Silver-Alleged Blunders Pointed Out.

John T. Mallalieu, ex-superintendent of the Kearney industrial school has filed a report with Governor Holcomb in reply to a report from the legislative committee The committee report was the work of W. N. Silver of Wahoo, secretary. In it Mr. Mallalieu was charged with nearly $5,000 which the accountant declared was received by him but not accounted for.

Mr. Mallulieu's report covers fifteen type written pages. It points out errors made by the accountant and proves it to be utterly worthless. According to Mr. Mallalieu's own report he has failed to account for $265.10. In arriving at this result he has credited himself with many items not charged to him in the investigating committee's report. Some of these items he proposes to investigate further.

In the absence of any dates showing where the investigating committee beyears, or at the time he first began to inasmuch as the committee's report ays particular stress upon this subject. There was no place to keep accounts except in what is known as the lockup on the top floor of the executive building. The roof was taken off this building in 1895. Thereafter the attic rooms were cleaned up and Mr. Mallalieu believes many of the papers, checks and receipts were undoubtedly destroyed, and evidently among them the cash book, inasmuch as dilligent search has been made for it and other documents that are missing and cannot be found. Mr. Mallalieu does not wish to take refuge behind technicalities and he has endeavored to make a statement of the manner in which moneys have been expended.

In closing Mr. Mallalieu states that he has been as zealous in trying to find debits as to find credits.

"It has not been a question of dollars and cents," he says in his report, 'but of sustaining a reputation for honor and integrity."
